Billy Again.

Billy Noonan of the Baudette Region took a whack at a contributor of The Northern News of Spooner last week:

"Last week Steward L. Woodford of Faunce took up a column of the Northern News space to tell the world his blistering opinion of the Region editor.

"Mr. Woodford was as crabby as a bed bug in a burning boarding house because the editor of this sheet has been boosting for a railroad to Kelliher.

"We plead guilty to the charge, but where Mr. Woodford gets the comical idea that we haven't been boosting for a railroad to Thief River is beyond our mental grasp.

"If he were older and could stretch his memory back far enough he would find that the Region was boosting for a road to Thief River about the time operations for appendicitis were discovered.

"And that was many a long day before Mr. Woodford ever set foot in Lake of the Woods county.

"His hope for a road to Thief River is a laudable one, and we hope he gets his hope but when he starts to knock the Kelliher route, which would give the farmers a direct route to the Twin City markets he is as wrong as a two foot yard stick.

"If Stewart will continue to boost for his Thief River road he will be on the right track. But when he starts in to ridicule and knock a project dear to the hearts of hundreds of homesteaders he is as far from the boosting spirit of this new country as the kaiser is from heaven."

Equity Packing Plant of Fargo Declared Bankrupt

The Equity Packing company of Fargo has gone into voluntary bankruptcy and follows the petition made last week by C. W. Richert, president of the company, declaring the company to be insolvent.

The assets of the concern are set at $142,573.61 with liabilities of $155,241.91.

A number of residents of this section had purchased stock in the Equity concern.

Creamery Association Sets Shipment Record

The New York office of the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries' association in July, handled 247 cars of butter for member creameries. This is 25 cars more than had been handled in any previous 30-day period. In addition to these cars, which contained over 7,000,000 pounds of butter, the office handled 5,600 cases of eggs. The new Chicago office of the association handled its first car late in August.

A Record Wheat Yield.

What is said to be Ohio's record wheat yield was made this year, by Charles Karns, a Miami county farmer, who produced 527 bushels of wheat on 10 acres, an average of nearly 53 bushels per acre.

He grows potatoes (or corn), wheat and clover in rotation. Thus potatoes preceded this unprecedented wheat crop. The clover, before the potatoes, had a dressing of manure, and when turned under, 500 pounds of fertilizer per acre were applied for potatoes. After digging that crop, the field was double disked and dragged and wheat seeded the first week in October, with 200 pounds per acre of a 2-10-2 fertilizer. Two bushels per acre of certified Gladden seed were used.

"Good seed, good cultural practices, legumes, manure, fertilizer, proper seeding," is Mr. Karn's program of wheat culture.

Red Lake Falls Auto Tour.

The Red Lake Falls Automobile club will tour this year to Warroad and Lake of the Woods Sunday, Sept. 1. An easy schedule will be followed which will allow plenty of time to reach Warroad by noon. One of the features of the trip is a boat ride on Lake of the Woods.

WILD DRIVING RUNS UP ROAD ACCIDENTS

Recklessness and Speeding to Blame For Big Percentage of Casualties, State Shows.

Thirty persons killed and 225 injured in 256 accidents in 60 days—this is the showing in a state highway bulletin this week, based upon reports from newspapers, including The Times, and from patrolmen and other field employees over the 7,000-mile trunk highway system. A map showing where the accidents occured will be displayed by the highway department in the state departments exhibit building at the state fair next week.

The warning lesson shows that in 126 or almost exactly half the accidents listed and which resulted in the deaths of 18 persons and serious injuries to 89 others, the mishaps were caused by reckless driving. Speeding is blamed for 88 accidents in which 10 persons were killed and 82 others were injured. Faulty headlights, either out or blinding, caused 30 smash-ups with 2 fatalities and injuries to 34 persons. Mechanical defects in the machines resulted in 12 accidents with injuries to 20 persons.

Cars left the road in 132 out of 256 accidents listed and in 110 instances turned over from one to three times. In 12 out of 62 collisions the cars rolled off the roadways. The surveys showed the tendency among speeders to "hog" the road. Thirty cars smashed into other cars, buildings or livestock on the highways or ran wild on hills. Railroad grade crossing accidents numbered 7 and there were 12 in which persons were hurt while walking on the highways or stopping to change tires or for similar purposes.

"Considering that the average mile of trunk highway of the 7,000-mile system serves about 1,000 vehicles a day, and the showing in some other parts of the country, conditions in Minnesota are not exceptionally bad," said Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner. "Highway users can improve it, however, by keeping cars under control always and driving at reasonable speed. The totals should impress the average man with the necessity for safe and sane driving."

Few of the accidents were blamed to dangerous highway conditions.

Rice Egg Association Makes First Shipment

The Rice County Co-operative Egg Marketing association on August 27, shipped its first car of eggs to New York. The association now has a membership of 500. All are producers under contract to sell all their eggs and poultry through the association. It is the first of the district egg and poultry associations to begin selling operations on the California plan of co-operation. Associations to serve the Mille Lacs and Princeton communities are nearly complete and ten others are in the process of organization, according to J. S. Jones, secretary of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation.

Reason For Running.

A man passing a grave yard late at night saw an auto inside the fence and suspected some "medics" were getting a "stiff." On investigating he found the corpse braced up in the back seat while the grave robbers were at a distance closing the grave. He took the corpse out and hid it, and took the corpse's place on the seat. The grave robbers returned and drove away in the auto, the grave robber in the rear seat holding up the supposed corpse. Presently he said to his pal in the chauffeur's seat, "I say, pal, this stiff is warm. Feel over here and see." Then the corpse spoke in the slow, jerky way supposed to be the proper style for ghosts: "If—you—had—been—where I have—been for three—days—you'd feel—warm, too." The sentence was scarcely finished before both grave robbers jumped the car. They never came back to claim the machine.

Minnesota Has One Auto For Every Five Persons

Secretary of State Mike Holm reports that he has issued licenses for 428,026 motor cars thus far and that the number will doubtless be increased to 450,000 before the season is ended. This means that there is one motor car for each five inhabitants of the state, or more than enough to take the entire population at one time for an outing. The license money paid thus far totals more than $7,000,000, all of which goes into the road fund for the construction of state trunk highways.

430,000 AUTOS NOW TAXED IN MINNESOTA

Gain of Nearly 50,000 Cars with Heaviest Traffic on Record Means More Outlay.

Minnesota now has 430,000 automobiles and trucks producing $7,015,000 of state trunk highway funds for 1923, according to figures this week from Mike Holm, secretary of state. The increase of nearly 50,000 cars over last year has brought $467,000 more funds, the report shows. The tax on the average car this year is $16.30, or 50 cents less than last year and $1.70 lower than the $18 average agreed which would yield nearly $750,000 more good roads money.

Reduction in the average car tax is due to the large numbers taking the discounts on 3 and 5 year-old machines. Receipts are being increased by payments of 1921 and 1922 tax arrears and penalties. New schedules to take effect next year are expected to work more fairness, if not to greatly increase the highway revenue.

Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, pointed out that the increase in the use of the highways is further over-running the increase in highway funds. The highway travel went up 25 per cent this year, it is indicated, and less than 10 per cent more funds are provided, although constant repairs on overloaded roads are taking more money than ever before.

"Every car owner should remember that for every $1 of taxes he pays toward better highways he is spending from $3 to $6 less on gasoline, tires and car upkeep because of the better roads," said the commissioner. "To increase the car tax to the agreed $18 average figure and speed the highway program would mean a net profit for the average car owner. Good roads pay for themselves, but only as fast as they are improved—'bad roads taxes' keep running up and up on the other kind."

Secretary Holm's total of 430,000 cars registered, shows the conservatism in the estimate of 400,000 cars this year on which was based the highway department recommendation for first $20,000,000 of bonds to the last legislature.

Not in Jail.

An item in The Times of last week stating that F. W. Mack of this city, who was recently arrested for having liquor in his possession at Hazel and paid a fine of $100 in municipal court last week, was misleading in that it said that Mr. Mack was placed in jail over Sunday, which information had been received by The Times. Mr. Mack was not put in jail Saturday night but turned his car over to the authorities as surity for his appearance the following Monday.

Almost.

In London they were discussing advertising. "Great stuff, these electric signs on Broadway," said the Yankee. "They've got one advertising Wrigley's gum, runs a whole block, 250,000 electric bulbs."

"Two hundred and fifty thousand," answered the Yankee.

The Londoner observed, "But I say, old chap, isn't that a bit conspicious?" The Kan-Sas.

Cities Pay For County Roads.

A very large share of the money obtained to improve the highways throughout the state in accordance with the terms of the constitutional amendment comes from the automobile owners of Minneapolis and St. Paul, says the Minneapolis Tribune. It is a pleasant and significant thing to chronicle that very few complaints come from the motorists of the two big cities about the taxes they are required to pay into the good roads fund, although they are well aware that little of this money, if any, is used for direct, close-range benefit of the cities. Urban taxpayers take care of their own streets and boulevards in the usual way.

PENNINGTON CO. DAIRY FARMERS TO STATE SHOW

Commercial Club Will Send Representative Farmers From County Each Year.

Display of Agricultural Products From Pennington Exhibited At Greatest Exposition.

The delegation of ten farmers from Pennington county sent as guests of the Thief River Falls Commercial club to the state fair and Northwest Dairy show, left Monday evening to spend the remainder of the week viewing the various departments of the exhibition, particularly those pertaining to dairying and agriculture in general. They expect to return to this city next Sunday morning.

The delegation, consisting of ten representative dairymen of the county, is being sent to the state exposition by the business men of the city, this having been made possible thru recent action by the Commercial club. Every one of the ten originally selected by the club committee is a visitor at the fair this week, appropriately adorned with a badge designating the county represented. Much favorable publicity will undoubtedly be a result of this action by the business men. They are making a good showing as they appear in a body instead of individually. They are being well taken care of while at the fair, by committees who have charge of county delegations, and provisions are made for ample entertainment and accommodations.

Those who compose the group representing Pennington county at the fair this year are the following prominent dairy farmers of this community: Hans Anton, F. B. Conklin, Waldie Christensen, Jens Kirk, Hans Rued, Knute Ystesund, Peter Englestad, John Kilen, H. C. Woolson and Stuart McLeod.

It is the plan of the Commercial club to make this an annual event in the future, provisions having been made for the financing and selection of the delegation. New men will partake each year.

A display of agricultural products from this county was also sent to the state fair where it is being exhibited. The Journal of Tuesday commenting upon it as being a very fine array. Several large boxes were shipped last Thursday evening, the booth at the agricultural building being prepared by J. S. Arneson and Orton Olson, who left for the cities the same evening. Martin county won high honors for its display at the fair this year. With the start that this county is making this year it is hoped that Pennington may also capture some prize in future years, it being the plan to make the county exhibit an annual event, as well as the delegation.

With a more extensive organization to make the necessary preparations and arrangements for a first class exhibit of representative specimens from this community, this county will undoubtedly receive due recognition for its agricultural resources in the future.

THIEF RIVERITES ENJOY BIG PICNIC IN PASEDENA CAL.

Annual Event Inaugurated at Gathering of Former Residents in California.

It will be of interest to residents of this city to know that Thief River Falls now has a large enough colony at Pasedena, California, to hold an annual picnic. Picnics of the different states, and of cities and towns within the states, are held annually, and in some instances semi-annually, in Los Angeles, Long Beach, Pasedena and other southern California cities. The first such picnic of former residents of Thief River Falls at Pasedena was held August 26th in Brookside Park.

As the picnic was called on short notice a number of former residents of this locality were unable to attend. Enough interest was shown, however, to justify planning making this picnic an annual event.

The following former residents of this city were present: Mr. and Mrs. Phil Zeh and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Fargo and son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sedlacek and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Quist and daughter July, Misses Helena and Florence Wallin, Mrs. Hattie Munroe (nee, Wallin), Mrs. Caldwell and daughters, Mary and Colesta, Mrs. Wm. Kratka and daughters Alice and Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sponheim and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mussey and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Helgeson, A. I. Anderson, Mrs. A. I. Anderson (nee Edith Prichard) and John Holzknecht.

Montana Man Takes Over Ireland Lumber Yard Here

F. M. Disher, who has purchased an interest in the local yard of Ireland's Lumber Yards, arrived in the city last week from Richey, Mont., accompanied by his wife and three children, and will make his home in Thief River Falls. The family will reside at the home formerly occupied by B. G. Rounds, who is at present located at Federal Dam.

Mr. Disher conducted a lumber yard at Richey for a period of seven years and is entirely familiar with the lumber business. He announces in another column of this paper, that the same policies as heretofore established by the company, will prevail under his management, and assures the best of service to the buying public. H. C. Johnson, for the past several years manager of the yard and who resigned his position a short time ago, has not announced his plans for the future as yet.

Wisconsin U Prof. Here.

Prof. Lars A. Welo of the Wisconsin "U" spent Thursday and Friday of last week visiting his aunt and cousins, Mrs. K. Welo and family, who reside near this city. After visiting other relatives in Minnesota and North Dakota, Mr. Welo will proceed to New York City where he will be connected with the Rockefeller Institute of Medicial Research.

To Teach At Granite Falls.

Miss Phyllis Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis of this city, has accepted a position as instructor of Latin and French in the Granite Falls high school and expects to leave for that place the latter part of the week. Miss Curtis, who graduated from the local high school with the class of '19, received her Bachelor of Science degree in education at the Minnesota university last spring and has spent her summer vacation at her parental home.

GIRLS' COMMUNITY CLUB OPENS YEAR NEXT MONDAY EVE

Everyone Interested Urged to Attend Opening Meeting To Discuss Plans for Season.

The Girls' Community Club will hold its first meeting after the summer recess at the Club rooms on the corner of Fourth street and Horace avenue, next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. This meeting will be devoted to planning the club's social work and other activities for the coming year.

The Community Girls have been promised the help of the Red Cross in supporting a social welfare worker in the city, and a definite plan of action is to be decided upon at the first meeting.

Last year the Club kept their rooms open to the public as a major part of their social work. The public was invited to make free use of the club rooms for parties and other social activities any evening of the week except the regular meeting night of the club. This plan proved very successful and a number of people availed themselves of the opportunity to enjoy social gatherings at the Girls Club rooms.

The president of the Club, Miss Emily Fossum, urges that every member of the organization, as well as others who are interested, be present at the first meeting of the season. The other officers are Miss Lyda Batten, vice-president; Miss Lovina Adams secretary; and Miss Thora Hanson, treasurer.

On Way to Park.

Information has been received by relatives in this city that Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Arneson, newlyweds, are now on their way to Yellowstone national park, having left McLaughlin, S. D., Monday.

They left this city about three weeks ago for Barret, the former's home, and thence to Webster, N. D., from where they continued to McLaughlin, where they visited with Mr. Arneson's brother, S. M., and sister, Mrs. G. S. Henrickson, formerly of this city. Word has also been received from Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Brevig that they are also on their way thru the Black Hills.

Newfolden Creamery Report.

The Newfolden creamery reports that during the month of July that institution paid to its patrons a total of $6,655.26 at an average price of 40 cents per pound. The output of butter during the same period was 20,509 pounds.

St. Paul Negro Decides To Pay License Fee For Old Roadster Held Here

Fred Brown of St. Paul, a negro who was arrested in this city during the county fair by Sheriff O. L. Ihle for not having the proper license on his car but released upon leaving the car as security for his recognicance, finally decided that he would rather pay the price of an auto license and storage costs than to lose the machine, an old Stutz roadster. He appeared before Sheriff Ihle yesterday, making the payment of license fee and all storage costs accumulated since the time of the arrest. Brown had only one license plate on the car at the time he was caught, and that being of class A instead of B, gave sufficient evidence that things were not as they should be. He told the sheriff that it was due to carelessness and that he thought that the delinquincy would not be noticed by the authorities.

Masons and Eastern Stars Enjoy Successful Picnic

The Masonic and Eastern Star picnic at Squaw Point Labor day was enjoyed by a large number of members of the two lodges, in spite of many members having left town to attend the state fair and farmer members being busy threshing. A big dinner was the main event of the day, and the afternoon was spent socially, with various sports, such as novelty races, potato races and foot races for the youngsters.

The local Masonic lodge, which has a jurisdiction extending halfways to each of Red Lake Falls, Warren, Roseau and Bemidji, has enjoyed a wonderful growth, and now has a membership of 265. Transfer of membership to other localities keeps the total down, say the officers, as the total number of names at some time or other on the roll of the local lodge number close to a thousand.

EDWARD HANCE KILLED THURS. IN TRAIN MISHAP

Meets Death While at Work As Carman in Milwaukee, Wis., Railroad Yards.

Details of Fatal Accident Not Known. Son Leaves to Secure Information.

Body Shipped to This City For Burial; Funeral Services Held Tuesday Morning.

Residents of this community were shocked last week when the news came to the city that Edward Hance, for 22 years a resident of Thief River Falls met accidental death in the railroad yards of the Chicago-Milwaukee railway in Milwaukee, Wis., last Thursdy. Mr. Hance had been employed as car repairer there since the first part of May.

Definite information regarding the circumstances connected with the sad occurrence is not yet available, the family here having received no details as to how death came about. However, indications are that he was run over by train, and that death very likely took place instantly. Eugene Hance, a son of the deceased, expects to leave this week for Milwaukee to obtain details of the accident.

The remains were shipped to this city Monday and funeral services were conducted from St. Bernard's Catholic church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Father Oswold conducted the final rites, interment being made in the Catholic cemetery. The funeral was attended by a large number of relatives and friends.

Mr. Hance was born at Austin, Minn., Feb. 2, 1869, being past 54 years of age at the time death occurred. He was married in Lewisville, this state, to Florentine Mireault in 1887 and came to Thief River Falls about twenty-two years ago, and is one of the pioneers of the city. The family has been residing at 802 St. Paul avenue south during that period. Deceased was for a number of years employed as carman on the local Soo yrds, until laid off during the strike a year ago. He was a member of the local lodge of the Woodmen of the World.

The widow and seven children survive to mourn the loss of husband and father. The five daughters are: Mrs. Joe (Celena) Votava, of Birney, Mont.; Mrs. K. J. LaCoe of this city; Magdalena of Scobey, Mont.; Rose and Florence at home in this city; and two sons, Eugene of Sheridan, Wyo., and Alphie at home. Two brothers, Joseph of Red Lake Falls and James of Dorothy, and two sisters, Mrs. Cloutier of Duluth and Mrs. Fred Marotte of Oakland, Cal., are also among the survivors.

Among the out of town relatives who attended the funeral were:

Eugene Hance, Sheridan, Wyo.; Magdalena Hance, Scoby, Mont., Mr. and Mrs. James Hance, Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hance, Red Lake Falls; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cloutier, Duluth, Cril Mireault, Dorothy; Mrs. Narcissus Mireault, and McGuire Peppin of Red Lake Falls.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION EVERY FRIDAY IN CITY'S CHURCHES

Children in 5th Thru 8th Grades May Be Dismissed From Regular School For 1 Hour.

Friday of this week is the day set for the beginning of the Church Schools for religious instruction in Thief River Falls. At the last recess the children will be dismissed to go to their respective churches for instruction by their respective pastors. Only the Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Grades will have advantage of this instruction at the present.

Under a recent state law the churches may request the dismissal of their children from the public schools, when the consent of the parent is given, for three hours of instruction every week. A number of the churches have united in a request to the local school board for such dismissal one period each week from the four grades. Their request was granted without hesitation. The pastors are undertaking the instruction of the children for this period with the help of their parishioners.

The teachers in the four grades will give their pupils a card to be taken home for their parents to sign, giving the teacher authority to dismiss their child to the Church school on Friday at the last recess. The teacher will report to the pastors the names of the children dismissed and a careful check will be kept on the attendance at the churches. The children will be given full credit for their attendance at the churches as though they had stayed in the public school.

During the past year this arrangement has been widely discussed in Thief River Falls and the comment has been practically universally favorable, for the parents as well as the teachers appreciate the great need for additional religious instruction to the children. The churches have decided to begin with the four grades and increase the scope of the school as they are able to carry this work.

The churches which have so far indicated their intention to give this instruction are the Augustana Church, Trinity Lutheran, Zion Lutheran, German Lutheran, Presbyterian, and Methodist. Others will join the movement as they feel they are able to carry the work.

Prichard Company Builds Highway Bridge on No. 32

The Prichard company, local contractors, last week began the construction of the new bridge on Trunk Highway No. 32, just south of the creamery at Greenbush. W. W. Prichard, Jr., went to Greenbush last week to complete arrangements for the work. The bridge will be of reinforced concrete, 45 feet in length at a contract price of approximately $7,000. $76,000 LEVIED FOR SCHOOLS IN CITY FOR 23-24

Estimated Cost of Maintaining Schools in City For Coming Year Is $106,230.

Aim of Board of Education Is to Place District No. 18 on Cash Basis.

Total Cost of Operating School System in 1920-1921 was Over $125,000.

The tax levy for the maintenance of the schools of this city, district No. 18, for the coming school year, as ordered by the board of education, totals $76,000, the necessary budget or estimated cost for the fiscal year being $106,230. The levy for the previous year was $75,000. The budget was approved by the board as prepared by the superintendent of the city schools, I. T. Simley, based upon the most economical means of carrying on the necessary work and the lowest possible cost of operation. A number of departments of the school system have been reduced or eliminated in the interest of cutting down the cost of maintenance.

It was found necessary, however, to levy the sum of $76,000 in order that the district may be able to operate on a cash basis in future years. All the old warrants have now been paid. The appropriations from the state and county are not available until in November each year and it is therefore necessary to carry a surplus over from the preceding year in order to meet the expense of running the schools until that time. This will eliminate the paying of interest on warrants, issued by the district, for which there are no funds.

The cash on hand in the district No. 18 treasury July 21, 1923, is reported as $8,685.55. It is expected that this district will also receive a total aid of about $53,000 for the coming year.

The budget for the ensuing year as prepared by the superintendent and approved by the board is proportioned as follows:

General control	$6,025.
Salaries	65,100.
Books and Supplies	2,625.
Operation	13,380.
Maintenance	2,800.
Auxiliaries	2,350
Outlays	750.
Other Expenses	200.
Bonds and interest	13,000.
Total	$106,230.

Following is a table showing comparative figures of the expenditures for each fiscal year since 1920:

1920-1921	$125,206.32
1921-1922	$172,365.33.
1922-1923	$112,505.11
1923-1924	$106,230.00—Estimated.

NO WINTER SHOW IN THIEF RIVER FALLS THIS YEAR

Commercial Club Decides to Drop Proposed Plan of Exposition This Winter.

Business Men of City Do Not Deem it a Feasible Proposition at This Time.

Resolution Asking Improvement On Jefferson Highway Passed At Meeting Thursday.

At the regular meeting of the Commercial club last Thursday it was decided to drop the Winter Show movement which was started with much enthusiasm by that organization last spring. The proposition at the outset looked very favorable but in the course of the past summer a number of obstacles have presented themselves and it was deemed most feasible to drop the matter, temporarily at least. The majority of the club members agreed that the big exposition would be too great an undertak- present conditions.

A great deal of expense and work would be necessary in the preparation of the contemplated Winter Shows in order to make it worth while, which would necessitate an extensive organization with sufficient funds and ample time to make arrangements for the event. Present conditions make it difficult to secure the funds at this time. It was also feared by some that an exposition of this kind would interfere and injure the regular county fair, and that it would be more advisable to unite all efforts in enlarging the next fair, making it bigger and better than ever before. Others were of the opinion that the winter shows could be held in conjunction with the dairy calf and sheep club exhibits or the annual show of the Pennington County Poultry association. The club exhibits are held in the early part of November, while the poultry show cannot be held before in December, making a duplication of exhibitions at a winter show unavoidable. Being unable to come to a feasible conclusion regarding the carrying out of the winter show plan, the club shelved the proposition for the time being.

A resolution was also passed by the club at last week's meeting asking the state highway department to take immediate measures to improve the three miles of the Jefferson Highway, beginning at the fair grounds corner and running due west. It included in addition a request that gravel surfacing be provided on the half mile of road west from the bridge south of the city, known as the St. Hilaire road. These portions of the main thoroughfare thru this city are poorly surfaced and are causing considerable inconvenience following rains. It is the object of the Commercial club to secure action on this matter at once in order to eliminate these bad stretches on the otherwise splendid highway.

POTATO GROWERS OF PENNINGTON COUNTY ARE REORGANIZING

Marius Waldal Addresses Meeting In St. Hilaire Tuesday. Warehouse May be Built.

A meeting of importance to potato growers of Pennington county was held at St. Hilaire Tuesday evening, for the purpose of giving publicity to the plans of the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange and increasing the membership of that organization. Members of the old organization converted their membership into the new exchange and signed up their acreage, completing the reorganization of the marketing body. The Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange is based on the Sapiro plan of cooperative marketing.

Someone from this county will canvass the farmers of Pennington in order to secure the necessary 50 per cent of the acreage, which will be an easy matter, according to County Agent J. J. McCann, who is actively engaged in the promotion of the movement.

Any town having in its vicinity an acreage of 250 acres signed up with the exchange, may secure a potato warehouse which will be built by the sale of bonds thru the state organization. About 430 acres are available around Thief River Falls, assuring this city of storage facilities when desired. It is expected that a warehouse may be erected here next year. St. Hilaire expects to have a total of approximately 350 acres in its territory, according to reports. The St. Hilaire meeting was fairly well attended but no gathering was held at Goodridge, as previously planned.

Representative Marius Waldal of Plummer, the first vice chairman of the executive committee of the state exchange, conducted the meeting. In his talk Mr. Waldal explained in detail the purpose and plan of the cooperative potato selling agency.

St. Hilaire Creamery Issues Many Large Checks

During the month of July the St. Hilaire creamery issued checks of $100 or more to 27 patrons and of $50 or more to a total of 134. These figures speak well for the dairymen of the community and the institution marketing the product.

Old debts would be easy to pay if it wasn't for the new ones.

PUTTING IT MILDLY.

The sentiment that the machine at the present time in control of the political destiny of the state has outlived its usefullness seems to have gained a strong foothold in all sections of the state. The opinion appears to be widespread that it is time to turn loose the hungry bunch that has grown fat at the public crib and let them shift for themselves. The editor of the Worthington Globe expresses himself on this subject in the following editorial:

"If the republican party in Minnesota—what there's left of it—expects to get anywhere in the future it must discard the leeches that have been clinging to it, clean out the statehouse, and put an entire new bunch in power. In order to accomplish that result, no person actively identified with any of the factions in the past can be recognized. New men are needed, men of character and standing and who are not 'afraid of the cars' when it comes to doing things."

WE ARE PAYING THE COST.

The effects of the ever-increasing automobile industry in this country upon our economic and social future is vividly portrayed in the appended editorial from the pen of Theodore Christianson of the Dawson Sentinel:

"It is easy for those who see streets filled with automobiles to assume that they are proof of a prosperous community. It may seem to the superficial that a people that has an automobile or two for every family must be very wealthy, at least in the aggregate.

"The possession of many automobiles does not prove that a community has wealth: it merely proves that the community has parted with much wealth—wealth that has been poured into Detroit and other automobile manufacturing centers, never to return to Podunk, or Gopher Prairie, or Dawson.

"The automobile has probably done as much as the war to make times hard. It has diverted capital from industries that create wealth-producing commodities into an industry that creates a product that not only depreciates rapidly but uses up the products of other industries while it is being used.

"Almost every automobile is a liability to the man who owns it. Not only does the machine itself soon become junk, but the gasoline and oil which it consumes are completely dissipated and permanently lost.

"We are paying for the use of the automobile not only in the loss of physical property, but in the mal-adjustment of economic relations. It is not a healthy condition to have an industry that absorbs in a few years so large a part of the nation's wealth, that draws labor from industries which produce necessities into an industry which contributes in large measure only to the people's desire for diversion and excitement; an industry that becomes so prosperous that it can afford to pay wages and dividends that make men engaged in other, more essential, productive enterprises, restless and dissatisfied, that withdraws from the reservoirs of credit sums that far exceed the just and right claims of the industry to the nation's working capital; that takes young men away from agriculture and lures them into the overpopulated centers of this mushroom industry, leaving the farms tenanted by women, children and old men.

"We are paying for the automobile also in social losses. What do the closely curtained automobiles that are seen on the public highways after midnight on summer nights mean, except spoiled boys and ruined girls? What of the future if responsibility shall rest with those who in their youth are using this means of conveyance to carry them away from the eyes of watchful parents, to the distant dance hall, to the haunt of the hootch-vendor and the lair of the libertine?

"What is going to happen if the present tendency to substitute joy-riding for church-going continues? 'Communing with nature' is undoubtedly beneficial; one may get much inspiration in 'God's first temples'; but a generation that tries to make the pic-nic take the place of the Sunday school is hell-bent for disaster.

"It is a fact that there has been a marked decrease in church attendance since the automobile came, with its opportunity to subvert the Sabbath from a day of meditation to one of merry-go-riding.

"We shall continue to use the automobile, of course—until we become more proficient in using the air-plane.

"But we are paying for our fun, in money, in industrial stability, and in things that are moral and spiritual.

"Much attention has been given to perfecting the mechanism of the machine; too much energy has been expended in trying to get everybody to buy it. Isn't it just possible that we shall have to pay more attention to the task of teaching people how to use it?

"If we don't we shall pay too much for our fun."

ANNUAL BULLETIN OF SCHOOL DISTRICT 18 HAS VALUABLE DATA

Total of 1200 Copies Containing Survey of School System Distributed in City.

The Third Annual Bulletin of School District No. 18, issued by I. T. Simley, Superintendent, was printed by the Times Printing & Manufacturing company last week and 1200 copies have been distributed among the patrons of the district. It is an eight-page pamphlet containing a summary of the school system, entrance requirements, courses of study, graduation requirements, pictures of the school buildings and various other information of interest to the taxpayer and parent. It also has a complete list of the teachers employed in the schools of the city for the ensuing year. It is urged that all those who receive a copy make a careful study of it in order that they may be better informed as to the organization of the educational institutions in Thief River Falls. The issuance of a bulletin at the opening of the school year is being carried out by a large number of the schools of the country.

The following data relative to school district No. 18 found in the bulletin, gives interesting information and figures for the 1922-1923 period:

Value of buildings, sites and equipment, $200,000.00.

Annual cost of running schools, $110,000.00.

Cost last year per pupil for year in kindergarten, $46.00.

Cost last year per pupil for year in grade, $95.00.

Cost last year per pupil for year in high school, $95.00.

Number of buildings, 6.

Total enrollment last year in kindergarten, 92.

Total enrollment last year in grades 1150.

Total enrollment last year in all departments, 1660.

Number of pupils entitled to apportionment, 1577.

Number of pupils actually enrolled June 2, 1923, 1462.

Number of teachers employed last year, 55.

The cost per pupil for year in the grades increased $6 over the previous year, while in the high school division there was a difference of one dollar more per pupil the past year. The enrollment in the grades increased from 1107 to 1150 and from 410 to 418 in the high school. A total of 1537 pupils were entitled to apportionment in 1922-1923 while last year this number was increased to 1577. The average daily attendance also made a decided raise.

The Thief River Falls school system is one of the most extensive in the state, there being a much larger enrollment than in cities considerably larger than this. The pamphlet states that: "Should it be found that the schools can be of service to adults by giving night school courses, the school board will make an effort to arrange for it. Further announcements will be made through the local newspapers.

Leading Lighting Plant Manufacturers Announce New Plan of Purchasing

Announcement is just made by the Delco-Light Company, of Dayton, of a new plan for the distribution of their farm electric plants which it is declared will be of vast importance to all farmers and their families who have been longing for the benefits and conveniences of electricity in their homes.

This plan is called the Installed Price Plan. It names a single, low price which covers, not only the Delco-Light plant and battery desired, but also the cost of installing, the cost of wiring the house for ten lights in locations to be specified by the owner of the house, ten drop lights placed in position, complete even to the ten electric bulbs in their sockets, and a special power socket for connecting up the various electrical apliances which the housewife may want to use.

A financing plan also is provided, it is explained, which enables those who desire it, to buy their equipment on easy payments. The whole plan is designed, it appears, to make it easy for the farm family to have electricity. Many thousands of farmers have purchased electric plants, it was shown, since the Delco-Light Company began their manufacture, less than eight years ago. This company alone has sold more than 200,000 of these during that time and this number will increase very rapidly during the coming months, in the belief of the manufacturers of Delco-Light Products.

They base this belief, they declare, upon the better understanding and appreciation of the electricity which have come to the farm family with the introduction of thousands and thousands of electric plants onto the farms. They believe, also, that the farmer who has the ability to buy comforts for his family, will not hesitate to exchange a few of his dollars for the electrical conveniences which will mean so much in enjoyment and in saving labor, in his home.

The Delco-Light Company, as the largest manufacturers of farm electric plants in the world, in making it possible for the farmer to have electricity so easily and at such moderate cost, have undoubtedly taken a step which will lead to much finer results, and will mean the spread of far greater blessings for mankind, than even they, themselves realize.

Ex-Governor Allen of Kansas to Speak Here

Former Governor Allen of Kansas, famed thru the Kansas Industrial Court, will be heard in the Thief River Falls auditorium some time next month, according to announcement made last Monday. The former state official is planning a speaking tour thru the Northwest and thru the efforts of certain citizens of Thief River Falls has consented to include this city in the list of places at which he will speak. Further information as to the subject of the address and the date when he will appear will be published in The Times as soon as it becomes known.

One Day of Rest In Seven, Law Mailed to Employers of State

A circular letter together with a copy of the "one day of rest in seven" law passed by the last session of the Minnesota state legislature was last week mailed to all employers of the state by Henry McCall, chairman of the industrial commission of Minnesota.

The letter urges employers whose business comes under this law to comply with the requirements to permit employes one day rest in seven. The commission is charged with the enforcement of the law which Mr. McCall states will be impartially enforced.

Railroads, street car companies, newspapers, hospitals, drug stores, and factories where a continuous fire is necessary, are exempt under the provisions of the law.

Other concerns are required to arrange for a schedule of employment for employes and display same in the place of employment and file a copy of such schedule with the commission.

Violators of the law are subject to a fine of no less than $2 nor more than $100. The law has been in effect since April 17 and is quite generally being observed by employers, Mr. McCall said.

Kicked by Horse.

Edward Finn, a farmer living west of town, was severely bruised about the face and suffered cuts which necessitated several stitches in his lips when he was kicked by a horse at his farm last Saturday. Dr. O. F. Mellby was called to administer such aid as was necessary, as it was at first thot that the injuries were serious. It was soon found, however, that the external burises were the only results of the unfortunate mishap, and Mr. Finn was able to resume work threshing early this week. Mr. Finn is a brother of Mrs. Lena Ingebretson of this city.

Pure - Breds and Prosperity

There is more to the question of pure-bred stock than a matter of pedigree, registry and conformation to type. Successful dairymen will testify that the superiority of the pure-bred over the scrub also shows in the milk pail, and in the cream check.

In prosperous farming communities, herds are headed by pure-bred sires, not because prosperous farmers can afford the luxury of pure-breds, but because the pure-breds have made the farmers prosperous.

The Citizens State Bank stands ready to co-operate at all times with the man who wishes to grade up his herd with pure-breds.

NOTE—Remington Game Loads are loaded exclusively in "Nitro Club" Wetproof Shells. Wetproof means just what it says.

Why Dealers Here in Town are selling so many Remington Game Loads

IT doesn't take sportsmen long to get the ins and outs of anything new that's offered them.

When Remington announced the Remington Game Loads last year, not all the men who wanted to try them could do so. Because it was their first year and there weren't enough to go 'round.

But those who did shoot them told the others, and this season there is a demand for Remington Game Loads that has never been approached in the history of the loaded shell business.

Whether you are already a Game Load enthusiast or have yet to shoot your first box—you will be interested in the facts about powder we uncovered in our Bridgeport tests on loaded shells. These are given in the panel at the right.

To the practical minds of the Remington organization, these discoveries indicated that there was just one thing to be done—

Fix a safe working standard of velocity, pattern and penetration for each kind of small game.

Make this standard absolute. And load just the right amount of powder to give it—whether it takes an eighth dram more or an eighth dram less.

That is the theory and practice of game loads.

Uniform shooting results—instead of a hard and fast loading formula. Powder varies—Remington Game Loads do not.

Naturally, you won't find the weight of powder indicated on Remington Game Load boxes—because the weight is not fixed.

You do not find the name of the powder because Remington takes full responsibility for the shell complete—including the powder.

Go to your dealer's. Get one box of Remington Game Loads and shoot them. We'll leave the rest up to your judgment.

These are the Facts disclosed by Remington's Ballistic Tests

A—A given weight of the same kind of powder doesn't always give the same velocity, pattern or penetration.

B—Powder varies batch by batch—even the same kind and make. One batch, for instance, gives a velocity of 925 feet per second. Another may fall as low as 840 feet per second.

C—This is nobody's fault. Powder comes that way.

D—The man who buys his shells by the weight and kind of powder—often misses a lot of game and never knows why.

VICTIM OF ACCIDENT DIES FROM INJURIES

Peder Sorenson, 72, New Solum Pioneer, Passes Away at Home Saturday.

Peder Sorenson residing north of Rosewood in New Solum township, brother of John Sorenson of this city, passed away suddenly last Saturday from internal injuries sustained in an accident August 10, when he was attacked by an angry bull. Following the accident he was taken to the Physicians hospital and was apparently improving despite the severe injuries and old age. He was brought back to his home near Rosewood Tuesday of last week and was getting better until Saturday when he complained of internal pains. Dr. Froehlich was summoned and it was decided to take him to the hospital but he weakened noticeably during the afternoon and died as he was about to be placed on the truck. His body was taken to Larson Undertaking parlors to be prepared for burial, which took place yesterday at the Rindal cemetery.

Mr. Sorenson was born in Tryssel, Norway, on May 8, 1851, being at his death slightly over 72 years old. He was married to Ingeborg Halvorson, also of Tryssel, in 1876, and emigrated to the United States in 1885, coming first to Fargo, N. D. He lived there only a year when he moved to this section and homesteaded the farm which has since been his home.

Mrs. Sorenson died seven years ago. To their union were born thirteen children, of which three boys and four daughters survive: Mrs. George Anderson of Warren, Mrs. John Larson of Wymore, Sask., Canada, Mrs. Adolph Haugen of Rosewood, Mrs. A. F. Stroble of Angus, Mrs. Selmer Haugen of Rosewood and Mrs. Dave Modneck of Crookston. Besides these survivors are: one brother, John Sorenson of Thief River Falls, and one sister, Mrs. Harry Smith of Appleton, Minn., twenty two grand children and one great grand child.

Mr. Sorenson, who was one of the pioneers of his community, was a highly respected neighbor and citizen and took an active interest in the community's welfare and progress. The sympathy of many friends is extended to the bereaved family.

s of Ten Joins Ranks Of Canton at Initiation

The degree staff of the Thief River Falls Canton, No. 10, of the Odd Fellows, accompanied by a number of chevaliers motored to Warroad Saturday, Aug. 25, to put on degree work. International Falls was also well represented and was accompanied by Grand Master H. A. Lavin, who took part in the ceremonies.

The degree of Patriarchs Militante was conferred upon ten members of the Warroad encampment. Those who advanced into the military order are: Julius Anderson, Erick Starren, W. A. Stuart, John L. Vog, Dr. I. Parker, J. L. Bergvall and F. H. Ault, all of Warroad, Wm. Moser, H. R. Chapin and Geo. Olson of Roseau.

After the work was over an open meeting was held and members of all branches of the order took part and a few hours were spent in speech making and amusements followed by a dainty lunch.

On Sunday, the launch Resolute was chartered by the local order and the visitors were given a boat ride to Rocky Point where lunch was served by the Rebekah lodge. A large number of Odd Fellows who were unable to crowd on the boat, went to the point by auto there being about 150 people in the excursion.

A few hours were spent in real out door recreation, such as scampering along the sand beach, climing rocky cliffs and wandering through beautiful woodland in the background.

The party returned to Warroad at five o'clock fully refreshed and with one accord declared that the day was one long to be remembered.

Ole R. Sande, V. F. Robarge, T. Stenberg, Fred Dablow, H. M. Grondahl, Ole Hedalen, Percy Farrow, H. [illegible]son, Bert Umland and A.G. Gabrielson of Thief River Falls; A. H. Powers, J. H. Drummond, M. Salstrad, Guy W. Holland, Roy Erickson, George Erickson, C. E. Corren and H. A. Lavin, Grand Master, International Falls.

UNPAID AUTO TAXES BRINGING EXECUTION

Sheriffs to Levy on Personal Property of Delinquents as Necessary to Collect.

Forced by law to collect delinquent automobile and truck taxes from owners or to pay them out of his own pocket, Sheriff Ole L. Ihle with others all over the state is proceeding against delinquents in this county. Unpaid auto taxes which are collectable may be deducted from the sheriff's bills against the county, the attorney general holds, and any neglect of duty subjects the law-enforcement chief to removal from office.

Some sheriffs already are sending out notices as prepared by Sheriff Earle Brown of Hennepin county, one of the first to act. The notice:

"Pursuant to Chapter 461, Laws of Minnesota for 1921, the Clerk of the District Court for the County of Hennepin, State of Minnesota, has placed in my hands for collection a Motor Vehicle Tax Warrant against you for the year 192...., for the amount stated below. If this amount is not paid at this office within 7 days from the date of receipt of this notice by you, the law directs me to distrain sufficient goods and chattels (including your automobile) belonging to you, to satisfy this warrant. Under the laws of this state your automobile, goods or other chattels are not exempt from seizure for taxes. If you fail to pay this warrant, a Citation will be issued by the Clerk of the District Court of said County, directing you to show cause why judgment should not be entered against you for the amount of this tax, which will add additional costs."

The warning states further that failure to receive the notice is not an excuse for non-payment.

Action by the sheriffs supplements the state-wide drive by automobile club members and others who have paid their auto taxes against auto tax slackers. This campaign was started that the 430,000 car owners who have complied with the law may help to compel 12,000 or 15,000 slackers to pay their fair shares toward Minnesota's better roads. Cases of tax dodgers may be taken up with local county attorneys or other officials, or reported direct to Mike Holm, secretary of state, St. Paul.

RURAL SCHOOLS OF COUNTY BEGIN TERM

No Shortage of Available Teachers as Has Been in Evidence In Former Years.

This week marks the beginning of a new school year for a large number of the district schools of Pennington county. A number of changes have been made in the teaching corps of the county this year, but O. R. Sande, county superintendent, has been able to readily fill all the vacancies with competent and efficient instructors. That there is no shortage of teachers this year in any part of the state is due largely to the increasing number of graduates each year from our state normal schools. A number of this year's teachers have taught in the county previously and many are graduates from the normal training department of the Thief River Falls high school.

A list of districts which have secured teachers since a partial enumeration was made two weeks ago, follows:

District 66—Gunhild Haugen.
District 154—Nettie Johnson.
District 219—Inga Hjelle.
District 26—Milan Saetveland.
District 34—Mrs. Agnes Stuey.
District 51—Augusta Beiswanger.

Plummer Woman, Mother Of Eight, Passes Away

Mrs. Lambert Hesse of Plummer, aged 35, passed away at a Crookston hospital Tuesday, Aug. 28, death being due to a complication of diseases. She had been ill for a period of several weeks.

Mrs. Hesse is survived by her husband and eight young children, and a host of friends who extend their sympathy to the bereaved family. Her remains were shipped to Chaska, Minn., to be interred in the cemetery of her old home.

BOARD BARS 16 STOCK DEALERS

Arbitrators Preparing Final Report on Recent Expose at South St. Paul.

Sixteen individuals involved by the federal investigation are permanently off the market. This fact became known last week when a board of arbitration, named to consider applications for reinstatement began preparing a final statement on the investigation so far as the Stockyards Company and The Exchange is concerned. The board is made up of T. E. Good and Ken D. Dunlap, representing the Stockyards Company, Lon Delaney and C. L. Haas, representing the Exchange and M. L. Haskell, representing the federal investigators.

As a result of the federal audit, eight firms and one individual were debarred. These firms involved 22 individuals. Of these 22, 12 made application for re-instatement. Of the 12 6 failed to obtain permission to return to the yards; two have been permitted to resume a commission business as individuals and four have been granted the right to seek employment in the yard.

All cases of re-instatement are surrounded by limitations which require that the involved men must operate under strict Exchange and Yard company supervision.

Of the eight firms against which fines ranging from $50 to $750 have been imposed, all have paid these assessments.

A formal statement, giving the names of persons permanently barred as well as those re-instated, is promised by Stockyard company officials within a few days.

An Official Statement by the Governor of South Dakota

"At a meeting with Colonel Stewart, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana and other Standard Oil Officials, held in Pierre this morning, Mr. Stewart expressed unqualifiedly the willingness of Standard Oil to comply with the wishes of the consumers of the State of South Dakota in so far as those wishes could be expressed and interpreted by the governor of this state. These Standard officials, although they contend that the present prices do not properly reflect the costs of production, refining and distribution, plus a reasonable profit, were willing, at my request, to do one of two things—raise the price of gasoline immediately in the State of South Dakota where it would represent a six and six-tenths cent reduction over former prices, or maintain, for the time being, sixteen cent gasoline in the State of South Dakota, using Mitchell as a base.

"After due consideration, the Standard Oil officials were asked by the governor to maintain the present price of 16 cents for the time being. I wish to accept full responsibility for this situation and state that Standard Oil, by deed and act, is working in fullest co-operation with the governor of this state and therefore can in no respect be blamed for 16 cents gasoline from this date.

"I realize that the independents who have viciously assailed and attacked me will raise bitter complaint against this condition. However, after due consideration and investigation, I wish to say that if the former gasoline prices of this state were excessive, the independents of this state were just as responsible for that condition and were just as guilty of taking excess profits as was Standard Oil.

"At no time during the period which former gasoline prices prevailed did any independent of this state raise one objection or bring one complaint to this office in an effort to bring about any reduction in price but they were perfectly willing to profit to the fullest extent.

"I realize that all sorts of charges will be made against me because of this action, but in view of the fact that gasoline can be purchased at various refineries today for approximately seven cents a gallon, it will not work injury to the public cause if the Independents are forced for the time being to do business on a small margin of profit. There is no particular reason why the State Government should guarantee to the Independent Oil Dealers of this state, at least for the time being, fixed profits, especially in view of the fact that they were perfectly willing and were a party to take excessive profits from the people."

This clearly defines the position which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has maintained throughout this controversy.

CROOKSTON MAN IS NAMED ON RELIEF BOARD OF DISTRICT

Committee From States in Ninth Federal District to Make Appeal.

At the recent meeting at Fargo of bankers and farmers of the ninth federal reserve district, which includes Minnesota, North and South Dakota, and parts of Wisconsin and Montana, the possibilities for improving the agricultural situation was the one and only topic.

The formation of a strong committee to carry recommendations to Washington and present them to the administration leaders was one outcome of the gathering from which good results may come.

The Minnesota Red River Valley Development Association, which was represented at the meeting, requested the naming of former state senator A. D. Stephens, of Crookston, as one member of the committee, as it was as result of a motion presented by him at the request of the Development Association delegation that the sending of a committee was authorized. Ex-governor L. B. Hanna, of North Dakota, who was chairman of the meeting requested the Development Association to make recomendation of a second member for Minnesota on the committee, and after a conferance of association officers on Monday evening, N. J. Holmberg, commissioner of agriculture for Minnesota, was recommended.

Mr. Holmberg is believed by the association officials to be particularly well qualified to act in the connection as he has been making a personal study of the situation for some time. He was communicated with by telephone and replied that if it was considered that he could render service and was named, he would accept the appointment.

It is expected that the committee will go to Washington in the very near future. It is questioned by many that anything can be accomplished in time to afford material help for this year's crop; while others believe that the presentation of the situation in this manner will have immediate beneficial effect. The government, it is understood, will be urged to create a permanent agricultural board, fully empowered, to be to agriculture what the Interstate Commerce Commission is to transportation; the Commerce Board to to commerce; the Labor Board to labor, etc., and so enable agriculture to be placed on a sound and paying basis.

Mrs. Louise Erickson, wife of A. H. Erickson of this city, died Tuesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kling, one and one-half miles east of the city. The cause of death was cancer, from which she had been ailing for about four years, having been confined to her bed the last four months. Paradis Herd Takes All Prizes In Its Class at Many Minn. County Fairs

The Paradis herd of Aberdeen-Angus cattle from Red Lake county, which was exhibited at the Pennington county fair recently, was accorded all honors at the Northern Minnesota fair at Bemidji last week. The following account appeared in the Red Lake Falls Gazette last week and will be of interest to dairymen of this section:

"The Paradis herd made a clean sweep at Bemidji in one of the strongest competitions in Northern Minnesota. It was one of the hardest fights that have ever been in a show ring in thi country but we went thru to victory with the Red Lake herd."

This was the message received Saturday by the Gazette from Fred McNichol, the expert herdsman in charge of the fine Aberdeen-Angus animals owned by Albert Paradis of Poplar River.

The Paradis animals have won about all the prizes offered in their class at the Norman, Wilkin, Wahpeton, Mahnomen, Kittson, Becker, Hubbard, Red Lake, Pennington and Beltrami fairs and in face of the strongest kind of competition.

MAHNOMEN WITHOUT BANKS TEMPORARILY

Citizens State Bank Closes Doors Last Week, the Security Having Closed Before.

Mahnomen, the county seat of Mahnomen county, with a population of about 1200 people, is at present without a banking institution, the directors of the Citizens State Bank having decided to close its doors. Only a short time ago the other bank, the Security Bank, was ordered closed by the state banking department and has not yet been opened, leaving the village without banking facilities of its own.

Following is the account of the situation as given by the Mahnomen Pioneer last week:

The Board of Directors of the Citizens State Bank decided at a meeting Monday night to voluntarily close the bank. A notice to this effect was posted on the door and the bank failed to open Tuesday morning.

Depleted reserves, caused by a steady drain on the resources, and a well developed "run" Monday was responsible for the action of the Board Monday night.

Mr. Smith of the State Banking Department arrived Wednesday morning and placed Mr. Simpson, who has had charge of the Security Bank in temporary charge of the Citizens until such time as another man can be appointed.

Mr. Smith left town last evening, having made a very hurried examination of the affairs of the bank. Before leaving he spoke as though some arrangement might be made to open the bank in the near future.

Mahnomen, a county seat, with approximately 1200 people, finds itself temporarily without a bank. Neighboring banks are extending every facility to help out the business interests until such time as one or both banks open up.

Several different banking concerns have been here looking the field over. It is reported that one or more of these concerns have already applied for a charter.

There is naturally a good deal of excitement over the situation but there is only one thing to do now, and that is to await developments."

THIS COMMUNITY TO BE REPRESENTED AT CROOKSTON MEET

Delegation Will Hear Sapiro, Marketing Expert, at Crookston Monday, Sept. 10.

Aaron Sapiro's address on co-operative marketing, especially of potatoes, is probably the most important meeting that will be held in this section this year. He is scheduled to speak at Crookston, in the Armory at 7:30 p. m., Monday, Sept. 10th.

"Nowhere in America," says C. G. Selvig, chairman of arrangements for the Crookston meeting, "is there a man who is better qualified to discuss the farm economic problem from a dollars and cents basis. He is sought from coast to coast by leaders who are interested in obtaining better prices for farm products for the system of co-operative marketing of which he is the father, is the only plan that admittedly is sound, that has produced results. Only a few years ago, the prune growers of California were destitute. They actually were in want. Saprio's commodity marketing plan put them on their feet and made the business of growing prunes one of the best in the country. Whole cities in California owe their present prosperity to commodity co-operative marketing."

Mr. Sapiro's address is coming at an especially important time, in view of the agricultural depression prevailing in the Northwest. Regardless of whether farmers agree with his plan of meeting the marketing problem, all are urged to come out and hear his explanation.

Essentially, Mr. Sapiro's plan differs from ordinary co-operation in that his organizations operate on a non-stock, non-profit sale and re-sale basis, instea of including a consignment and patronage dividend program.

Sections of the Crookston armory will be reserved for the various county delegations, County Agent J. J. McCann of this city having requested 150 reservations for Pennington county people who will attend the meeting in body. It is the plan of the committee in charge, of which Mr. McCann is chairman, to get as many as possible together so as to leave Thief River Falls at one time. The time for starting from this city has been set at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and the local group will be increased by a delegation of business men and farmers of St. Hilaire and Red Lake Falls on the way. They are scheduled to arrive in Red Lake Falls at 6 o'clock in order to be in Crookston at 7:30.

Those who intend to take part in the tour should make their intentions known to Mr. McCann and state whether person has car or not. A number of cars are already available and many who do not have one at their disposal will have opportunity to partake in the trip.

According to Crookston papers many arrangements are being prepared to care for the visitors, including special arrangements for parking and guarding cars. Good wheather should see hundreds traveling by motor to Crookston next Monday for the Sapiro meeting.

Dr. Meland to Europe.

It will be of interest to many in this vicinity to know that Dr. Orville Meland of the Warren hospital left last week for Europe. The following item from a Warren paper tells of his contemplated journey:

"Dr. Orville N. Meland, of the Warren hospital, left Wednesday, accompanied by his brother, Ernest Meland, who has been visiting him here for several weeks, for Pelican Rapids. After visiting the home folks there for a few days, he will leave for New York, making short stops on the way at Minneapolis and Chicago.

"On September 11th he will board an American ship at New York and sail for Europe, where he will spend six months or more. Most of his time over there will be devoted to visits to the great hospitals and to clinics in London, Gothenberg, Vienna and Paris, in pursuance of his studies in surgery. Before returning home he will make a brief tour of the Scandinavian countries, Germany, France and other portions of the European continent."

Music Instructor Returns

Miss Maude L. Johnson, for the past two years music instructor in the city schools, returned to this city Tuesday morning to take up her work in the same capacity this year.

Miss Johnson has spent the greater part of the summer touring the east in company with Miss Esther Stebbins, superintendent of the Physicians Hospital. They made the Great Lakes trip from Duluth to Buffalo, and visited Niagara Falls on the way to New York where they stayed for ten days, and while there met Miss Ruth Soule, domestic science teacher at the local high school two years ago and now dietician at Ellis Island. The next stop was Washington, D. C., where they were at the time of President Harding's death. They visited Mount Vernon and other places of historical interest.

Previous to coming here Miss Johnson visited for four weeks at her home in Red Wing. Miss Johnson is very active in both school and civic activities and her willing assistance has been responsible for the success of many social and musical functions in the schools and organizations of the city.

LOCAL GIRL IS WINNER OF HIGH HONORS AT FAIR

Myrtle Helgeland Awarded First Place in Advanced Breadmaking Contest.

Third Time to Represent Thief River Falls at State Exposition in Club Work.

Given Free Trip to National Meet in Chicago as Reward For Excellent Baking.

Miss Myrtle Helgeland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Helgeland of this city, returned Sunday morning from the state fair with the highest honors given by the state of Minnesota for individual bread baking. Miss Helgeland, in competition with 250 girls from all parts of the state, won first prize in the Advanced A class, and was awarded a free trip to Chicago, to complete in the national bread baking contest either in December of this year or next fall. On account of having enrolled in the Normal Training department of the high school, Miss Helgeland expects to go next fall.

Miss Ansof Dahlen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Dahlen, also competed in the class B contest at the state fair, and was complimented on the very light quality of her bread. Miss Dahlen was chosen to represent her class from a county-wide contest at the high school last spring. She is a junior in high school and has been a member of the Girls Bread Club for two years.

Miss Helgeland's prize winning bread is on display at the Honey and Bee building at the state fair grounds. This was her third year of bread baking at the state fair, and she was consequently placed in charge of a girls' camp at the fair grounds this year. Miss Helgeland also won high honors the two previous years and is to be highly complimented for her excellent work as well as for capturing such distinctive honors for her school and community.

Rush City won first place among teams entered for the bread baking contest. Each city was permitted to send a team of three to compete in the state bread baking team contest. Thief River Falls was not represented in this contest.

ARLISS PICTURE AT PRINCESS THEATRE

There is a strange fascination about the new George Arliss photoplay, "The Man Who Played God," because in this picture sensation, booked by Manager Brumund for the Princess Theater for Friday and Saturday. Mr. Arliss has the role of a man who, due to great suffering, has found pleasure in helping others about him who are suffering. "The Man Who played God," a United Artists Corporation release, is a thrilling drama, with here and there the delicate threads of life's greatest themes dangling loose for the spectator to pick up and study.

As John Arden, George Arliss presents perfect study of a man who achieves one of life's greatest rewards—the knowledge of self-sacrifice, the satisfaction of knowing that he has been able to relieve the needs and the distress of those about him whose suffering perhaps exceeds his own.

The sphere of activity open to the character of John Arden is not so limited. In the midst of the bustle and stir of a great city, the deaf musician turns away from suicide, and finds delight in ministering to the needs of those whom he finds suffering about him. As a result of an accident, later in life, the musician regains his sense of hearing—and this comes seemingly as a reward for the great good that he has accomplished.

"Playing God" is one thing, and achieving any appreciable results at the game is quite another. Misdirected efforts lead to untoward consequences. Men who have set out to conquer the world have failed—Hannibal, Napoleon, Hohenzollern. There was nothing unselfish in what they did. Experience proves that they had to fail. Failure was foreordained.

Those who see "The Man Who Played God," at the Princess Theater will see a miracle worked, in the case of one man. Nothing short of a miracle could change John Arden from bad to good. As a story of regeneration, it must be seen by every picture lover.

Officials In Adjoining Counties Take Up Arms In War on Moonshiners

The authorities are hot on the trail of the moonshiners these days, judging by current reports. The following from the Warren Sheaf of last week gives an account of Marshall county activities:

"Last Saturday and Sunday the officers of the Sheriff's department went out on another little "Moonshine" party and lodged five manufacturers of the illegal product behind the bars of the county jail. Last Saturday Sheriff Hanson made a trip out to the town of Wright to the Albert Gajeski home. He walked into the kitchen where there was a still going full blast. Gajeski sleeping, and a dog stood right in front of the still wagging his tail at the sheriff. Mr. Gajeski was brought to the city immediately and put behind the bars until a hearing can be given him. Sunday a raid was made in the town of Nelson Park, where Henry Brown, Martin Przybylski, Adams Stucynski, and John Stucynski were caught while manufacturing the product. They were also brought to the county jail. A total of 550 gallons of "mash" was taken into the sheriff's office on these two days to be used as evidence against the above mentioned in district court."

Another story from the Red Lake Falls Gazette relates the discovery of two violators in Red Lake county who pleaded guilty to the manufacture of the "fire water":

"Joe E. Fournier of Gervais and Gaspard Lajambe of Lambert were arrested Friday on complaint of F. G. Stroup, on a charge of maintaining a nuisance on their premises and of unlawful manufacturing intoxicating liquor. Stroup is the operative who caused the arrest of Theo. Lemieux at Plummer last week Sunday.

When brought before Justice P. F. Poullot, Friday, the prisoners pleaded guilty to the charges. Lajambe has eleven children, some of them small, and Fournier is married and has four children, and these mitigating circumstances were taken into consideration by Justice Poullot when he fined each of them $50 and costs upon their promises to obey the laws in the future. The fines were paid and the men were released."

Louie Berge arrived Tuesday from Minneapolis and is spending a few days in the city visiting at the home of his brother, Police Chief O. E. Berge.

No Special Drive For Japanese Relief Funds In Pennington County

The local Red Cross chapter will not put on a drive for funds for the Japanese relief work, as a result of action taken at a meeting of the directors of the chapter Tuesday evening. Pennington county was asked to contribute $500 of the state's quota of $100,000, and as the Red Cross chapter had sufficient funds on hand the directors did not deem it advisable under present conditions to stage a special drive in advance of the annual drive which may be put on this fall.

The directors also appropriated $150 to help defray the expenses of the social worker engaged by the Red Cross and Girls Community Club for a while last winter. It was decided not to re-engage a social worker for the coming year, as the expense is too great under existing circumstances.

Nearly 500 Checks Are Issued to Fair Winners

Approximately $1700 has been sent out to prize winners of the Pennington county fair by the Pennington County Agricultural Society during the past few weeks. Nearly 500 checks have been issued by J. J. McCann, secretary of the organization, and but a few premiums remain to be paid. Ribbons to the winners are also being distributed. The sum spent by the society in premiums is reimbursed by the state.

Council Meeting.

A brief session of the city council was held Tuesday evening, at which routine business occupied the attention of the aldermen. The regular monthly reports of the city officials were heard and approved and the usual number of bills allowed. A resolution was also passed, assessing the benefits of paving in block 36, known as post office alley.

Mahnomen Banks Expected To Re-Open in Short Time

At a meeting of the Business Association of Mahnomen last week to discuss the bank situation that body decided to request that the comptroller of currency do not grant a charter for a National bank in Mahnomen until every possible effort to reopen the the closed banks has been exhausted. At the present time both banks in the county seat of Mahnomen are closed. From the tenor of remarks at the meeting it was evident that there is confidence that the banks will be reopened, and that there is no sentiment for a third bank. The following article appeared in the Minneapolis Journal last week:

"The state banking department is making efforts to bring about the reopening of the Security State Bank and the Citizens State Bank, both of Mahnomen, Minn., closed voluntarily because of lack of sufficient reserve, A. J. Viegel state bank examiner, said today.

"The closing of the two banks at Mahnomen, the county seat of Mahnomen county has not affected other banks in the county, which are in good solvent condition, Mr. Viegel said.

"These include the Farmers State Bank at Waubun, Minn., the Waubun State Bank and the Farmers State Bank at Bejou."

Citizenship Hearing Sept. 24

Two applications for citizenship will be heard at the court house in this city on Sept. 24, when Andrew Grindeland of Warren and Examiner R. K. Doe will be here to hear Arne E. Vik of St. Hilaire and Oscar Anderson of Thief River Falls. Both are natives of Norway. The number of applicants for citizenship is steadily decreasing, nearly all the foreigners in this section having been naturalized.

WINTER SHOWS TO BE HELD IN CITY DEC. 4-7

Arrangements Under Way to Have Exposition in Connection With Poultry Show.

Small Grains, Corn, Grasses and Potatoes Added to Poultry Exhibits This Year.

No Livestock Department at This Time Owing to Lack of Exhibition Quarters.

Altho on a smaller scale than according to the first proposed plans, Thief River Falls and Pennington county will have a winter show this year. This was made certain at a meeting Tuesday evening which was attended by members of the Pennington County Poultry association, representatives of the Commercial club and others interested. It was decided to conduct the winter exposition in conjunction with the poultry show which has been scheduled to take place this fall, December 4, 5, 6 and 7. According to present plans the exhibits will be shown at the auditorium.

The show, beside the poultry exhibits, will also include specimens of corn, potatoes, grasses and small grains, only the grains being limited to only Pennington county exhibitors. There will be no exhibit of livestock this year owing to the lack of proper quarters for a display of that department. It is, however, expected that as the show grows in popularity it will be enlarged to include all classes of exhibits.

Intentions of those in charge are to use the same agricultural exhibits to represent the Winter Crop show at Crookston as will be shown here, in that way eliminating extra effort on the part of those who wish to exhibit at both shows.

In connection with the regular show there will also be meetings of various kinds in the interest of better farming in this community, which will be addressed by experts of poultry, grains and other lines of farming.

The Commercial club at a meeting today will take further action in the matter and committees will be named to make the detailed arrangements for the event. Definite plans for the exhibition will be made known by The Times as soon as they are available.

POULTRY RAISERS OF COUNTY GIVEN PRAISE BY EXPERT

Favorable Mention of Thief River Falls Flocks by Stanfield In Farm Journal.

Pennington county poultry fanciers were given a good boost in a recent issue of the Northwest Farmstead in which appeared an article written by W. E. Stanfield, prominent poultry judge and authority on poultry raising, who has been in this community at various occasions in connection with the activities of the Pennington County Poultry Association. Following is the article as it appeared in the Farmstead:

"Go farther north and west to Pennington county, and there we find flocks making fine records. One day last winter I chanced to stop off at Thief River Falls in making a train connection. Usually on such occasions I either see or call up some member of the poultry association and ascertain how things are coming. This time I had an opportunity of spending two or three hours with Olaf Neset, president of the Pennington County Poultry association. Regardless of the fact that it was 10 below zero or colder, I found Mr. Neset's flock of Reds doing fine, both hens and pullets shelling out the eggs. The main poultry house recently had been remodeled and made into a Northwest Farmstead model, and is lighted by electricity. The weather was very cold but this poultry house was dry as tinder, and the ventilation was perfect. The air inside was clean; there was no old-fashioned poultry house odor. A flock of Reds like Mr. Neset's is a sight well worth going a distance to see, especially when seen by electric light.

"A neighbor nearby who is feeding 350 Leghorn pullets for winter egg production, reported 145 eggs on the day of our call and found a ready market for every egg in Thief River Falls at top price which was 58 cents, almost five cents an egg. Now, there is some satisfaction in picking these 'nickels' from the nests. This neighbor, H. L. Schuster, is a printer by trade, and cares for his flock of Leghorns during time off from his regular work. We must not overlook the fact, however, that there is a Mrs. Schuster and what could we accomplish if it were not for the cooperation of the women in this poultry work?

"Pennington county is making rapid advances in the poultry industry, and is just another of the northern counties that are fast coming to the front in poultry work.

"Just a few miles south of Thief River Falls is the little station of Plummer, Red Lake county. It is there we find G. A. Krueger of White Rock fame. Mr. Krueger is a very busy man; besides being one of the leading Rock breeders of the United States, Soo station agent, postmaster, and secretary of the National White Rock club, he raises about 300 White Rocks a year and some of the best at that, judging from his national and state winnings. Mr Krueger is building a 60-foot Northwest Farmstead model poultry house on the farm where his White Rocks are kept."

CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING IS SAPIRO THEME

Large Delegation of Pennington County People Hear Marketing Expert at Crookston.

Growers Advised to Stop Dumping of Crops Thru Sapiro Plan at Meeting Monday.

Organization Necessary to Assure Producers of Returns on Commodities Raised.

Aaron Sapiro, America's foremost organizer of co-operative marketing, spoke for more than two hours on his favorite subject, before an audience of 1200, at the Armory, in Crookston, Monday evening. While not an orator, in the popular meaning of the word, the Californian had a message to deliver and he choose the common words of everyday conversation to deliver it in, and during the two hours he spoke he held the attention of the audience so closely that not a whisper other than his voice was heard in the big hall. He is like a very prominent teacher explaining a set of problems to his class of pupils, approaching each principle point from several angles and telling it over again two or three times. When he was through every listener knew exactly what he had been talking about, and went home with a full understanding of the Sapiro method of co-operative marketing organization.

All the counties in the northern portion of the Valley, as well as Clearwater and Beltrami to the east, were represented at the meeting.

Pennington county farmers and business men showed their interest in the event by sending a large delegation, the section of the armory of 150 seats reserved for Pennington visitors, being nearly filled. Most of those who attended went in a body, an automobile delegation having been organized by the Commercial Club of Thief River Falls. The local members of the tour were joined by several interested persons at St. Hilaire and Red Lake Falls. Members of the group say that it was one of the most interesting meetings they had ever attended, and express much enthusiasm over the cooperative marketing plan outlined by Sapiro at the Crookston gathering. It was characterized as the most significant conference ever held in the section for the consideration of a practical solution of an economic problem.

There are two types of co-operative marketing now in use, says Sapiro. The oldest is the English system, under which the present Minnesota cooperatives are working; the second is the Danish system which in this country has become the California system.

The English system, he says, is well adapted to the needs of an industrial country and is perfectly all right in its place, but the Danish system is the one that fits agriculture and has been worked out in great detail and with much success in Scandinavia, Switzerland and Saxony, and in this country in California.

The present system of marketing farm products in this section is described by Sapiro as the "dumping

MANY BOYS ANSWER CALL OF COACH FOR FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Anticipation of Fast Eleven Under Able Direction of Coach Thune, All State Man.

The call for foot-ball candidates issued by coach Leonard Thune shortly after the opening of school last week was answered by a greater number of candidates than at any previous time at the local high school, and although few of last year's veterans are back in the line-up, prospects are good for a fast team that will win a majority of its games.

A light, fast team, composed almost entirely of new men especially trained in open field work will meet Lincoln High's opponents on the gridiron this fall. No attempt has been made as yet to pick the first team from the thirty or forty men who report for practice every evening, as Coach Thune wants to try out his prospects in various positions before assigning each player his position on the team.

It is, of course, impossible to foretell this early in the season which candidates will win the coveted positions on the first team, but after the first week of practice quite a number are showing exceptionally good form and will make strong bids for places on the team. Math Barzen is the only man of last year's team back in the line-up. As he is the heaviest man on the team, he may possibly be used in the line as guard, where his weight will be needed. Others who are out for positions in the line are Roy Langevin, Russell Olson, Orrin Storholm, Lawrence Bjorkman, Joe Gavin, Millard Myrin, Thomas Melgaard, Donald McCrum, Thomas Belland and about twenty others of more or less experience. For the backfield there are "Dutch" Zeh, Michael Parenteau, Arthur Penney. "Toby" Holmgren, captain and if he does not return there may some difficulty in filling the full-back position. Barzen, who played this position for the past four years, graduated last spring. Zeh is a brainy player, fast on his feet and an accurate passer and punter, and may be used at quarter-back. There are also several new men at the school this year that may furnish good material for the team.

Coach Thune comes well qualified for the task of building up a strong foot-ball team out of green material, having played end on the Albert Lea high school team and also at South Dakota State College. Last year their team won the championship of the conference which is made up of South Dakota University, South Dakota State College, North Dakota University, North Dakota Agricultural College, Morningside University, Creighton, University of Omaha, Des Moines University and Nebraska Wesleyan. Mr. Thune was placed on the mythical all-state eleven. Last spring he assisted in coaching spring football.

Mr. Thune has also proven himself a basket-ball player of high calibre, having played center on the Albert Lea high school team in 1919 when they won the state championship, and was chosen all-state center that year. The four following years he played center on the South Dakota State College team of Brookings, and has been the unanimous choise each year for all-state collegiate center. One year he was captain of the team that won the conference championship. Last year he coached the girls' basket ball team at South Dakota State College. He is looked upon as one of the two or three most outstanding basket ball men that the Northwest has produced in the last years.

The foot ball scedule for the season has not yet been completed, but it is expected that the same teams will be placed as in former years.

Pass Resolution Asking For Tuberculin Tests of Cows Supplying City Milk

At the regular meeting of the Commercial club last week a resolution was passed asking the city council to pass an ordinance providing that all bovines furnishing milk in the city must be tuberculin tested. It was brought out in discussions by physicians that a great deal of the tuberculosis in people is being contracted from cows thru milk, and that there is an urgent need for a regulation of this kind.

Train Kills 60 Turkeys

How sixty turkeys were killed by a train near Oslo was chronicled by the Oslo Tribune recently: "One morning last week as the Soo passenger was bowling along at an unusual speed a mile west of town a flock of turkeys belonging to Mrs. James Campbell were feeding along the track. The warning from the locomotive did not scare them away and after the train passed some sixty were found killed and badly mangled."

DAIRY BOOSTER MEETING TO BE HELD IN T. R. F.

Farmers and Business Men Will Discuss Dairy Problems Next Thursday, Sept. 20.

Gathering to Start With Luncheon at Six O'clock Followed By Session of Talks.

Delegates to State Fair Will Address Big Meeting Arranged By Commercial Club.

A real, honest-to-goodness Dairy Booster meeting will be held at the Commercial club rooms next Thursday evening, Sept. 20, according to plans made by the entertainment committee of the club in session yesterday. Instead of having the club meeting at noon as usual, the booster gathering will be held at six o'clock, at which time a luncheon will be served at the small charge of 25 cents per plate.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss matters pertaining to the promotion of the dairy industry in Pennington county, and the session following the lunch will be taken in practical talks by local speakers, farmers and business men. Outside speakers may also be secured for the occasion.

A feature of next week's gathering will be reports and discussions by the members of the delegation to the state fair, sent as guests of the Commercial club. Much enthusiasm is now being shown in every means of furthering the cause of the dairy cow in this community and a meeting of this kind should be of more than passing interest to farmers and business men.

Home on Furlough

Sorenson was a junior in high school (last year) and one of its prominent athletes, being rated among the fastest basket-ball forwards in the district. Erickson graduated from the local high school with the class of 1920.

GOODRIDGE ELECTION CASE HEARD HERE BY GRINDELAND TUES.

Three Votes Thrown Out Resulting in Tie and Vacancy In School Office.

Judge Andrew Grindeland of Warren was in the city Tuesday to give final hearing in the Goodridge school election contest, which was brought up in district court recently. The election of Sig Anderson as member of the school board was contested by Palmer Tvedt on the grounds that the votes were not counted properly. A number of Goodridge citizens were present at the hearing, as witnesses and interested listeners.

The judge has not yet filed the official decision but it is understood that the election will be decided as a tie. Three votes counted in favor of Sig Anderson, in which only "S" preceded the "Anderson", were thrown out, as there is a Sivert Anderson for whom these votes may have been cast. By this action of the court the two candidates, Tvedt and Anderson, received the same number of votes and therefore neither one is legally elected. The names were written on the ballots, no regular printed ballots being used.

Pure - Breds
and Prosperity

There is more to the question of pure-bred stock than a matter of pedigree, registry and conformation to type. Successful dairymen will testify that the superiority of the pure-bred over the scrub also shows in the milk pail, and in the cream check

In prosperous farming communities, herds are headed by pure-bred sires, not because prosperous farmers can afford the luxury of pure-breds, but because the pure-breds have made the farmers prosperous.

The Citizens State Bank stands ready to co-operate at all times with the man who wishes to grade up his herd with pure-breds.

GREAT NORTHERN EXPLAINS ITS OWNERSHIP

There are outstanding 2,494,730 shares of Great Northern stock, of the par value of $100.00 each. Each share represents an equal ownership in the property of the Great Northern Railway and each share has an equal voice in all shareholders' meetings, including those for the election of directors.

On December 31, 1922, these shares were owned by 44,314 men and women in all walks of life, and by organizations and institutions, as follows:

Number of men	24,416
Number of women	18,113
Insurance companies and miscellaneous corporations	1,616
Hospitals, charitable bodies, religious and educational institutions	169

The wide distribution of these holdings is shown in the following table:

Only 3,286 held over 100 shares each.
The average holding is only 56.2 shares.

Dividends have been paid on this stock since 1891. From 1900 to 1921 the dividend rate was 7 per cent per annum. In 1922 this was reduced to 5¼ per cent. and in 1923 to 5 per cent.

Many people in the territory traversed by the Great Northern are among its largest shareholders, and are therefore directly affected by its ability to pay a return on capital invested.

Most of the large life insurance companies have money invested in Great Northern securities. Therefore, nearly everyone who holds a life insurance policy, and many depositors in savings banks, are partners in the operation and development of this railway, and their livelihood is partly or wholly dependent on its ability to pay. Many of you belong to this class.

BIG MAJORITY ON OR NEAR ST. HIGHWAYS

Nine-Tenths of Minnesota Population Within Ten Miles of Primary Highway.

More than nine out of ten people in Minnesota live within ten miles of a state trunk highway, frequently called Babcock roads, according to a survey just made public by Thomas H. McDonald, Washington, D. C., chief of the United State bureau of public roads.

All Minnesota cities and towns of more than 2,500 population, with one exception, are located on trunk routes, the governmental officials found.

"Minnesota has made rapid strides in improvement of highways and now ranks favorably with any state in the union in its federal highway program," said Mr. McDonald.

Out of an authorized total of 7,513 miles, Minnesota has designated 6,793 miles of trunk routes for federal aid construction. It has completed 1,895 miles and has 72 per cent finished 619 additional miles. About 40 per cent of the expense of these improvements is met with government apportionments and the balance with the proceeds of the motor vehicle taxes.

Congress contemplates additional yearly appropriations so that the highway systems may be improved as the public service demands, Mr. McDonald said. The government officials desire to see a connected system of federal aid highways, running through all the states and are co-operating with state highway officials to that end.

The government through its bureau of public roads keeps a close check on all federal aid improvements on the highways and sees to it that the funds are used to best serve the largest possible numbers. This is made clear in the Minnesota survey to ascertain the proportion of highway users on the main or trunk highways.

Heavy Losses by Bemidji Business Firms in Blaze

Fire of undetermined origin swept the business district of Bemidji early Tuesday, causing damage of more than $10,000. The places burned were the Kittleson Confectionary and Pool Hall; William Krause, soft drinks; Wold and Olson, grocers; Pete Caulfield and Tim Quinn, soft drinks. The property damage is said to have been insured at about half the amount of loss. Firemen were unable to check the flames for several hours, because of a defective pump, according to reports.

Plummer Man Arrested on Prohibition Law Violation

The Red Lake Falls Gazette of last week carried the following account of the arrest of a Plummer man on charges of violating the prohibition act:

"Theo. Lemieux who operates a soft drink bar at Plummer was arrested Sunday morning by Special Officer Frank S. Stroup on a charge of transporting and being in possession of three gallons of moonshine. Mrs. Frank Snyder, mayor of Plummer hired Mr. Stroup to get evidence of liquor law violation.

"Stroup, suspecting Lemieux lay in wait at a cache in the brush about one and a half miles from Plummer and when Lemieux came up to fill some bottles from the main supply Stroup arrested him, and seized three gallons of what is alleged to be moonshine.

"Stroup phoned for Sheriff Chas. Fellman and meanwhile allowed Lemieux to go home to dinner. According to Sheriff Fellman when Lemieux returned from dinner he carried a hammer under his coat and suddenly took it out and smashed the bottle in the car in order that there might be no evidence against him, tho he apparently was unaware of the provisions of Section 4, Chapter 428 of the Minnesota laws for 1923 which reads:

"'The destruction, removal or concealment, or attempted destruction, removal or concealment of any vessel, jug, container or receptacle of any kind apparently containing intoxicating liquor in any such place or premises while a search thereof is being made under the provisions of this act, shall be prima facie evidence that such vessel, jug, container, or receptacle contained and contains intoxicating liquor and the removal, concealment, destruction, pouring out, or changing the character of any liquid in any such place or premises or the attempt to do so while a search thereof is being made under the prima facie evidence that such liquid was and is intoxicating.'

"Sheriff Fellman took Lemieux to Red Lake Falls and lodged him over night in the county jail. Monday afternoon he was brot before Justice P. E. Pouliot, entered a plea of not guilty and waived preliminary examination. Justice Pouliot bound Lemieux over to the Red Lake county district court for trial and fixed his bail at $500. Bail was furnished and Lemieux was released the same day."

SPECIAL SESSION QUESTION BEFORE BUREAU DIRECTORS

State Federation's Supreme Governing Body Considering Wheat Problem.

Whether the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation is to support the movement to obtain a special session of Congress and legislation to relieve grain farmers is being settled today at the state fair.

County Directors, holding their annual fall business session, were asked by J. F. Reed, president, to outline a policy for the administration to follow. Decision to bring the subject before the meeting was announced by President Reed, in a statement issued late last week.

"For weeks," Mr. Reed's statement says, "pressure has been exerted on the state office to head up a movement that is now well developed in the western counties of the state and in North and South Dakota. The administration is acting under instructions given it by the Executive Board, at its July 12 meeting, to solidly support the project to hold the exportable surplus on farms, preferably in farm granaries.

"Late in July and during August, a number of conferences were held in the western part of the state. Many of these passed identical resolutions, asking the Farm Bureau Federation to support the plan.

"The administration has been powerless to act, other than under instructions given it by the executive board. It is not my purpose to discuss here, the merits of the special session proposal. The county director's supreme governing power in the federation, will have an opportunity to direct the association's course. I shall bring up the question and give all concerned ample time in which to present their views.

"Shrewd farmers will see in the present situation, the necessity for using poor grades of wheat as feed at every opportunity. At present prices, such wheat is more valuable when fed to livestock than wheat disposed of in any other way."

The movement to force a special session of Congress, with the expectation that legislation will be enacted to relieve farmers, has been widespread for several weeks. A score of conferences have been held and leaders have been actively debating the issue, some declaring such action is the only possible solution to the problem and others holding it wholly unsound economically and impossible of realization.

CALLS FOR BIDS ON 12 MORE ROAD JOBS

Commissioner Babcock Enabled To Advance Highway Program Through 1923.

Bids will be opened publicly on 12 proposed improvements on trunk highways in different parts of the state in St. Paul on Sept. 26 under a call made this week by Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner. The list includes more than 70 miles of grading, 13 of gravel-surfacing and 9 bridges, all estimated to cost about $500,000, and to be paid for mainly with county reimbursement bond proceeds.

All graveling and much other work is to be done this winter, both to obtain lower prices and to give the public the earliest possible use of the improvements. Contractors having equipment near any of the projects, it is prointed out, can bid to special advantage. The list:

T. H. No. 1—At Split Rock, 80-foot bridge, and at Beaver Bay, 300-foot bridge, both estimated at $52,000.

T. H. No. 2—Moorhead-Glyndon, 13 miles of graveling, at $15,000.

T. H. No. 3—Newport-St. Paul, 5 miles of grading, at $25,000.

T. H. No. 4—Windom-Jackson, 27 miles of grading, 2 bridges, at $200,000.

T. H. No. 6—Hallock-Donaldson, 17¼ miles of grading, 1 bridge, at $125,000.

T. H. No. 6—North of Canby, monolithic culvert at $2,000.

T. H. No. 9—In Jackson, ½-mile of grading at $6,000.

T. H. No. 12—East of Dawson, monolithic culvert at $2,000.

T. H. No. 20—North of Cannon Falls, 18-foot bridge at $2,000.

T. H. No. 23—Foley-Milaca, 15½ miles of graveling at $30,000.

T. H. No. 23—West of Richmond, 18-foot bridge at $2,000.

T. H. No. 50—Farmington-Lakeville, 5½ miles of grading, special tiling and drainage, estimated at $30,000.

While nearly all the projects are made possible now by county reimbursement bonds, an exception is that on T. H. No. 50 between Farmington and Lakeville, where the grind of heavy traffic has made the stretch almost impassable and forced improvement to include paving next year.

Field Selection of Seed Corn Is Advised as Best

"Early selection of seed corn is good insurance for a good corn crop in 1924," says Andrew Boss, vice director of the Minnesota Experiment Station. Year by year King Corn has increased his sway in Minnesota until, according to the crop reporters of the United States Department of Agriculture, his acreage in the state is greater than the acreage of any other single crop.

Field selection of seed corn as soon as the ears are mature and as early as Sept. 10 to 20 to avoid heavy frosts, is strongly advised by Minnesota Experiment Station men who with the help of progressive farmers of the state have developed early maturing, high yielding varieties which are making Minnesota a foremost corn state.

"The best seed corn is selected in the field as soon as the ears are mature but the plant still green," says F. H. Steinmetz of the division of farm crops and farm management at University Farm. "If the selection is not made until husking time, when the plant is dead, there is no good opportunity for studying the plant for vigor and general characters. There is a possibility of selecting ears which were frozen prematurely or were not dry enough to be safe from frost killing. There is also great danger of loss in viability when the seed corn is selected from the crib at planting time. The germination test of such corn is frequently very low. If the seed is gathered early and stored properly the germination will be high in the spring."

Journal Comments on Delegation to State Fair

The action of the Thief River Falls Commercial club in sending a delegation of ten farmers to the Minnesota state fair is receiving publicity throughout the state. This move on the part of the business men is an indication of their progressive spirit in the promotion of better farming among the farmers of this community. Particular stress is being put on the dairy industry. The Journal's comment in a last week's issue follows:

"Word was received by the fair that the Thief River Falls Commercial club has selected a delegation of 10 farmers in Pennington county, representing different types of farming, to attend the fair at the expense of the club. The commercial club also will send some of its own members. A constructive program for the betterment of agriculture in Pennington county will be worked out and taken back by the joint committee."

Bushelage of Marketing Association Increasing

Not alone in the northwestern states has there been rapid increase in the bushelage handled by wheat growers association according to W. H. Frederick, Secretary of the Minnesota Wheat Growers Association. In Oklahoma, a state which is not a part of the northern marketing group, growers have already delivered half as much wheat to the 1923 pool as during all last year, Mr. Frederick point out. "Wheat in the southwest is being delivered at a rapid rate and employees are working overtime handling a huge volume of business," he said. "It is declared that at least ten million bushels will be handled in Oklahoma this year through the cooperative organization. In our own states the growth from last year is even more important. The membership in North Dakota has increased five-fold. In Montana several thousand new members have been added. In the states of Washington and Oregon every bushel signed by members of the associations is being handled and arrangements having been made with bankers whereby all mortgaged wheat moves through the marketing concerns.

A Big Underwear Purchase

What is believed to be the largest purchase of its kind ever made was put through here yesterday when the J. C. Penney Company, which operates a chain of 475 dry goods stores throughout the country and which has offices at 370 Seventh Avenue, contracted for 55,000 dozen nainsook union suits of the athletic style. The goods are meant for sale in the company's stores next spring and summer. The purchase involves 660,000 separate garments, but its size, in money, was not given for publication. It is understood that several other large transactions in merchandise for delivery next spring are in propect.—New York Times.

Back Wash

THE business of refining petroleum has many hazards—not the least of which accrues from the necessity of balancing the supply with the demand.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) always has kept itself in a position to supply the demand of its customers for petroleum products, no matter how great or abnormal the demand might be.

During the winter months, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) refined and stored large quantities of gasoline in anticipation of the busy summer season. Other refiners in the Middle West pursued the same course.

In previous years the midcontinent refiners have found a ready market for their surplus product on the Atlantic seaboard.

This year the heavy, unprecedented and unlooked-for California production upset calculations. Enormous quantities of California crude petroleum and California gasoline were shipped to the Eastern seaboard by boat, flooding the market and cutting off one of the principal outlets of the midcontinent refiners.

The result was a back wash of distress gasoline in the Middle West which had to be sold.

It was this distress gasoline that the Governor of South Dakota was able to purchase at less than the present day cost of manufacture and distribution. By selling it without profit, and without any expense for distribution, he was enabled to announce a drastic, temporary reduction from the then existing selling price.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) while protesting that it was below the cost of production, refining and distribution plus a reasonable profit met this price because it is the established principle of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) that its customers shall be able to buy its products as cheaply as they can buy similar products from any competitors.

The success achieved by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is due in larger measure to the fact that at all times it has held paramount the welfare of its customers whose respect and esteem it has won and intends to hold.

DAIRY INDUSTRY OF STATE SHOWS STEADY ADVANCE

Total Sales of 830 Creameries in Minnesota For Year 1922 Brings $72,928,773.

Butter Output Doubled Since 1913. Value of 1922 Output $7,000,000 Over 1921.

Total of 600 Creameries Are Co-Operative. 425 in Minn. Co-Operative Association.

The value of butter produced in Minnesota has doubled in the last 10 years, so steadily and rapidly has diversified farming spread, and Minnesota farmers received throughout 1922 an average of 33 1-3 per cent more a pound for butterfat delivered to creameries than in 1913, says the Minneapolis Journal.

Figures covering the operating of the 830 creameries in Minnesota completed recently by Chris Heen, Minnesota dairy and food commissioner showed:

The sale price of butter produced and sold by these creameries last year was $72,928,773.82.

The value of Minnesota's butter output increased $7,000,000 last year over the record of 1921.

It rose from $34,955,864 in 1913 to more than double that value in 1922.

The average price paid to farmers for their butterfat in 1922 was $.4073 a pound, and in 1913 it was .3154.

The farmer patrons of the 830 creameries received $64,036,143.55 of the $72,928,773.82.

Running expenses of the creameries totaled $7,283,970.86.

The sale price of all the butter in 1921 was $65,737,460.10 or 11 per cent less than 1922. There were 193,906,937 pounds produced in 1922 and 169,948,472 in 1921. The price paid for butterfat in 1921 was $.4193 a pound.

The rise in the amount and value of Minnesota butter in 1922 increased its lead over all the states in this particular. The state's butter production is greater than that of all Canada.

The steady growth in diversified farming is shown in the record of increasing butter production in Minnesota in the last 10 years.

The pounds of creamery butter produced in 1913 were 123, 178, 912 and the sale price, $34,955,864.

1916—132,390,172 and $41,011,719
1918—133,059,683 and $63,383,257
1919—143,176,204 and $80,793,278
1920—139,229,843 and $79,622,867
1922—193,906,937 and $72,928,773

The figures for butter are the largest item in the returns of the Minnesota dairy farm, but by no means the only item, Mr. Heen pointed out. In addition, there is the skim milk, the cheese, the whole milk production, the dairy calves, and the butter and cream consumed on the farm.

The farmer patrons of the creameries in 1922 were 134,311. In 1921 they were 127,583. The cows owned by them in 1922 were 1,230,583 and in 1921 1,172,315.

Mr. Heen said that particularly gratifying is the fact that 87 per cent. of the total money received for the butter by the creameries is received by the farmer.

In 1920 the price paid the farmer for a pound of butterfat was $.6339; in 1919 it was $.6320; in 1918, $.5272 and in 1910 the first year in which this figure was reckoned, $.3076.

The number of creameries has not increased proportionately: In 1906 there were 726 creameries and in 1913 there were 852, or 22 more than there were in 1922.

This decrease since 1913 in the number of creameries in the face of a doubled value of butter spells the rise of the farmers' co-operative creameries.

A large proportion of the creameries then were private and each handled a comparatively small amount of cream. Now 600 of the creameries are co-operative. A larger number of farmers haul to each creamery, and this greater volume enables larger creameries with better equipment to be installed, and better and more highly paid buttermakers to be employed.

Of the 600 co-operatives, 425 belong to one organization, the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries association.

"Another reason for the increase in the value of the butter," A. J. McGuire, general manager of this association, said, 'is that more creameries are making high class butter today than ever before. Up to two years ago not one-third of the creameries now composing the association sold their butter at the top premium price paid in New York for butter. Now, nearly one-half of our creameries get higher prices for their products; within a year fully half if not more, will make this price.

"Several of our creameries are grading their cream now, and paying farmers strictly according to quality. They are raising the quality of the cream on the farm. The Mora creamery paid an average of 44.2 cents a pound for butterfat for its best grade of cream last year.

"We look for a real advance in this matter of quality butter. We now have employed a sales manager, H. F. Meyer of New York, formerly sales manager for one of the largest wholesale butter houses in the country, and we expect to obtain a better average price through better merchandizing. Instead of 400 creamery managers seeking to sell their product, we will have one creamery offering in the market."

Mr. McGuire said increased consumption of butter and decreased production throughout the country due to increased sale of milk from the farmers rather than cream have been factors in holding up the price of butter.

Sheldrew Leaves.

George Sheldrew for the past three years manager of the Peoples Co-operative store, has resigned his position and went early this week to Grygla, where he will assume a similar position with the Grygla Co-operative store. Mr. Sheldrew was with the Grygla store for several years before coming here, and is well acquainted with his new territory. After he left Grygla he managed a store at Carmel for a time, and then came to work for Oen's Department store During the time he has had charge Mr. Sheldrew has built up the Peoples Co-operative store to a point where they can report increasing business during a period when business conditions are anything but favorable.

M. N. Benson, who has had charge of the local Standard Oil station this season, and for many years a Thief River Falls merchant, has been appointed to succeed Mr. Sheldrew and took charge as soon as a man was appointed to take his place with Standard Oil.

Few Marriages In August

The cold weather in August together with the impending coal strike seems to have put the quietus on Cupid. Only five marriage licenses were issued by the clerk of court during the month of August, two of these being parties from outside of the state and another of the contracting parties being Mexicans temporarily employed in the sugar beet fields. Now that Governor Pinchot has assured a steady supply of coal at slightly increased prices and those eligible are beginning to realize that but a few months of real honey-mooning weather remain, dealers in household furnishings and performers of marriage ceremonies may hopefully look forward to increased business in the succeeding month.

STOCKYARD BOARD SUMMARIZES PROBE

But Six of 23 Individuals Involved in Probe Even Conditionally Reinstated.

A 2,400-word summary of the recent federal investigation of commission houses doing business on the So. St. Paul market was issued last week by a joint board of arbitration, appointed to hear individual applications for re-instatement. But six of 23 individuals who were members of firms suspended have been allowed to return to the market in any capacity. Briefly stated, disposition of applications to return to the yards is as follows:

Allowed to resume by Stockyards Co.	1
Allowed to resume by Committee	1
Allowed to seek employment in yards	4
Denied privilege of resumption	6
Discontinued business	6
Suspended, with no further action contemplated	5
Total	23

Variance between this summary and a statement of last week listing 22 persons is due to the fact that this statement includes one re-instatement by the Stockyards company.

The board of arbitration, appointed to consider individual applications after 16 firms had been either fined or suspended, was made up of two representatives of the Stockyards company, two representing the Livestock Exchange and one representing the federal supervisor's office.

"Livestock shipping associations," the statement says, "whose shipments may have been involved in irregularities are, or should be, in touch with N. J. Holmberg, state Commissioner of Agriculture, who can, under state laws and in co-operation with the Packers and Stockyards Administration assist in providing such information as will permit Association Directors to properly examine into the management of their association affairs.

"In a general way," last week's statement says, "Decision in the several cases was as follows:

"W. T. Rodgers permitted to operate a commission business provided he has no partners or others financially interested and provided his business is conducted with due regard for his responsibilities as an agent.

"J. H. Magnus, T. R. Alcorn, M. J. Roberts, W. Jorgenson: Permitted to operate only as employees with no financial interest in any company, providing such employment is reported to the committee and company, and its approval obtained.

"Con. L. Kuckler, N. E. McKissick, A. W. Koehler, J. F. Hurley, P. H. Amundson, R. A. Miller: Denied the privilege of operating in the stockyards at So. St. Paul or as an employe of market agency or dealer in any capacity whatsoever.

"The following were not heard by the committee and are not permitted to resume operations at So. St. Paul:

"R. S. Bacon, Arthur Abrahamson, Herbert Chandler, J. E. Gibbons, H. E. Carnes, N. Shoemmer, Geo. Libren, J. E. Minkman, A. N. Thome, R. E. Vassau, and S. F. Page.

"The statement includes the business connections of each of these former dealers; facts well known to farmers who are familiar with the So. St. Paul market.

S. B. Ferguson, the statement says, was cleared by the Stockyards company prior to the appointment of the committee upon proof that he was not a member of the suspended commission firm during the audit period.

Books of the three co-operative selling agencies have been checked and audit reports are now in the hands of the U. S. Secretary of Agriculture," the statement says. A list of firms whose books were audited and no irregularities found is contained in the summary.

"With the audit complete, except for stocker and feeder dealers, traders and speculators, the situation now is in excellent shape," the summary says.

Red Lake County Citizens Call Upon Commissioners To Enforce Volstead Law

An active campaign against the "moonshiners" has apparently been inaugurated in Red Lake county, judging by recent action by some of its citizens and the board of commissioners.

A delegation of some ten men and women from the eastern end of the county, headed by Mrs. Frank Snyder, mayor of Plummer, and W. B. Torgerson, of Oklee, together with F. G. Stroup, private detective, appeared before the county board at their September session urging that the board appropriate sufficient funds to insure enforcement of the liquor laws in the county. After some argument the board decided to appropriate $200 more for the county attorney's contingent fund to use as he saw fit in enforcing the law.

system" by which every farmer becomes his neighbor's competitor in selling and results in crowding the products onto the markets faster than it is needed so that it breaks the price, while the co-operative way he describes as the "merchandising system" whereby all produce sell together and divide the proceeds. He does not favor fixing prices of products by the co-operative organizations but wants to let supply and demand take its course, and says experience proves that when the supply and demand is not interfered with by dumping the price will stay at a level satisfactory to the [illegible]

Describing what happened to last years potato market Sapiro said that the crop estimated was 450 millions bushel, the market demand was 350 millions bushel, and the producers came to the conclusion that someone would get left with a part of the 80 million bushel surplus, and each one determined he would not be one. So they all rushed their potatoes into the markets and broke the price hopelessly. What actually happened after that was that about 78 millions bushel were left in the ground undug, so in the end there was no surplus and the producers had forced their crop on the market at a big loss, and eventually the consumers in the large eastern cities paid from five to eight times as much for potatoes as the producer had sold them for. For this, Sapiro says, the producers are to blame and the same thing will happen again unless they begin merchandising their crop instead of dumping it.

Giving his rules for successful cooperative marketing organization Sapiro said—

"Organize by commodity, not by district. Each commodity must stand by itself, under a separate organization. The handling of several commodites by the same organization has proven unsuccessful in practice. You must hire the best specialists in the marketing of that commodity that money can get, and pay the price that will get you the expert service. In California the nearest they have come to handling more than one product by the same organization with success is oranges and lemons, which have a common market. Everything else is separate.

Co-operative organization must be absolutely on a non-profit basis, and on a non-speculative basis. There must be no dividends. The cost of doing business is taken out of the products and balance turned back to the producer. You must do no business for non-members. Members must be enlisted on contracts that will hold good, and the terms of the contracts must be enforced. There must be no selling by members to dealers outside the association, except for local consumption or seed. There must be no guess work anywhere. Everything must be based on certainties. Absolute community of interest is the heart of the coopera-tive movement. More than 50 per cent. of the production of a commodity must be signed up before the contracts become effective. If you can not start out with a certainty of controlling the market do not start. One year contracts are of no value, you must have a period of years—five to fifteen years is usual—in order to secure the proper marketing organization and expert assistance.

All products in California are pooled by grades, and all in one grade get the same price. The directors of the cooperative have no better chance of selling their stuff than the smallest producer. Grading is strictly enforced, and the organization sends men directly to the producer's farm to show him how to grade his products.

890,000 farmers in the United States are now organized cooperatively and are selling their products under the Danish—or California—system. This includes the fruit growers on the west coast, poultry growers in California, cotton growers and tobacco growers in the south, and some other lines.

Cooperative marketing, says Sapiro, does not mean the saving of a little money in handling—it goes far beyond that and substitutes a new system, merchandising the product and following them to the final consumer instead of dumping them on the market. That is the point to keep in view. Individual selling puts the seller at the mercy of the buyer; centralized worth in proportion to other values.

At the noon luncheon of the Crookston Commercial club Mr. Sapiro told entertainingly the story of the raisin growers association in California. In 1912 the Fresno district was selling raisins for less than two cents a pound; the farmers were not getting the cost of production, business was stagnant in the villages and depression was evident everywhere. That year the first cooperative association was formed, an extensive campaign for new markets and for putting the product on the market in new ways was begun, and by the next year raisins were selling at four cents a pound, which was about a cent a pound above the cost of production. From then on the raisin districts began to prosper more year after year, the little stores in Fresno became great merchantile establishments, bank deposits ran up into millions, great public improvements were made, Fresno became the center of the prosperous farming community in the United States. In 1918, after prohibition came into effect, however, the cooperative movement there ran away. The big demand came for raisins for home-brew purposes and the leaders of the organization lost their heads and abandoned the markets they had so laboriously built up in order to turn the entire crop into the new channel. Prices went up as high as 20 cents a pound at one time. But the new demand passed away as suddenly as it came, and than the Fresno raisins growers found themselves back where they were in 1912 with the raisins selling at one cent a pound, and no market for it. A re-organization has been effected and a start again made towards rebuilding the markets along the old lines. This is the only industry however, in which a set-back has been had. Sapiro and some of the other leaders tried to induce them to set aside enough raisins at a reasonable price to supply the market that had been built, but were overruled.

Sapiro's present trip into Minnesota is to help in organizing the potato growers. Maine has already been organized, with 75 per cent. of the acreage signed up, and is now selling on the eastern markets through the organization. Colorado and Idaho have passed the 50 per cent. mark signed up. In Minnesota only a small start has been made so far, about 20,000 acres having been signed up. Red Lake is the only county that has raised its quota of 50 per cent. It is hoped to get the required 50 per cent. by next March, and then the contracts will come into force and the organization will become effective.

The amount of money taken in by the Soo Line during 1922, and how it was used, is shown by the following figures:

Soo Line Receipts in 1922

Freight rates	$35,530,000.00	74 %
Passenger fares	7,378,000.00	15 %
Mail, express, sleeping cars, etc.	3,496,000.00	7 %
Rent of cars, stations, etc.	1,999,000.00	4 %
Total	$48,503,000.00	100 %

Soo Line Expenses in 1922

Wages, all employes	$19,346,000.00	40 %
Materials and supplies (except fuel)	6,416,000.00	13¼ %
Fuel	5,898,000.00	12¼ %
Wear and tear of property, loss and damage claims, and miscellaneous operating expenses	4,914,000.00	10 %
Taxes	3,158,000.00	6½ %
Rent of cars, stations, etc.	969,000.00	2 %
Rent of leased roads	240,000.00	½ %
Interest on debt	6,468,000.00	13½ %
Surplus	995,000.00	2 %
Total	$48,403,000.00	100 %

84½% of the money went for wages, materials, taxes and other necessary expenses of operating the railroad.

13½% of the money went to pay interest on debt.

Only 2% of the money was left to provide for the payment of maturing indebtedness, improvements to the property, and a return to the stockholders on their investment.

Suppose that you paid $100 in freight to the Soo Line in 1922. If we divide this $100 among the employes, coal merchants, manufacturers, tax collectors, etc. in the same way as all the money is divided we get this result:

WHAT BECAME OF THE SHIPPER'S HUNDRED DOLLARS

Wages, all employes	$ 40.00
Material and supplies (except fuel)	13.25
Fuel	12.25
Wear and tear of property, loss and damage claims and miscellaneous operating expenses	10.00

The First Issue

This is the first issue of the High School Progress for the year of 1923-24 and is edited by the staff chosen last spring at the close of the term. We, the members of this staff, have resolved to do our utmost to carry on the high standard of journalism set by the preceding staffs and to keep up the paper's reputation for being one of the best school sheets in this state. Our work is made somewhat more difficult by the fact that there is no Journalism class in the school's course of study as in previous years but we hope to learn something of editing a paper through practical experience. If at first we make mistakes, as undoubtedly we will, we hope that our readers will be lenient with us and remember that we are just learning. Another thing that the staff would greatly appreciate on the part of the students is cooperating in collecting news. This paper belongs to the whole school, not just to the staff, and so if any student hears of anything he thinks should be printed, he would be helping to better the "Progress" by communicating this news to some member of the staff.

Honor Students

You remember last spring how grieviously you expressed regret, because your studies had been so carelessly neglected, while those who had put their shoulder to the wheel at the beginning of the term were rejoicing on account of the high honors given them.

Many wished they could have known of it beforehand and then they too would have studied harder. Did the students who were accorded the praise, know ahead of time that they were going to derive more than a good education from their efforts? They did not, and you will agree that the honors given them were truly earned.

Do you realize what it means to be an honor-student, and are you one? He is a student upon whom the teachers and the parents look with admiration. He is a person of whom the community boasts. He is the kind of a citizen that is truly representative of a good American, and he is the kind of a citizen that will carry on American standards.

And remember, that the honors of real conscientious work are the best recommendations a person can possibly have with him. People know that this is the necessary requirement of an efficient individual. It is therefore undoubtedly the wisest to "pitch in" and do your best right now. You will be pleased with the result.

Enrollment Equals That of Last Year

The total enrollment this term tends to be approximately the same as last year, although sixty people who enrolled last spring have not as yet returned. It is expected that the greater number of these students will be back before another week elapses which will make the total attendance over four hundred.

The enrollment up to date is:

Post graduates	19
Seniors	51
Juniors	88
Sophomores	108
Freshmen	104
Total	365

Faculty Picnic.

The members of the faculty that were here last year gave a picnic for the new teachers at Lover's Lane last Friday evening after school. A picnic dinner was served at six o'clock and the remainder of the evening was spent in getting acquainted with one another.

Matching Wits.

"Your corn looks kind of yellow," observed the city traveler to the farmer's boy who was hoeing the field.

"Yes," replied the rustic, continuing his work. "That's the kind we planted."

"You won't get more than half a crop," persisted the stranger, endeavoring to force an acquaintance.

"Don't expect to," said the boy, still hoeing. "The landlord gets the other half."

"Say, you are not far from a fool," sneered the city chap.

"Not more'n ten feet," continued the lad with a guffaw.

And the city chap moved on.

A 15-year old girl of Detroit has written these slogans for automobilists:

"Drive right and more pedestrians will be left."

"Watch your 'step on it.'"

"Taking the other fellow's dust is better than to dust returneth."

"Six feet have awaited many a driver who wouldn't give an inch."

New Books at Library.

The following new books were added to the public library during the month of August: A ten-volume set of "Mental Efficiency" books, "Road to Understanding" by Eleanor H. Porter, "The Book of Manners," by W. C. Green, and a set of "Social Culture," booklets by the Social Mentor Publications.

Annual School Picnic Friday at Lover's Lane

The annual high school marshmallow roast will be held at seven o'clock this Friday evening at Lover's Lane. The entire student body and the high school faculty are invited and all will be expected to attend. Every person is supposed to bring his own marshmallows and may bring as many or as few as he wishes.

The purpose of this annual picnic is to bring the new students, the old ones, and the faculty together so that they may become better acquainted with one another. For this reason, it is urged that everyone be there who possibly can. A further reason for attending is the fact that this is the first social event of the new year and everyone ought to show his school spirit by patronizing school affairs.

Personals

Clifford Sorenson arrived in Thief River Falls on a furlough from the Great Lakes Training Station. He has enlisted for four years service in the navy.

There are twenty-five pupils enrolled in the Primary room. The grades 1A and 2A have been changed to 1A and 2B.

Announcement.

Owing to the crowded condition of some of our classes, we cannot guarantee that those who enrolled last spring can get the subjects which they enrolled for unless they return to school by Friday, Sept. 14. We cannot hold places open any longer than that, because there are many others on the waiting list.

MORRIS BYE,
Principal.

Freshman Initiation Causes "Fresh" Sobs

The annual initiation event was pulled off with great sport on the evening of the first day of school.

"We treated them easy and friendly," are the words of a certain initiator but it is probably more enlightening to witness the blue results and listen to the weeping testimonies of unfortunate initiatees. A Freshman, however, who is involved the first time the initiators are out is considered very fortunate.

Fret not—.

This is the statement of one victim when interviewed by a Progress reporter.

"They must have thought we personified cows. We were rounded up from all parts of town to some place on the middle of Main street, where we expected to be horsewhipped, but luckily only chased to a filling station where we flocked together in a herd without shirts or caps, and then were drenched with ice cold water. Finally, we were driven to LaBree avenue in front of Black's and to our horror, placed on the fender of a Ford, and expected to sing for our missing paraphernalia, which wound up with "Fresh" sobs, and laughter from amused spectators."

University Offers Many Short Courses This Term

Activities of the University Department of Agriculture will get under full headway Wednesday, Sept. 26, when the fall quarter begins. September 17 to 25 is the period designated for the registration of new college students. Some of the outstanding dates for the university year, exclusive of the dairy short courses which run through the fall and winter months, are: January, 2-5, short course in cereal chemistry; January 7-12, farmers' and homemakers' week short course; February 4-23, horticultural short course; March 31 to April 5, boys' and girls' week short course; May 8-10, editors' short course; May 13-16, bookkeepers' short course. The first term of the School of Agriculture opens Monday, Oct. 1. A university bulletin containing an announcement ad description of courses for the year in the College of Agriculture, Forestry and Home Economics will be furnished free on request to the registrar's office at University Farm, St. Paul.

SENIORS ESTABLISH NEW CLASS OFFICE

Melvin Engelstad Re-elected as President of 1924 Class. Mr. Bye Chosen Advisor.

The class of '24 assembled on Monday afternoon for the first time this term. Many topics were successfully discussed and decided upon. The class set a precedent in establishing a new office and adding a new officer to the regular list. This officer is to be known as the class chaperon.

Miss Mildred Thompson, because of the efficient manner in which she advised the class last year, and because of her acquaintance and popularity with the students was chosen to serve in this office. The following class officers were elected:

Class Advisor	Morris Bye.
Class Chaperon	Miss Mildred Thompson.
President	Melvin Engelstad.
Vice-President	Math Barzen.
Secretary	Harriet Morgan.
Treasurer	Hazel Krause.
Sergeants-at-arms	Camille Warner. Elsie Blair.

Dear Freshmen!

We, the Seniors, being advanced in years, knowledge, and the art of handling the faculty, do hereby bequeath to the Infants of the School this knowledge gained by four years of struggle, worry, and suffering.

The first thing every Freshman should learn is how to enter the assembly. The best way to do this is to come running in at full speed, jump over any desks, pupils, faculty, etc., who are in your way, and finally settle down to repose singing: "Barney Google" or "Yes, We Have No Bananas" at the top of your voices.

Now, children, it is absolutely necessary for you to learn to handle the faculty (as the Seniors call the teachers.) First, you must make a good impression. To do this you must be kind and considerate. Bring candy, apples, gum, etc., to class with you and when your teacher seems inclined to be grouchy just pass her some refreshments. This will gain for you her everlasting gratitude. Everybody likes flowers. Remember this, Freshmen, and bring flowers every day. If wild flowers grow near your home so much the better. Golden rod, thistles, and autumn leaves are appropriate as gifts. If these cannot be found make paper and cloth flowers. Anything, just to give the impression that you are thoughtful. Flowers are a symbol. Remember the poet who quoted: "'Say It With Flowers."

The next subject that we will discuss is what to do upon entering the school building. The best thing to do is to go immediately to your teacher's room. Shake hands with her, compliment her on the way her hair is arranged, the freshness of her complexion, etc. Then sit down in a chair, pause for breath and ask her about the health of her relatives. After you have done this, promise her that you will never disturb her class. Remain in quiet repose until the bell rings. This is the signal for everyone to make all the noise he can. Jump rope, play tag, ring around the rosy, etc., are some of the ways to pass away the forty minutes of the class period.

The final subject in today's lesson is Blue Cards. When a Freshman has reached the nth degree of greatness in the school's esteem he will be given a blue card. Every person who receives a blue card must remain forty minutes after school. Now, infants, do not think that this is punishment—for it is not. When you begin to receive blue cards you must take it as a sign that the teachers are so fond of you that they must keep you after school to keep from expiring from lonesomeness after the bright light of your presence has departed. A student who receives twenty blue cards in one six weeks period will be given a medal. These cards are of a pretty Alice blue, guaranteed not to fade, and look very pretty when framed. Anyone would be proud to own a collection of them.

Now, children, today's lesson is ended, but remember this: If you take this advice from your elders and do as we have told you, blue cards, teachers' love, and happy days will follow you. We thank you.

—The Seniors.

Outlook Very Promising For Music Department

The long school year has again begun, and with it the school songbirds have flocked in. All last week Miss Maude Johnson was busy testing voices. Even the freshmen were eager to sing for her, but she refused them. The girls' and boys' glee clubs will be very large this year because there are more applicants than places in both cases. Although the Glee Clubs were both very large last year, yet they will likely be even larger this year, if places can be made.

Orchestra practice will begin next week, while the glee clubs are starting rehearsals this week. The music department has been good the preceding years, but Miss Johnson looks forward to an even better one this year, so the outlook for this year's music is very promising all around.

Just Missed Big Quake

Miss Ruth Myers of Vulcan, Mich., visited at the Henry Eyde home over Saturday night and Sunday on her way home from the Orient, having left Tokio just before the great earthquake and tidal wave that devasted a great part of Japan. Miss Myers taught school for two years in the Hawaiian Islands, and then made a tour of the Orient, visiting China, Manchuria, and Japan, and had just reached Seattle on the return trip when the news came of the world's greatest disaster. Instead of feeling fortunate at having left at the opportune moment, Miss Meyers wishes that she had been there to see it all. The edge of a typhoon swept Tokio as her ship was leaving port, sweeping the waves over the wharves so that an order was issued for all ships to leave immediately. The American liner on which Miss Myers returned cleared safely, however, and arrived in Seattle without mishap after a record run of nine days. The houses in Tokio are very unstable and close together, Miss Myers says, and she could easily imagine what a havoc an earthquake and fire must create in that greately overcrowded city.

ROSEWOOD

Auto Mishaps.

Three automobile mishaps have occured on the state road near this place within a short period. The first was with the Halvorson car, when a number of folks were attending the song rehearsals for the Sunday school picnic and in going home had the misfortune of a tipover shortly east of here. The car was considerably smashed, and Esther and Agnes Halvorson were taken to Thief River Falls for medical attention, the latter sustaining a badly sprained elbow muscle.

Last Sunday Elmer Blomberg and Victor Axelson in the Axelson car with the former at the wheel met a similar tip over at practically the same place, neither of the occupants were hurt but top, windshield and two wheels of the car were left out of commission. The accident was attributed to some loose sand near the road edge and loose steering connections. Last Saturday evening Emil Hellquist and Alfred and Thomas Thoreson in the former's Briscoe had a complete somersault on returning home from Thief River Falls where they had spent the evening, and left the car considerably wrecked. Over celebration evidently figured materially in this mishap but luckily none of the boys were seriously hurt, and they were able to return to Stephen the following day where they are employed during threshing and had spent a couple days at their parental homes here.

School opened for an eight month term at Rosebank last Monday morning with Miss Edith R. Patten from Thief River Falls as teacher. Twenty four pupils enrolled the first day.

FEDERATION REJECTS PRICE FIXING PLAN; CO-OPERATIVE URGED

"Yelling for Help" and Leaning On Government Condemned By Sapiro.

Farm Bureau day at the Minnesota State Fair last Thursday was marked by two important decisions; rejection of so-called price fixing proposals and Aaron Sapiro's warning that "yelling for help" has not and never will remedy economic evils from which farmers are suffering.

The price-fixing proposal was rejected by county directors at their annual fall business meeting, after prolonged debate. Introduced by V. E. Anderson of Wheaton, treasurer, a resolution placing the Federation behind the program that has been advocated at more than a score of conferences in western counties, met with instant opposition. The proposal involved re-establishing of the U. S. Wheat Corporation, a demand for a special session of Congress and the organization of a government board to aid farmers in stabilizing prices.

A motion to table the resolution, introduced by Ingbarth Bue of Rice county was lost, 9 to 13. Delegates voted against this motion, because, they said, they did not want to dismiss the subject without considering it on its merits. A motion to adopt also was lost, 10 to 7, with representatives from 11 counties not voting.

The proposal was advocated as an emergency step, needed at this time to relieve the crisis which farmers are facing.

It was opposed as economically unsound, impossible of realization and must result in a subsidy, in one form or another.

Under Federation regulations, adopted a year ago and used at the [illegible] annual meeting, only representatives from counties that had paid dues [illegible] the year were allowed to vote. [illegible] Sapiro, national authority on [illegible]rative marketing as practiced in [illegible] grain, told more than 2,000 farmers who gathered for the Farm Bureau day program that "yelling for help" and leaning on the government could not be expected to solve their marketing problem.

"You yelled for more credit and got it; still you have dollar wheat. You yelled for a "dirt" farmer on the Federal Reserve board and got it; and still you have 50-cent potatoes. You yelled for a tariff on farm products and got it; and you are no better off."

Mr. Sapiro's address was frequently referred to by delegates opposing the price stabilization resolution.

"Political action can not solve your marketing problem," he told his hearers. [illegible] the farmers of the state for their [illegible] production, urging them to attack the selling of their products with the same loyalty, intelligence and determination that they have used in growing crops and supporting their co-operative, thus far.

He outlined, at length, the wonderful story of what has been accomplished by the commodity co-operative in the Cotton growing states of the South, telling Minnesotans that what had been done with cotton could and would be done with wheat, potatoes, beans and, in fact, all farm products.

"You must realize that all political and governmental machinery will be useless to you, unless you are organized on a sound business basis. You must keep your business affairs in own grasp. You can do it, if you will."

Motorists in Minnesota Use 162 Million Gallons Gasoline During 12 Mos.

Minnesota autoists used 162,361,-700 gallons of gasoline during the 700 gallons of gasoline during the last twelve months, reports Hjalmer Nielson, state oil inspector.

Consumption included about 35,-000,00 gallons in Minneapolis and 25,-000,000 gallons in St. Paul, the report adds, indirectly indicating that the proposed gasoline tax for highway purposes would compel car owners in the large cities to continue to pay toward the cost of the main rural highways.

The motor vehicle bill for gasoline during the year was approximately $40,000,000, according to a state highway bulletin. That means that if it is possible to drive a car ten miles on the gasoline that propelled it nine miles before the highway program was started, the saving on gasoline alone is considerably more than the state highway tax on the machine. With tire and car repair savings, comfort, convenience, and all the other items considered, it is pointed out money used for good roads is well invested.

"It's no wonder you're such a little sissy," said the boy to Mary. "Your ma and pa were married by a justice of the peace."

"Well," answered the very independent Mary, as she wiggled her vampish fingers at him, "from the noise I hear coming from your house, your ma and pa must have been married by the Secretary of War."

THE experienced motorist—the driver in heavy traffic—the man who drives many hours a day—specifies Polarine. He takes no chances. He wants to know who guarantees the quality of the motor oil he uses.

Drivers of taxicabs and commercial cars are heavy users of Polarine. They know that scientific lubrication is more than an economy—it is a necessity. And they know that the name "Standard Oil Company (Indiana)" means scientific lubrication. Continually increasing sales prove that Polarine is delivering the best lubricating service obtainable.

There is a grade of Polarine which exactly fits the needs of your car (consult chart). In manufacturing Polarine the bore and stroke, piston design, valve construction, lubricating and cooling system—and all other mechanical features are considered carefully. Polarine insures full compression, hence, full power.

Use Polarine
THE PERFECT MOTOR OIL
Made in Five Grades

One of these will correctly lubricate your engine. It is of the right viscosity under all temperatures. Polarine resists heat—it does not break down—it maintains a perfect film between the moving metal parts. There's never a "dry spot" when you use Polarine.

Polarine limbers up quickly in cold weather. This means easy starting—less wear and tear.

It pays to ask "Who made this oil?" Polarine is made by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). For the makers of Polarine have the organization to produce the right lubricants and the pride of sustained ideals to maintain the quality of production over long periods of years. Quality always follows the name "Standard."

MANY CHANGES IN GAME LAWS OF MINNESOTA

Sportsmen Anxious For Opening Of Season Sunday, Sept. 16. Many Getting Ready.

Prairie Chickens May Be Shot After Two Years' Protection. Exceptionally Plentiful.

Hunters Need Familiarity With Game Law Changes. No Deer Hunting This Year.

Hunters are this year awaiting the opening of the season, Sunday, Sept. 16, with unusual interest, anticipating a very successful one. Local sportsmen are especially anxious because of the fact that there has been a closed season for prairie chickens for the past two years and they are now reported to be plentiful everywhere in this section. During the period of protection they are said to have increased in unusually large numbers, and many are expected to fill the full quota that the law allows in the course of the season, which is open for a period of two weeks, in the case of chickens.

Ducks are also reported to be present in these districts in considerable numbers and the duck hunters are wiping out their favorite shotgun, ordering shells and giving the necessary equipment the once over to make certain that everything is in readiness for the legal attack on the fowls. Much hunting will undoubtedly be done by local nimrods along the rivers in this vicinity, while a number will stray to more outlying points where birds are said to be more plentiful.

County Auditor T. P. Anderson says that a goodly number of hunting enthusiasts have already applied for licenses, but it is expected that the list will be greatly increased by the end of the week, as many will wait until Saturday or the first or next week before securing their permit. The license fee is one dollar. Because of the increasing numbers of available game, laws are yearly amended, however, and the sportsman will do well to familiarize himself with the statutes.

Outstanding in the changes for 1923-1924, is the closed season on partridge, deer and moose. Elk, caribou, beaver, otter, marten, plover, wood-duck and pheasants are also protected and fines imposed for killing at any time. Moose have been placed on the permanent protection list due to the steady decrease in numbers which threatened complete extinction. Deer can be hunted in only even number years, and that naturally means that the deer enthusiast must wait until next year. Ducks, which will occupy the stage for the next few weeks, can still be taken in fairly large quantities. Nimrods are still permitted 15 ducks a day and may have as many as 45 in their possession. The season limit for each hunter is 135. The limit on geese is five and other waterfowl fifteen.

Clip the following sunrise and sunset schedule and preserve it for reference:

Deer and moose—No open season until Nov. 19, 1924, the last legislature having closed the season on deer in odd numbered years. Season for taking moose has been closed indefinitely.

Rabbits — Snowshoe, or varying hare, may be taken from Oct. 15 to March 1 following. The use of nets, bags, traps, or similar contrivances in hunting rabbits with ferrets is prohibited.

Squirrels—Black, grey and fox squirrels, and black bear may be taken from Oct. 1 to Jan. 1 following. No squirrels may be hunted within the corporate limits of any village or city or within a quarter mile thereof. Steel traps are prohibited in the catching of black bear.

Muskrats, mink, etc.—Mink and fisher may be taken in any manner between Nov. 15 and March 1 following. Muskrat may be taken only by trapping between March 1 and April 30 following. Skunk may be taken in any manner between Oct. 15 and March 1 following. No person shall hunt or pursue mink or muskrat at any time with a dog.

Unprotected animals— Rabbits weasles, wild cats, lynx, wolves, fox, gophers and all other quadrupeds for which a closed season is not provided by law, may be taken either in the day time or at night and in any manner except that poison may be used only upon permission from the state game and fish commissioner and in a manner prescribed b yhim.

Quail—Open season Oct. 16 to Nov. 20. Only ten quail may be taken in any one season.

Partridges—No open season this year.

Prairie chicken—Prairie chicken may be taken between Sept. 16 and Oct. 1 this year. The daily limit is nine birds and no person shall take more than 18 prairie chickens in any one year.

Woodcock—Open season Oct. 1 to Nov. 30, daily limit 9, season limit 18.

Water fowl—Wild ducks, wild geese, coots, jacksnipes and yellowlegs may be taken between Sept. 16 and Dec. 31. Shooting is permitted one-half hour before sunrise but must close promptly at sunset. A person may take 15 wild ducks, coots, jacksnipe or yellowlegs in the aggregate of all kinds and not to exceed five wild geese in any one day. No person shall have more than 45 of the above named birds in their possession at any one time. Not more than 135 ducks may be killed in any one season. Water fowl may be taken during the open season from the land, from a stationary blind used to conceal the hunter and from a boat or canoe propelled by paddle, oar or pole, when the same is within a natural growth of weeds or other vegetation or in pursuit of wounded birds. Wild fowl may be taken from power or sail boats or upon the open water, or from sink boxes or permanent artificial blinds built in public waters. Live decoys are prohibited by law, but artificial decoys may be used. It is illegal to hunt from a'rplanes, also to use rifles in hunting waterfowl.

Over-Estimates of Crop Tend to Reduce Prices, Says Wheat Grower Mgr.

Few persons conceive the serious effect which over-estimates of the 1923 crop have had on the selling price of the wheat, according to George C. Jewett, general manager of the American Wheat Growers Associated. This organization is the national sales agency for nine state cooperative wheat marketing associations, of which the Minnesota Wheat Growers Cooperative Marketing association is one.

According to Mr. Jewett the preharvest season of 1923 is but one example of the fact that prices for wheat are artificially held down by too optimistic estimates, whether or not consciously made.

"Along in the spring of every year you begin to read about how much wheat the country is going to produce," said Mr. Jewett in discussing this matter. "Think back and see if I am not right. Can you recall one year when the spring and early summer estimates were not greater than the net results of the crop? This is true, not only of America, but of every other producing country, and the combined effect of such misleading propaganda has exerted a price pressure which has resulted in the loss of untold millions of dollars to our American farmers.

"It is odd but true fact that the foreign crop news service given most credit by American distributing people in the past has originated in Great Britain, a nation which is a heavy importer of wheat and consequently has a direct interest in seeing prices kept at a low point.

"But now we are finding a method for correcting this situation. Farmers, themselves, through their own organizations have established a statistical service which goes out and obtains truthful facts on crops and markets. The American Wheat Growers Associated maintains a complete statistical department which is interested only in getting the truth regarding the wheat situation.

"For instance, we knew for months that the anticipated record-breaking American wheat crop forecast this year was not going to be realized. We knew of the bad situation in Nebraska and South Dakota; that both acreage and climatic conditions were militating against the anticipated overwhelming yield in the Dakotas, Montana and Minnesota.

"As the market organizations grow larger the effect of this work of ours is becoming more noticeable, together with out ability to broaden our statistical activities. This work, of course, results in benefit to the unorganized grower as well as to the member of the association but through it we should be able to persuade more of the farmers outside of the organizations that their best interests lie in cooperation with us."

Young Gully Man Steals Two Cars But Is Caught

It isn't always safe to "borrow" a car,—especially without the owner's permission. At least that is the experience of a young Gully man who made two attempts to get away with cars not his own, and nearly killed a girl companion in a spill while making his get away. The Gully Advance of last week carried the following account of the adventures of the bold chap:

Sam Schibstad, formerly of Gully and who has been making Fargo his headquarters for some time past, "borrowed" a Ford coupe and in company with a young woman from Moorhead, left that place about 1:00 a. m. Monday headed for—only Sam knew where. About 7:30 the same morning, traveling east on the Jefferson Highway at a high rate of speed, Sam lost control of the car in loose gravel at a point near Red Lake—Polk county line between Oklee and Trail, and landed bottom side up in the ditch. Sam, who was practically uninjured, extricated himself and single handed raised the wrecked car and rescued his companion, who had sustained a broken collar bone and two fractured ribs. Dr. Shedlov was called from here and attended their injuries, bringing both parties here. After a short rest hiring a car they were driven to Bagley. Sam seemed very anxious to be on his way and, lacking other means, proceeded to attach himself to another "borrowed" car and with his female companion, started eastward. The theft of this car was known almost immediately and pursuers in a high-powered car overtook them before they had proceeded a half mile, and escorted them back to await the coming of the Clay county sheriff.

With two charges of automobile stealing hanging over him and a rather checkered career as a past record, Sam's post office address for some time to come is not hard to conjecture.

Later reports are that Schibstad was heard before Judge Gibbs at Bagley, bound over to the grand jury, and taken to the Beltrami county jail for safekeeping.

No Open Season on Wood-Duck

Regardless of the provisions of State laws, wood ducks may not be hunted in Minnesota or in any other State at any season, according to the Biological Survey, United States Department of Agriculture, which administers the migratory-bird treaty act. This is a Federal law under which the hunting, killing, or possessing of wood ducks is prohibited at all times throughout the United States and by treaty throughout Canada also. This game law, having been upheld by the United States Supreme Court, makes inoperative the amendment to the game laws of Minnesota passed at the last session of theState legislature, providing an open season on wood ducks. Thus, hunters will not be allowed to exercise the privilege accorded them by the State law, and persons found hunting, killing, or possessing wood ducks at any time will be subject to prosecution in the Federal courts.

Road Building on T. H. No. 32 Progressing Rapidly

Reierson and Nohre, road contractors of this city, are rushing the grading of Trunk Highway No. 32 northeast of Red Lake Falls towards St. Hilaire, and expect to have the greater part of the job completed before it freezes up this fall. The contract was let about the middle of May and since that time work has been pushed as rapidly as possible. The project includes about seven miles of road building and surfacing and will be a marked improvement on the highway system, as it will provide a safer and shorter road thru Red Lake Falls. The road construction is under the supervision of H. E. Palmer, highway engineer.

The Minneapolis Bridge company who were awarded the construction of the bridge across the Red Lake River just northeast of Red Lake Falls have been pushing their part of the contract with all possible speed. The pouring of the concrete for the new structure commenced last week. The bridge construction job is a large one, the main span being 171 feet with two 60 foot approach spans.

GETTING READY FOR PUREBRED HOLSTEIN SALE

Pennington Breeders Will Offer 23 Head For Dispersal on Wednesday, Oct. 3.

Second Event of Its Kind to Take Place at Fair Grounds, Thief River Falls.

Big Dairy Booster Meeting to Be Held in Evening of Consignment Sale Day.

Everything is now in readiness for the most important sale of purebred Holstein cattle to be held in Northern Minnesota this year, the date for which is Wednesday, Oct. 3. The sale will take place in the sale pavilion at the fair grounds in this city and is being sponsored by the Pennington County Holstein Breeders' association. It has been scheduled to begin at 12 o'clock noon.

Extensive preparatoins have been made for the event and it promises to exceed that of last year both in quality of cattle and interest among the buyers. A feature this year will be the gathering at the commercial club rooms following the sale, when a luncheon will be held, after which the meeting will take the form of a Dairy Booster meeting, account of which is given in another column of this issue. While this is only the second sale to be held under the direction of the association, the quality of the stock owned by Pennington county breeders has received such wide and favorable advertising that a large number of outside buyers are certain to be present.

Twenty-three head of registered Holsteins have been consigned for absolute sale to the highest bidder. Of these animals 21 are females and the other two are bulls of the highest pedigree. Every animal sold will be accompanied by registration papers and complete pedigrees. Among the animals offered are A. R. O. cows and show ring winners. A complete catalog has been compiled and any further information may be had by writing to J. J. McCann or M. T. McFarland secretary of the association.

Consignments are made from the herds of V. C. Noper, J. H. Hardisty & Son, Waldie Christensen, S. E. Hunt, Oscar Wilson, M. T. McFarland, and Fred Beerbower, prominent dairymen of this section, who have a reputation of having herds equal to the best in the state.

Notices of this sale have been sent to the leading Holstein men of the state by J. J. McCann, publicity man, and he already has assurances of a large attendance. While farming conditions of the Northwest at present are not of the best, there is a steadily growing demand for better cattle and this sale will afford anyone desiring to increase his herd or secure foundation stock, to get specimens from the best strains in the country. The "improved sire" campaign started last year by the association has been instrumental in placing a considerable number of young purebred bulls among farmers of the immediate neighborhood, but there are still some available.

In order to care for buyers who may not wish to invest in registered Holsteins at this time or who may wish to secure more bulls of serviceable age, the local association has made arrangements to care for such wants immediately following the sale of registered stock. Animals of high grade may be secured from Pennington county breeders at private sale, although no listings of such animals will be prepared in advance.

W. J. LaBree will officiate as auctioneer at the sale.

Y M C A DIRECTOR TO DEVOTE ENTIRE TIME TO "Y" WORK

Active Season is Plan For Coming Year With Opening of Quarters on Oct. 1st.

An experienced Y. M. C. A. worker will be engaged to take complete charge of the Thief River Falls organization started last year, during the ensuing year, according to present intentions of the board of directors. A special meeting of the board was held last week and it was decided to secure the services of some one familiar with the work, who will devote his entire time to the activities of the association. T. W. Turner, temporarily located at Deer River, experienced in this phase of social work, has been offered the position of director but his acceptance has not yet been received by the board. The Y. M. C. A. quarters will be maintained in the basement of the Carnegie library as usual, but the boys will also have access to the auditorium for basket ball practice if that sport is taken up extensively, as is the plan at present.

A membership of about 160 boys enjoyed the activities of the "Y" last year and a drive to get more young men into the organization will be staged this fall. A regular course in gym work will be offered and various kinds of athletics and games partaken in. A radio receiving set has been installed and courses will be offered in wireless and telegraph operating to those who desire to take up this interesting study. The old membership will hold good until the end of the year and it is expected that the fee this season will be the same as before, two dollars per year.

It is the intention of those in charge to open the "Y" quarters Oct. 1.

The next regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. board will be held next Monday evening at 7:30 and it is urged that every member of that body be present. Officers are: C. D. Gustafson, president; Rev. Chas. Gerlinger, vice president and H. E. Nelson, secretary-treasurer. Pastors of the city and school superintendents are ex-officio members of the board.

Potato Loader Demonstration

A demonstration of a combination potato digger and loader will be given by the Hall Brothers company Friday and Saturday of this week at the Halvor Fodstad farm, three miles east, one mile north and one half miles east of Thief River Falls, in the interest of the potato producers of the community. The new machine is of the most modern in the efficient handling of potatoes and is something which should be of interest to growers of tubers. The Hall company last fall sold a complete carload of potato diggers to Pennington county farmers within a short time, an indication of the interest in the industry in this section.

Holm at Convention.

Mike Holm, secretary of state, is in Nashville, N. C., where he is attending a convention of the secretary of states union, of which organization he is vice president. He leaves for Washington, D. C., in a few days and thence to his home in St. Paul.

MANY REGISTER FOR RELIGIOUS CLASSES IN CITY'S CHURCHES

Much Interest Taken in Religious Courses Given in Certain Grades on Fridays.

The opening of the new plan of religious instruction at the various churches of Thief River Falls inaugurated this year was encouraging. The enrollment exceeded the expectation of the school authorities and the pastors. In some churches the registration of pupils was close to one hundred per cent. Within a few weeks it is expected that the classes will even be increased.

At the last recess of every Friday the children from the fifth thru the eighth grades may be dismissed from the regular public school to receive instruction at their respective churches for one hour, if they so desire. Three hours each week may be devoted to this work, according to the new state law. Seven churches in this city are conducting classes under the new arrangement and others are expected to join in the work next year. The pastors are undertaking the instruction of the children who take advantage of this extra religious training, aided by their parishoners. There is no extra expense to the school district.

The school authorities are trying, however, to co-operate in every way possible so as to make the classes a success. The work is entirely voluntary and no student is compelled to attend. Careful check will be kept however, of all cases of absence and tardiness and these will be reported to the school authorities. A record will be kept of the work done by each pupil and reported to the school at the close of each month so that the marks may be inserted on the report cards.

Begins Three Year Course

HARVESTING OF SUGAR BEETS IS NOW UNDER WAY

Field Manager Moore, Announces That Beets Will Be Shipped to Factory at Once.

Estimated Total of 8,000 Tons To Be Shipped From Here to Mason City Plant.

Sugar Company Chief Says Beet Crop Will Net Minnesota Farmers $1,500,000.

The harvesting of sugar beets in this vicinity will be in full operation this week, according to announcement made to local growers by officials of the Northern Sugar corporation, which has contracted the crop in this vicinity. Everything is in readiness and the Mexican laborers will begin topping the beets today, J. J. McCann, county agent, stated.

Instead of hauling the beets to be piled along the Soo tracks in Thief River Falls to be shipped later in the season according to the demand at the Mason City factory, the growers in this district have been notified that all beets will be loaded at once and sent direct to the plant. Following is the communication received Saturday by Mr. McCann from Earl C. Moore, field manager of the Sugar corporation who is here to see that harvesting operations get under way properly:

"We will have to change our plan in regard to harvesting. We will start to harvest on the 20th.

"I have taken up the matter of car supply with the Soo Line, and we will have cars to load at that time. All beets will be loaded on cars and sent to Mason City, Iowa." He also stated that he will arrive in this city this week.

The total acreage of sugar beets which will be marketed and shipped from Thief River Falls is approximately 800 acres. At an average yield of ten tons per acre the total tonnage will be 8,000 tons or about 200 carloads. The topping and hauling will be rushed as rapidly as possible in order to take care of the entire crop in sufficient time. It is expected that some farmers who have large fields will work two shifts in getting the beets loaded.

A special train of sugar beet cars as an advertising stunt to get publicity along the Line was considered under the first plan of piling the beets and making large shipments later in the season, may still be arranged for, altho definite arrangements have not been made since the change of shipping plans. The proposition will be developed so as to make it possible nevertheless.

Sugar beet production in Minnesota this year will greatly exceed the acreage of previous years and will net farmers approximately $1,500,000, H. A. Douglas, president of the Northern Sugar corporation, announced last week as he made plans for the opening of the sugar factory at Chaska.

Harvest of sugar beets will be started by 1,500 farmers in central and southern Minnesota during the next two weeks and when the factory opens at Chaska on September 27 production of 20,000,000 pounds of sugar will begin.

Despite increased production at the Chaska plant only a small part of the sugar consumed in Minnesota will be refined there. Mr. Douglas said that it would require 15 similar factories in Minnesota to fill the annual sugar requirements of this state.

Mr Douglas believes that Minnesota is destined to become one of the greatest dairying states in the Union and that the beet sugar industry will aid Minnesota farmers in attaining that end.

"Beet growing goes hand in hand with the dairying industry," Mr. Douglas said. "It is estimated that the tops alone are worth from $10 to $25 per acre for cattle feeding. It is also recognized that there is no other stock food that excels beet pulp for milk cows and increasing the milk returns.

"Minnesota farmers have demonstrated that they can grow beets successfully and profitably. The acreage devoted to beet raising is growing from year to year and farmers are getting profitable returns for their diversified farming."

Red River Valley farmers are planning to enter the beet raising industry on a large scale following the recent announcement that a beet sugar factory costing approximately $1,500,000 will be erected at East Grand Forks.

Red River Valley farmers consider the raising of sugar beets as an important link in the chain of diversified farming. Pioneer sugar beet raisers in that locality have found it profitable and the acreage of the beets has risen from 400 to 4,500 acres during the last four years.

"Minnesota consumes 250,000,000 pounds of sugar and spends $15,000,000 annually outside the state to obtain the necessary sugar supply," Mr. Douglas said. "There is but one factory in the state."

Complete Nurses' Course.

Miss Mollie Hermanson and Miss Helen Nordquist arrived at their homes here Monday evening from Minneapolis where they have taken and completed a nurses training course. They will return to Minneapolis for the state board examinations which will be held the 5th and 6th of October. Miss Hermanson intends to remain at the General hospital as nurse after the examinations. They returned by way of Duluth where they spent a few days visiting with relatives and friends.

Teaching in Willmar High.

Miss Elinor K. Dahlen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Dahlen of this city, has left for Willmar where she will be instructor in the commercial department of the high school. Miss Dahlen, who is a graduate of the local high school and received commercial training at the North Dakota university, taught at Fosston the past two years. She spent her summer vacation at her parental home.

JOHN MORGAN BUYS LIEBERMAN BUILDING

Former Postmaster and Business Man Will Open Variety Store. Possession Nov. 1.

Announcement is made this week of a deal closed last Saturday whereby John Morgan for 30 years a resident of Thief River Falls, becomes the owner of the brick building on LaBree avenue occupied by the Lieberman Brothers clothing store, which he purchased from Albert S. Lieberman. The new owner will take possession of the premises November 1 and intends to open a variety store along the lines of the Woolworth stores.

Mr. Lieberman is out of town at present and is not available at this time to state his plans for the future regarding his clothing establishment.

Mr. Morgan, for a number of years postmaster of the Thief River Falls office, is a pioneer in this section and will be welcomed into the ranks of local men, having conducted a business here some years ago and closely connected with the business life of the city. More definite plans regarding the opening of the new business will be announced later.

EKLUND POST HOLDS FIRST MEETING OF SEASON THURS. EVE

Legionaires to Take Part in Many Activities of National Interest During Year.

The Elmer J. Eklund Post of the American Legion held its opening meeting after the summer vacation Thursday evening at the Legion club rooms.

Many issues were brought up, of which one was the Americanization work which is being given much attention by legionaires in all parts of the country. The local post will attend the naturalization hearing to be held September 24.

October 12th is the time limit on essays of school children competing for the $1,500 in scholarship prizes offered by the American Legion National Americanism commission for the best article of 500 words on "Why Immigration Should Be Prohibited For Five Years." Essays should be on one side of paper with one inch margin on each side, spelling, penmanship, neatness and age of writer, to be considered in making the award. In addition to the scholarship prizes there will be medals for the three best Minnesota essays. All essays must be turned in to the county superintendent of schools by midnight October 12.

The local Legion post will also conduct a contest for students of the county schools only. The city or graded schools of Thief River Falls, Goodridge and St. Hilaire will compose one prize list while the rural schools of the county will compose the other. The prizes in each case will be: First, $5; second, $3, and third, $2. The age limit will be 18 years but age will be considered in each case. Thus a 12-year-old student can win over an 18-year-old student even though his manuscript be poorer.

The legion also made arrangements for the entertainment of the city school teachers which will be one of the big social events of the season.

The American Education week will be participated in by the Legion also, but plans are not quite ready, altho gatherings throughout the county will feature the movement.

Booster Meeting to Be Held in Connection With Big Holstein Consignment Sale.

Lunch Followed by Addresses and Discussions of Dairy Problems to be Features.

A day of importance to dairy men of this section will be Wednesday, October 3, when the Holstein consignment sale will be held in this city and in connection with that a Dairy Booster meeting. The sale will take place at the fair grounds commencing at noon, while the grand booster gathering will convene in the Commercial club rooms in the auditorium in the evening, a lunch to precede the regular program and discussion. The event is sponsored by the Thief River Falls Commercial club, which is doing the utmost in the promotion of the dairy industry in this community.

As was announced in last week's issue of The Times, it was first decided to have the booster meeting today, but it was later decided by those in charge of arrangements that it would be more convenient and feasible to hold it in conjunction with the Holstein sale the 3rd. A large number of dairy men of this community and other points in the state will be in the city at that time and therefore such an arrangement would assure a larger attendance and more interest in the gathering.

A lunch at six o'clock, at the nominal charge of 25 cents, will open the evening gathering, after which addresses will be made by local men and possibly some outside speakers. The session will include discussions of various problems of the dairy industry in Pennington county by prominent farmers and business men, from which it is expected much valuable information may be derived by those engaged in that phase of farming. A feature of the meeting will be expressions by members of the delegation sent to the state fair and Northwest dairy show as guests of the Commercial club. Their report of observations at these expositions should prove of much interest to fellow farmers of the community.

It is urged that everyone who can possibly get away at that time attend this meeting, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 3, that the event may prove beneficial to a large number.

Scandinavian Players to Appear in City, Oct. 6th

It is announced this week that the famous "Olle i Skratthult" company of Swedish entertainers will play a return engagement in Thief River Falls on Saturday evening, Oct. 6, a fact which is sure to please the many of this city and vicinity who like to hear and see "Olle" and his players. "Olle" has appeared here numerous times in the past years and has always pleased full houses.

The company of entertainers this year on their tour will present a play in addition to a varied program of singing, music and dancing in national costumes. The troupe consists of about fifteen trained people. The chief attraction is of course "Olle" himself but the rest are certain to make a hit. Among them is Annar Myhre, well known in this city as he makes his home with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Prytz. He has been seen here in action on the stage and heard as a barytone singer of much ability. The entire performance is one of merit and it is expected that the auditorium will be filled when the players come here Oct. 6.

Morlan Bishop Appointed Chairman Legion Finance Committee By Commander

Morlan H. Bishop, local Legionaire, received a communication this week from Stafford King, state adjutant, announcing that he had been appointed chairman of the department standing finance committee of the state organization. The appointment was made by Commander Ludwig Roe and is a distinct honor to Mr. Bishop, who has been active in Legion affairs locally and state wide. He is commander of the district unit and was chosen a delegate to the national convention in San Francisco at the state gathering some time ago. The other members of the finance committee of which Mr. Bishop is chairman, are: A. H. Vernon of Little Falls, past commander; B. D. Grogen, Mankato; Jay Hormel, Austin; Karl Victor, Lindstrom; and Raymond I. Tennant, St. Paul, department treasurer and is to serve as advisory member.

Sugar Beet Man Dies.

Word was received here Tuesday from Chaska that H. H. Dana, an official of the Minnesota Sugar company of Chaska, died there last Sunday of epilepsy. Mr. Dana was generally known among farmers in this vicinity as well as many local business men, as he had been in this section in connection with the sugar beet interests his company had here during the past four years.

Center-Lining Pavements.

Center lines are being painted on the 416 miles of paving on the Minnesota trunk highways system—so called Babcock roads marked with official numbers on yellow stars.

The lines are intended to aid drivers to keep on the right side and nearer pavement edges, thus preventing side-swiping and like accidents.

A special machine has been built at the state highway department shops, to paint the stripes on the pavements. A 4-inch rubber tire on a small wheel puts a stripe of like width in the exact center of the pavement as other wheels guide the truck on which the machine is mounted. The outfit is expected to average 25 miles of paving a day and soon will cover all hard-surfaced sections of the system.

BOMBARDMENT ON FEATHERED TRIBE BY LOCAL NIMRODS

Many Open Season With A Bang Sunday Morning. Auditor Issues 425 Licenses.

A large proportion of the 245 Pennington county hunters who have obtained licences for hunting this year, is made up of Thief River Falls citizens, who ventured into the woods and fields of the county on Sunday, the opening day of the season.

Reports of the first day's shooting varied from zero by the unlucky to the limit by the more fortunate. Hard work and unaccustomed walking over rough fields made the muscles of many of the hunters stiff and sore, but those who returned with good results declared it was worth it.

While the coveys were not large there were many birds at large Sunday, declared those who were the most successful. On the other hand, those only a couple of birds for their pains declared the birds were scarce and too wild to get within schooting range.

Sunday's bombardment, all hunters declare, will make the chickens more elusive the remaining days of the chicken season. A steady rain Monday prevented a continuation of the shooting.

There seems to be more interest in small game hunting this year than ever before, especially because of the fact that chickens are very plentiful, having been protected the past two years.

Sande, county superintendent of schools. About eighty rural teachers will be in attendance at the institute this year, a number of instructors from the eastern end of Marshall county and from part of Red Lake also being assigned to this institute. The majority of the rural teachers in the county will be in session at that time so that a large attendance is assured. Teachers are required to close school to attend the institute and their wages will continue during the week.

The institute this year will be in the charge of Miss Lulu Olds and Miss Jonine Amundson of the state department who will conduct two sessions each day. Supt Sande will be also be in charge for one hour each day, to discuss local problems of attendance, reports and various other questions vital to the successful operation of the rural schools. The session will be held at the high school.

Every effort is put forth at these sessions to discuss means and methods by which the schools may be made more efficient and practical and supply the needs of the community.

The state program which will be presented is based on the Course of Study, put out by the state department. At least one period a day early in the week will be devoted to discussion of the objectives, materials and methods in the Course as a whole, and later to some one or two specific subjects. The program for physical and health education as provided by the new law will be considered, and instruction in the organization and care of libraries where there is a request for help. Citizenship training will also take up a portion of the sessions.

During the latter part of Institute week those who so desire will have the opportunity to attend the annual meeting of the Northwestern Minnesota Educational association, in session at Crookston Oct. 3, 4, and 5.

JAIL TERM FINES FOR PENNINGTON CO MOONSHINERS

Bradley, Vinje and Voldness Draw 5 Months 25 days and $500 Fine in Federal Court.

Vigen and A. H. Erickson Plead Guilty and Are Given 3 Mos. and $400 Respectively.

Ytesund and Okstad, Also Nabbed By Federal Men, Discharged by Judge Cant.

Seven Pennington county men were summoned before Judge Cant in federal court at Fergus Falls last week to answer to charges of liquor law violations, three of them being convicted by jury, two pleaded guilty, and two were discharged. The judge showed no mercy with the offenders and gave those who were found guilty of breaking the Volstead act maximum sentences, including both jail terms and heavy fines. The treatment tendered them by the federal authorities is by no means encouraging for the continuation of the illegal traffic.

C. B. Bradley, who is at present serving a ninety-day jail term at Warren, which sentence was given in district court here, entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of having in his possession and selling liquor, but was convicted by the jury after only 15 minutes deliberation. He was given the regular five months and 25 days in jail and a fine of $500. Bradley was taken back to the Warren jail to complete his term there immediately following which he will be obliged to serve the long stretch imposed by federal court. It is expected that those who were given jail sentences will serve their time at Detroit.

Conrad Vinje and Sidney Voldness, the latter caught in Vinje's place of business at the time of the federal raid, also entered pleas of not guilty to similar charges but were also found guilty and allotted the regular confinement in jail and payment of a $500 fine. Voldness started to serve his jail term at once while Vinje was granted a stay of ten days. The latter just returned from Warren where he spent 60 days in the county jail, also for violations of the prohibition laws, which sentence was rendered in district court here.

Bennie Vigen, who has been farming at Grygla the past summer, entered a plea of guilty to the charge of selling illegal booze for which Judge Cant pronounced a sentence of three months in jail, with a stay until November 15. Vigen also served time at Warren recently, having been convicted in district court. He was nabbed by federal men this summer

A. H. Erickson, who was employed in Vigen's place when the raid took place, pleaded guilty to having liquor in his possession and was sentenced to pay a fine of $400 but no jail term.

The cases of Ole Ytesund and Alfred Okstad, upon recommendation of the federal attorney, were discharged by the court, both having succeeded in establishing their innocence. They were represented by Attorney G. Halvorson of Thief River Falls.

NEW SUGAR MILLS TO MEET INCREASE IN BEET GROWING

1923 Acreage in State 30 Per Cent Greater. Will Exceed Capacity of Chaska Plant.

Prospects for the establishment of several more sugar beet factories in this section within the near future are indeed very encouraging, judging by statements from officials of the Minnesota Sugar company as quoted in the following article which appeared in the Minneapolis Journal Monday evening.

Because the beet sugar acreage in Minnesota has increased 30 per cent within a year and farmers through the state indicate they will plant an even larger acreage next year, the Northern Sugar corporation, thru H. A. Douglas, its president, this week announced that it will build a new mill at East Grand Forks, to serve growers in the Red River valley, and Mr. Douglas said further development is planned as the state's beet crop increases.

Seventeen thousand acres of land in the state were planted in beets this year and 12,000 last year, he estimated. In the Red River valley alone 7,500 acres were planted, as against only 1,500 in 1922.

The new mill cannot be built until 1925, he said, but experimental work in the valley will be continued and expanded until the mill is completed. Other mills may be erected later.

It is planned, according to Mr. Douglas, to start work on the factory about June 1, 1924, and to complete it in time to take care of the 1925 sugar beet crop. Mr. Douglas and his associates will furnish $1,000,000 towards the cost of the plant and the remaining $500,000 will be furnished by business men and farmers in the territory which the factory will serve.

The proposed plant will handle from 800 to 1,000 tons of sugar beets daily during the time it is in operation. It will commence operation each year in October and will run on a 24-hour schedule until the sugar beet crop has been cared for.

"Sugar beets are the only salvation for farmers who want to join in the diversified farming program, but need a start before they can do so," he said. "More farmers are realizing that fact every day."

The harvest will begin generally through the state about Oct. 1. The price is expected to be from $7 to $8 a ton, an increase over the $6 a ton paid last year, Mr. Douglas said, and some farmers will produce as much as 12 to 14 tons of beets to an acre of rich land, while the poorest farms will produce five to six tons to the acre.

"Other mills undoubtedly will be needed in the future," Mr. Douglas continued. "We have all the beets we can take care of this year, and farmers would have planted more if we could have handled a larger amount. The new mill will have a capacity of 1,000 tons of beets a day and will be able to handle the crop from approximately 15,000 acres of land."

Missionary Visits City And Speaks of Experience

Rev. Lee Downing of the Africa Inland Mission, who spoke at the Bible Conference last October, is in the city and will give an account of his African experiences at the Presbyterian Church tonight (Thursday) at 8:00. All the people who heard him last year will be delighted to know that he is stopping off here on his way to Winnipeg. The public is invited to the meeting at the Presbyterian church, because of the interest there is in his work which is under the auspices of no particular church but is an independent missionary worker. An offering will be taken up for Mr. Downing.

Langseth of this city stating that Mrs. Anna Langseth and family, who recently moved from Thief River Falls to Berkeley, Cal., escaped injuries or loss of property in the disastrous fire which swept practically the entire city of Berkeley the first of the week. The message stated that the ravaging flames destroyed everything within a block from the Langseth residence, but they fortunately escaped.

A. J. Freeman is a very powerful and eloquent speaker and a good singer. His sermons are founded on the Word. To him the Bible is, from beginning to end, the record of a supernatural revelation made by God to men, resting on basis of historical facts as well, the great central fact being the Lord Jesus Christ. He will continue with preaching services throughout this week, every evening at 8 o'clock. Sunday, Sept. 23, morning services at 10:30. Highway Engineers Make Trip Across Iron Range

Highway engineers, en masse, of the northern part of Minnesota enjoyed a trip through the range section of this state this week end. Ten cars carrying about twenty engineers and the wives of many of them composed the party.

The engineers from the various districts met at Red Lake Falls Friday and from that city they went to Grand Rapids where they stopped over night. The next day carried them over the range through Chisholm, Hibbing and Virginia and Saturday night was spent at Duluth. Sunday the North Shore Drive was made and the party stopped at Grand Marais over night. Monday they traveled through rain all day and made the last stop of the trip in Hibbing that night.

Many engineers were picked up along the way and many dropped off. Thief River Falls was represented by Bert Umland and Roscoe Bakke. Among others known to local resident were G. H. Flygare of Fergus Falls; E. W. Sewell and Harding of Crookston, the latter of whom was accompanied by his wife; Irving Quist and Tollefson of Warren; Palmer of Red Lake Falls; Dave Rose of Bemidji and Skramstad of Fergus Falls.

Isaak Helseth who has been engaged in Cohasset this summer constructing a bridge across the Mississippi river between Cohasset and Deer River joined them at Cohasset and also wired his wife and son, Paul, to meet them at Duluth and complete the trip with them.

Middle River Resident Drives Auto Into Horse

A horse, owned by Arthur C. Simonson, residing near Steiner, was killed last evening when the animal escaped through the gate to the road and a car, driven at about thirty miles an hour, according to reports received today, ran into it.

Mr. Simonson was driving his horses into the lot and two of them escaped out onto the roadway. A car driven by a Middle River resident, at a rate of about thirty miles per hour passed one of the horses and collided with the second horse. The horse was not killed instantly but so badly injured that it died a few hours later. A vetinary was summoned but all effort to save the animal was useless.

According to word received by the Times this noon the car was so badly damaged that it was necessary to tow it to this city for repairs.

The horse was a large dappled gray, weighing about 1400 pounds and was the finest horse Mr. Simonson had.

Glaring headlights and carelessness are said to be the cause of the accident.

All of these recipes put together in one volume will make a fine selection of recipes and will be a big valuable addition to any recipe collection, and all depends on the number of contributions. It will in reality be an example of what housewives in his section can do.

Canadians Held in Polk County Jail Break Out

Nine Canadians, held in the Polk county jail for deportation into Canada, broke out last Monday and are believed to be hiding in the vicinity of Crookston awaiting an opportunity to cross the border into the Dominion. Two of them were the same evening taken off a Great Northern freight train at Erskine by Mayor Cronquist, while others of the seven were being hunted in the vicinity of Beltrami. They were Peter Lundinno and Victor Jacks and were brought back charged with breaking jail. Three other prisoners also held for deportation, refused to take advantage of the opportunity to escape. The nine men made their getaway the same night that an order was received from Winnipeg ordering them sent back to Canada with their transportation. Crookston residents near the jail are glad they got away, it is said, because the prisoners were so boisterous that they were kept awake at night.

Another of the jailbreakers was apprehended near Warren yesterday.

Odorless Dry Cleaning
No Airing Necessary

A party or a dance but a couple days away, and the dress that makes you look your best must be cleaned before it can be worn again. To you this may seem a hopeless dilemma, for a garment dry cleaned by ordinary methods must usually be "aired" for several days before it can be worn again.

Our customers know that we are in business to help them out of just such difficulties as this.

They know that a dress or suit cleaned by our advanced method is ready to be worn as soon as returned. It is free from the odor which has been the cause of so much dissatisfaction with ordinary dry cleaning. It has the appearance and "feel" of a brand-new garment.

We are always ready to help when you are in a hurry. But it is far better to send your clothing here regularly so that it will always be kept in perfect condition.

STYLE TREND FOR FALL IN MEN'S APPAREL

By George Eliot Taylor

The outstanding features in fall styles are the free and easy lines. A decided preference for conservatism in men's dress has ousted sports style from its seat of high favor. Sports clothes, in short, are going back to their rightful place—for travel, motoring and games. As an alternative for the comfortable air of the sports suit, the designers have given us an equal amount of freedom in the regular street and business clothes.

Suits are plain of line. Coats are loose—they rather drape than trace the figure. Shoulders are slightly wider. Trousers are fuller and straight hanging, the pleated waist being a popular style innovation. College men still like the bell bottom idea in trousers. Vests more often exhibit the blunt ends, but the peaked points are by no means out of favor.

ENGLISH STYLE POPULAR

The American has cleverly adapted the prevailing English mode to American taste. You'll see it modified and varied in many ways. These models are the best evidence of the English thought. Their soft-rolling front, loose flowing lines and high buton effect brought them instant recognition from the smartest dressers of two continents.

DOUBLE BREASTED SUITS STAGES A COMEBACK

Nothing is smarter than the trim and dapper double breasted suit. Primarily designed fo rthe ma nof rather slim lines his more portly brother now wears it with equal enthusiasm. It is, in fact, the thing for fall. Popular alike with the college youth and the business man who favors the buoyant air in dress, the double breasted suit can be recommended to all types. Carried out in the smart striped matrial, or in plain, navy blue fabrics, this style achieves its finest effect.

YOUNG MEN'S STYLE

The "cake eater" is dead. He was buried to the tune of forgotten jazz blare. In his stead comes an assured young man anxious to follow in the lines of his more conservative elders, withal leaning to a litle more flair, a slightly accentuated body line and waisted effect. The style arbiter gives him a trig contour as the best exponent of the young man's fancy. Such a suit has snap and dash aplenty, from its in-curve waist to its group of flap pockets on the coat.

For the rest, style has undergone no radical change since last season. The simply fashioned, slightly form fitting suit remains the most popular model in the country. In east and west alike it is acclaimed by the well dressed man as the most typical of the modern American idea—conservative in line, yet indicative of all the distinction that the man of good taste demands in his dress.

Lengths and size variations remain the same as last season.

OVERCOATS

Fall overcoats favor the box style. The most popular exponents of this idea are the models with straight, swagger lines, set-in sleeves and patch pockets.

The all round belt has practically disappeared from todays's fashions. Half belts are featured, but the main tendency is for the straight hanging effect. Set-in sleeves are more popular, but the kimona style overcoat retains its universal favoritism as the all eveloping, roomy effect style.

FABRICS

Many novelty weaves and textures are introduced for fall. Stripes of all widths hues, spacings, groups and colorings figure in the smartest models. Among overcoat fabrics a new feature is the double faced plaid. This is to be seen as a blocked and fancy plaid on the innner side and an over-plaid or shadow squares on the face of the material. It is almost a reversal of the plain-face fancy-backed material of previous seasons. These fabrics are still shown in the latest and most distinctive models. A worsted fabric with blanket back is another full innovation. Colorings embrace the whole range of tints from the popular autumn browns and coppers to hazy greens, powder blues and prismatic plaids.

THE SILO AND THE COW

By Gunnar B. Bjornson

Editor of The Minnesota (Minn.) Mascot.

The silo is the advance agent of prosperity. It is the dynamo from which the cow draws her power to produce dollars.

Where the silo rears its head above the group of buildings on a farmstead, it will be an exception to find a shiftless or a thriftless home.

The silo—that silent sentinel of saneness, sense and security—is the farmer's own mint. Through it pass the silver nuggets of the milk-white corn, there to be transformed into the bullion that later issues in foaming streams of wealth-laden buter-fat.

The silo, under proper management, can lift the heaviest mortgage. It has been known to put meat on mere bones and sleekness into wrinkled hides. It has saved men from bankruptcy and women from a broken heart. It has sent promising youths to college and built comfortable homes for care-worn mothers. A well filled silo is worth more to any farm than an empty politician. A silo for every farmer would do more good to the agricultural interests of the country than if we had a farmer in every senator.

Better a silo filled with food for stock than a stableful of food for thought.

When the Sculptor of the future shall hew from the enduring granite of the Northwest a statue of the Liberator of Agriculture he will bring forth a collosal figure, clad in the habiliments of the soil tiller, bearing upon the outstretched palm of the left hand a silo and upon the palm of the right a Holstein cow.

Better a silo and a herd of Holstein cows than the capitol at Washington and five hundred pricefixing congressmen.

When things have gone wrong in any of the basic divisions of human society, the remedy is always to be found in turning back to the elemental and the fundamental. At the foundation of the industry of agriculture is the cow. She was the first aid to the first husbandman. She is the cornerstone of man's achievement upon the earth. Using the term in its broadest sense, we may say that, industrially speaking, the cow is the "mother of the human race."

Ever since man left the Garden of Eden, he has been milking cows. He has been robbing the cow by taking from her everything that she has produced and grudgingly only has he given her her food in return for all that she has given him.

The silo is a belated attempt to do better by the cow and, in his historic unselfishness, she will repay every such attention a hundredfold.

Forward to the Silo and back to the Cow!

RURAL ELECTRIFICATION

People of today are constantly adopting new devices for time-saving and convenience. A new plan of electrification of rural communities is now being considered by Minnesota farmers, five Farm Bureau men having been appointed to represent the farmers of the state in conferring with officials of the Minneapolis General Electric company and the Northern States Power company. The new means of providing power and light may have a revolutionary effect on farming in the northwest, says J. F. Reed, head of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation.

The move to install a trial line into a Minnesota farming community and for the first time make a scientific study of every aspect of rural electrification marks the initial step in the United States toward the solution of a problem which it is predicted will in a few years engross the nation. To compete with the intensified farming of Europe, farmers will soon be looking for more economical methods, and labor shortages are yearly increasing the demand for labor saving devices. If electrification will bring the farmer more money and better living conditions, and if it is proved practicable the greatest field of development since the radio will open up.

The primary elements of the plan, are:

Installation of a five mile line through a farming community near West Concord, Dodge county. Providing 15 farms with electrical equipment, tapping power from the trial line. Keeping an exact record of costs of line, operation and upkeep. Computing output of farm before and after electification.

Two propositions will be presented at the conference this week. One is for the company to finance the line, the equipment and turn the operation over to the company. The committee of five will have the final decision. The first plan requires no investments on the part of the farmers, but entails higher prices for service because of interest prices. The second plan calls for an investment from each customer at a cost below the price of individual electric systems now on the market, according to officials of the electric and power company.

"The farmer must realize actual profit before he can be expected to electrify his farm," Mr. Reed said. "It must be more than a convenience. It must bring him added dollars."

E. A. Steward, associate professor of agricultural physics, University of Minnesota, will advise the conference on results of his experiments with individual cases where farmers used electricity to increase production.

Farm experts are satisfied that aside from the better social aspect, relieving drudgery and improving conditions generally, bringing electricity to the farm means more money.

We are living in an age when mechanical science is making long strides towards the most economical performance of the various types of labor and it is also coming to the point where the farmer as well as the factory hand is harnessing the forces of nature, until recently unknown, and make them his useful servants.

SUCCESS OF THE DAIRY COW

Minnesota's dairy and food commissioner has recently issued some official figures on dairying, a complete summary of which was published in The Times last week. We learn from the report that Minnesota has a total of 830 creameries, 600 of which are co-operative enterprises. The gross income from these institutions for the last fiscal income totaled $72,928,773.82. The value of Minnesota's butter output increased $7,000,000 last year over the record of 1921. The increased production in ten years totaled $37,972,909.82. Running expenses of the creameries totaled $7,283,970 last year, leaving $64,03[illegible],143.55 that was paid to the farmer patrons. The output of butter in Minnesota exceeds that of all Canada.

The figures for butter is the largest item in the returns of the Minnesota dairy farm, but by no means the only item, the commissioner pointed out. In addition, there is the skim milk the cheese, the whole milk production, the dairy calves, and the butter and cream consumed on the farm.

Co-operation and high class production has made dairying in Minnesota pay.

The Duluth Herald in an article last week again deplores of the train service between Thief River Falls and Duluth, as follows:

"Duluth is still waiting for the improved passenger service to and from the Thief River Falls district which the Soo railroad promised before the general upheaval which came when America entered the war.

The need of this service remains, and becomes greater every day.

Duluth waited with patience, knowing that war conditions made impossible much which the railroads might like to do.

Duluth still waits, but still remembers the promise.

The Soo officials, it is understood, have this matter under investigation. Duluth, which has investigated until further investigation seems superfluous, waits the issue with less patience than when the war conditions created a better excuse for delay. It will be interested to hear the decision, which it awaits with admiration for the accuracy of the Soo official who, in promising an improvement, declared the present service to be "rotten."

GROWERS APPROVE POTATO PROGRAM

Sapiro Visits Minnesota to Explain Essentials in Co-Operative Marketing.

Essentials to success in commodity co-operative marketing, under the California plan were explained to six large audiences of Minnesota farmers by Aaron Sapiro, nationally known authority on the subject, in a trip through the potato growing sections of the state last week.

He spoke at Crookston, Moorhead, Detroit, Brainerd, Sauk Center, and Princeton to gatherings that averaged more than 800.

At most stops he also addressed business men, before whom he stressed the importance of town and country working together to solve the economic problem in which agriculture, particularly the potato industry, finds itself.

Mr. Sapiro's trip, made under the joint auspicies of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation and the general state committee that is perfecting the new Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange, was for the purpose of explaining to farmers, methods that California is using in its world-famous co-operative efforts.

Mr. Sapiro, at each meeting, explained that a co-operative must be aimed right; that it must be set out to remedy the one big defect in the present marketing plan. It must stop individual dumping, he said, and substitute therefor, a plan of merchandising a crop, selling it just fast enough to meet the consumptive demand. "Without provision for remedying the dumping evil," he said, "co-operative marketing can not succeed as it should."

Mr. Sapiro said that growers, once started on the right track toward a solution of their potato marketing problem, had to follow a certain technique. They must grade their potatoes, put them in packages that will be acceptable to the buyer, take precautions to expand their market as much as possible, provide for orderly marketing, operate on a long time contract which includes a penalty and then base their operations on supply at the point of demand, rather than at the point of production. But even then, he said, there was a third step; the agency must be handled by experts in the business of selling potatoes.

Traveling with Mr. Sapiro was J. F. Reed, president of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation, S. G. Rubinow, campaign manager, Edward Barr, secretary of the organization committee, Marius Waldal of Plummer, member of the executive committee, Dan Wallace, Editor of The Farmer and others.

Developments indicating the success of the campaign were daily events during the trip. After the meeting at Crookston, business men of that section started a movement to close every store in Polk county for one or two days to help sign up the necessary acreage. Friday this week was designated as the day for a complete canvass of the entire therritory according to the Crookston Times. Business men of Fargo, impressed by a special address of Mr. Sapiro, were keyed to a point where a campaign in their state similar to that in Minnesota seems a certainty. At Detroit, bankers and business men pledged $700 to the organization, to be used, if needed, to assure organization work.

In several addresses, Mr. Sapiro condemned price fixing and other suggestions for government aid in the present situation as wholly unsound, impossible of realization and incapable of affecting a permanent cure. He cited the experience of California raisin growers as evidence to support his contention. That co-operative was all but wrecked early this year, because of a 4-cent a pound guarantee clause in its contract.

Cattle Tests In Meeker Co. under the state livestock sanitary department began this week the testing of all cattle in Meeker county for tuberculosis. This is the first county-wide test to be conducted under the law passed by the legislature last winter. Animals that react to the test will be shipped to St. Paul, where they will be disposed of under government supervision. Owners will receive from the state a maximum of $60 on grade stock and $120 on blooded stock.

Pulling Powers of Horses Are Tested at Iowa Fair

Big news for farmers comes in a report from the Iowa State Fair of pulling contests for horses and mules—the first of the kind ever made.

The tests proved that the size of the load horses and mules can pull depends upon the road; but the pull exerted by the teams which developed a 2,300-pound tractive pull was sufficient to start and draw 24 tons of coal over a level pavement and enough to pull 66 tons if the loads were once started.

It was disclosed that it is easier to pull three tons on a concrete pavement than one ton on a firm dirt road, a forceful indication of the big savings to farmers from bigger loads on hard roads. A new farm wagon loaded with 6,240 pounds of sacked grain, equal to 104 bushels of wheat or nearly 112 of shelled corn, required a tractive pull of 32.5 pounds per ton on pavement against 134.7 pounds on a good dirt road.

The tests brought out that the value of weight has not been overestimated by horse users. True pulling light teams were able to start nearly as large loads as the heavier pairs but could not pull the load the required distance, also they were quite exhausted after starting the load while the heavier teams carried the loads more quickly.

Bids Glad Farewell to Roadside Advertising

The Lincoln, Neb., Daily Journal says that the highway commissioner of Minnesota has issued an order of enforcement of the law against billboards on trunk highway right-of-ways, upon which Major Nelson of the Fairmont Daily Sentinel, who recently made a trip to the north line of the state, thus happily comments:

"The man who travels unfamiliar roads at night will endorse the highway commissioner's edict that all but traffic signs must leave the right-of-way on the trunk lines. At night one looks for traffic signs and is constantly befuddled by slogans announcing Morton's salt, Regan's Bread, Punkertown's department store and other roadside propaganda. This slows up travel and causes one to go astray. It recently took me five hours to travel a certain piece of road at night because of these impediments that I easily made in two hours in the daytime when I could tell one sign from another."

Major Nelson commended the new highway marking and added: "You can't make the roads foolproof except by killing off the fools."

Any Night on Any Street.

Son, we saw you slouching down the street the other night, a cigaret dangling from a corner of your mouth.

And we should judge by the way you were walking along with your companions that you thought the world was made just for you.

Back up, son! This earth has been inhabited for several thousand years. Better men then you ever can hope to be were here long before you, and they are now nothing but dust.

And you, too, son, as well as the rest of us, will go the same way. Don't think that you are more than human. We want you to have a good time, and enjoy the enthusiasms of youth, but don't forget, son, that the things in this life worth having have been put here by older people—therefore, son, respect the white hairs of old age, and give thought to the morrow!—Winnebago City Enterprise.

Noonanisms

If you are one of those who think that the iron range raises nothing but iron and votes against Jake Preus, just run your eyes over this from the Biwabik Times:

"Running true to form a Biwabik farmer carried away first prize on his exhibit on potatoes at the Minnesota state fair. That's just a little bit more added to the already ample evidence that we have the greatest potato district in the world."

Could'nt Blame 'Em

Motor Policeman Kutzorik of Sauk Rapids on his round of official duty stopped two men speeding on the pavement north of that town, says the Little Falls Daily Transcript. They were fined and deported, expressing themselves as amused over being relieved of their cash. They said they had been forced to travel so slowly through Iowa because of the mud that nobody could blame them for speeding over the paved roads in Minnesota.

CANADIAN FARMERS JOIN RANKS OF CO-OPERATIVE BODIES

Portion of Crop to Be Marketed Cooperatively, According to Wheat Growers Official.

An unexpected addition to the ranks of the cooperative wheat marketing associations comes for the development of similar organizations in the wheat producing sections of Canada according to Wm J. Brown of this city, President of the American Wheat Growers Associated and general counsel for the Minnesota Wheat Growers Cooperative Marketing association. The headquarters of the American Wheat Growers Associated at Minneapolis has been in constant communication with farm leaders in Canada and announce through a statement by Mr. Brown, the fact that a large proportion of the Canadian crop this year probably will be marketed, cooperatively.

"Canadian wheat growers have been following the development of our own state associations and have at last become convinced of the efficiency and value of the marketing machines," said Mr. Brown. "Now there is a properly financed movement under way to organize the three chief wheat producing provinces and a whirl-wind campaign has been instituted. The Canadian organization hopes to sign up at least thirty percent of the wheat produced in these provinces within the next month.

"This development in Canada is of extreme importance to our own wheat growers. It means that much more strength for the cooperative movement in determing wheat prices, for there will, of course, be the closest sort of cooperation between the Canadian organization and our own sales agency. It makes their success more certain, and when you bear in mind the fact that there are very large and successful pooling associations in Australian states, it is not hard to foresee the time when the wheat grown in the world's foremost producing lands will be in the marketing control of the men who grow it."

THE FLAPPER

An unknown exchange gets off the following picturesque language well deserved on the flapper:

The mother who allows a sixteen year old daughter to float around the township in an automobile until two o'clock in the morning with a counterfeit sport with weak jaws and weaker moral opens the front door to grief and disgrace. If you don't know what sort of company your daughter keeps or what time of the night she turns in, your roar when gossip gets busy will sound about as pathetic as a jewsharp. The girl who insists on spooning with everybody within the corporation limits ought to be taken back of the woodshed and relieved of her overflow of affection with a No. 11 slipper applied vigorously across that section of her anatomy located posteriorly between her hips. We would sooner see a girl kiss a blind shoat through a barbed-wire fence than to have her change partners six times a week in the front parlor with the lights turned off. It is harder to marry off a girl who has been pawed over by every male shopper in the community than it is to fatten sheep on pineapple ice. You can't goldbrick a sharp-eyed suiter with second-hand goods any more than you can buy a ready made bath robe to fit a billy goat.

The Columbia Record reflects upon conditions of today by saying: "German marks and our wheat are less than a dollar a bushel."

MANY U STUDENTS WORK THEIR WAY THROUGH SCHOOL

One Out of Every Ten University of Minnesota Students Earns Own Money.

In attempting to answer the question of whether it is practical to finance one's own way through college many good suggestions are given to the prospective college student in an article prepared by Thomas Steward of the journalistic department of the University of Minnesota. "Can if you will," is the conclusion arrived at by Mr. Steward and here are some of the high points whereby he comes to such a decision.

"By working and saving for a year after graduating from high school nearly any boy or girl can save up a few hundred dollars. With this as a nest-egg, enabling them to pay expenses and feel secure while they get settled in the new atmosphere and have a chance to discover means of earning, the courageous college students may feel reasonably sure of finding a way to earn whatever else is necessary. Summers, also offer excellent opportunities for earning.

"Statistics compiled by the University Employment Bureau show that in the year 1921-22 that bureau found 1387 positions for students, in which they earned a total of $61,212.90.

"This means that at least one student in ten among those attending the University of Minnesota earns money for use toward the expenses of education.

"The fact that the institution is situated in the largest city of the state, adjacent also to another large city, the two combining to form a population center of more than half a million people, is of overwhelming importance to the student who must earn. In normal times a city offers, generally, 100 chances to work, as against one that is presented in a smaller community. Its numbers, with their constant demands for varied services, its industries, offices, and institutions make a broad and constant field for human endeavor which is also invaluable experience. Students who have never lived in a city should not gauge their chances for finding work by the opportunities they have seen at home. In Minneapolis and St. Paul they will find the chances multiplied many times and in many ways.

"A pamphlet on 'Self Support' published by the Employment Bureau lists among the available jobs employment as clerks, stenographers, bookkeepers, cashiers, salesmen, solicitors, telegraph operators, teachers, tutors, mechanics, musicians, waitresses and waiters, domestic workers, laborers, nurses, nursemaids, janitors, agents and newspaper workers.

"The effect of self-support on a student's social status depends altogether on the student. First, it must be borne in mind that the working student usually lacks the time and money to engage in social activities to a great extent. Any assumption, however, that a prejudice exists against the working student is ridiculous. Social activities are as much a matter of what one can give as of what he can get. The student who works and still has the energy, money, and time to make a social contribution, inevitably wins the same response that the student supported from home would find.

"A summary of the self-help situation would show: First, that there is abundant opportunity to earn; second, that the University itself and in addition, many student organizations, help the man or woman in search of work to find a position; third, that more than 1,000 University of Minnesota students are supporting themselves to a great extent each year. Despite the warning against trying to do everything one's self, many succeed at that task. Socially and scholastically, the working students are on even footing with all others in proportion to the effort they expend on studies and student affairs.

"There remains to be added only the statement that in every official quarter at Minnesota, the attitude towards the self-supporting student is the warmest that could be wished by anyone. It also is true that the employer who seeks university graduates often shows a decided preference for the men and women who have shown the ability and pluck to gain an education by efforts of their own."

Fires Clear Large Tracts Of Land Around Baudette

Fires in the Baudette district are now being commercialized, according to the Region, and are proving rather beneficial in the clearing of land in that section. Following is the article from Billy Noonan's publication:

"Not since the big fire of 1910 have the farmers of the Baudette district had the oportunity to clear by fire as they have this year, and they are taking full advantage of it. It is estimated that between three and five thousand acres have been put ready for cultivation in the last month, and if the dry weather continues these figures will be increased considerably. In several instances eighty acre tracts have been swept as clean as a floor, and forty acre clearings as the results of fires are quite common. No matter where one goes in the country fires are seen, and while the smoke is inconvenient the fires are doing thousands and thousands of dollars worth of clearing. So far little or no damage to buildings has been reported.

(Contributed)

The first annual picnic held by the Soo Line Shop Crafts association and other forces at Squaw Point Saturday, September 15, was a complete success. There was a very good turnout of employes and officials, all of whom had most enjoyable time. Automobiles were furnished to convey those who had no cars to and from the picnic grounds about 1:00 p. m., and each family furnished its own lunch, except coffee, cream, sugar and ice cream, which were furnished free on the grounds.

The sports, which consisted of twenty-one races and contests, for which two prizes were awarded in each event, started at 2:30. The bowery dance started at 4 p. m., and continued through the evening.

John Hendry said he would have won the fat man's walking race easily, but the others did not play fair. For our part, 100 yards were just a little too far for John. He would have done better in a 50 yard dash.

We expected Roadmaster Nelson to do better than he did at the table—he acted a little bashful but explained that while he looked as though he had a lot of room, looks were deceiving, as he was awfully thick-shelled.

Car Foreman Conklin acted as Major General, and he did not stay back of the lines, but was up in the first line trench all day. While his voice was a little weak to be heard in a large crowd, he did fine, especially at the table. Would advise him to get a megaphone for next year.

Dispatcher E. F. Dolan was right out fighting in the open all day, but his age is beginning to tell on him a little, for he was all in when night came.

Norbert Holzknecht rendered valuable service in carrying people to and from the grounds, but Norbert, why is your sedan equipped with window curtains? We saw one passenger you brought and you certainly have nothing to be ashamed of. If we were in your place, we would take the top completely off the car.

The chicken-catching contest was very exciting, as the rooster was some live wire, and we could have easily guessed the winner in this contest.

Credit should also be given to Assistant Master Mechanic J. W. Hendry, Agent H. A. Pratt and Chief Clerk L. M. Rayson, for calling on the business men and soliciting the contributions. While Mr. Rayson says his size was somewhat of a handicap for such strenuous work he is positive he made as good a showing as Messrs. Hendry and Pratt.

We wish to thank Section Foreman Nils Myrin for donating the use of the grounds. Also all the committee men who rendered such valuable service which helped to make the picnic a success. Too much credit cannot be given the merchants who donated the prizes. Thief River Grocery company for donating the coffee, Gamble-Robinson company the sugar, Farmers Co-Operative creamery the cream and milk and Kiewel Products company the ice cream cones, The Times and The Tribune for printing the programs in full.

Owing to the fact that it was brought in too late for publication this week the complete list of events and prize winners will be published in next week's issue of The Times.

Nothing Is Known of Alleged Robbery Here

A young man said to be from Wisconsin, held by the Polk county authorities for stealing a horse at Mentor, according to the Crookston Times Monday, stated in a hearing that while in Thief River Falls a short time previously he was relieved of his harvest wages of $135. The local authorities in a statement to a Times reporter Tuesday said they have had no complaints of that kind and that judging by circumstances it is very improbable that the act was committed as alleged by the transient when taken by the Polk county officials. At least nothing in regard to the case is known here.

Following is the article as it appeared in the Crookston Times:

"Ted Stetler, 18, a transient, giving his home as in Wisconsin, is being held at the Polk county jail following a charge of horse stealing upon the complaint of Ralph Stobard of Mentor. Stelter, it is declared, admits taking the horse, saying he wanted it to make his way back into North Dakota to secure work following his being robbed at Thief River Falls.

"According to Stobard his young son was riding the horse when he met Stelter. Stelter is said to have asked the boy for a ride and the boy agreed. Stelter mounted the animal, tossed the youngster a dime and drove away. Sheriff Nelson was notified and in turn notified farmers in the vicinity of Erskine and Mentor. Stelter was caught six miles from where he had taken the horse. In admitting the theft he declared he had walked to Mentor from Thief River Falls after his harvest wages of $135 had been taken from him. He is expected to plead guilty at his hearing tomorrow."

Northern Towns to Get Power From Crookston

The village council of Greenbush last week entered into a contract with the Minnesota Electric Distributing Company to furnish electrical energy from its high tension line from Crookston. This company took the bonds for $20,000 at par at 6 per cent. iterest. Their bid for $20,000 for construction of the distributing system within the village limits. The company pays the village the sum of $1,879.84 cash for the village distributing system, about $1,300 being for lines and the balance for meters. The contract period is for four months, but the company expects to have the system completed much sooner, work now being rushed on the line up to Hallock.

It is the intention of the company to put on a large enough crew of men to complete the loop from Crookston to Hallock, Greenbush and back to Crookston this fall. The towns to be served by this system are Alvarado, Argyle, Stephen, Donaldson, Kennedy, Hallock, Lancaster, Bronson, Halma, Karlstad, Greenbush, Middle River, Newfolden and Strandquist.

People Are Partners In Great Northern, Says Chairman Hill

Millions of men and women throughout the Northwest and other parts of the United States are interested vitally and personally in the profitable operation of the Great Northern railway because they are among its owners and are partners in its operation and development, it is emphasized in a statement by Chairman Louis W. Hill of the board of directors.

Many persons realize their interest in the success of the railroads because of their dependency on them for the transportation of freight and passengers but undoubtedly there are many who are unaware that they are partners, and owners in a sense, although they hold none of its capital stock shares, said Chairman Hill. Among the latter are the millions of holders of life insurance policies and depositors in savings banks. Their pocket books are affected directly, because most of the large life insurance companies have money invested in Great Northern securities, he pointed out. When the railroad is prevented from selling its commodity—transportation—at a reasonable profit, then the investment of these men and women is jeopardized.

Answering the question, "Who owns the Great Northern?" Chairman Hill said:

"There are outstanding 2,494,780 shares of Great Northern stock, of the par value of $100 each. Each share represents an equal ownership in the property of the Great Northern railway and each share has an equal voice in all stockholders' meetings, including those for the election of directors.

"On December 31, 1922, these shares were owned by 44,314 men and women in all walks of life, and by organizations and institutions. There were 24,116 men shareholders, 18,113 women, 1,016 insurance companies and miscellaneous corporations, and 160 hospitals, charitable bodies, religious and educational institutions.

"Distribution of these holdings is wide, 28,449 holding from one to 20 shares each and 12,579 holding 20 to 100 shares each. Only 3,286 held more than 100 shares each and the average holding was only 56.2 shares each.

"Dividends have been paid on this stock since 1891 and from 1900 to 1921 the dividend rate was 7 per cent. per annum. In 1922, this was reduced to 5¼ per cent. and in 1923 to 5 per cent. Many persons in the territory served by the Great Northern are among its largest shareholders, and therefore are affected directly by its ability to pay a return on capital invested.

"Most of the large life insurance companies have money invested in Great Northern securities. Therefore nearly everyone who holds a life insurance policy, and many depositors in savings banks, are partners in the operation and development of this railway, and their livelihood is partly or wholly dependent on its ability to pay."

Fire Prevention Week In Minnesota Oct. 7-13

Again Fire Prevention Week approaches and this year its observance will cover the period from October 7 to 13 inclusive. October 9 of this same week will mark the fifty-second anniversary of the great Chicago fire.

To those concerned with the suppression of the Fire Fiend and the great loss of property and life which annually follows in its wake the week is of more than ordinary importance, and extensive plans are in the making for its proper celebration by municipalities generally throughout the state. Speeches, lectures, the pulpit, the schools and other forms of education and propaganda the great lesson of Fire Prevention will be carried direct to every home in Minnesota and the individual impressed with the necessity of common sense observance of the same. Observance of the week will be national in its scope.

In Minnesota the setting aside of 13 as Fire Prevention Week will be officially promulgated in a proclamation the period from October 7 to October soon to be issued by Gov. J. A. O. Preus and for the nation by President Coolidge. Plans and a program for the proper observance of the week are now being prepared by Burton L. Kingsley, State Fire Marshal for Minnesota and municipalities and Fire Prevention officials throughout the state will be requested to give all possible aid in the carrying out of the same.

The importance of "Fire Prevention Week" and the lessons its proper observance will convey can be realized when it is known that the fire loss in America last year exceeded $521,000,000 and that fatalities resulting were nearly 15,000 in number. The fire loss was the greatest of any twelve months period in the world's history and was supplemented by fatalities that fairly stagger. As in the case of fires in Minnesota, much of both are due to the great American habit of carlessness and this those in charge of Fire Prevention week hope to minimize.

As State Fire Marshal Kingsley views it fire and the destruction of property which naturally follows can not be entirely eliminated, but the chances of such can be greatly reduced by education, and Fire Prevention Week is the great opportunity to bring it about in Minnesota at least. "Make it a Fireless Week," he says.

In the observance of the week, many things can be done in carrying direct to the community and the individual the value of Fire Prevention and the necessity of constant vigilance in the safeguarding of property and life. In previous years civic and commercial organizations co-operating with local city, town and village officials taken charge and by parades participated in by the local fire department and Fire Prevention officials public addresses by city officials and others, Sunday church talks by clerymen, a program of exercises in the schools and a thorough clean-up of all premises and buildings have materially reduced the fire hazard and awakened the people to the knowledge and value of Prevention.

Similar activities will feature the obvance of the week this year and it is planned to supplement them with other ideas and schemes of a prevention character. The week can be made a memorable one and to this end Fire Marshal Kingsley invites every municipality in the state to do its bit. Business men and fire department officials can aid materially by a program of inspection and the removal of all waste and fire hazards where possible. In past years pubilc bonfires of waste and rubbish have been an important feature.

DEVELOPMENT ASS'N. OPPOSES REDUCTION OF TARIFF ON FLAX

Special Committee From Ninth District Will Voice Protest At Washington, D. C.

Eastern paint manufacturers are planning a movement that is bound to hit the farmers of the northwest again if it should go through but for once, luck is believed to be with the farmers to some extent at least. The paint manufacturers want the duty reduced on flax coming into the United States. Flax is one of the few grain crops of this year that growers have stood any chance of getting anything above production costs on and if a reduction should be made in the duty the price is bound to fall.

The Minnesota Red River Valley Development Association was advised of the movement and asked to take action. It immediately did. The special committee of bankers and farmers of the ninth federal reserve district, which was created at the recent conference at Fargo, is to meet in St. Paul next week preparatory to going on to Washington. The matter of strongly protesting against any tariff reduction has been laid before the members of the committee, and it is believed that they can and will make an effectual protest.

All valley organizations both town and country, that are in any way interested in agriculture and its success are urged to take action. If possible, meetings should be held immediately and resolutions adopted protesting against any reduction on the duty on flax coming into the country. The special committee meets in St. Paul Sept. 24. Copies of the resolutions should be sent to C. M. Zealand, Crookston, secretary of the Development Association, by Saturday, Sept. 22, for delivery to the chairman of the committee. Copies should also be sent to all congressional representatives of the state. The matter of keeping flax prices at least up to the present standard is one of utmost importance to every community and every means should be availed of, the association officials urge, to forestall any tariff reductions at this time.

Rural Credit Loans in State Total $13,000,000

Potato Yield is Light This Year Say Growers

Potato harvest is on in earnest in this vicinity but according to present indications the yield this year will not be as high as in former years. It is reported that the yield will be about 70 per cent of last year's while the acreage has been reduced to approximately 65 per cent.

Conditions so far have been very favorable for the digging of tubers and judging by loads marketed here so far, the potatoes this year are of good quality. One local firm dealing in potatoes reports the shipment of six carloads to date.

Much interest in the Sapiro plan of co-operative marketing is being taken by Pennington county spud farmers, and it is planned to make a thorough organization of these growers in the county within a short time. The old exchange has been reorganized and the signing up of the entire acreage will be attempted.

Credit Due School

We feel that the entire High School deserves a great deal of credit this year for the way it has settled down to hard work so early in the term. Ordinarily it takes the average school at least three or four weeks to become accustomed to its new routine, but it seems as if Lincoln High's students buckled down the first week. We are now on our third week and regardless of the fact that new pupils are being enrolled each day, we are as free from confusion as if this was the third month of the term. This is practically all due to the highly commendable spirit of hard work and serious study which seems to have taken hold of the majority of the students.

If the remainder of the year is carried on in the same manner in which it has begun we foresee a splendid record of high marks and general efficiency for our school.

Down With Slang!

Is there anything more resentful than Vulgarism? People are judged by the manner in which they speak, and by their ability of expressing thought. Many who can speak fluently and are at the height of importance with certain people are entirely at a loss of words and unable to carry on a conversation with people of high ideals, merely because they have neglected to develop their vocabulary.

People are always more or less involved with the constant usuage of certain slang phrases. Unless care is taken to avoid the habit of using slang, it will soon be acquired and unconsciously used in conversation. It is easy to adopt the use of slang, but it is much more difficult to get over the habit. Once you have acquired the habit it seems to be there to stay, therefore it is wiser not to accustom oneself with its usuage.

Maybe some day you will be offered a good paying proposition, but to your disgust and surprise, you are turned away. There would be nothing you could do, it would be a blue, blue day, and your future would seem dull and relentless. Finally, you come to the realization that you are using too much slang, and after a hard decisive battle with yourself you are able to overcome this habit and you rejoice.

Now, a fluent use of proper words and phrases is replacing the old slang and you find yourself capable of carrying on an interesting conversation without any trouble whatsoever. You call on the very man that turned you away before and after a short talk with him you get the position. Therefore, don't you think, the sooner you quit using slang, the better it will be for you, and the more promising will be your future reward?

Knox

The total enrollment in the second and third grade room is 26, 12 in the second grade and 14 in the third grade.

The sixth grade has an enrollment of 36 pupils.

Alice Waag enrolled in the sixth grade Tuesday, Sept. 18.

There are 36 pupils enrolled in the 5th grade.

Thora and Earl Bergeare two new pupils enrolled. They formerly attended the Crookston schools.

Mrs. Polman substituted in grade 6 of the Knox during the first two weeks, while Mrs. Lacy assisted in the Normal Training Dept. of the High School.

Miss Dalquist who had charge of fourth grade now has taken that grade, and Mrs. Lacy has resumed her work in grade four.

Parents are urged to encourage regular attendance and punctuality as much as possible. No room in the Knox building was fortunate enough last year to win a half holiday due to the irregular attendance and number of cases of tardiness. This is indeed a very poor record. Let's all try and improve. Teachers can't do it all—they need the co-operation of parents as well.

There are 33 pupils in the first grad.

Vivien Whiting returned to school Monday after an absence of one week.

Carla and Eylo Rambeck entered the first grade Monday.

There are 26 pupils enrolled in the second grade room.

Northrop

The marching pennant was awarded to Miss Lura's and Miss Ryan's rooms this last week.

The Normal Training girls and Miss Stapleton visited Miss Ryan's fifth grade Tuesday morning and observed a lesson in the inductive method of teaching arithmetic.

Robert Votava and Kenwood Green enrolled in the fourth grade last week.

Mrs. Battenfield was a visitor at school last week.

Mrs. Haynes visited the third grade on Friday afternoon.

Friday Assembly.

The first chapel period of the year was held last Friday afternoon in the High School assembly. The period was successfully passed in singing popular school songs led by the music instructor, Miss Maude L. Johnson.

NORMAL DEP'T. ORGANIZES SOCIETY

Seventeen Girls are Enrolled in Teachers' Training Department of High School.

On Tuesday, Sept. 11, the girls of the Normal Training department were called together for a meeting, the purpose being to organize a business social club. The meeting was conducted by Miss Stapleton. The following officers were elected: Clara Lund, president; Viola Buringrud, vice-president; Thelma Carlson, secretary; and Myrtle Helgeland, Myrtle Krause, and Sophie Solheim were appointed to act as a committee to write up articles from the Normal Training Department for the High School Progress. Viola Buringrud, Esther Larson, and Ruth Hoppa were appointed to select five suitable names for the club department and submit them for consideration at the next meeting. So far the name has not been decided upon.

The normal training department is now strictly for post graduates. At the beginning of the school year it seemed necessary to have two teachers, but since only seventeen girls enrolled, it became a one teacher department. The girls were very sorry to see Mrs. Lacy leave. The following girls are taking normal training: Viola Buringrud, Ruth Hoppa, Edna Alexander, Thyra Carlson, Thelma Carlson, Allie Norbeck, Myrtle Helgeland, Sophie Solheim, Myrtle Krause, Esther Larson, Alice Jahr, Myrtle Sollom, Ruby Thompson, Thea Johnson, Hilda Engen, Clara Lund and Gladys Elofson.

Long-Suffering Faculty Members Receive Credit For Noble Sacrifices

This being the second issue of the Progress and as nothing hitherto has been said concerning the faculty, we hereby consider it our duty to show the public the true nobleness of that long-suffering body.

In the first place the faculty is to the school what flowers are to summer days. The faculty and the school are inseparable. The school cannot exist without a faculty any more than the faculty can exist without a school. They are not, as some people think, a necessary evil—they are, in truth, an absolute necessity. Fellow students, think how barren life would be if the smiling faces of our dear instructors did not greet us every morning. How uneventful our existence if we did not have unlooked for quizzes, examinations and tests to cheer us up, when we are in the depths of despair. How lonesome we would be if our dear faculty did not give us such long assignments to keep us busy and our midnight oil burning. How grateful we should be for their kindly advice and gentle chidings.

Everyone who goes to school is acquaintanced with the faculty. Some acquaintances begin suddenly in instances such as when a pupil is asked to remain after school the first day of recitation to have a private session with his instructor concerning said pupil's behavior. To Freshmen, perhaps, the faculty appear stern and unaprochable. This because of your shyness, Freshmen. Overcome this failing and you will at once be taken into the "fold". In assembly period the faculty are at their best. It is their duty to see that absolute dignity prevails while he students are singing. The Seniors, alas, yet, the only students who can perform the admirable feat of appearing dignified while singing.

During study periods a member of the faculty always occupies the chair near the door. This is not, as you may think, to see that the door stays closed, but to see that everyone spends all his time doing his own work. If a person is seen gazing up at the ceiling or off into space it will be taken for granted by said faculty members that he has nothing to do. Action on part of faculty members follows and student is seen to be immediately "up to his neck in work."

Annual Picnic Held Friday in Lover's Lane

Last Friday night an all High School marshmallow roast was held at Lover's Lane.

The students and teachers assembled in the Lane about 7:15. Miss Leavitt was there to welcome the new Freshmen and to help in getting them acquainted with the upper classmen. The Freshmen, however, were afraid of being initiated, and consequently, not as many were present as expected.

Three large bonfires were built, around which students and teachers assembled to toast marshmallows and play games. One of the features of the evening, which met with great approval, was a "Discord Choir", directed by Principal Bye.

Election of Officers Held By Juniors Tues.

The junior class in the high school is undertaking more and more social and other activities every year, and quite a large share of the responsibility for their execution falls upon the class officers. With the present staff of officers the present junior class is assured a successful year.

Ring Committee Chosen At Senior Class Meeting

The Seniors held a class meeting Tuesday after school for the purpose of discussing class dues and choosing a ring committee. The committee chosen was: Melvin Englestad, Chairman, Margaret Melgaard, Harriet Morgan, May Roberts, Orrin Storholm, Clifford Storholm.

These are to pick out half a dozen rings which they consider the best from the various offers made and submit them to the class, who will vote on the final choice.

Glee Club Officers Chosen For Coming Year

The first real meeting of the Girl's Glee Club was held Monday afternoon and the officers for this year were chosen. Those elected to office were:

President .... Aeriel Kinghorn
vice president .... Lucile Roark secretary and treasurer ... Gladys Kolden custodians .... Margaret Melgaard, Esther Bennes, Phyllis Dock and Mildred Sullivan.

Normal Picnic.

Last Thursday afternoon the Normal students and their two instructors, Miss Stapleton and Mrs. Lacy, held a picnic at Lover's Lane. The purpose of the picnic was to become better acquainted. Games were played while the supper was being prepared. After each girl had roasted her own weiners, the supper was served at five-thirty. They plan to have more social functions throughout the year in connection with the work.

Sophs Hold Meeting to Elect New Officers

Friday night, the Sophomores elected their new officers. Leigh Anderson acted as chairman of the meeting. The class advisor was not chosen, but will be elected later.

The following are the class officers:

President .... Leigh Anderson.
vice-president ...... Sannia Erickson.
secretary ...... Leonard Helgeland.
treasurer ...... Millicent Sweger, sergeants-at-arms ...... Mabel Johnson and Henry Arneson.

Blue Monday

Marching along
With curse and song,
The students of the High
Were heard to shout,
Each one no doubt,
"I wish that I could fly.
I'm sopping wet.
I'll never get
To school in time this noon.
Oh, say, kid, wait.
My hair is straight,
Oh, I'll be swimming soon.
My hat is squashed,
My powder's washed
Oh! I'm an utter wreck.
Oh, hurry up!
About a cup
Of rain ran down my neck.
My shoes are full.
Cover my wool
With that 'umbrell' o' yours
Before I croak.
Oh, you slow-poke!
And so forth did they curse!

FOOTBALL SQUAD IS WORKING HARD

Coach Thune Puts His Men Thru Stiff Practice Daily. Many Receive Training.

For the past two weeks the football squad has been practising the fundamentals. Every night it has been busy with punting, passing, falling on the ball, tackling and hitting the dummy. The squad, which is made up almost entirely of new men, is now becoming more sure of itself in these practises.

The coach gave the squad a few plays last week and now actual scrimmage has begun. The playing was very ragged the first night, but this was to be expected. The players are quickly rounding into shape and Coach Thune is trying to get a game with the Alumni for next Saturday. The boys will then have a chance to show what they can do against an opposing team.

The first game will probably be a week from Saturday, and the boys are working hard to beat their opponents, whoever they will be.

There is a squad of about thirty men out, and with every man having a chance for the team, there is a lot of spirit among the boys. A fast, snappy team is being built up as every man has to work hard to keep his place. They are all determined to show the oposing teams what defeat means.

The following men are reporting for practice every afternoon:

Public Speaking Class Debates on Immigration

The public speaking class in high school this week is divided into two factions for and against the restriction of immigration. The subject for high school debate in Minnesota this year is, "Resolved: That European Immigration to this Country should be restricted for the next five years," so the class is using this as its topic for debate. Monday Hazel Krause and Mae Ballingrud took the affirmative while Bertha Holthusen and Melvin Englestad defended the negative. On Tuesday the affirmative was up- On Tuesday the affirmative was upheld by Math Barzen and Orrin Storholm, and the negative by Margaret Melgaard and Mildred Griffin.

Although the main object of these debates is the practice in public speaking, they also help those who are going out for the high school debating team, in both delivery and subject matter. The debating team will be chosen from the entire school but those in the public speaking classes will have the advantage of previous training.

Personals.

Mrs. Campbell substituted for Miss Simon as sophomore English teacher Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Cohen placed a ladder against the side of the house and then called his son, Abie, aged seven, and made him mount to the top. "Now jump," commanded Cohen.

"I'm frightened," replied Abie.

Cohen held out his arms. "Do as papa tells you—jump—papa is here."

Finally Abie did jump. Cohen stepped aside and Abie fell with a bump.

"Let that teach you a lesson never to trust nobody," said Cohen.—Philadelphia Record.

Chicken Thieves Harass Farmers Near Crookston

Hundreds of chickens and turkeys missing from farms in a night, vicious dogs made frightened; a cow missing for five days and then returning with evidences of having been milked regularly; these and other mysterious circumstances surround the wholesale looting or farmers' poultry yards in widely separated sections of the Crookston vicinity according to reports.

The two latest depredations which have been reported to Sheriff Anton Nelson's office here are the theft of 30 turkeys from the Arthur Morrison farm near Shelley, and the loss of 20 chickens from a farm near Crookston.

But these two thefts are minor in nature compared to thsose reported previously. Probably the biggest loss was that of Oscar Hauglid, living north of Dorothy, about 20 miles from Crookston, where only 70 turkeys were left out of a flock of 500. Practically every farmer in Haulid's vicinity also experienced a visit of the marauders.

Those who have lost birds are of the belief that the gang operating in the territory are using chloroform or other drugs in removing them from the place without making a noise. One farmer also missed a steer and later found its carcass, the animal having been buthcred for its meat. The farmers in the entire vicinity visited by the gangsters are taking all precautions for the apprehension of the thieves, according to an article in the Grand Forks Herald Tuesday.

Mrs. Meland is a vocalist of note, and has appeared in concerts in this section.

Penitentiary Term For Youth Stealing Two Cars

Sam Schipstad who was brought to Bemidji from Bagley last week to answer charges of stealing automobiles, pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced Wednesday by Judge C. W. Stanton of District court to a term of not exceeding five years in the Minnesota penitentiary at Stillwater. Schipstad who served a term in the Minnesota Reformatory at St. Cloud for stealing an automobile when first arrested for the recent crime with which he was charged, said that he had ridden with some unknown man from Moorhead to a village east of Crookston and that after reaching Clearwater he had taken another car, intending to return it to its owner later. Under a close examination, however, he admitted that his story about the strange man at Moorhead was a fake and that he had stolen the car there. He also admitted stealing the car in Clearwater county later. Although the prisoner was only 23 years old the case was of such a nature that Judge Stanton deemed a penitentiary sentence advisable and an indeterminate sentence was imposed.

Returns From Vacation.

He spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Nelson, residing south east of this city and resumed duties at the Times Monday.

Record Traffic For Autumn Forecast by G. N. President

Record breaking freight traffic during the fall months is expected by Ralph Budd, President of the Great Northern Railway.

In a statement today president Budd announced virtual completion of the Great Northern's $30,000,000 improvement program for 1923.

"Freight loadings have been heavy and with the crop movement under way and the usual harvest time expansion of business generally throughout the northwest assured, a good business is anticipated," he said.

"The railroads of the northwest are somewhat like those farmers who have good crops, but because the prices of farm products are lower relatively than the prices of the things the farmer buys the net profits are small. The railroads of the northwest likewise have rates only about 40 per cent. higher than they were ten years ago, while the coal they burn, the taxes and the wages they pay all cost twice what they did 10 years ago, consequently increased tonnage means larger gross revenues but does not mean correspondingly larger net earnings because the cost of doing business is much higher.

"There will be no shortage of cars on the Great Northern railroad for the movement this fall. All equipment of the line which serves the big fruit sections of central Washington hard hit by last year's car shortage, has been put in excellent condition and is ready for rush movement of farm products.

"The Great Northern locomotives and cars are in exceptionally good condition, better than they have been at any time since the beginning of federal control in 1917."

W. J. Brown of this city, president of the American Wheat Growers Associated, national cooperative sales agency of which the Minnesota Wheat association forms one of nine state units, is making a tour of middle west and southwestern states. In addition to the nine associations in the American Wheat Growers Associated, there are independent organizations in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. A new association is just being started in Missouri. Mr. Brown is conferring with these organizations, coordinating the sales activities of all of the cooperative marketing agencies of the country.

Out Where The West Begins.
(Grant, Neb., Tribune)

Out where the sun beats down a little stronger;
Out where they work about four hours longer;
Out where they raise the corn and clover;
But have nothing to show when the year is over—
That's Where the West Begins.

Out where the cattle bellow and bawl;
The farmer weeps at the long freight haul,
For he knows the railroads will get it all;
Where the risks are great and the profit small—
That's Where the West Begins.

Out where the farmers rave and cuss;
But do not strike and raise a fuss,
As they pay for goods sold Pittsburgh Plus!
Where things are in a gosh-awful mess—
That's Where the West Begins.

Orchard and Garden.
(Sept. 8 to 15.)

This year's fruiting canes of raspberries should be cut out now and burned.

Plant fruiting trees and shrubs in the yard. They are good ornamentals and are useful as food plants.

Keep all weeds from going to seed. It will be easier to care for the place next year.

Shrub planting in the fall is sometimes successful, but should not be attempted this year unless we have plenty of rain.

A few hyacinths, tulips, daffodils and crocus do not cost much, but planted in pots now and cared for until next spring will brighten the home a great deal.

Don't neglect a trip to the woods for nuts this fall. It is lots of fun and the nuts will come in handy many times next winter. A butternut and walnut tree would make a good addition to the home planting.

What Is An "Independent?"

THE dictionary says:—An independent is one who exercises his own will or judgment without the guidance or control of others—whether in thought or some sphere of action.

In discussing the petroleum industry, the press and the public use the term "independents" to designate the competitors of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The definition quoted exactly fits the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) as it neither owes nor acknowledges allegiance to any man or organization.

This clearly defines the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) as an "independent."

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is owned by 41,922 stockholders—not one of whom owns as much as 6% of the total stock.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is managed by a Board of Directors of ten men—every one of whom started in a comparatively humble capacity and earned his place on the Board by sheer ability. These men devote their entire time to the business of this Company.

While the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) neither owes nor acknowledges allegiance to any man or organization, it is proud to acknowledge its obligation—

First—to its stockholders who have invested their capital in the enterprise.

Second—to 27,000 loyal, earnest, hard-working employes, 10,000 of whom also are stockholders.

Third—to the 30,000,000 people in the ten Middle Western states who have come to look upon this Company as a leader in a highly specialized branch of essential industry.

Fourth—to those of our competitors who, with the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) are striving to make the oil business useful to all the people.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) tries earnestly at all times to discharge its obligation to these four groups in such a highly satisfactory manner as to reflect credit not only upon itself but upon the industry as a whole.

LABOR DAY-1923

[illegible] STONE
Grand Chief
Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers

It is fitting that out of the three hundred and sixty-five days of the year, one day should be set aside and consecrated to the holiness of human toil. To every worker with an earnest purpose, Labor Day means all that is best in the ideals of organized labor. It proclaims the universal brotherhood of all workers regardless of whether they labor by brain, or muscle, or both; whether their work be on the farm, on the railroad, in the mine, or the office. During the past year organized labor has been given the "acid test"; yet today it stands more firmly united than ever before.

Like men who have toiled long and hard to climb a rugged mountain, the hosts of organized workers in America pause on the threshold of Labor Day to look back over the path by which they have ascended, and to look forward toward the great goal they are seeking to attain.

On this day, consecrated to the holiness of human toil, the workers of the nation take stock of what they have already achieved, i.e. direct their course in line with Labor's ideals, and pledge anew their devotion to the cause of creating a happier, nobler and more abundant life for all mankind. For Labor's purposes are not selfish. It asks nothing for itself that it does not covet for every human being. It strives to make the conditions of tomorrow better than those of today and all the tomorrows' tomorrows better than the one preceding.

The present Labor Day finds us at one of the most critical periods in American history. Problems such as our grandfathers never knew are pressing upon us for solution. The conferences and intrigues of diplomats and politicians, the exhortations of the clergymen and the resolutions of all sorts of civic clubs, have alike failed to solve these problems. It remains for the masses of workers who produce and transport all the necessities of life to organize and use their economic and political power if civilization itself is to survive the forces of hate, greed, and selfishness which now peril us.

The menace of the next war overshadows all other issues which confront us. The achievements of centuries of human progress will be swept away by the red tide of another costly world conflict if the workers whose lives and money pay the cost of all wars, do not exert their political power to banish forever this scourge of mankind. Surely American Labor can render no greater service than to secure the co-operation of forward-looking men and women in this country as well as in other lands, for the maintenance of permanent world peace.

The second great issue in which the workers of America are involved is the struggle between autocracy and democracy in industry. The stability, the harmony, and the prosperity of the nation's economic fabric is at stake. There cannot, there should not be industrial peace until the men who invest all they have—their labor and their lives—in the nation's basic industries, have a voice in directing the destiny of those industries, at least equal to that of the men who merely invest their money. Labor is striving for something greater than merely hours and wages. Above the struggle for bread and butter, above the humdrum of the daily task, arise the standards by which Labor seeks to guide humanity toward a just social order. It wants justice, security, and freedom, and it can only attain these by the honest application of the principles of industrial democracy.

Co-operative Wheat Marketing

Co-operative wheat marketing associations are growing more rapidly at the present time than ever before in the history of the farmers' marketing movement, according to George C. Jewett, general manager of the American Wheat Growers Associated, who addressed a meeting of wheat producers at the Tri-County Fair in Aberdeen, South Dakota on Wednesday, September 5.

The co-operative marketing movement for wheat which started in 1920 on the Pacific coast has now grown until there are 12 state wheat marketing associations actually carrying on sales operations and at least two more prospects for organizations prior to the next crop year, according to Mr. Jewett. During these four years, the farmer membership has grown from nothing to approximately 75,000. It is expected that at least two-thirds of the wheat grown in the eleven important producing states will be under cooperative control before July 1, 1924.

"To those of us who have watched development of the wheat marketing structure since the time of the first state association until now, the present rate of progress is almost amazing," said Mr. Jewett. "In North Dakota which had less than two thousand members last year the present membership exceeds thirteen thousand and recruits are being received at the rate of more than 800 weekly.

"I have just returned from a trip though the central wheat producing states and find comparable growth in that section of the country. Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Nebraska and Colorado are all on the increase, particularly long strides being taken in the last two states named. In Missouri it is expected that an organization will be started within a very short time. This should be excellent news to the present membership in the northwest. A bushel of wheat added to a pool in the southwest is of approximately as much importance in price control as a bushel in one four northwestern states. Control of the crop movement is all that is necessary for control of the price and the rapid advances now being made throughout the country bring that much nearer the time we are all looking for—when the American farmer can say with certainty how much he should receive for his crop—and then obtain it."

Mrs. Froseth's Father Dies.

Ole Rust of Glenwood died at his home Friday, cause of death being attributed to heart trouble. Mr. Rust was 77 years of age at the time of death. To mourn his departure he leaves four daughters: Mrs. Carl Froseth of this city; Mrs. J. Anderson of Vigdahl near Glenwood, Mrs. M. Mickelson of Glenwood, Mrs. O. Moe of Fertile, and four sons: Hans of Fertile; Gilbert, Martin and Olaus of Glenwood. The funeral services were held from the Lutheran Trinity church of Glenwood Tuesday.

The Sapiro Plan
(Crookston Times)

Those who heard Mr. Sapiro speak at the meeting held in Crookston last week gained a lot of valuable information upon co-operative marketing. According to Mr. Sapiro there is a right and wrong method of co-operative marketing. On invariably leads to failure. The other has always proven successful. It has very largely the wrong plan that has been heretofore used in Minnesota. Thus the failures.

According to Mr. Sapiro, marketing must be aimed right to succeed. It must set out to remedy the one big defect in the present marketing plan. It must stop individual dumping, he said, and substitute therefor, a plan of merchandising a crop, selling it just fast enough to meet the consumptive demand. "Without provision for remedying the dumping evil," he said "co-operative marketing can not succeed as it should."

In speaking particularly of the co-operative marketing of potatoes he said that growers once started on the right track toward a solution of their potato marketing problems, had to follow a certain technique. They must grade their potatoes, put them in packages that will be acceptable to the buyer, take precautions to expand their market as much as possible, provide for orderly marketing, operate on long time contract which includes a penalty and then base their operations on supply at the point of demand, rather than at the point of production. But even then, he said, there was a third step; the agency must be handled by experts in the business of selling potatoes.

This all sounds reasonable. It sounds like a straightforward business proposition. It is on this plan that the businessmen of the smaller cities and villages in the potato-growing section of the state are uniting with the growers to put this plan into effect. If this plan of cooperative marketing does not work out successfully then it is safe to say that co-operative marketing is not the solution of the farmers' problems.

Red Crown Keeps Your Engine With You

It is never behind your whim. Answer—flexibility and a response so instantaneous as to make the machine seem part of yourself.

Flexibility comes from even vaporization at definite temperatures.

Even vaporization is possible only when there is a perfect chain of boiling point fractions. The chain in Red Crown gasoline is perfect, producing a steady, unbroken flow of power.

Drive Your Own Car?

Then you'll appreciate Red Crown gasoline. You get the joy of perfect performance—instant starting—a snappy get-away—eager acceleration—sustained pulling power—racing speed if you want it—maximum mileage per gallon.

Red Crown is the year 'round gasoline—it performs with equal efficiency winter or summer—it vaporizes to the last drop. It leaves a minimum of carbon and fouled plugs. These are important features in cold weather driving.

Northwest A. C. to Open Fall Term October 1st

The fall term at the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston will begin October 1 which is a convenient opening date for young men and women who are needed at home during the fall. Early registration reports indicate that there will be another large attendance again this year.

A number of courses are offered so that students may elect those subjects that will be of the most practical use. Some of the courses to be offered this year are agriculture, engineering, dairying, business training, dressmaking, domestic science, nursing, and high school subjects for college entrance. The Northwest School also has a strong music department which enables the students to study that subject in connection with their regular courses.

Those from this vicinity who have not already registered and who might be interested in the work offered would find it to their advantage to write for further information and be prepared to attend on the opening date October 1.

An exchange wonders what might be the matter with foreign news. We haven't heard of Lenin being killed for a long time.

SECOND COUNTY HOLSTEIN SALE HERE NEXT WEEK

Plans Are Ready For Important Consignment Sale of Purebreds by Holstein Ass'n.

Event to Take Place at Fair Grounds Wednesday, Oct. 3, Commencing at Noon.

Dairy Men of Entire Section Urged to Attend Booster Meeting in the Evening.

Dairymen and everyone interested in purebred stock are again reminded of the consignment sale of pedigreed Holsteins to be sold at auction next Wednesday, Oct. 3, by the Pennington County Holstein association, this being the second event sponsored by the association. Dairy men from the entire community and outlying points are expected to be here for the occasion. Everything is now in readiness and indications point towards a successful sale.

The sale at which twenty three animals, all purebred, from the best strains in the country will be offered to the highest bidder, will take place at the sales pavilion at the fair grounds and is scheduled to commence at 12 o'clock. W. J. LaBree will officiate as auctioneer.

Those who have consigned animals for sale next Wednesday are: Fred Beerbower, 3; Waldie Christensen, 5; J. H. Hardisty and Son, 2; M. T. McFarland, 2; V. C. Noper, 2; Casper Weiner, 1; O. E. Wilson of Plummer, 5. The list includes two males and the remainder females. All animals are guaranteed free from tuberculosis and if desired the buyer may have them retested before leaving the grounds. The records given in the catalog distributed by the association shows that the cows offered are among the best producers in the herds of the county.

Farmers and merchants of the county are urged to attend the dairy booster meeting to be held under the auspices of the Thief River Falls Commercial club at the club rooms in the evening following the sale. A lunch will be served at 6 o'clock for which the nominal charge of 25 cents will be made, and which every one is invited to partake in. After the lunch the meeting will be given over to discussions of dairy problems and brief talks by local dairy men and merchants. Outside speakers may also be secured for the occasion. Wednesday's meeting is expected to be the liveliest gathering of its kind ever held in the community and a record attendance is looked for.

PENNINGTON COUNTY TEACHERS TO ATTEND CROOKSTON MEETING

Schools of City to Close Thursday and Friday of Next Week. Rural Teachers Institute.

Instructors in the high, graded and rural schools of the county will attend the annual convention of the Northwestern Minnesota Educational association at Crookston Thursday and Friday of next week, which opens on Wednesday evening. The rural teachers of the county will gather in this city beginning next Monday for a three-day institute session, the last two days of the institute, Thursday and Friday, to be given over to attendance at the Crookston convention. Ole R. Sande, county superintendent of schools, announces that about eighty rural teachers will be in the city at that time for the discussion of and consideration of school problems.

The schools in the city will be closed during Thursday and Friday next week while the instructors meet with approximately 500 other educators of this section of the state. Rural schools will be closed during the entire institute week.

The Crookston meeting will be addressed by a number of noted educators of the state and various entertaining features have been arranged by the Crookston schools. Several members of the Thief River Falls faculty are scheduled to appear on the program in some of the discussions. On Friday afternoon the Crookston high school football team will open its conference season with a game against Warren.

It is expected that about fifty teachers from the city and seventy-five others from the other districts of the county will go to the convention.

The Northwestern Minnesota Educational association takes in the counties of Pennington, Polk, Red Lake, Kittson, Roseau, Marshall, Mahnomen and part of Norman and Clearwater.

Most Beautiful Girls in Los Angeles With Norma Talmadge in Great Film

No wonder every girl in Los Angeles wanted to be an extra in the ballroom scenes of the Norma Talmadge feature production, "The Eternal Flame!" which has been booked to be shown at the Princess theater Sunday and Monday.

No wonder they made a concerted flank movement on the United Studios or that they kept the telephone lines there busy for days.

For it was conceded to be the most beautiful set ever built on a motion picture stage, and by experts who have made an extensive examination of set constructions on the Continent as well as those in the United States.

When the seven hundred people were on dress rehearsal for a day before the actual shooting began, the splendor of the scene rivalled the glories of Alexandria.

Many of the girls chosen had never before been in pictures, but they were without exception the finest assemblage of loveliness to be seen anywhere—girls whose birth had familiarized them with the social graces, so that they blended harmoniously into the atmosphere of the court life they depicted. So, too, the brocaded gallants of the era had to be selected with a view to aristocratic cast of features to accompany the foppish attire.

The costumes were all made on the lot from plates of the period. The gowns, enormously influenced by the Empire, also indicated a marked preference for modification of the moyen-age among such women as the Duchess, to whom dress was an expression of individuality, just as it is to the exquisitely dressed women of today.

To Collect Final Estimate.

A communication submitted to the city council from Contractor C. M. Carlson, who constructed the filtration plant, and payment of which has been delayed owing to a crack in the building, allows the city until Oct. 1 to pay the balance on the contract. If no action is taken legal proceedings will be started to recover the amount of the final estimate. Engineers who were connected with the project are also making efforts to collect balance claimed due.

BIG RECEPTION FOR LOCAL INSTRUCTORS PLANNED FOR OCT. 12

Parent-Teacher Association Secure Auditorium For Get-Together Affair.

The teachers of the city schools will be guests at a large reception given at the auditorium, Friday evening, Oct. 12, by the parents who are members of the Parent-Teachers association. The express purpose of the meeting is to give the teachers and the parents a chance to become better acquainted, and the whole program will be such as will make it thoroughly a get-together party. The complete program has not been worked out yet but will be announced in next week's issue of The Times.

The Parent-Teachers association of this city and the whole parent-teachers movement has done much to bring about better methods of teaching and dicipline. However local members and officers of the Association feel that this can be greatly improved on by a big get-acquainted meeting. Business crowds the sessions of the Parent-Teachers meetings and the proposed reception has been considered the best method of gaining the desired ends. The securing of the city auditorium will assure accomodations for a large crowd.

Crew Working on Three-mile Road West of City

The state highway department last week started work on the three-mile stretch of road going west from the fair grounds, having practically completed the leveling and are about to begin surfacing. This is a much needed improvement and will add greatly to the splendid road system of the community. When it was found that reimbursement bonds were not available for the completion of this project by the state this fall, the Commercial club of the city made an appeal to provide other means of bringing this about.

FOOTBALL LID TO BE OFF SATURDAY

Stephen Eleven Will Be Taken On by Locals in Opening Contest Here Sept. 29.

The lid of the high school football season for 1923 will pop off Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. At that time the cruel cleat of the football shoe will again tear up the turf at the fair ground gridiron when Coach Thune's proteges will take on the fast aggregation representing the high school of Stephen.

The local high school boys have been going thru some stiff practice of late and feel that they are ready to open the season with a win. A sufficient number of candidates have been available to form two or three teams and the boys have been put thru tough scrimmage work for the past two weeks. Altho most of the material is new, the boys are showing up fine and promise some real exhibition of the gridiron game before the season is over. Coach Thune, who has an enviable record as a football man and other major sports in college circles is a man who knows the proper tactics of the game and gives assurance of whipping the team into shape, worthy of representing this city against the best aggregations in the district.

A complete list of the candidates for the various positions on the team will be found in an article on the Progress page. It is not definitely known who will take part in the initial battle.

The schedule for the season includes the following games only two of which will be played on the home grounds:

Sept. 29-Stephen at Thief River Falls.
Oct. 6-Grand Forks at Grand Forks.
Oct. 13-Bemidji at Bemidji
Oct. 20-East Grand Forks at Thief River Falls.
Oct. 27-Crookston at Crookston.

Arrangements may be made for more contests later in the season.

It is hoped that a large crowd will be on hand to encourage the boys in their first game. There will be only two opportunities to see the locals in action on the home field this season, according to present schedule.

The admission fee will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for school children.

CITY ELECTION TO BE HELD IN T. R. F. NOV. 6TH

Voters to Select Mayor, Aldermen, Municipal Judge and Treasurer at Election.

No Candidates Have Thrown Hats in Ring Yet But A Few Are Being "Mentioned."

Increased Interest Expected to Be Shown as Election Time Approaches.

The regular city election this year for the city of Thief River Falls will be held Tuesday, November 6, at which time a complete roster of officials will be chosen for the ensuing term. Little interest has been displayed in this municipal event as yet, but it is expected that things will warm up as the campaign progresses. There are at present no definite issues of contention to be taken up by prospective candidates, but there may be developments not now foreseen. The absence of any main issues is rather unusual considering previous elections so that it is not likely that this will be an exception.

The officials to be selected are a mayor, one alderman for each of the city's four wards, two aldermen at large and city treasurer for a term of two years, and a municipal judge for a period of six years. Other members of the administrative body of the city are filled by appointment after the new officials have assumed charge of municipal affairs. This will take place at the first meeting of the new year.

The present incumbents of the city's official positions are: Mayor, John Bratrud; aldermen, first ward, Carl Froseth; second ward, John Dahl; third ward, H. A. Brumund; fourth ward, Andrew Ness; at large, O. L. Ihle and S. Brandon; city treasurer, C. M. Evenson; municipal judge, N. W. Tarrant.

It is understood that Mayor Bratrud and Aldermen Ihle and Brandon will not be candidates for re-election. Ihle is at present holding the county office of sheriff and filed his resignation from the city council last winter, which, however, was not accepted.

The city clerk reports that no candidates have filed their petition as yet, but it is expected that present officers and prospective candidates will soon announce their intentions. In order to file for an office in the city government the person desiring the nomination must submit a petition signed by ten per cent. of the total number of votes cast in the last general election. The last day for filing a petition is Oct. 27. The total number of votes cast in the city of Thief River Falls at the 1922 general election was 1863, distributed among the four wards as follows: First, 574; second, 489; third, 336; fourth, 564.

The voting will take place at the auditorium and at a meeting of the city council Tuesday evening the following judges of the election were chosen: First ward, Emil Gribstein, N. J. Anderson, Hans Rustad; second ward, Alfred Bredeson, H. C. Jung, W. H. Akre; third, P. J. Keating, Carsten Christenson, Henry Dostal; fourth ward, C. M. Wilson, Frank Crnoucek, Mrs. Harry Schuster.

Balancing Carriers Routes.

Assistant Postmaster T. S. Brokke made the city three carrier routes with the respective carriers last week to ascertain the difference of the lengths of the routes and the number of stops and if necessary to balance them up. However, they were found to be so well balanced that no improvement could well be made. The stops were very nearly alike in number and the shortest route, which was route number one, was a half mile shorter than the longest. The average amount of mail going out on each route was also taken into consideration but it was found that each route averaged nearly an equal number of pounds.

Lawrence Bjorkman Injured Sunday When 14 Shot Enter Body, Arms and Eye

Lawrence Bjorkman, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Dan Bjorkman, was injured Sunday when shot from a gun fired by William Sponheim penetrated his body, one small shot entering his eye.

A large covey of chickens had risen and when Mr. Spoonheim fired at them, Lawrence was close enough in line with the gun to receive about fourteen of the small shot. Most of them penetrated his body and arms but a few entered his face and one entered the eye ball. He was brought to the Swedenburg hospital immediately and given medical attention. It was thought that he would lose his eyesight but the attending physician said yesterday that conditions looked favorable to a recovery without the loss of the use of the organ. The shot is still imbedded in the eye ball but is lying between the inner and outer walls of the eye and it may be there for years without causing trouble.

Most of the shot that entered his body have been removed. The patient is rapidly recovering from the shock of the accident and the pain caused by the injured eye and an early recovery is expected.

The job is to be completed by November 1.

The offtake ditching contract incidental to the same project was let to Halvor Holen of Erie at 33 cents per cubic yard. The job involves the excavation of about 3000 cubic yards of dirt, and is to be completed by Nov. 15.

GRYGLA FARMER AGED 70, DIES FROM INJURIES

Ole Finsand, Aged Marshall County Resident, Suffers Fatal Injuries in Run-a-way.

Horses Make Dash Against Tree When Farmer Climbs Into Hayrack, Pinning Him.

Fractures Ribs on One Side But Crawls to House to Telephone For Help.

One of the most tragic accidents to occur in this section for some time happened last week when Ole Finsand, aged 70, residing 12 miles southeast of Grygla, suffered fatal injuries when a team of horses hitched to a hay wagon ran away with the result that he was pinned between the hayrack and a tree with such force that several ribs were broken and other internal injuries inflicted.

An account of the accident appeared in the Grygla Eagle last week giving the following details:

"Ole Finsand, living about 12 miles southeast of here met with a peculiar accident last Tuesday forenoon from which he died Wednesday night.

"The deceased was a widower, his wife having died a number of years ago. He lived with his son-in-law, Ernest Bonsmer, about two miles from his own place. He was about 70 years old and very active. Tuesday morning he went with his team to his farm to get a load of hay. The first knowledge of an accident was a telephone from him to the Bonsmer home saying 'Come, I am hurt.' They immediately went with an automobile and found him in bad shape. He was brought to the Grygla hospital but the injuries were so serious that nothing could be done, and he died Wednesday night.

"He was alone at the time of the accident and was unable to explain anything. As it appeared, he had evidently started to get into the wagon, on which was a hayrack, by climbing up in front. The team ran away and struck a tree, going on each side of it and the rack struck the tree catching the old man between it and the rack with such force as to break all the ribs on the right side and otherwise injure him internally so that recovery was impossible.

There was a telephone connection between the two houses and when he left his own house he always disconnected the phone by pulling the wires from the house to be safe from lightning. This time he had not done so and when hurt managed to crawl to the house and give the alarm."

NEOSHO SALES SYSTEM AUTHOR TO SPEAK HERE

G. R. Lowe of Neosho, Mo., Will Address Merchants and Farmers in City Oct. 5.

Meeting to be Held Under Auspices of Commercial Club in Club Rooms Friday Eve.

Sales System of Trade Boosting to be Presented to Thief River Falls Merchants.

Gurney R. Lowe of Neosho, Mo., author of the Neosho plan which is reported to have helped the business situation and stimulate business in a large number of towns and cities where it has been tried, is scheduled to introduce his plan to Thief River Falls merchants at a meeting to be held in the Commercial club rooms on Friday evening, Oct. 5. The gathering will start at 7:30.

At a meeting of the Commercial club last week a committee, consisting of Roy Lambert, L. R. Johnston and Nels Christianson, was appointed to interview the business men of the city previous to the meeting so as to assure a good turnout. Farmers of the community are also urgently requested to atatend as it is the aim of the club to secure as large attendance as possible so that the plan may be presented before a large representation of the community's citizens. Everyone interested in Mr. Lowe's plan should make it a joint to be present.

Mr. Lowe has been touring North Dakota and Montana for some time and is now making a tour of Minnesota, his expense being borne by the Northern Pacific and Soo Line railroads, in order to acquaint the various communities with his plan of mutual trade boosting.

He has appeared in various cities of the state, several of which have taken up his idea. Among those trying the plan is Crookston, the merchants there having decided to give it a trial for one year.

The following account of the plan was given by the Crookston Times following the meeting in the Polk county city:

"The three points in the Neosho plan are: first a community auction sale held in the city every month to which farmers are invited to bring goods they wish to dispose of. In towns no larger than Crookston this feature of the Neosho plan has averaged throughout the year auction sales totaling $3,700. The second and main section of the plan, Mr. Lowe said was a monthly bargain day.

"Mr. Lowe went deeply into ideas worked out in connection with the monthly bargain day. Each merchant member of the Neosho club, he said, would be required to offer two articles in his store at cost during that day. With thirty merchants co-operating in this manner, it would mean 60 articles, offered at cost, would pull outsiders into the city on those sales days. After getting new buyers here it was up to the merchants, he said, through courteous treatment, good will and satisfactory selling methods to keep them coming back when they had other trading to do.

"The third feature of the plan was to get better acquainted with surrounding farmers through merchants and their families going out during the summer months and holding meetings with the farmers.

What the Sapiro marketing plan will do for the farmer, so will the Neosho plan do for the merchant, according to Mr. Lowe. Both, he said, are based on better merchandising.

One hundred Crookston business men heard him explain his plan. The system is based on the golden rule of service and good will plus bargains to be given Crookston's trade territory. His plan he said, if worked together, through the united efforts of the merchants, is bound to bring more prosperity to the city.

"'Every one will profit,' Mr. Lowe said. The farmer and ultimate consumer will profit through the monthly bargains offered by local merchants. The merchants will profit through increasing their trading radius."

Hunting Licenses Are Issued to 500 in Co.; One Accident Reported

County Auditor T. P. Anderson reports that a total of 500 small game hunting licenses were issued to Pennington county nimrods this season, which exceeds considerably the number for the past few years. Most of those who tried their luck in bagging members of the feathered tribe met with fair success, some securing practically the full limit, while others were less fortunate and returned home only with an empty gun, an empty stomach and exhausted from tramping around. The season for hunting of prairie chickens closes Sunday, Sept. 30, while the duck season is open until Dec. 31.

Only one shooting accident has been reported in this vicinity this season, the unfortunate victim being Lawrence Bjorkman who was slightly injured last Sunday when a few stray shots struck him while he was hunting near the city.

So far no one has been reported of violating the regulations governing hunting, indicating that the local hunters are true sportsmen.

Sheriff Sells Cars For Tax.

Sheriff Ole L. Ihle last Saturday sold four automobiles for which their owners had not secured the proper license and were sold by the county official for whatever they brought at public auction. The machines, an Overland, a Hupmobile, a Chalmers and a Case, were sold for very small sums, not even sufficient to cover the delinquent tax money due on them. Practically all the delinquent auto tax in the county has now been collected, according to Sheriff Ihle, whose duty it is to see to that all cars in the county have the proper license tag.

Reviews Red Lake Project.

The following is a clipping from the Bemidji Sentinel of last week:

A brief but comprehensive resume of the steps taken towards draining the Red Lake country was given the members of the Kiwanis club Wednesday by Judge C. W. Stanton. Failure to properly divide the cost of the work was the reason given for the adverse action taken on the plan. Judge Stanton gave a review of what had been done with facts and figures as ascertained by the survey. That action must be taken by civic organizations to provide an equitable basis of cost division if the movement is to be reopened was his opinion.

Newfolden Resident Dies.

Jacob Sjogren, a resident of New Maine township, Marshall county since 1886 when he emigrated to this country from Vermeland, Sweden, passed away September 8 after a lingering illness, according to last week's issue of the Newfolden Review. He was 61 years of age at the time of his death and leaves to mourn his departure his wife and three children. Funeral services took place Tuesday, Sept. 11, Rev. Myhrer officiating.

MAN STRUCK BY CAR WHILE ATTEMPTING TO CROSS HIGHWAY

St. Hilaire Man Struck by Car Coming From Rear. Impact Bends Fenders-Radiator.

Syvert Skottem of St. Hilaire was severely injured Friday when a large car, seemingly driven at a high rate of speed, struck him while he was crossing the state road just outside of the city limits of St. Hilaire.

Mr. Skottem was riding with Albert Kolp, going from town to their homes. When they reached a point just outside the city limits Mr. Aubol stopped to let Skottem out, as the latter lived near the roadside, and as he stepped from the car he was struck by a second car which came up from the rear, driven by Melvin Berry. The impact was such that the two fenders and the radiator were bent. Skottem was carried upon the engine hood and carried for a distance of eight or ten rods.

He was cut about the face and head and several joints in the arms and legs were sprained.

The injured man was brought to this city by Mr. Berry and placed in the Swedenburg hospital for treatment. He escaped any serious injury but was suffering for some time from the shock. He is now improving rapidly and will soon be able to leave the hospital.

ALDERMEN OF CITY HAVE SESSION TUES.

Two Building Permits Issued; Use of Auditorium Granted: Herrick on Park Board.

A session of the city council was held Tuesday evening, all the aldermen being present.

Two building permits were allowed. The First and Peoples State bank was given permission to erect a 25 by 80 foot brick building between the Loken and DeCremer buildings. The estimated cost is $7,000. The building when completed will be occupied by the Thief River Falls Tribune newspaper and job printing plant. O. E. Jensen applied for permission to erect an addition to his paint shop on Main avenue.

It was voted to appropriate $50 to help defray the expenses connected with the poultry and crop show to be held in this city in December.

The Parent-Teachers association was granted the use of the city auditorium, free of charge, for the teachers' reception to take place Oct. 12. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers applied for a license to hold a Hallowe'en dance at the auditorium Oct. 31, which was granted.

The mayor's appointment of F. H. Herrick as a member of the park board following the resignation of Mrs. A. W. Swedenburg was also approved by the city aldermen, and judges for the city election Nov. 6 selected.

Who Knows Him?

A communication has been received by City Clerk A. H. Akre from a Mrs. G. Sandberg, Norquay, Sask., Canada, asking the city council to aid in finding the whereabouts of a man by the name of Alfred Olson, commonly known as Fred Olson, who is wanted, his mother being seriously ill, according to the letter. Anyone knowing anything which might lead to locating the man would confer a great favor by sending information either to Mrs. Sandberg, Norquay, Sask., Canada, or A. H. Akre, Thief River Falls, Minn.

PLANS FOR BIG POULTRY-CROP SHOW MATURING

Committees in Charge Actively Making Preparations For Event Dec. 4, 5, 6, 7.

Theo. M. Thronson Chosen Manager of Exhibition, and Financial Committee.

Funds to be Solicited For Putting on Extensive Show. City To Appropriate $50.

A meeting of the committee in charge of arrangements for the poultry and crop show to be held in Thief River Falls December 4, 5, 6 and 7 was held Tuesday evening at the Farm Bureau office. The committee is composed of members of the Pennington County Poultry association and representatives of the Commercial club. The purpose of the meeting was to make further plans for the big event.

Theo. M. Thronson, cashier of the First National bank, was chosen general manager of the show, and a committee of finance, consisting of Mr. Thronson, Olaf Neset and C. D. Gustafson, was also selected. Those in charge estimate that approximately $600 will be required for properly conducting the four-day show and the committee is already at work trying to secure the necessary funds. Liberal premiums will be offered for the many displays in order to create a greater interest among the exhibitors for a maximum number of entries. Farmers who plan on showing at this exhibition should prepare specimens as soon as possible in order to assure the best possible entries. The city council at a meeting Tuesday evening appropriated $50 to help defray the expenses of the show.

Further consideration of the plans for the event will be given by the committee and others interested at a meeting tonight. Committees for the various departments will then be appointed and other matters taken up. A matter to receive the attention of the committee will be the securing of good speakers on agricultural and poultry topics during the entire four days of exhibition.

Lieberman to Open Big Sale in Two Stores Sat.

Announcement is made this week on another page of this issue of a most extensive consolidation sale of the Lieberman Brothers clothing store and Lieberman's department store. Having sold the building on LaBree avenue to John Morgan, who takes possession on November 1, Albert Lieberman is forced to sell his merchandise at both stores at a great sacrifice in order to reduce both stocks heavily to enable him to condense them into one.

Mr. Lieberman intimates that he may have to discontinue some of his lines entirely so as not to be overcrowded. By doing so he gives to the public a chance to buy first class merchandise that will mean a considerable saving. It is expected that a large number of out-of-town people will avail themselves of the opportunity to make their fall and winter purchases at these two big stores where every member of the family can be benefitted.

The sale opens Saturday of this week.

A GOOD SHOWING.

It is encouraging to note the number of Thief River Falls young people who are attending universities and colleges of the country this year, in further pursuit of knowledge and development. They are young men and women nearly all of whom received their previous training in the schools of this city, and the local schools can feel justly proud of the representation of ambitious youths forging forward into professions and the many and varied walks of life, which compose the present complex of human affairs.

However, let us not ignore the efforts of the young person who works at a trade, or whatever it may be termed, to gain his end and reach an independent position in life via the school of experience only. His course often entails considerable grief and hard work and he may not be able to hold his end in all things with his university friend but he nevertheless occupies as essential a place in society, if he plays his part.

Education is development of what is already in us. Let us therefore strive to this end—find our place in life and develop ourselves to render the best services possible in whatever work we are engaged in.

SELFISHNESS LEADS TO RUIN.

A Minnesota man who was lifted suddenly into prominence had great ambitions, none of which he realized, although gifted with much ability. His failure was explained in a few words by a friend: "He has real ability; he has the capacity for real service; he is equipped for public office; but he lacks the first genuine fundamental of morality—he is without any sense of responsibility for others. He is willing to help himself by crucifying others. He does not know what it is to forego personal desire rather than to injure a fellow. This is the story of a large part of American political life. The tragedy of most men of promise in our life has been the tragedy that follows selfishness. Never in the world's history has any man grown truly great who failed in generosity, in kindliness, in friendliness. When a man is willing to serve himself at the expense of the happiness of other men he is doomed to oblivion.—Winnebago Enterprise.

BEGIN IN THE HOME.

A problem which is being widely discussed by the press, from the pulpit and platform, by fathers and mothers and every one concerned with existing conditions is that of the present tendencies of the younger generation. The general tenor of expression thruout appears to be that there is something wrong somewhere and that a change of some phase of our social order must be made so as to get our boys and girls started in the right direction at the outset. Delinquencies of various kinds indicate it is a problem that must be considered and dealt with.

It is apparant that the strongest agency of influence upon the children is the home, and from there should come the first action.

The following paragraph from the Appleton Enterprise points out some things which tend to determine the character and make-up of the child as it grows up:

"Much is said about the lack of home influence and the disrespect of children for their parents and the cause thereof. We venture the opinion that if there be such delinquency it might easily be attributed to the absence of discipline in the home. 'Familiarity breeds contempt,' but more truly slack obedience propagates insolence and indifference. Few words, quietly but firmly and oftimes pleasantly spoken, will bring better results than continual bickering or loud, angry demands. Children are hero worshipers and their parents are the objects of this devotion, but when the exalted ones stoop to the level of common people by getting angry at their own offspring or by playing the bully in the home, the sacredness of the institution is defiled, the high priest has exposed his feet of clay and the guardian angel's wings are but tinsel. Home is where everybody smiles; where to think of others is spontaneous and not a thought at all; where one exposes his innermost soul to the warm rays of pure unselfish love; where the youngest has equal consideration with the elders and the parents' comfort and happiness leads in the thoughts of the children."

MAKE THEM FEEL AT HOME.

An exchange from a southern Minnesota town deplores the fact that the teachers there, and in many other places, remain only during one term and thus cut down the efficiency of the schools. One reason given for this condition is social shortcomings of the community. The citizens and school patrons apparantly fail to show sufficient interest in making the surroundings of the new teachers as pleasant as possible and for this reason cause them to look for more favorable locations. They must be made to feel at home if they are to be induced to remain in the service of the same school system more than one year.

The proper spirit in this phase of our city life has evidently been shown by Thief River Falls, as a large number of former teachers returned to teach here again this year, indicating that they are pleased with what the city has to offer. The local American Legion post and Woman's Auxiliary started activities this season by giving a party in the form of a reception for the faculty of the city schools and school board last Friday evening and these organizations proved that they are behind the teaching staff, want to get acquainted with them and make them feel at home at the outset of their stay here. It is expected that other events of a similar nature will be promoted by various other civic and social organizations in the course of the year.

If you find it hard to scratch for three squares a day, why not let the hen do a little scratching for you? That's her line.

WOMAN'S CLUB IS MAKING PLANS FOR SEASON'S OPENING

Interesting Program For First Meeting Monday, Oct. 1 at Commercial Club Rooms.

The members of the Woman's club will hold their first meeting in the commercial club rooms, which will be the regular meeting place of the club this season, Monday, Oct. 1st.

The president of the club, Mrs. P. W. Mabey, requests that each member invite a guest. The program of the year will be taken up and discussed and plans made for carrying them out. The board of officers will be hostesses to the members and guests.

The woman's club has been one of the most wide awake organizations of the city and had a very successful season last year and are out again this year to raise their own records if possible. The commercial club rooms have been secured for their use during the ensuing season and they are now in the process of being made comfortable and attractive.

Blazing the Way
PERHAPS the outstanding characteristics of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and its success lies in the fact that in all of its activities it has had to establish precedent—there was none to follow.
For this reason it was forced to delve far into science—to analyze—to deduce—to conclude—to act.
It was the task of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to eliminate haphazard—to eliminate the speculative.
If the products of petroleum were to be a staple and become an integral part in the operation of other industries, the entire process of refining petroleum must be based on scientific accuracy.
It was on this premise that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) established its immense research laboratories, equipping with every modern facility.
The findings of the men in these laboratories have contributed much to the success of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and enabled it to earn its rightful position as a leader in the industry.
Scores of new products have been evolved in these laboratories. All were taken from the single base—crude petroleum. They have enabled you to partake of many of the refinements of life and to enjoy comforts that otherwise would have been denied you.
Viewed broadly, the pioneer work of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has done much to stabilize industry; to put production on a standard of accuracy; to reduce the cost of commodities; to develop new methods; to give inventive genius a starting point.
The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has not confined its pioneering alone to the manufacturing and selling of petroleum products.
It has inaugurated new methods of industrial relations within its own organization that have gone a long way towards solving the problems confronting industry generally.
Thus, by blazing its own trail has the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) grown big—big in size and big in service—to the thirty million people of the Middle West.

School Loyalty

Exists there an institution in the ranks of learning that has no school spirit? Some folks would be inclined to vary the question as follows, "Exists there an institution in the ranks of learning that has school spirit?" The latter would not apply to the type of student that is a founder of stable virtue, a mason in laying the foundation of pure loyalism; it would apply to the pessimistic helper, the easily discouraged individual. He falls in second rank, when he should have fallen in first.

Lincoln High deserves the honor of having rank one, strong and vigorous, because it has the material. The only thing lacking is the honest support of the entire student body. Don't ever fall back upon the idea of "leaving it to another." List that old idea as obsolete, and adopt an efficient way of producing school spirit among fellow-students. Take a few things into your own hands and give every true enterprise your unfailing support.

Forget the "knock" and don't deliberately destroy effective attempts for yourself and others by finding fault. Make yourself boost encouragingly, and feel that "You're as good as I am." Build up confidence. Such a group of co-operators would render an incontestable amount of support and backing to any school, making it unconquerable, which every loyal student wants Lincoln High to be.

School Honesty

During the past few years in Lincoln High there has been more or less trouble over the loss of money and minor possessions that have not been returned. There seems to have been a change of spirit this year because no such cases have been reported without the return of the article. Several times in these first few weeks students have returned five or ten dollars to the desk, saying that they found them. Money of all denominations, pocket-books, fountain-pens, and all the articles that so easily get lost are brought back by the finders. Whether this is a case of conscience or plain honesty we do not know, but whatever it is it is an admirable trait for any student body to possess. We are not encouraging students to be careless with their possessions but we are glad that those that do stray from the owners can be depended upon to return.

FRESHMAN IN HIGH WINS ESSAY PRIZE

Lester Rolland of This City Wins Third Prize in National Highway Essay Contest.

Lester Rolland, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rolland of this city, and a freshman in Lincoln High, has been awarded third prize in the national essay contest on Highway Safety.

The essay receiving first prize in each state was sent in to the national contest, making forty-eight contestants. Miss Theodora Poole of Lansing, Michigan, received the first prize, a gold watch and a free trip to Washington, and Miss Edwina Hull of Frontier, Wyoming, was awarded the second prize, a gold loving cup. Lester's essay, entitled "My Share in Making the Highways Safe," was given first prize in Minnesota which was fifteen dollars and a gold medal, and was awarded a silver loving cup as third prize in the national contest. These prizes are the gifts of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

The reviewing committee consisted of Mrs. A. H. Reeve, President of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Associations, Philadelphia; Richard J. Walsh, Editor of the Colliers Weekly, New York City; and James E. West, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America, New York City.

It is a great distinction and honor to both the city and the school to have one of its members win a prize so nationally known, and everyone should appreciate the fact. It is hoped that this will prove an incentive to the other students and that more will compete in future contests of this kind.

Rivalry in Glee Clubs Makes Work Interesting

Last week Miss Maude L. Johnson, music instructor, informed the members of the Boy's and Girl's Glee clubs that the organization doing the hardest work and achieving the best results this year would have its reward in a concert tour throughout the neighboring towns.

Such rivalry will be an important factor in keeping up the interest, which has a tendency to flag at times, and better work and music will no doubt, be the result.

Michigan "U" Changes Entrance Requirements

That high school work may be a real preparation for college work, the University of Michigan requires that students preparing for entrance shall take advanced courses in high school subjects, rather than merely finish enough work to satisfy numerically the prescribed number of units. Before the past college year, when this requirement was first made, many students had entered the Freshman Class with but a general smattering of the elements of many subjects and without the valuable experience of a continued and somewhat intensive study of any single one. A considerable number had taken as electives in the third and fourth years, studies of of the first and second years. As a result these students were not really prepared to do work in college grade, and many of them failed in their Freshman work.

In an effort to reduce the number of failures in the Freshman class, the board of regents changed the entrance requirements so that a student who had not taken advanced work in high school could not enter the University. The rules now in effect demand that five units, one third of all the units required for entrance, shall represent studies regularly scheduled for the third and fourth years of the high school course, and the board of regents urgently recommends that six or more units of these advanced studies should be presented. Only one class has entered under these rules, so that the University authorities have not yet been able to determine the effect of the new standards.

Normal Girls Choose Name for Department

September 20, the girls of the Normal department had a meeting, the purpose being to select a name for the department. Several names were chosen from the list and these were voted upon. The one that was chosen was, "Sowers and Reapers," as the girls thought this the most appropriate. It was also decided that each member of the normal training department shall pay a small fee each month so that if anything unexpected comes up, they will have a fund to draw upon.

Central Notes.

There are 108 pupils enrolled in the seventh grade and 131 in the 8th making a total of 239 pupils for the Central building.

The enrollment in the 8th grade is so large that it became necessary to employ a fourth teacher for the mornings. They were fortunate in securing Mrs. Campbell for this work.

Miss Maude L. Johnson, music instructor, has been very busy testing voices the past week. The pupils are very glad to have her with them again and are anxious to begin the work under her supervision. Miss Keefe is to have charge of the 8th grade music and Miss Sands the 7th grade.

Mrs. Karwand's civic classes observed the naturalization proceedings on Monday.

Football Schedule.

Oct. 5-Thief River Falls at Grand Forks.
Oct. 13-Thief River Falls at Bemidji.
Oct. 20-East Grand Forks at Thief River Falls.
Oct. 27-Thief River Falls at Crookston.

FOOTBALL ELEVEN MEET STEPHEN SAT

Lawrence Bjorkman, Promising Tackle, Is Injured by Shot While Hunting Sunday.

The high school football squad of 1923 has in the past two weeks completed work that no former green high school team has done. The boys are showing the old Lincoln high school spirit of a few years ago. Mr. Thune, the coach, is showing the boys their stuff, and is putting them thru it with a rush. He has laid down the law on training and the law is obeyed. What more is wanted for a successful football team?

The alumni game on Saturday, Sept. 22, being the fifth scrimmage of the season, is a sure proof that there is the material to make a team that has not been equaled since 1918. The boys are doing their best every evening and that is a proof of the statement.

Stephen is coming to Thief River Falls with a fighting spirit and hope to at least tie the locals as they did in '21 but with a lineup like the following such an accident will not be likely to happen again.

End—John Sether, Roy Langevin, Oliver Dahl, Lawrence Mulry.

Tackle — Noble Larson, Wendell Lundell, Thomas Belland, Melvin Peterson.

Guard—Cleon Bottleson, Arne Berg, Math Barzen.

Center — Allen Sorenson, Millard Myrin.

Full Back—Tien Gullingsrud, Lloyd Bennes, Joseph Lundeen.

Quarter—Michael Parenteau, Kenneth Streeter.

Lawrence Bjorkman, the most promising tackle on the team, was seriously disabled on a hunting expedition last Sunday afternoon. A chicken flew up near the party and one of the group raised his gun to shoot, when unfortunately Lawrence was in direct line of the aim, and received the full discharge in his side. Although the shot took effect in his hip and arm, the eye was most seriously affected, where a portion of the shell was stiffly lodged and very difficult to locate. However, in spite of the unfortunate mishap, Lawrence's cheery disposition has helped him along. He is now able to open the injured eye and is progressing on the way to recovery with hopes of playing with the football eleven later in the season.

New Athletic Hand Book.

The Minnesota State High School Athletic association has issued this year an official handbook. This is a new departure on the part of the association. This handbook contains the rules of the association, the minutes from the meetings of the board of control, the history of the organization, the scores of past tournament games, and other interesting information. It is a book that anyone who is interested in athletics, either as a player or as a fan, would like to read. Coach Thune has several copies of the handbook and is loaning them to the students who want to read them. There is also a copy in the school library, so that anyone wishing to become better acquainted with the workings of the State High School Athletic association may borrow one of these booklets either from Mr. Thune or from the library.

REV. LEE DOWNING SPEAKS AT CHAPEL

Missionary Tells Students of Interesting Work Among Natives in Africa.

Last Thursday forenoon each period was slightly shortened and four bells called the student body and faculty to assemble for a very interesting chapel.

Reverend Lee Downing of the Africa Inland Mission spoke. He was immediately recognized by the students as having appeared here last year, and was greeted with loud applause. In his speech he told about the eagerness of the natives to listen to the missionaries, their willingness to be converted, and their ability to learn quickly. He also mentioned the ferocious beasts and reptiles that keep the surrounding country in such dread and fear and showed a map of the wild country to which he is extending a helping hand.

As one chapel each week has been considered sufficient, there was no singing period Friday afternoon.

County Has Many Students At Crookston Ag. College

Sixteen students from Pennington county attended the Northwest School of Agriculture at Crookston last year. Several were members of the graduating classes. Reports from the school indicate that Pennington county will again be well represented when the term opens October 1.

The students from this vicinity speak very highly of the courses offered, especially concerning the practical application of the work. Mention is also made regarding the wholesome surroundings and the nature of the recreation program carried on. Faculty and students plan the social events for the year and many pleasant hours are spent in the dormitories, gymnasium, or auditorium.

Being a state institution with students living on the campus, it is possible to have a type of school life ordinarily only found in the larger colleges and universities. Athletics, musical organizations, societies for good fellowship and public speaking find their proper place. Each year the lecture course brings some of the best musicians and entertainers to the institution. Speakers of national reputation and others who have made a success in various lines of endeavor give the benefit of their experiences to the students.

It is also understood that there is no tuition, students board and room at the school and can attend when it is most convenient to leave home. Boys and girls from this county who are not already attending school should make more use of such institutions as the Northwest School at Crookston.

Among the victims of the shell game this week were the ducks.

WESLEY BARRY IN "RAGS TO RICHES"

Popular Boy Star Feature at Princess Theatre Friday and Saturday of This Week

Why is it that the appeal of the theme of a boy's rise from rags to riches is eternal and unfading, having a powerful hold on young and old alike? And why is its message universal? The answer to these questions is given in "Rags to Riches," the Harry Rapf production sponsored by Warner Brothers, which is announced for a run of two days at the Princess Theater, beginning Friday and Saturday.

Freckled, inimitable Wes will be remembered by all who saw him in "School Days". He typifies the unconquerable spirit of youth and its adventurous strain which he always succeeds in communicating to his audience.

"Rags to Riches," adaped from Charles A. Taylor's celebrated stage play, a wealthy little child, who frets under the artificial formality of his home, and pines for a little action. He gets his chance upon discovering a burglar in the house. When the second-story artist escapes Marma-duke pursues him and becomes his pal. Then the two roam through the country, while a gang of desperate crooks shadow them for the tempting reward offered for Marmaduke. How the lad helps to corral the crooks makes for a climax which is exciting and refreshing.

Henry Waag Breaks Leg In Fall From Building

Henry Waag, son of John A. Waag, 408 State avenue north, suffered a fracture of the leg between the knee and the hip Tuesday while playing with a number of other boys on the Peter Englestad farm. The boys were out there to pick potatoes and after finishing the work they were playing around the buildings. Young Waag had climbed to the roof of a shed and fell off, alighting in such a manner as to cause a severe fracture of the leg. He was brought to this city immediately and Dr. H. W. Froehlich examined the limb and made the necessary adjustments. The bone was broken in such a way that it was parted on one side, being very nearly broken apart. He is doing well at this time but it will be at least six weeks before he will have regained the free use of the leg.

Farmer Near City Gets Big Watermelon Yield

That watermelons and similar vegetables can be successfully raised on a commercial scale in this community was proven this year by A. A. Shoopman, a young farmer operating a farm four miles south of Thief River Falls. He states that this year he had a considerable patch of several varieties of watermelons, muskmelons and cantaloupe which he raised with wonderful success and readily found a market right at home. He hauled a number of loads to Thief River Falls, netting splendid returns for his products. They were of the finest quality to be found on any market, people here who purchased specimens agreeing that they are of the best they have ever eaten. This accomplishment is an indication of what can be done by diversified farming in this section. If properly grown and taken care of this crop can be made a most profitable one. Mr. Shoopman had over one-fourth acre planted to melons and realized a neat sum. Many others have raised these products here in small quantities for several years but few have taken advantage of the marketing value of the crop.

Mr. Shoopman came here from Illinois and believes in the agricultural possibilities of Pennington county. He was the winner in the corn contest conducted here last year, having a splendid 25-acre tract

She Wouldn't Recognize Your Voice.

If a man spoke to his wife only once a month or every two months, she wouldn't even recognize his voice. Yet some business men advertise once a month or every two months and then wonder why they don't get more business. Advertise every week. Remember "the used key is always bright." The store that tells the public what they have and what they are doing, every week, is the store that gets there in the end.—Exchange.

Prominent Dairyman Will Take Charge of McFarland Herd; Formerly With Bacon

It will be of interest to dairymen of this community to know that another cattle expert is soon to enter the ranks of Pennington herdsmen. Ed Johnson, for the past five years in charge of the noted Bacon herd at Grand Forks, has been secured by M. T. McFarland, Holstein breeder and local merchant, to have complete supervision of the McFarland farm and Holstein herd located four miles west of Thief River Falls.

Mr. Johnson is known as one of the best cattle men of the country and will be a great asset to the community in building up the dairy industry which is progressing forward with leaps and bounds. The new man has become popular in dairy circles by reason of the splendid showings made by the Bacon herd under his supervision, having made all official tests of the herd and prepared animals and herds for exhibition at various shows and fairs. It is Mr. Johnson's plan to build up one of the best Holstein herds in the state and help put Pennington on the map as one of the dairy centers.

Mr. Johnson will arrive October 15, accompanied by his wife. The McFarland farm has been operated by Art Bartelson during the past year.

Improvement on State Road No. 5 In Progress

The grading on the ten miles of graveled road southwest from Thief River Falls, known as the angle road, state road No. 5, is rapidly nearing completion and arrangements are being made for the surfacing of the thoroughfare. This project, which has been under way during the past summer, will complete the connection with the state road No. 1, east of Hazel, making a much better and shorter route for residents of the section adjoining and it shortens the road for farmers in that section tributary to that road who come to Thief River Falls. It also affords a better connection with the road direct to Oklee, portions of which it is expected will undergo considerable improvement during the coming year in order to put it in first class condition. When fully developed it will complete the loop around by Highlanding and Goodridge. The community will also be benefitted by the drainage outlet afforded by the project.

Six miles of the road were surfaced last winter, the remaining four miles to be completed this season. The work is under the supervision of Bert F. Umland, local highway engineer.

Peanuts Can Be Grown In Pennington County

Pennington county is not limited to sugar beets only when it is a question of what can be grown here. Fred Protz, local mail carrier, has a patch of peanuts on his grounds on the East Side where he has raised several hills of peanuts this summer. They are ripening satisfactorily, and a few specimens may be seen in the window of Shaw's insurance office. Bickley, a farmer near Highlanding, is also raising peanuts but as yet no reports are available as to his success in the growing of this supposedly southern product.

Mr. Emery and Mr. Froseth were driving out to the home of Mr. Emery's uncle, M. J. Grettinger, residing 10 miles east and two miles south of this city. They were on the right hand side of the road, which has, at that point, three well beaten ruts. Mr. Emery was trying to pass from the right hand side to the left when the steering gear, which had previously given trouble, caused the wheels to buckle toward the ditch. The ditch at that point is the deepest of any point along the road. The car ran down into it without over turning but in trying to regain the road the front wheels struck a washout ravine and buckled, for the second time, but toward the road. At this time Perry atemped to jump from the car but was not quick enough. The top was up and after the accident the door was still closed, both of which arrested his action. In the quick turn, which it took on hitting the washout, the car turned over on its side, at the same time throwing Perry out and into the ditch.

Mr. Emery remained in the car. On climbing out he did not see Perry at once and, thinking him to be under the car, he tipped it to a upright position. Then he saw him several yards further up the ditch, lying in an unconcious state.

It was shortly after this that a large touring car approached from the east and they placed Perry in the car and took him to this city and to the Swedenburg Hospital. No bad bruises were found on his body, a small red mark over the right eye being the only outward signs of an accident. However his neck was twisted in a peculiar way and concussion of the brain developed. No hemorahages have been found to have existed except small cappilary hemorhages from the brain which are not, in themselves, serious. He was still unconcious when brought to the hospital and has only gained partial conciousness at long intervals. He has been in a subconcious state almost continuously since the accident. Dr. Theo. Bratrud of Warren was called in consultation.

Mr. Emery did not receive any injury. The car, damaged to the extent of breaking the top and windshield, was given a few necessary repairs there and driven out to the Grettinger farm. The steering gear had caused trouble before and was said to be too loose for any degree of safety under the best of conditions.

PUREBREDS AT HOLSTEIN SALE AVERAGE $142

Nineteen Head Sold at Second County Consignment Sale for Total of $2,693.

Thirteen Purchased by Pennington Breeders. Highest Price Paid for Cow is $205.

Enthusiastic Dairy Booster Gathering at Auditorium Last Evening After Sale.

The second consignment sale to be conducted by the Pennington county Holstein association held yesterday at the fair grounds here was a decided success. The event was well attended, it being estimated that about three hundred were present, and much interest was shown. A large number of dairy men from outside the county were here to make purchases but it appeared that local buyers were willing to pay a better price and wanted the stock to remain in the county, which is indicated by the fact that thirteen out of the nineteen animals sold were disposed off to local dairymen.

All the animals consigned were purebred stock. The total receipts amounted to $2,693.50 or an average price of $142 per head, which is only one dollar below that received last year. The highest price paid for one animal was $205 which was the amount paid for a cow by Sam Darst of Greenbush. All but two of the animals sold were females, the two yearling bulls bringing a price of $127.50 and $70.

Altho most of the animals were sold at a rather reasonable price the results of the sale are considered very satisfactory in view of present conditions. An important result of an event of this kind is the fact that a number of the very best purebreds are distributed thruout the county and thus improves the herds of the community.

Those who purchased animals at the sale and the price paid for each, are as follows: M. T. McFarland, Thief River Falls, three animals at $200, $100 and $170; Arne Vik, St. Hilaire, two animals at $170 and $155; R. M. Johnson, Kratka, two animals at $195 and $186; Hans Rued, Thief River Falls, one male at $127.50; Waldie Christensen, Thief River Falls, $100; Fred Weiss, Thief River Falls, one male, $70; Sam Darst, Greenbush, two animals at $205 and $135; Ingber Bros., Hendrum, $85; Roy H. Melick, Strathcona, $91; Wm. C. Miller, Warren, $60; Ed. Dunham, Wanaska, $65.

Following the sale last evening a lunch was served to business men and farmers of the community at the Commercial club rooms, which part of the day's program was quite well attended. After the lunch a rousing meeting in the interest of dairying in this community was held in the city auditorium, an event which should have been attended by every Pennington county farmer and anyone interested in the promotion of the dairy industry.

Prominent on the speaking program were E. F. Flynn of St. Paul, assistant to the vice-president and general counsel for the Great Northern railway and Daniel E. Willard, field man for the Great Northern. Both spoke about the importance of the dairying in this section and its relationship to the railroads. Hans Anton and Hans Rued, well known Pennington county farmers who are members of the delegation sent to the state fair by the Commercial club, gave interesting accounts of their observations at the great exposition and in what respect the farmers in this community can benefit by some of the things brought out there. An interesting address was also given by J. S. Arneson, dealing with the Rural Credits act and the possibilities of bettering the farming conditions of the community.

THIEF RIVER FALLS TEACHERS TAKE PART IN PROGRAM

Instructors of Pennington County Attending Crookston Convention

The local schools closed today and tomorrow, October 4 and 5, in order to enable the teachers to attend the annual Convention of the Northwestern Minnesota Educational Association which convenes in Crookston on these dates.

Rural teachers from practically every district in the county congregated in Thief River Falls Monday, the opening of the annual three-day institute in which they are given thorough instruction regarding their work by two state workers. Those in charge of the instruction this year are Miss Lulu Olds and Miss Jonine Amundson, who represent the state department and conducted classes among the teachers every day during the institute from nine to four. One hour each day was taken up by Ole R. Sande, county superintendent, in the discussion of local problems and instructions regarding reports and matters of that nature.

The majority of the rural teachers as well as those teaching in the city and graded schools left this morning for the Crookston gathering, which offers an unusually attractive program of an educational and entertaining nature.

Among the most prominent speakers are Dr. William A. Cook of the University of South Dakota who will speak Thursday morning and evening; Dr. H. L. Miller of the University of Wisconsin who will speak at the general session on both Thursday and Friday mornings; Dr. Oscar Taylor Corson of Oxford, Ohio, who will speak at the general session Friday forenoon; Mrs. F. G. Quamme of St. Paul, president of the state Parent-Teacher association, will address the assembly on Thursday evening. C. C. Swain, president of the Mayville Normal School, will deliver several addresses.

Several of the local teachers will take various parts on the different programs. Miss Minnie Leavitt, high school English instructor, will discuss the topic "Measuring the Progress in Mastering the Minimum Essentials in English" at the English round table on Thursday. A. C. Matheson, high school language instructor, will lead the discussion on the title, "Some Modern Language Problems". Miss Mildred Nelson will discuss "What Sciences should be taught in the High Schools of Northwestern Minnesota." Miss Sarah Vaughan of the Knox school will appear on the intermediate program with a discussion of "Relative Values of Written and Oral Language in the Intermediate Grades". Miss Aneta Dahlquist has been assigned the topic "How to Stimulate in Oral Expression" on the same program; while Miss Edna Larson, principal of the Washington, will discuss "Interesting and Effective Teaching of Spelling." Clarence Pope, instructor of the general industrial training department is scheduled for a talk on late tendencies in his line of work. Miss Clara Baumann, physical training director of the city schools, is scheduled to give a talk on "Playground Supervision during Recess." In addition to the above assignments, Miss Maude L. Johnson, supervisor of music in the Thief River Schools, will have charge of the musical program at the convention; Miss Blanche Korstad of the mathematics department has charge of the mathematics round table; while Supt. I. T. Simley is chairman ofthe elementary section.

An unusally attractive program has been provided for this convention. It should give the educators both specific help in their problems and the inspiration which is necessary for the most successful carrying on of their work. The convention opened at 7:30 on Wednesday evening and will close Friday evening. It is anticipated that approximately 500 teachers from the counties of the northern division will be in attendance when the rural teachers of Pennington and Polk county merge with other delegates of the association.

Local Barber Figures In Serious Auto Spill Sun. Occupants Pinned Under

G. O. Gregerson, employed in Ralston's barber shop, and his sister, Mrs Gorden Brooten of Badger, narrowly escaped being killed in an auto accident near Badger last Sunday evening. As a result of the accident Mrs. Brooten is in the hospital suffering from several bruises and cuts and also fractures, while Mr. Gregerson returned Monday and has resumed his duties at the shop, having been but slightly injured.

Mr. Gregerson was visiting with his sister at Badger, and Sunday evening they started out for Roseau in a Ford touring car. When making the turn on the highway one half mile northeast of Badger the front wheels turned the loose sand in such a way that the driver was unable to control the machine and as a result it made a tumble on the side of the road, coming to a stop on with the wheeles up and both occupants pinned under the car. Both front wheels were broken. They were going only at a moderate speed, according to Mr. Gregerson.

Unable to get out from under the machine they had to wait until someone came to assist them, which was but a short time. The top was broken and the windshield completely shattered, and as a result that the woman was badly cut in both legs and other places, as well as severely bruised. A bone in one leg was also fractured. Mr Gregerson however, came out of the mishap very luckily, receiving only a bruise in the leg and minor bumps. Both were immediately taken to the Roseau hospital for medical attention, Mrs. Brooten then being in a rather critical condition. She is now reported to be improving and it is not thot that she will suffer any permanent injuries.

RUBINOW COMING TO PENNINGTON COUNTY

Drive to Secure Membership In Potato Marketing Organization is Planned.

A movement to complete the campaign to get Pennington county potato growers to join the Minnesota co-operative potato exchange was given consideration at the regular noon luncheon of the Commercial club last Thursday.

A drive will be sponsored in which business men and farmers will canvass the country to sign up the growers, and effort being to secure a sufficient acreage to make the organization effective. Similar campaigns are being conducted thruout the potato raising sections and in many instances every farmer is signed up. In Polk county the drive has been particularly enthusiastic and proportionately successful.

A committee has been selected to make the necessary arrangements and set the date for the proposed drive to see the growers of the county, and their definite plans will be announced as soon as they have been completed. Those comprising the committee are F. J. Stebbins, chairman, Math Barzen Sr., L. R. Johnston, Dr. O. F. Mellby, H. E. Nelson, F. L. Christensen and L. H. Larson.

Considering the recent slump in potato prices it becomes apparent that something must be done to relieve this calamity in order to save the growers from complete failure.

In addition to local speakers at Thursday's luncheon, there was also a brief talk given by William Hardwick, a Western potato buyer, who spoke on the subject of potatoes and marketing methods.

S. G. Rubinow, organization manager of the Minnesota Potato exchange, who is at present conducting a co-operative marketing campaign in Becker, Norman, Wilkin and Polk counties and is this week active in Kittson county will be in Pennington county Monday and Tuesday of next week to lend assistance in securing the acreage for the organization.

Swedish Comedy to Be Presented by "Olle i Skratthult" Company

"Olle i Skratthult" and his company of players will appear at the auditorium in this city Saturday evening, Oct. 6, when they will present the play "Lars Anders, Jan Anders and Their Children". Following is a comment on the presentation of the play in Willmar last week, from the Willmar Tribune:

"Lars Anders, Jan Anders and Their Children," a rural comedy of unusual funny scenes and situations will always draw a crowd. This quarrel between two Swedish "bonder" or farmers, is so true to life and in so many respects just exactly what one will find in some communities, that the audience is easily carried with the tide of good humor. Red hot tempers and long period of quarreling make the two farmers impossible of agreement on how trifling a matter. Their children are in love with each other and the wives are necessarily brought into the battles which occur. It all happens over the building of a fence between the two farms.

The entire play is brim full of laughs. It is indeed worthy of attendance and to the Scandinavians it is the big theatrical event of the year.

Olle himself appears between acts to sing a few songs and expresses himself in a brief talk to the audience. Olle is, and always will be, a favorite with the audience. His personality on the stage and his well selected humorous songs and witty expressions keeps the house laughing and smiling between times.

Hans Hagman, baritone soloist, has many big possibilities in his voice. There is quality and strength which made his numbers very acceptable.

The folk dance of Olga Peterson and Annar Myhre was indeed gracefully executed.

Thoughtfulness is one of the fundamentals of hospitality. When your guest reads the account of his or her visit in your local paper he becomes aware of a hospitality which extends beyond your door—to your city.

Warren Winning

The Warren high school football team defeated Ada in the second contest of the season on the Ada grounds last Saturday, the final score being 13 to 6. The Warren eleven won over Stephen in their first game a week previous, the score then being 18 to 0. The Warren boys are all beginners in the art of handling the pigskin but are showing good style in the games played so far. They will go to Crookston tomorrow to meet the strong Crookston eleven in a game arranged to furnish entertainment for the teachers of the northwest assembled in convention there this week.

Not Veneer

"I HAVE yet to find a Standard Oil service station attendant who fails to reflect the ideals of service set forth in Standard Oil Company (Indiana) advertising."

Such was the comment of an observant man who had been expressing his opinion of service in industry.

It is but a composite of the general feeling among patrons of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The spirit of service is highly developed in every employe of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), whether he wears overalls or occupies a place on the directorate.

Every man and woman of the 27,000 employes making up the personnel of this Company is obsessed with but one ambition—to do his or her part in making the Company greater in size and in service.

Such a condition cannot prevail under the lash. If it is to endure the desire to serve must be inherent in the individual.

It is a natural development that follows fair dealing, camaraderie, pleasant working conditions, just treatment, skillful management—in short, intensive organization modernized to the last degree.

That the employe in overalls should reflect the Company's ideals of service is the result of highly intensified organization.

It is eloquent of the spirit prevailing throughout the organization—of the complete understanding of purpose, between the executives and those who are on the firing line, making the last turn in the great cycle of Standard Oil service.

Where complete understanding exists there are no obstacles too difficult to overcome.

Complete understanding between the management and the employe has made the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) big in size and big in service.

Complete understanding between the Company and the thirty million people of the Middle West has caused the list of shareholders in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to increase in four years' time from 4,600 to 42,706—not one of whom owns as much as 6% of the total.

Thief River Falls Times

Mattson Brothers, Publishers.

SRENG BJORNARAA - City Editor

Entered as second-class matter at the Postoffice at Thief River Falls, Minnesota

(Official Paper, City of Thief River Falls.)

FAREWELL

Through the courtesy of Mattson Brothers, the new owners of The Times, I am permitted to say a few parting words to our subscribers and friends.

The Times was sold on Monday to A. E. and C. W. Mattson of Warren, Minn., and they are now in possession of the plant, publishing this issue of the paper.

After nine years of close association, thru personal contact and the columns of the paper, with the splendid people of Thief River Falls and surrounding territory it is no easy matter to say the curt words "good-bye." I have, in common with other business men of the community, enjoyed and shared the years of prosperity and I have also felt the sharp thrusts of adversity. I have seen the city of Thief River Falls improve in stability, attractiveness and desirability as a place in which to live and the surrounding farming country develop with the introduction of dairying, diversified farming and good roads. I have felt myself a part of these things and endeavored to help by supporting through the columns of the paper everything that might aid in bringing about an improvement in conditions generally. I have enjoyed and value the friendship of many people here.

I have worked hard to make The Times a newspaper that would be truly representative of the community and that my efforts have been successful, in a measure at least, is attested to by the fact that today the paper enjoys the destinction of having the largest circulation of any weekly in the state.

For all of these things I am grateful and if I leave behind me a feeling that The Times has been a factor for good and helped in the general advancement of the city and county, I will be well pleased and that will be my reward for the nine years that I have been with you.

A newspaper becomes a part of the editor's innermost self, just like a member of the family, and to sever the tie is something that cannot be done without a feeling of deep regret. To my friends, the subscribers of the paper and business patrons, I want to express my sincere thanks for their patronage and helpfullness at all times. I shall always remember my nine years of residence here with a kindly feeling for all. I leave in a short time for Madison, Wisconsin, where I will be engaged in the printing business.

In behalf of the new publishers I want to say that they merit and are justly entitled to all the support the community can give them. They are splendid young men and are qualified to produce the best newspaper the city has ever had and give highly satisfactory service in the general conduct of the business.

R. H. ROSS.

A Co-operative Undertaking

With this issue of The Times we assume ownership of one of your newspapers. Although we are new in Thief River Falls we have been in the newspaper business all our lives only a few miles from Thief River Falls. In assisting our father, J. P. Mattson, who has been the publisher of the Warren Sheaf for more than thirty years, we have practically grown up in the print shop.

Already in our short stay here we have been very favorably impressed with the attitude Thief River Falls business men are taking. They are doing everything in their power to help our project along and for this we are deeply appreciative. Our employees have also shown a co-operative spirit by jumping into the work with all their energy and interest.

It is the aim of the new publishers to maintain the high standards established by Mr. R. H. Ross, the former publisher of The Times, which have made it a truly representative newspaper of Thief River Falls and Pennington county.

To R. H. Ross, retiring editor of The Times, should go much credit for developing the foremost newspaper in the Northwest.

We have great hopes for Thief River Falls and the surrounding community. We believe that it is one of the most prosperous communities in northern Minnesota and that is the reason we acquired ownership of The Times, a wide-awake newspaper in an up-to-date, alert community.

Having thus become property owners here we are with you vitally interested in the welfare of Thief River Falls. Your problems are ours. We know that if you prosper we will prosper with you and if you meet reverses we will suffer also.

So we are here anxious and willing to do our share in the up-building of Thief River Falls. But we cannot do it alone. The old saying, "In Unity There is Strength," applies admirably to our own case. If there is something that you think can be bettered in the community come to us. We may not be agreed as to the best methods of going about it but we will give every sincere proposal earnest consideration. If you do not like the policy of the Times tell us and if you are favorably impressed with our work tell others.

The farmer right at the present moment is "hard put" and discougaged over conditions. But this can not continue in the long run. Agriculture must prosper if the rest of the nation is to be prosperous. Business cannot get rich if the farmer is poverty-stricken. We believe we are passing the crisis now and that better times are in store. Anyhow, let's make the best of it and see if we can't better ourselves. Together we can do it.

We are anxious for your co-operation.

A. E. and C. W. MATTSON.

WHY NOT ENFORCE IT?

At a recent meeting of the board of education of the McIntosh schools it was made clear that all students in McIntosh will have to observe the state law regulating the use of tobacco in any form, or take the consequences. A strict warning was also given tobacco dealers in the village.

Many people do not realize the scope of the existing Minnesota laws relating to the use of tobacco by minors and pupils and what can be done by exercising the law in an effort to stamp out the practice among youths of school age. Following is the paragraph as it appears in the statute of the state:

Use of tobacco by minors and pupils—Every person under the age of eighteen years, and every minor pupil in any school or university, who shall smoke or use cigarettes, cigars, or tobacco in any form on any public road, street, alley, park or other lands used for public purposes, or in any public place of business, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished for each offence by a fine of not more than ten dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than five days; and every person who shall furnish any cigarettes, cigars or tobacco in any form to any such minor person or who shall permit any such minor person to frequent any premises owned, held, or managed by him, for the purposes of indulging in the use of cigarettes, cigars, or tobacco in any form, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days, for each offense.

A MOVE IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION

A move in the promotion of home industries in Alexandria was inaugurated by merchants of that city recently when they bound themselves by aggreement not to sell any bread but that which is made in Alexandria. The industrial committee of the commercial club there had been at work on this undertaking for some time, and at last were successful in inducing all the merchants involved to sign the agreement. The only provision in the agreement is that the local bakers shall sell their products just as cheap as the out of town competitors. An indication of what the out of town bakery concerns were doing in taking money out of the city may be readily seen when it was estimated that about $7,000 was thus lost to the local concerns.

In order to assure the industrial welfare of a city or community the home industries and concerns must be patronized and supported. Trade with those who build up the community and pay the taxes for its maintenance.

Thief River Falls this week has had the pleasure of entertaining the rural school teachers of Pennington county, that important body of skilled artisans who are charged with the duty of converting raw material into forms capable of functioning. They are here to review plans and to study specifications for the building of character and the development of mental facilities. They are engaged in a work of great importance to the state and nation as well as to the individuals who come under their tutelage, and it is hoped that they will return to their several schools from this institute with renewed zeal and inspiration to make the most of exalted vocation, remembering that to them comes the opportunity and the power to shape character and fix the standard of citizenship.

BACK HIM UP.

Whenever an officer of the law, sworn to do his duty, attempts honestly to stamp out evil conditions and punish crime, there are those who try to belittle and obstruct his work. It is the duty of law-abiding citizens to hold up the hands of honest officials.—Anoka Union.

Big Meeting of Masons In Minneapolis Nov. 17 To Confer Many Degrees

November 17th will be a Red Letter day in the history of Capitular Masonry in the State of Minnesota. It is expected that one of the greatest Masonic meetings ever held in the state will take place in the Armory at Minneapolis on the above date, when the Past Master and Most Excellent Master Degrees will be conferred on a class of more than 1,000 candidates.

The Royal Arch Chapters of the Twin Cities have organized this Joint Convocation, and all the Chapters in Minnesota have been invited to participate by having as many as possible of their members attend, and also by bringing their candidates to have the work conferred upon them. There will be special rates upon the railroads for the benefit of all Chapter Masons who desire to attend.

The ritualistic work will be done in a more impressive and spectacular manner than ever before attempted. About 750 people will take part in the work, the principal parts being handled by some of the most prominent masonic workers in the United States. Among other important features there will be a chorus of 150 voices and an orchestra of 75 pieces.

All of the Grand Officers of the York Rite Bodies of the State of Minnesota, and also of a number of other states, will be present, and they will be attended by escorts of Knights Templar in full uniform. Every candidate receiving the degrees at this Joint Convocation will receive a diploma signed by the General Grand High Priest of the General Grand Chapter of the United States, Dr. Wm. F. Kuhn, of Kansas City, Mo.

Keim Again Pays Fine for Dance Disturbance

Sheriff Ole L. Ihle was called out after midnight last Friday night to put a stop to the obnoxious activities of a Joe Keim, a resident of Red Lake county, who was making a disturbance at Hazel during a dance. Complaint was made by Deputy Lokken. The young man was taken to Thief River Falls and placed in jail over night. Saturday morning he was arriagned before Judge N. W. Tarrant in municipal court, charged with being drunk and disorderly. Upon presentation of the evidence against him the Judge assessed him a fine of $25 plus costs, which was paid and the prisoner released. It was the second offense of the same nature during the course of the summer, and the judge advised him that he better avoid another altercation as the consequences would then be proportionately severe.

No revenue was derived in municipal court during the month of September, no arrests having been made in the city for which fines could be collected, during that period. The only cases brought before the judge the past month were prosecutions by the state. Upon inquiry as to the trend of business, Judge Tarrant says is is unusually poor. However, he says he's going to be a candidate for another term as municipal judge.

Boys and Girls At Fairs.

This is to be reported as the banner year for boys and girls at the State and county fairs. The youngsters have been encouraged by the promotors of the expositions to make club and individual exhibits and these have already captured many prizes. At the New York State Fair at Syracuse two entire exposition buildings were occupied by the boys and girls with their exhibits. One building was devoted to the junior extension work and the other to school exhibits. The Rochester Exposition also featured the junior work, notably the stock-judging contest for boys and girls.

Reports from other States tell of the encouraging achievements of the boys and girls at the agricultural fairs. It is more than likely that next year the exhibits of boys and girls clubs will be made a feature of practically every State and county fair in the United States. The country schools, the country newspapers and the extension departments of the agricultural colleges are behind the club movement and there is no doubt of its beneficial results. This fall and winter will witness the organization of corn, calf and canning clubs, pig, potato and poultry clubs, in the rural schools and the youngsters will begin the work for next year's achievements.

NEW TRAFFIC COUNTS SHOW BIG INCREASES

Commissioner Babcock Gives Out Figures On 1923 Census 7,000-Mile Minnesota System

Traffic on Minnesota trunk highways is 17½ per cent heavier this year than last year—nearly 162,000 vehicles a day passing where less than 138,000 were counted a year ago at 194 observation points, according to the 1923 trunk route traffic census made public this week by Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner. The census was made during the period of August 20-26th inclusive.

Exactly 834 vehicles a day are using the average trunk route this year, against 710 last year and 406 five years ago, the census disclosed. Trunk highway traffic in this section, compared with that on the average route, follows:

Autos—	T. H. No. 32 At N. of Jct. with No. 33	T. H. No. 33 At W. of Jue. with No. 32	Average Trunk
Minn. light	170	140	317
Minn. heavy	106	78	319
Foreign Cars	18	11	114
Trucks, light	19	14	40
Trucks, heavy	18	3	12
Horse) wagons	7	2	18
Drawn) buggies	9	5	6
Totals	226	253	834

The largest traffic count was 5,561 vehicles a day at Robbinsdale on T. H. No. 8, and the smallest count of 35 vehicles daily was near Eheo on T. H. No. 67. Although highway builders maintain that not more than 1,000 vehicles can be served with economy and satisfaction on a gravel road, the census shows counts at 12 points on graveled sections of the trunk system where the travel exceeds 2,000 vehicles a day.

New Traffic Counts

Kinds of vehicles using the trunks, with 1922 comparisons, are classified, and on the basis of each 1,000 vehicles the figures follow:

Year—	1922	1923
Minn. light	362	379
Minn. heavy	420	382
Trucks, light	43	48
Foreign Cars	113	140
For) Busses	10	9
Hire) Trucks	6	4
Trucks, heavy	16	13
Horse) Wagons	10	6
Vehicles	1,000	1,000

It may be noted on the comparisons that the percentage show increase in the number of light cars and decrease in heavy cars, increase in tourist traffic, decrease in the comparative numbers of commercial busses and trucks, increases in light and decreases in heavy trucks, and decreases also in horse-drawn rigs on the highways.

Growth of demands on highways in Minnesota is also shown by daily averages of vehicles using the main highways:

Autos	272	359	377	509	636	750
Trucks	11	14	24	32	58	62
Wagons	16	18	19	15	14	16
Buggies	20	15	14	9	7	6
Totals	319	406	434	565	710	834

Counts were made at seven points on paved sections and showed daily traffic averages of more than 2,000 vehicles each at 17 points exceeding 1,000, including 12 on graveled sections; at 55 points running over 500 and at 90 averaging less than 500 vehicles a day.

The bulletin points out finally that the demands on Minnesota trunk highways continue to increase more rapidly than funds provided for the improvement and maintenance of the routes.

A GUIDE FOR NEWSPAPER MEN.

As insight into our late president's character will be gained by reading his instructions to reporters and writers on the Marion "Star." They are as follows:

Remember there are two sides to every question. Get them both.

Be truthful. Get the facts.

Mistakes are inevitable but strive for accuracy. I would rather have one story exactly right than a hundred half wrong. Be decent, be fair, be generous.

Boost—don't knock. There's good in everybody. Bring out the good and never needlessly hurt the feelings of anybody.

In reporting a political gathering give the facts, tell the story as it is, not as you would like to have it. Treat all parties alike. If there is any politics to be played, we will play it in our editorial columns. Treat all religious matters reverently.

If it can possibly be avoided never bring ignominy to an innocent man or child in telling of the misdeeds or misfortunes of a relative.

Don't wait to be asked, but do it without the asking, and above all be clean and never let a dirty word or suggestive story get into type. I want this paper so conducted that it can go into any home without destroying the innocence of any child.

The Vital Rural Problem.

The low prices the farmer receives for what he produces and the high prices he pays for what he must buy involve several problems. But a more vital problem is involved in the cheapest thing the farmer uses. That is the country school. It is too cheap. Reports received this year from about half the counties in the United States show that there are 98,000 one-teacher schools in these counties and that the average salary paid the teacher is $729. The pity is that thousands of teachers regard even that low average as princely. In 20 States 8,100 teachers of one-teacher schools receive less than $300 a year. In 32 States 4,580 teachers receive between $300 and $400; in 34 States 5,589 receive between $400 and $500; in 40 States 8,367 receive between $500 and $600; in 42 States 16,525 receive between $600 and $700; in 45 States 16,432 teachers receive between $700 and $800 a year, or something near the average of $729. More than half the teachers are thus accounted for but is little consolation to them to know that the other half receive more than $729.

A circular on the salaries of teachers in rural schools in 1923 is nearly ready for printing for free distribution by the U. S. Bureau of Education, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C.

Fairbault Co. Bank Closes.

Not only the northern section of the state is being visited by bank failures. Wednesday of last week the First National bank of Wells, Fairbault county, was closed and placed in the charge of the national bank examiner. On account of depleted reserves and general conditions it was thot advisable to close the institution pending arrangements for a reorganization.

NOONANISMS

Duck hunting would be better this year if the ducks weren't so heavily outnumbered by the hunters.

Our idea of a comical joke is a skinny man in bobbed pants criticising a girl in bobbed hair.

The only way a scrub cow could be worse is by being twins. Get good ones you farmers.

The new state dance law is lame in one respect. It should compel all dancers to use their feet.

It cost $400 to say, "Good morning, Judge," in federal court these days. It's a good business for the lads to get out of.

Better give those little animals with white stripes the right of way. If you don't you'll treat your auto guests to a smelling party.

With Manitoba wet, lads along the border won't have to get so many prescriptions for colds they haven't got.

Workmen on the Baudette depot get $12 a day for laying brick. It's enough to make a hen's eyes swim with envy.

With blind pigs springing up like mushrooms and acting like toadstools, the courts have a busy time these days.

Just by way of clearing the local political situation a trifle the editor of this sheet announces that if anyone has a hankering to represent this district at the next session of the legislature he has our best wishes. All the qualifications you need is to learn what to say and how to deny it. If we make any footprints toward St. Paul it will be as a special correspondent for a number of country papers. Telling them how it ought to be done is a much easier job than trying to do it.

Politicians who don't know anything about farming are always glad to give the farmers the benefit of their knowledge.

Good Losers

Everyone knows that we lost the first game of the season last Saturday. Lost? Well, maybe. Surely we did as far as the score was concerned, but we gained something too. Our football boys proved to the school and the community what a new and inexperienced team can do. They have nothing to feel regretful about because they played good football and clean football and most important of all; they were good losers. You didn't hear any of the boys "crabbing" because they lost the game or belittling the other team, did you? Of course not! They were good losers and took their loss like men. You don't see any of them laying down on the job this week and saying that it's no use to practice for the next game, do you? No! They are out on the field every day working just so much harder and longer than they ever did before.

Now it's up to us, the school, to show the team that we are good losers too. Are they going to lose our backing and support because they lost one game? Let us hope not. It is up to every last one of us to get out and root for them harder and give them the moral support that a team of their kind deserves.

LOCAL TEAM PLAYS GRAND FORKS FRI.

Coach Thune's Men Determined to Win Second Game of Season This Friday

Friday, this week, the football team will go to Grand Forks to play the second game of the season.

The boys' fighting blood was aroused by the loss of the Stephen game and they are determined not to suffer another defeat. All this week practices have been longer and harder than any of the previous ones so that the squad will probably show marked improvement in the coming game.

Thief River Falls beat Grand Forks last year and hopes to do the same this year altho Grand Forks have a very strong team. The fact that they beat Crookston 56 to 0 last Saturday proves this. However, this will not dampen the spirits of Lincoln High's eleven who are determined to win.

As there is no school on Friday, there will undoubtedly be a good turnout of Thief River rooters in Grand Forks to see the game.

Washington Notes.

The sixth grade of the Washington school has organized a club to aid the pupils in carrying on meetings by Parliamentary Law. The officers elected were:

President, Donald Snyder; Vice Pres., Willie Murly; Sec., Margaret Arneson; Treas., Gladys Larson.

They will have their first meeting Wednesday afternoon.

Rose Flynn, in giving a book report in English III, leaned on a chair throughout her recitation. At the close Mr. Mickleson said: "Rose, what would you do if I took that chair away?"

The bright little Rose answered, "I presume I'd fall on my face."

Rural Teachers Hold Institute This Week

The Rural Teachers Institute of Pennington county was held in the gymnasium of the High School, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. There were seventy-five teachers present; sixty-six from Pennington, six from Marshall, one from Red Lake, one from Clay, and one from Mahnomen County. Miss Lulu Olds and Miss Jonine Amundson had perfect attendance. The discussion was based on the new course of study.

Sophomores Elect Advisor

The Sophomores held a meeting after school last Friday to elect their class advisor. They did not elect one at their first meeting because they wished time to think about it. Miss Herlickson was chosen to fill this position.

Stephen Player Recovering

Morris Durant, the Stephen player who was injured in the football game last Saturday, is rapidly recovering. His leg was broken just above the knee which made it impossible for him to return with the rest of the team, but as it seems to be healing quickly he plans to return to Stephen sometime next week. He is being treated at the Physicians' hospital of this city.

Henry Vorlicky, who was graduated with the class of 1923, has accepted a position as teacher in a school in Manor, N. D.

Miss Elsie Granum, who graduated with the class of 1922, is attending the State Teachers' College at Moorhead, Minn. this year.

Harold Smithers, a 1921 graduate, returned to Valparaiso University last Tuesday where he is taking a business course.

Ada I. Thorstonson entered school Monday.

Miss Nettie Sjoberg left Monday with her parents for Minneapolis where they will make their future home.

ANNUAL CONVENTION HELD AT CROOKSTON

Many Local Teachers Will Appear on Program of Minnesota Education Association

The annual Teachers Convention of the Northwestern Division of the Minnesota Education Association will open Wednesday evening at the Crookston Armory and will close Friday afternoon. The Thief River Falls schools will be closed Thursday and Friday to allow all the teachers to attend.

Several of the local faculty members are on the program: Supt. I. T. Simley will act as chairman of the elementary section; Mrs. Blanche Korstad, as chairman of the Mathematics Round Table; Miss Maude L. Johnson chairman of the Music and Art Round Table, Miss Minnie S. Leavitt will read a paper on, "Measuring the Progress in Mastering the Minimum Essentials in English." "Some Modern Language Problems" is the subject of a paper by Mr. A. C. Matheson. Miss Clara Baumann will led a discussion on "Playground Supervision During Recess." The following grade teachers will read papers at the Intermediate Round Table: Miss Sarah Vaughan, "Relative Values of Written and Oral Languages in the Intermediate Grades;" Miss Aneta Dalquist, "How To Stimulate Freedom in Oral Expression;" Miss Edna Larson, "Interesting and Effective Teaching of Spelling."

Knox Notes

The fifth grade has had interesting discussions on the following subjects: What shall I read? What should I consider in choosing a book to read? Which class of reader do I belong to?

Studebaker Tests have been started in the fourth grade.

Armand Fox and Clifford Dicken of grade four spent an evening visiting the city flour mill, so as to give the class some facts about the city mill. The milling force gave them samples of wheat, bran, shorts, and flour to bring to school to make their description more interesting.

Harold Anderson, Geraldine Connell, Margaret Dillion, Cameron Erickson, Wayne Kielty, Marvin Lindberg, Ardith Ness, Ruth Schuster, Wandabelle Semisch, and Charles Shirley have been neither tardy nor absent the past month.

Russell Reidy has left the Knox school and will attend one of the other schools in the city.

Thank you, Miss "Blank"

One of the teachers from last year in a letter to Superintendent Simley writes as follows:

"Still with all the opportunities that ——— offers, I am lonesome for Thief River Falls and all the lovely people I met there. The people here are lovely, but they have so many other interests that they do not find much time to meet the teachers and make them at home as do the people of Thief River Falls."

FACULTY RECEPTION GIVEN BY SENIORS

Saturday evening the Senior class held the reception for the faculty.

At 8 o'clock the guests convened at the High School. Shortly after, with Superintendent Simley at the head, the teachers formed a receiving line and the students shook hands with each member of the faculty.

The first stunt of the evening was an autograph contest. The point of the game was to see who could get the most autographs in ten minutes. As a result Miss Bambrick carried off high honors, while Mr. Mickelson won the consolation prize. Following this an enjoyable program was given which included:

Speech of Welcome..Melvin Englestad
Response .... Supt I. T. Simley
Violin Duet .... Miss Lorraine Will and Henry Arneson accompanied by Miss Eileen Arneson.
Vocal Duet .... Liv Vistaunet and Isabel Richter accompanied by Miss Doris Richter.
Reading .... Dorothy Swedenburg.
Two Vocal Selections..Senior Octette

After the program everyone assembled for the Grand March, which was led by Supt. and Mrs. Simley. Lunch was then served in the commercial room, which had been transformed into a reception room.

After thoroughly enjoying the evening the participants departed about eleven thirty.

Marie Larson came back to school last week.

Miss Leavitt was busy mending the books the first part of the week. She has an efficient corps of library assistants. She has chosen senior girls to answer questions and sign slips. Each girl serves the library one period. In addition to this there are four girls who are helping prepare the new books for circulation. Such work is of real benefit to the library and of practical help to the girls.

PEP MEETING FRI. AROUSES STUDENTS

Speeches Given in Honor of Frances Willard Day at Friday Assembly

On Friday afternoon of last week periods were shortened and a general assembly was called at three-thirty.

In honor of "Francis Willard Day," Miss Hallgren and Mildred Griffin spoke interestingly on the life and work of Francis E. Willard, her sacrifices and the consequence of the [illegible]

A pep meeting was held following the above speeches. Coach Thune explained in a clear and interesting manner a few of the fundamentals of football, and the vital importance of the support of the student body. At the close of his talk he called on John Sether and Math Barzen to say a few words.

These two men of last year's squad responded with rousing speeches which created the effect they were intended to give a spirit of "pep" and excitement.

Principal Bye then took charge of the election of cheer leaders. Katherine Barzen was chosen as leader with Emmet Shanahan as her assistant.

These took turns in directing the students in some of the peppiest "yelling" Lincoln High has known for a long time.

Girls' Community Club Entertains Teachers

Monday evening the Girls Community club entertained the teachers at a party in their club room. There were about one hundred and fifty teachers and girls present. Miss Halvorson favored them with a few musical selections and some of the girls sang a few songs. Refreshments were served and the rest of the evening was spent in dancing. Many of the teachers joined the club.

Girls Attend Institute

The Normal training girls and Miss Stapleton are attending the county institute at the High School gymnasium Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of this week. Thursday and Friday the teachers' Convention will be held at Crookston and several of the Normal girls will attend.

Simple

A joke was played on Sir Arthur Conan Doyle by a French taxicab driver recently. The man had driven the noted creator of Sherlock Holmes from the station to the hotel, and when he received his fare he said: "Merci, M. Conan Doyle."

"Why, how do you know my name?" asked Sir Arthur.

"Well, sir, I have seen in the papers that you were coming from the south of France to Paris; your general appearance told me that you were English; your hair had been clearly last cut by a barber of the south of France. I put these indications together, and—I saw your name on your luggage!"

Desperation

"Can't you get any coal?"

"No."

"Have you tried every possible way?"

"All but one. I'm going to sit down tonight and write a letter to Santa Claus." —Worthington Star.

LINCOLN ELEEVEN LOSES TO STEPHEN

Stephen Quarter-back Suffers Broken Leg When Tackled by Gavin

The first football game of the season was played with Stephen last Saturday. In spite of the rain quite a few football fans came to support their team.

First Half

Thief River kicked off with Peasey recovering the ball. The teams contested back and forth for twelve minutes, then Stephen made their down, smashed through center, and tore up the field for the first touch-down, but failed to kick goal. During the second quarter Stephen made two incomplete passes. Sether plunged through the line making a six-yard gain. At the end of the first half the score was six to nothing in favor of Stephen.

Second Half

The players were changed around by substituting Berg for Lundell, Myrin for Sorenson, and Gavin for Peasey. Sether made a ten-yard gain after a completed pass. Morris Durant, quarter of the Stephen team, was carrying the ball toward the goal, when he was cleverly tackled by Gavin. Durant sustained a broken leg from this tackle. About four minutes were left of the game when a Stephen player intercepted a pass, and dashed eighty yards for a touch-down, but again they failed to kick a goal. The score at the end of the game was: Stephen 12; Thief River Falls 0.

Considering the disagreeable weather, the slipperiness of the ball, and the fact that only two on the team were experienced players, the results are not as disappointing as they might be under different circumstances. The team on the whole played good and clean football and it is hoped that after a little more practice, a winning team will result.

Who's Face

It was lunch hour at the iron works, and Pat's two buddies, deciding to play a little joke on him during his absence, drew the features of a donkey upon the back of his coat, which he had left behind. In due time Pat returned, and presently hove in sight bearing the lime-decorated coat.

"What's the trouble, Pat?" asked one, trying to appear indifferent.

"Nothing much," replied Pat, equally indifferent; "only I'd loike to know which one of yez wiped your face on me coat."

Plummer Boy Is Chosen.

Carl L. Spong of Plummer, a senior in the Minnesota College of Agriculture has been selected a member of the judging team which will represent Minnesota in a contest with university teams from other states at the National Swine Show to be held at Peoria, Ill., Oct. 1-6.

CORN WILL SOON BE VALLEY CROP KING

Many Silos in County Indicate Great Increase in Corn Production in This Section

That corn instead of wheat is soon to be king in the Red River Valley is becoming more and more evident each year.

During the present season many thousands of acres that have in the past been devoted to wheat were planted to corn and the crop has been an unusually heavy one. It is estimated that the corn and potato crop of the Valley counties this season will exceed in money value the wheat crop and indications now point strongly to still further progress along this line.

In Pennington county the acreage devoted to corn has been practically doubled this year, according to county agent, J. J. McCann, and the yield is reported has having suffered only slight damage from early frosts.

A large number of silos have been constructed in this community in the course of the past summer and fall, making a total of between 100 and 125 silos in the county. A silo must be considered as one of the most profitable agencies in the successful operation of a dairy farm and is rapidly getting its place on the farms thruout this section as well as in the southern sections. The specimens displayed at the recent county fair were indications of what can be raised here. It gave evidence that corn can be grown here just as successfully as anywhere and will eventually be one of the leading branches of farming in connection with the extensive dairy operations in the community.

The Crookston Milling Co., is taking note of the fact in a practical way. This concern has just ordered as an additional to its equipment a corn sheller of the largest capacity and will commence at once the erection of an immence corn crib on a site adjoining the mill.

It is expected that this equipment will be ready for operation this fall and with the heavy yield of corn in all the Valley counties the Milling Company expects to tax its capacity to the fullest in taking care of the corn crop.

Why We Have Bunk.

Do we in the United States deliberately force public men to be insincere? Recently a prominent man said: "I know my statement was bunk; but that is what the people want. I had to play for cheap popularity or quit public life." It has often been said that any man can win in politics if he is willing to swallow his self-respect and "play to the crowd." We are too much given to idolizing the man who is a grandstander. The newspapers play up men who make news. Therefore the sensational man has the best chance. The quiet man who will not descend to cheap play is lost. But so long as the public puts a premium upon bunk we shall have for our servants the men who deal in bunk.—Winnebago City Enterprise.

Crookston High Loses Badly to Grand Forks in Gridiron Collision

The Crookston high school footballers were severely defeated by the Grand Forks team last Saturday to the tune of 26 to 0, the green material which answered Coach Swenson's call to arms showing that it has much to learn in the various arts of the game. Grand Forks, in McCracken, has a star which was largely responsible for Crookston's whitewash defeat. He skirted the ends for long gains, yardage and made the feature run of the game when he returned a punt 60 years for a touchdown.

Tomorrow, Friday, the Thief River Falls aggregation goes to Grand Forks to meet the eleven representing that high school, and a hard fought game is a certainty, as the locals are determined not to suffer defeat this time, even though they are invading another state. On October 27 the local team will meet Crookston High at Crookston, at which time it is expected that a delegation of rooters will probably accompany the team.

Insane Grygla Man Taken While Staying at Local Boarding House Tuesday

Violent outcries from a room in the City Rooming House on Knight ave. at about one o'clock Tuesday morning caused the people there to turn in the alarm and summon Sheriff O. L. Ihle to take care of an insane man who had secured lodging there the day previous. The man causing the disturbance was Wm. "Billie" Watson, a batchelor aged 55 who has been residing in the Grygla vicinity for some time past, came to Thief River Falls on Sunday evening. He was released from the state hospital at Fergus Falls a year ago last May and has since then been apparantly sane. Altho he did not show indications of violence his actions in his room were, however, such that it caused suspicion and upon the arrival of the sheriff he was immediately taken to the jail to be put in safe custody, considerably calmed. At first he refused to put on any clothes but was finally induced by the sheriff to cover up and go to bed.

Sheriff Hanson of Warren, Marshall county, was notified and came here Tuesday evening to take the unbalanced man to Warren, where he was again adjudged to the insane asylum in Fergus Falls for further treatment.

CO-OP CREAMERY PAYS $27000 TO AUG. PATRONS

Increase of More Than $2,000 Over Previous Month, According to Secretary's Report.

Nearly 140 Patrons of Local Creamery Receive Checks of $50.00 or More.

August List Shows 40 Dairy Men Who Get More Than $100 During Month.

A total of $27,231.04 was paid to patrons of the Farmers Co-operative creamery of Thief River Falls during the month of August, according to report submitted by Thos. H. Bjorke, secretary of the institution. Of this $17,288.97 represents the sum paid to monthly patrons, while $9,942.07 was paid in cash. The August report shows an increase of about $2,000 over the previous month, when 120 patrons received checks of fifty dollars or more, while in August the list of big check getters totalled nearly 140 farmers of the community. Of the latter group 40 received returns of more than $100. During August 45 cents per pound of butterfat was paid for sour cream and 48 cents for sweet cream by the local creamery. The total number of pounds of butterfat bought during that period was 65,000, of which about 40,000 was sold by monthly patrons.

Several of those whose names appear in the following list of fiftay-dollar patrons supply milk in the city and receive a revenue from that source in addition to the amount received for cream and milk sold at the creamery. Following is a list of those who received $50 or more during the month of August.

Neosho Man Not Coming.

A meeting of Thief River Falls business men scheduled to be held at the Commercial club rooms on Friday evening, at which Gurney R. Lowe, author of the Neosho sales system was to speak, has been called off on account of the Elks initiation which is to take place at the auditorium the same evening. There are at present no definite plans for a future meeting.

Creameries Welcome Marketing Plans of State Association

Plans for merchandising butter produced in the farmer-owned creameries of the state, as now being developed by the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries' association, are meeting with enthusiastic approval, according to H. F. Meyer, manager of the butter sales department.

Since Mr. Meyer came to the association, more than a month ago, he has been working on details of the program for selling the product of member creameries. His first step, of necessity, has been to draft an agreement under which the sales department will operate and to establish specifications for butter which the department will handle. This work has been completed and he, together with A. J. McGuire, general manager and John Brandt, president, are now beginning the task of presenting the plan to creamery boards.

Last week, the first presentation was made before a group of creamery boards in the vicinity of Winthrop and at [illegible] the Winthrop meeting, boards [illegible] all four creameries that had [illegible] agreed to sign the marketing agreement and representatives of several other creameries stated that similar action would be taken by their organizations as quickly as legal meetings could be called. At Berlin, the sales plan so impressed Theo. Rebbert, president of the creamery, that affiliation with the movement is certain. Creamery association leaders were scheduled to meet with boards of the 24 creameries in Meeker county late last week.

Aaron Sapiro, in his addresses at Sauk Centre on Sept. 1 said the employment of Mr. Meyer by the association was one of the most forward steps ever taken by a farm organization in Minnesota. "Mr. Meyer," he said, "is a real merchant and he will lift you from the plane of being the best butter manufacturers in the world to that of being the best butter salesmen."

When Road Hogs Met.

By N. P. Stenshoel, Crookston.

A road hog was speeding toward the east,
With his nose turned up in the air,
He had no thought for man or beast,
'Twas the least of his troubles to care.
The middle of the road was his, you know,
Where the tracks were smooth and straight;
Those he met had no choice, in the ditch they'd go
Or turn in at some farmer's gate.

Another hog of the very same breed
Was headed the opposite way;
He was sailing along at terrific speed,
No thought of the law to obey.
Those he met turned swiftly into the grass
As he scooted by with a whiff.
But alas! alas! when the two hogs met
Speeding at sixty or more,
Each got the dose he deserved, you bet,
As into each other they tore.
The crash was heard for miles around
As the fragments filled the air.
In the middle of the road these hogs were found
Each with a vacant stare.

STATE DEPARTMENT AWARDS ROAD JOBS

Minneapolis Bridge Co. Gets Contract Among 12 Tentative Awards on Trunk Routes

Low bidders received awards of contracts for twelve trunk highway improvements, including 70 miles of grading, 13 of graveling and [illegible] bridges, made this week by Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner. Sharp competition characterized the letting, figures being close on most projects. The improvements are widely distributed over the system and will be paid for mainly with county reimbursement bond funds. Contractors agree to start work without unnecessary delays that the use of the better roads may be enjoyed earlier.

The list of tentative awards follows:

T. H. No. 2—Moorhead Glyndon, 13 miles of graveling local pits, to Stevens Bros., St. Paul, at $46,580.

T. H. No. 3—Newport-St. Paul, 5 miles of grading; Chris Johnson, St. Paul, grading at $18,478, Illinois Steel Bridge Co., culverts at $2,604.

T. H. No. 4—Windom-Jackson, 27 miles of grading and two bridges. Awards later.

T. H. No. 6—Hallock-Donaldson, 17½ miles of grading and bridge; Mike Barrett, St. Cloud, Div. A, grading at $32,719; Sig. Enebak, Warren, Div. B, grading at $29,788; Minneapolis Bridge Co., culverts at $12,485 and 40-foot bridge at $4,472. Contracts conditioned upon satisfactory right-of-way acquisitions.

T. H. No. 6—North of Canby, monolithic culvert to Mitchell & Sons, Lake Benton, at $1,850.

T. H. No. 9—In Jackson, ¼-mile grading; Stevens Bros., grading at $6,060; Marshall Concrete Tile Co., culverts at $1,236.

T. H. No. 12—East of Dawson, monolithid culvert to Mitchell & Sons at $2,469.

T. H. No. 23—Foley-Milaca, 15½ miles of graveling to Charles Boyer, Willmar, at $21,790.

T. H. No. 23—West of Richmond, 18-foot bridge to Illinois Steel Bridge Co., at $1,225.

T. H. No. 50—Farmington-Lakeville, 5¼ miles of grading and special drainage; Roach & Roach, Viola, grading at $13,334; Edward Mattson, St. Paul, culverts at $6,911.

Commissioner Babcock recently announced that other conditions being equal, highway improvements will be made first in localities where landowners show they are wanted by conveying right-of-way at reasonable prices. Demands for exhorbitant sums, he said, will result in indefinite postponement of projects. Under this rule, contracts are being held up on the Hallock-Donaldson improvement as noted.

GAIN IN REVENUE OF SOO RAILROAD

Report of First Eight Months Indicate Increase of $2,000,000 Over 1922

An increase in revenue of nearly $2,000,000 was shown by the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie Railway company for the first eight months of 1923 over the corresponding period of 1922, according to a statement made public Friday by D. J. Bond, comptroller for the road.

From January 1 to August 31, 1923, according to the report, the road earned $18,512,041, as compared to an earning of $16,057,182 for the same months during 1922. The net increase is $2,454,859. More than $2,200,000 of the increase was in freight revenue alone.

According to the report the gain was accomplished in spite of a sharp decrease in revenue for the month of August. In August, 1922, the railroad earned $2,641,071, while the earnings for August this year fell to $2,555,534.

Improvement in earnings made by the Great Northern railway in August is disclosed by the monthly statement of operating revenues and expenses to the Interstate Commerce commission, net operating income of $3,005,799 being the largest monthly total since November, 1921 and the largest August since 1916.

Net operating income of the Great first eight months, a gain of $1,518,814.

August net operating income of the Omaha railroad was $503,345, a decrease of $107,169 compared with the corresponding month of 1922. Gross revenues for the eight months were $18,501,608, a gain of $390,679 over the last year, but operating expenses increased $1,056,965 to a total of $15,910,720. Net operating income of $1,516,061 for the period was $702,210 less than for the first eight months of last year.

CO-OPERATIVE GRAIN FIRMS CONSOLIDATED

U. S. Grain Growers Sales Agency United With American Wheat Growers Ass'n.

Consolidation of the U. S. Grain Growers Sales Company of Minneapolis with state wheat growers associations combined in the American Wheat Growers Associated is announced in a statement issued today by The Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation. The U. S. Grain Growers sales agency and the group of state wheat growers associations are co-operative marketing organizations and the consolidation centralizes the full strength of the farmer marketing movement in one organization.

The American Wheat Growers Associated is the national marketing agency for nine state wheat growers associations and maintains offices in Minneapolis, Duluth, Kansas City, Portland and Seattle. It has memberships on the Boards of Trade of Minneapolis and Duluth. The U. S. Grain Growers Sales Company was established by the Farm Bureau associations of Minnesota and Iowa to care for the grain contracted by farmers to the U. S. Grain Growers, Inc., and maintains a membership on the Minneapolis Exchange.

The American Wheat Growers Associated previously has marketed only wheat pooled by the members of its state units, but through the merger, it will assume the business of the U. S. Grain Growers Sales Company and hereafter will handle the consigned coarse grains of members of the U. S. Grain Growers and other farmers of the Northwest and middle west states.

Additional grain marketing facilities will be immediately added to the American Wheat Growers Associated according to announcement from the Minneapolis headquarters. Wheat testing laboratories were installed last year, and the present plan will be supplemented with additional equipment to care for the increased business of the organization.

"The consolidation is the consumation of the prevailing thought of agricultural leaders in the Northwest to unify their grain marketing efforts," said J. F. Reed, president of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation. "In May of last year, a meeting was held at Fargo, N. D., under Farm Bureau auspices, at which time the desirability and importance of united effort in the matter of marketing grain was discussed and agreed upon by all farm organizations and agencies concerned with this phase of the farm project. This has been made an actual fact through the physical consolidation of these two agencies.

"The step will go far to unify the co-operative marketing movement in the spring wheat growing area. It is the business of farm organizations and those seeking to benefit agriculture to move in unison in promoting their projects. Divided efforts only tend to confuse producers, and unless leaders can agree and co-operate, there is little hope that individual farmers will be able to do so. I look upon the consolidation as a great forward step in handling of grain for producers."

"The merging of the U. S. Grain Growers sales agency with state associations comprising the American Wheat Growers Associated, brings together the two largest co-operative grain marketing organizations in the United States," said W. J. Brown, president of the American Wheat Growers Associated. "The consolidation will be of extreme value to members of the organizations in South Dakota, Minnesota and Montana. It will provide a self-contained machine for selling the course grains of the farmers now pooling their wheat in these states and in addition will provide a powerful farmer-owned organization with sales offices in practically every grain center of the country for use of members of the U. S. Grain Growers, Inc.

"The two organizations always have co-ordinated their marketing work, but many future benefits will accrue which were not possible under the dual organization of the past. It is expected that the American Wheat Growers Associated, as a result of the merger, will handle more American grain this year than any other single sales organization.

NEWSPAPERS HELP 'STRETCH' ROAD CASH

Attract Lower Bids From Local Contractors and Bring Work and Money Into Locality.

Publishing free for their news interest and information to readers the highway bulletin and notably those about improvements on which bids are being asked, The Times with other newspapers, according to Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, is saving the state thousands of dollars yearly and bringing new money into their communities to stay.

A bulletin this week states that a saving of more than $20,000 on highway improvement contracts at the last state letting is to be credited largely to newspapers publishing advance news of the letting and thus influencing local contractors to bid. Out of 26 awards 15 went to local contractors at $301,176.07, or $21,350.79 under the lowest figures by large "outside" concerns, according to official figures, with no moving or like expenses to add in, it is stated, the local contractors have the advantage.

Local awards mean that more of the state funds are kept in the locality of the improvement through the employment of home labor, it is explained, and the highway department policy in this respect is like that to plan winter and other work to employ farmers and others in dull season.

Commissioner Babcock said the newspapers not only played an important part in effecting the adoption of Good Roads Amendment No. 1 but by continuing to maintain public interest and co-operation have since made another invaluable contribution to the biggest success of the highway program. Their help to 'stretch' road funds by encouraging lowest bids has saved thousand of dollars he said, but of fully as great value is the service of keeping taxpayers informed of highway plans, progress and facts generally.

"It is just another evidence of the great public service the newspaper gives without direct compensation, and to say that the support given the newspaper by its community is an index of the progressiveness of that community should be sufficient hint to its citizens," said the commissioner.

Road Bond Sale in Red Lake County Is Held Up

The Red Lake county refunding bond issue of $40,000 has been held up by the attorney-general's office on the grounds that the county had already issued the maximum amount of bonds allowable under the statutes.

Assistant Attorney General Chas. E. Phillips, who wrote the opinion to County Attorney Chas. E. Boughton, Jr., states that while the law provides that the $250,000 highway reimbursement "bonds may be issued without regard to the net indebtedness of the county, it does not provide that when issued they shall not be considered in determining the net indebtedness for the purpose of issuing other bonds."

Red Lake county has already issued $561,294 of bonds of which sum $250,000 will be paid by the state for work done by the county on the trunk highways, leaving a net indebtedness of $311,294. The county's total assessed valuation for 1922 was $4,019,882 and the limit to which the county can bond is ten per cent of this amount or $401,988. If the highway bonds, which will be paid by the state, were not counted, the county would still be $90,694 short of the limit. The proposed $40,000 refundment bonds would still have left the county $50,694 within limit.

Good Losers

Everyone knows that we lost the first game of the season last Saturday. Lost? Well, maybe. Surely we did as far as the score was concerned, but we gained something too. Our football boys proved to the school and the community what a new and inexperienced team can do. They have nothing to feel regretful about because they played good football and clean football and most important of all, they were good losers. You didn't hear any of the boys "crabbing" because they lost the game or belittling the other team, did you? Of course not! They were good losers and took their loss like men. You don't see any of them laying down on the job this week and saying that it's no use to practice for the next game, do you? No! They are out on the field every day working just so much harder and longer than they ever did before.

Now it's up to us, the school, to show the team that we are good losers too. Are they going to lose our backing and support because they lost one game? Let us hope not. It is up to every last one of us to get out and root for them harder and give them the moral support that a team of their kind deserves.

LOCAL TEAM PLAYS GRAND FORKS FRI.

Coach Thune's Men Determined to Win Second Game of Season This Friday

Friday, this week, the football team will go to Grand Forks to play the second game of the season.

The boys' fighting blood was aroused by the loss of the Stephen game and they are determined not to suffer another defeat. All this week practices have been longer and harder than any of the previous ones so that the squad will probably show marked improvement in the coming game.

Thief River Falls beat Grand Forks last year and hopes to do the same this year altho Grand Forks have a very strong team. The fact that they beat Crookston 56 to 0 last Saturday proves this. However, this will not dampen the spirits of Lincoln High's eleven who are determined to win.

As there is no school on Friday, there will undoubtedly be a good turnout of Thief River rooters in Grand Forks to see the game.

Washington Notes

The sixth grade of the Washington school has organized a club to aid the pupils in carrying on meetings by Parliamentary Laws. The officers elected were: President, Donald Snyder; Vice Pres., Willie Mudy; Sec., Margaret Arneson; Treas., Gladys Larson.

They will have their first meeting Wednesday afternoon.

Rose Flynn, in giving a book report in English III, leaned on a chair throughout her recitation. At the close Mr. Mickleson said: "Rose, what would you do if I took that chair away?"

Rural Teachers Hold Institute This Week

The Rural Teachers Institute of Pennington county was held in the gymnasium of the High School, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. There were seventy-five teachers present; sixty-six from Pennington, six from Marshall, one from Red Lake, one from Clay, and one from Mahnomen County. Miss Lulu Olds and Miss Jonine Amundson had perfect attendance. The discussion was based on the new course of study.

Sophomores Elect Advisor

The Sophomores held a meeting after school last Friday to elect their class advisor. They did not elect one at their first meeting because they wished time to think about it. Miss Herlickson was chosen to fill this position.

Stephen Player Recovering

Morris Durant, the Stephen player who was injured in the football game last Saturday, is rapidly recovering. His leg was broken just above the knee which made it impossible for him to return with the rest of the team, but as it seems to be healing quickly he plans to return to Stephen sometime next week. He is being treated at the Physicians' hospital of this city.

Henry Vorlicky, who was graduated with the class of 1923, has accepted a position as teacher in a school in Manor, N. D.

Miss Elsie Granum, who graduated with the class of 1922, is attending the State Teachers' College at Moorhead, Minn. this year.

Harold Smithers, a 1921 graduate, returned to Valparaiso University last Tuesday where he is taking a business course.

Ada I. Thorstonson entered school Monday.

Miss Nettie Sjoberg left Monday with her parents for Minneapolis where they will make their future home.

ANNUAL CONVENTION HELD AT CROOKSTON

Many Local Teachers Will Appear on Program of Minnesota Education Association

The annual Teachers Convention of the Northwestern Division of the Minnesota Education Association will open Wednesday evening at the Crookston Armory and will close Friday afternoon. The Thief River Falls schools will be closed Thursday and Friday to allow all the teachers to attend.

Several of the local faculty members are on the program. Supt. I. T. Simley will act as chairman of the elementary section; Mrs. Blanche Kurstad, as chairman of the Mathematics Round Table; Miss Maude L. Johnson chairman of the Music and Art Round Table, Miss Minnie S. Leavitt will read a paper on, "Measuring the Progress in Mastering the Minimum Essentials in English." "Some Modern Language Problems" is the subject of a paper by Mr. A. C. Matheson. Miss Clara Baumann will lead a discussion on "Playground Supervision During Recess." The following grade teachers will read papers at the Intermediate Round Table: Miss Sarah Vaughan, "Relative Values of Written and Oral Languages in the Intermediate Grades;" Miss Aneta Dalquist, "How To Stimulate Freedom in Oral Expression;" Miss Edna Larson, "Interesting and Effective Teaching of Spelling."

Knox Notes

The fifth grade has had interesting discussions on the following subjects: What shall I read? What should I consider in choosing a book to read? Which class of reader do I belong to?

Robert Booreen and Vera Randell are leading in the Studebaker Tests.

Studebaker Tests have been started in the fourth grade.

Armand Fox and Clifford Dicken of grade four spent an evening visiting the city flour mill, so as to give the class some facts about the city mill. The milling force gave them samples of wheat, bran, shorts, and flour to bring to school to make their description more interesting.

Harold Anderson, Geraldine Connell, Margaret Dillion, Cameron Erickson, Wayne Kielty, Marvin Lindberg, Ardith Ness, Ruth Schuster, Wandabelle Semisch, and Charles Shirley have been neither tardy nor absent the past month.

Russell Reidy has left the Knox school and will attend one of the other schools in the city.

Thank you, Miss "Blank"

One of the teachers from last year in a letter to Superintendent Simley writes as follows:

"Still with all the opportunities that ------ offers, I am lonesome for Thief River Falls and all the lovely people I met there. The people here are lovely, but they have so many other interests that they do not find much time to meet the teachers and make them at home as do the people of Thief River Falls."

FACULTY RECEPTION GIVEN BY SENIORS

Saturday evening the Senior class held the reception for the faculty.

At 8 o'clock the guests convened at the High School. Shortly after, with Superintendent Simley at the head, the teachers formed a receiving line and the students shook hands with each member of the faculty.

The first stunt of the evening was an autograph contest. The point of the game was to see who could get the most autographs in ten minutes. As a result Miss Bambrick carried off high honors, while Mr. Mickelson won the consolation prize. Following this an enjoyable program was given which included:

Speech of Welcome .... Melvin Englestad
Response .... Supt I. T. Simley
Violin Duet .... Miss Lorraine Will and Henry Arneson accompanied by Miss Eileen Arneson.
Vocal Duet .... Liv Vistaunet and Isabel Richter accompanied by Miss Doris Richter.
Reading .... Dorothy Swedenburg.
Two Vocal Selections .... Senior Octette

After the program everyone assembled for the Grand March, which was led by Supt. and Mrs. Simley. Lunch was then served in the commercial room, which had been transformed into a reception room.

After thoroughly enjoying the evening the participants departed about eleven thirty.

Marie Larson came back to school last week.

Miss Leavitt was busy mending the books the first part of the week. She has an efficient corps of library assistants. She has chosen senior girls to answer questions and sign slips. Each girl serves the library one period. In addition to this there are four girls who are helping prepare the new books for circulation. Such work is of real benefit to the library and of practical help to the girls.

PEP MEETING FRI. AROUSES STUDENTS

Speeches Given in Honor of Frances Willard Day at Friday assembly

On Friday afternoon of last week periods were shortened and a general assembly was called at three thirty.

In honor of "Frances Willard Day," [illegible] Mildred Griffin spoke [illegible] on the life and work of Frances E. Willard [illegible]

A pep meeting was held following the above speeches. Coach Thune explained in a clear and interesting manner a few of the fundamentals of football, and the vital importance of the support of the student body. At the close of his talk he called on John Sether and Math Barzen to say a few words.

These two men of last year's squad responded with rousing speeches which created the effect they were intended to give a spirit of "pep" and excitement.

Principal Bye then took charge of the election of cheer leaders. Katherine Barzen was chosen as leader with Emmet Shanahan as her assistant.

These took turns in directing the students in some of the peppiest "yelling" Lincoln High has known for a long time.

Girls' Community Club Entertains Teachers

Monday evening the Girls Community club entertained the teachers at a party in their club room. There were about one hundred and fifty teachers and girls present. Miss Halvorson favored them with a few musical selections and some of the girls sang a few songs. Refreshments were served and the rest of the evening was spent in dancing. Many of the teachers joined the club.

Girls Attend Institute

The Normal training girls and Miss Stapleton are attending the county institute at the High School gymnasium Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of this week. Thursday and Friday the teachers' Convention will be held at Crookston and several of the Normal girls will attend.

Simple

A joke was played on Sir Arthur Conan Doyle by a French taxicab driver recently. The man had driven the noted creator of Sherlock Holmes from the station to the hotel, and when he received his fare he said: "Merci, M. Conan Doyle."

"Why, how do you know my name?" asked Sir Arthur.

"Well, sir, I have seen in the papers that you were coming from the south of France to Paris; your general appearance told me that you were English; your hair had been clearly last cut by a barber of the south of France. I put these indications together, and—I saw your name on your luggage!"

Desperation

"Can't you get any coal?"

"No."

"Have you tried every possible way?"

"All but one. I'm going to sit down tonight and write a letter to Santa Claus." —Worthington Star.

LINCOLN ELEVEN LOSES TO STEPHEN

Stephen Quarter-back Suffers Broken Leg When Tackled by Gavin

The first football game of the season was played with Stephen last Saturday. In spite of the rain quite a few football fans came to support their team.

First Half

Thief River kicked off with Penney recovering the ball. The teams contested back and forth for twelve minutes, then Stephen made their down, smashed through center, and tore up the field for the first touch-down, but failed to kick goal. During the second quarter Stephen made two incomplete passes. Sether plunged through the line making a six-yard gain. At the end of the first half the score was six to nothing in favor of Stephen.

Second Half

The players were changed around by substituting Berg for Lundell, Morin for Sorenson, and Gavin for Penney. Sether made a ten-yard gain after a completed pass. Morris Durant, quarter of the Stephen team, was carrying the ball toward the goal, when he was cleverly tackled by Gavin. Durant sustained a broken leg from this tackle. About four minutes were left of the game when a Stephen player intercepted a pass and dashed eighty yards for a touch-down, but again they failed to kick a goal. The score at the end of the game was: Stephen 12; Thief River Falls 0.

Considering the disagreeable weather, the slipperiness of the ball, and the fact that only two on the team were experienced players, the results are not as disappointing as they might be under different circumstances. The team on the whole played good a clean football and it is hoped that after a little more practice, a winning team will result.

Who's Face

It was lunch hour at the lino works, and Pat's two buddies, deciding to play a little joke on him during his absence, drew the features of a donkey upon the back of his coat, which he had left behind. In due time Pat returned, and presently hove in sight bearing the lime-decorated coat.

"What's the trouble, Pat?" asked one, trying to appear indifferent.

"Nothing much," replied Pat, equally indifferent; "only I'd loike to know which one of yez wiped your face on me coat."

Plummer Boy Is Chosen.

Carl L. Spong of Plummer, a senior in the Minnesota College of Agriculture has been selected a member of the judging team which will represent Minnesota in a contest with university teams from other states at the National Swine Show to be held at Peoria, Ill., Oct. 1-6.

CORN WILL SOON BE VALLEY CROP KING

That corn instead of wheat is soon to be king in the Red River Valley is becoming more and more evident each year.

During the present season many thousands of acres that have in the past been devoted to wheat were planted to corn and the crop has been an unusually heavy one. It is estimated that the corn and potato crop of the Valley counties this season will exceed in money value the wheat crop and indications now point strongly to still further progress along this line.

In Pennington county the acreage devoted to corn has been practically doubled this year, according to county agent, J. J. McCann, and the yield is reported has having suffered only slight damage from early frosts.

A large number of silos have been constructed in this community in the course of the past summer and fall, making a total of between 100 and 125 silos in the county. A silo must be considered as one of the most profitable agencies in the successful operation of a dairy farm and is rapidly getting its place on the farms thruout this section as well as in the southern sections. The specimens displayed at the recent county fair were indications of what can be raised here. It gave evidence that corn can be grown here just as successfully as anywhere and will eventually be one of the leading branches of farming in connection with the extensive dairy operations in the community.

The Crookston Milling Co., is taking note of the fact in a practical way. This concern has just ordered as an additional to its equipment a corn sheller of the largest capacity and will commence at once the erection of an immence corn crib on a site adjoining the mill.

It is expected that this equipment will be ready for operation this fall and with the heavy yield of corn in all the Valley counties the Milling Company expects to tax its capacity to the fullest in taking care of the corn crop.

Why We Have Bunk.

Do we in the United States deliberately force public men to be insincere? Recently a prominent man said: "I know my statement was bunk; but that is what the people want. I had to play for cheap popularity or quit public life." It has often been said that any man can win in politics if he is willing to swallow his self-respect and "play to the crowd." We are too much given to idolizing the man who is a grandstander. The newspapers play up men who make news. Therefore the sensational man has the best chance. The quiet man who will not descend to cheap play is lost. But so long as the public puts a premium upon bunk, we shall have for our servants the men who deal in bunk.—Winnebago City Enterprise.

The Crookston high school footballers were severely defeated by the Grand Forks team last Saturday to the tune of 36 to 0, the green material which answered Coach Swenson's call to arms showing that it has much to learn in the various arts of the game. Grand Forks, in McCracken, has a star which was largely responsible for Crookston's whitewash defeat. He skirted the ends for long gains, yardage and made the feature run of the game when he returned a punt 60 years for a touchdown.

Tomorrow, Friday, the Thief River Falls aggregation goes to Grand Forks to meet the eleven representing that high school, and a hard fought game is a certainty, as the locals are determined not to suffer defeat this time, even though they another state. On Octob cal team will meet Crook Crookston, at which time ed that a delegation of probably accompany the t

Neosho Man Not Coming.

[The] meeting of Thief River Falls [bu]siness men scheduled to be held at the Commercial club rooms on Friday evening, at which Gurney R. Creameries Welcome Marketing Plans of State Association

Plans for merchandising butter produced in the farmer-owned creameries of the state, as now being developed by the Minnesota Cooperative Creameries' association, are meeting with enthusiastic approval, according to H. F. Meyer, manager of the butter sales department.

Since Mr. Meyer came to the association, more than a month ago, he has been working on details of the program for selling the product of member creameries. His first step, of necessity, has been to draft an agreement under which the sales department will operate and to establish specifications for butter which the department will handle. This work has been completed and he, together with A. J. McGuire, general manager and John Brandt, president, are now beginning the task of presenting the plan to creamery boards.

Last week, the first presentation was made before a group of creamery board[s] [in the] vicinity of Winthrop and at Gaylord. At the Winthrop meeting, boards of all four creameries that had authority to act, agreed to sign the marketing agreement and representatives of several other creameries stated that similar action would be taken by their organizations as quickly as legal meetings could be called. At Berlin, the sales plan so impressed Theo. Helpert, president of the creamery, that affiliation with the movement is certain. Creamery association leaders were scheduled to meet with boards of the 24 creameries in Meeker county late last week.

Aaron Sapiro, in his address at Sauk Centre on Sept. 1 said the employment of Mr. Meyer by the association was one of the most forward steps ever taken by a farm organization in Minnesota. "Mr. Meyer," he said, "is a real merchant and he will lift you from the plane of being the best butter manufacturers in the world to that of being the best butter salesmen."

When Road Hogs Met.

By N. P. Stenshoel, Crookston.

A road hog was speeding toward the east,
With his nose turned up in the air.
He had no thought for man or beast,
'Twas the least of his troubles to care.
The middle of the road was his, you know,
Where the tracks were smooth and straight;
Those he met had no choice, in the ditch they'd go
Or turn in at some farmer's gate.

Another hog of the very same breed
Was headed the opposite way;
He was sailing along at terrific speed,
No thought of the law to obey.
Those he met turned swiftly into the grass
As he scooted by with a whiff.

But alas! alas! when the two hogs met
Speeding at sixty or more,
Each got the dose he deserved, you bet,
As into each other they tore.
The crash was heard for miles around
As the fragments filled the air.
In the middle of the road these hogs were found
Each with a vacant stare.

STATE DEPARTMENT AWARDS ROAD JOBS

Low bidders received awards of contracts for twelve trunk highway improvements, including 70 miles of grading, 13 of graveling and 8 new bridges, made this week by Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner. Sharp competition characterized the letting, figures being close on most projects. The improvements are widely distributed over the system and will be paid for mainly with county reimbursement bond funds. Contractors agreed to start work without unnecessary delays that the use of the better roads may be enjoyed earlier.

The list of tentative awards follows:

T. H. No. 2—Moorhead Glyndon, 13 miles of gravelling local pits, to Stevens Bros., St. Paul, at $46,580.

T. H. No. 3—Newport-St. Paul, 5 miles of grading; Chris Johnson, St. Paul, grading at $18,478, Illinois Steel Bridge Co., culverts at $2,504.

T. H. No. 4—Windom-Jackson, 27 miles of grading and two bridges. Awards later.

T. H. No. 6—Hallock-Donaldson, 17½ miles of grading and bridge; Mike Barrett, St. Cloud, Div. A. grading at $32,719; Sig. Enebak, Warren, Div. B. grading at $29,788; Minneapolis Bridge Co., culverts at $12,485 and 40-foot bridge at $4,472. Contracts conditioned upon satisfactory right-of-way acquisitions.

T. H. No. 6—North of Canby, monolithic culvert to Mitchell & Sons, Lake Benton, at $1,850.

T. H. No. 9—In Jackson, ½-mile grading; Stevens Bros., grading at $6,060; Marshall Concrete Tile Co., culverts at $1,236.

T. H. No. 12—East of Dawson, monolithic culvert to Mitchell & Sons at $2,409.

T. H. No. 23—Foley-Milaca, 15½ miles of graveling to Charles Boyer, Willmar, at $21,790.

T. H. No. 23—West of Richmond, 18-foot bridge to Illinois Steel Bridge Co., at $1,225.

T. H. No. 50—Farmington-Lakeville, 5½ miles of grading and special drainage; Roach & Roach, Viola, grading at $13,334; Edward Mattson, St. Paul, culverts at $6,911.

Commissioner Babcock recently announced that other conditions being equal, highway improvements will be made first in localities where landowners show they are wanted by conveying right-of-way at reasonable prices. Demands for exhorbitant sums, he said, will result in indefinite postponement of projects. Under this rule, contracts are being held up on the Hallock-Donaldson improvement as noted.

GAIN IN REVENUE OF SOO RAILROAD

An increase in revenue of nearly $2,500,000 was shown by the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie Railway company for the first eight months of 1923 over the corresponding period of 1922, according to a statement made public Friday by D. J. Bond, comptroller for the road.

From January 1 to August 31, 1923, according to the report, the road earned $18,512,041, as compared to an earning of $16,057,182 for the same months during 1922. The net increase is $2,454,859. More than $2,200,000 of the increase was in freight revenue alone.

According to the report the gain was accomplished in spite of a sharp decrease in revenue for the month of August. In August, 1922, the railroad earned $2,611,071, while the earnings for August this year fell to $2,555,534.

Improvement in earnings made by the Great Northern railway in August is disclosed by the monthly statement of operating revenues and expenses to the Interstate Commerce commission, net operating income of $3,005,799 being the largest monthly total since November, 1921 and the largest August since 1916.

Net operating income of the Great first eight months, a gain of $1,518,814.

August net operating income of the Omaha railroad was $303,545, a decrease of $467,169 compared with the corresponding month of 1922. Gross revenues for the eight months were $18,501,608, a gain of $890,679 over the last year, but operating expenses increased $1,356,965 to a total of $15,910,720. Net operating income of $1,516,061 for the period was $702,210 less than for the first eight months of last year.

CO-OPERATIVE GRAIN FIRMS CONSOLIDATED

U. S. Grain Growers Sales Agency United With American Wheat Growers Ass'n.

Consolidation of the U. S. Grain Growers Sales Company of Minneapolis with state wheat growers associations combined in the American Wheat Growers Associated is announced in a statement issued today by The Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation. The U. S. Grain Growers sales agency and the group of state wheat growers associations are co-operative marketing organizations and the consolidation centralizes the full strength of the farmer marketing movement in one organization.

The American Wheat Growers Associated is the national marketing agency for nine state wheat growers associations and maintains offices in Minneapolis, Duluth, Kansas City, Portland and Seattle. It has memberships on the Boards of Trade of Minneapolis and Duluth. The U. S. Grain Growers Sales Company was established by the Farm Bureau associations of Minnesota and Iowa to care for the grain contracted by farmers to the U. S. Grain Growers, Inc., and maintains a membership on the Minneapolis Exchange.

The American Wheat Growers Associated previously has marketed only wheat pooled by the members of its state units, but through the merger, it will assume the business of the U. S. Grain Growers Sales Company and hereafter will handle the consigned coarse grains of members of the U. S. Grain Growers and other farmers of the Northwest and middle west states.

Additional grain marketing facilities will be immediately added to the American Wheat Growers Associated according to announcement from the Minneapolis headquarters. Wheat testing laboratories were installed last year, and the present plan will be supplemented with additional equipment to care for the increased business of the organization.

"The consolidation is the consummation of the prevailing thought of agricultural leaders in the Northwest to unify their grain marketing efforts," said J. F. Reed, president of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation. "In May of last year, a meeting was held at Fargo, N. D., under Farm Bureau auspices, at which time the desirability and importance of united effort in the matter of marketing grain was discussed and agreed upon by all farm organizations and agencies concerned with this phase of the farm project. This has been made an actual fact through the physical consolidation of these two agencies.

"The step will go far to unify the co-operative marketing movement in the spring wheat growing area. It is the business of farm organizations and those seeking to benefit agriculture to move in unison in promoting their projects. Divided efforts only tend to confuse producers, and unless leaders can agree and co-operate, there is little hope that individual farmers will be able to do so. I look upon the consolidation as a great forward step in handling of grain for producers."

"The merging of the U. S. Grain Growers sales agency with state associations comprising the American Wheat Growers Associated, brings together the two largest co-operative grain marketing organizations in the United States," said W. J. Brown, president of the American Wheat Growers Associated. "The consolidation will be of extreme value to members of the organizations in South Dakota, Minnesota and Montana. It will provide a self-contained machine for selling the course grains of the farmers now pooling their wheat in these states and in addition will provide a powerful farmer-owned organization with sales offices in practically every grain center of the country for use of members of the U. S. Grain Growers, Inc.

"The two organizations always have co-ordinated their marketing work, but many future benefits will accrue which were not possible under the dual organization of the past. It is expected that the American Wheat Growers Associated, as a result of the merger, will handle more American grain this year than any other single sales organization.

NEWSPAPERS HELP 'STRETCH' ROAD CASH

Attract Lower Bids From Local Contractors and Bring Work and Money Into Locality.

Publishing free for their news interest and information to readers the highway bulletin and notably those about improvements on which bids are being asked, The Times with other newspapers, according to Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, is saving the state thousands of dollars yearly and bringing new money into their communities to stay.

A bulletin this week states that a saving of more than $20,000 on highway improvement contracts at the last state letting is to be credited largely to newspapers publishing advance news of the letting and thus influencing local contractors to bid. Out of 26 awards 15 went to local contractors at $301,176.07, or $21,369.79 under the lowest figures by large "outside" concerns, according to official figures, with no moving or like expenses to add in, it is stated, the local contractors have the advantage.

Local awards mean that more of the state funds are kept in the locality of the improvement through the employment of home labor, it is explained, and the highway department policy in this respect is like that to plan winter and other work to employ farmers and others in dull seasons.

Commissioner Babcock said the newspapers not only played an important part in effecting the adoption of Good Roads Amendment No. 1 but by continuing to maintain public interest and co-operation have since made another invaluable contribution to the biggest success of the highway program. Their help to 'stretch' road funds by encouraging lowest bids has saved thousand of dollars he said, but of fully as great value is the service of keeping taxpayers informed of highway plans, progress, and facts generally.

"It is just another evidence of the great public service the newspaper gives without direct compensation, and to say that the support given the newspaper by its community is an index of the progressiveness of that community should be sufficient hint to its citizens," said the commissioner.

The Red Lake county refunding bond issue of $40,000 has been held up by the attorney-general's office on the grounds that the county had already issued the maximum amount of bonds allowable under the statutes.

Assistant Attorney General Chas. E. Phillips, who wrote the opinion to County Attorney Chas. E. Boughton, Jr., states that while the law provides that the $250,000 highway reimbursement "bonds may be issued without regard to the net indebtedness of the county, it does not provide that when issued they shall not be considered in determining the net indebtedness for the purpose of issuing other bonds."

Red Lake county has already issued $561,294 of bonds of which sum $250,000 will be paid by the state for work done by the county on the trunk highways, leaving a net indebtedness of $311,294. The county's total assessed valuation for 1922 was $4,019,882 and the limit to which the county can bond is ten per cent of this amount or $401,988. If the highway bonds, which will be paid by the state, were not counted, the county would still be $90,694 short of the limit. The proposed $40,000 refundment bonds would still have left the county $50,694 within limit.

PASSENGER FROZEN WITH FEAR CAUSES FATAL PLANE CRASH

Paralyzed With Fear Man In Aeroplane Stretches Over Seat Against Rudder Bar

A strange aeroplane accident in which one man was killed occurred at International Falls a week ago Sunday, an account of which was given in the Baudette Region:

Theo. Fossos, proprietor of the Palace Hotel at Fort Frances, was killed and his seven-year-old son was seriously injured when an aeroplane in which they were passengers with Lieut. Hitt crashed to the ground at International Falls Sunday. The plane came down near the big pile of pulpwood at the paper mill. Lieut. Hitt had his nose broken and was severely bruised but not seriously injured. The engine developed trouble while in the air, but Hitt had perfect control of it an deverything would have come out all right, but for the fact that Fossos became paralyzed with fear, and slumping over in his seat and stretching out froze into a position against the rudder bar, thus taking the control out of the operator's hands. Twice Hitt brought the plane into control, but the third time he failed and it crashed to the ground.

Lieut. Hitt left International Falls a day or so later stating that never again would he take up a passenger. He has gone to California where last year he was employed as a stunt flier by the DeMille Motion Picture Co. He will resume his old job with them.

Positions Wanted for Veterans

The U. S. Veterans' Bureau announces that it has a number of high class men for whom it wishes to find employment opportunities. The list includes the following trades and professions: Accountants, junior accountant, auto electrician and batteryman agate cutter, architectural draftsman, auto mechanics, bank clerk, bookkeepers, barber, bookkeeper and stenographer, business administration, chautauqua entertainer, civil engineer, chiropractor, dental mechanics, electrical engineer, elevator manager, lawyers, laboratory technicians, mining engineer, magneto and motor repairman, pipe organist, power plant operator, postoffice clerk, steam engineer, several shoe repairers, and a sign painter (especially show card work).

These are all men of excellent character and well trained under the supervision of the Bureau's experts for the line of work they wish to follow. They were all disabled while in the service of their country but their injuries will in no way interfere with the work they have trained to follow. They are mature, accustomed to discipline and dead in earnest. All they desire is an opportunity to carry on in the industrial world.

Employers should write to the U. S. Veterans' Bureau, Keith-Plaza Building, Minneapolis, and let them connect the right man with the job. They will promptly furnish inquiries with retailed confidential information concerning these re-trained veterans.

Lawlessness.

Bar associations and other groups are running around in circles to find a cure for lawlessness. They have been gyrating in this manner for years. The intentions of these bodies are of the best and it is possible that good may come of their efforts.

American lawlessness in considerable part flows from the fact that the administration of the law in most states has been lax and that this laxity is chargeable to an important extent to the bar, which has loosened its grasp on the basic principles of common morality. Much of the best ability at the bar is entirely devoted to devising ways by which the law can be evaded and not in seeking to sustain the right.

But the sun shines through the murk of turmoil. Things will improve. They must. Good citizens must get together and condemn evil, even when it is an evil they have a sneaking affection for. Each must clean his own back yard. The bar association must do that. Virtue begins at home, like charity. But neither need end there.—Duluth Herald.

Many Compensation Claims.

The total number of claims for compensation, for both death and disability, filed with the U. S. Veteran's Bureau for the whole country, as of Aug. 1, 1923, was 921,268. The number of new claims received during the month of July was 3,157, or an average of 126 for each working day.

St. John's Congregation to Aid in $4,000,000 Campaign

At a quarterly meeting Sunday afternoon the members of St. John's Lutheran Church endorsed the Missouri Synod's Building Program, calling for an expenditure of almost $4,000,000 during the coming three years. An 'every-member-canvass' will be taken on the afternoon of November 25th. On this day the congregations of the Missouri Synod Lutheran Church in the United States and Canada will join efforts to raise the required sum. St. John's has determined to do its part.

The first theological college of the Missouri Synod was built by the Saxon Emigrants in Perry County, Missouri, in 1839. The college had five students and four professors. Today the same Synod maintains fifteen colleges and seminaries consisting of sixty college buildings and 61 residences; 105 professors and 28 assistants instructing over 2600 students.

The Ways and Means Committee, in charge of the Campaign, gives the following information concerning these schools:

"Our colleges, or preparatory schools, are located at Fort Wayne, Ind., Milwaukee, Wis., St. Paul, Minn., Concordia, Mo., Bronxville, N. Y., Winfield, Kans., Conover, N. C., Portland, Oreg., Oakland, Cal., and Edmonton, Ala., Can. After our boys have studied six years at these institutions, they go to the seminary at St. Louis to take up a three-year theological course. At Springfield we have a seminary which offers a shorter course of six years to such as desire to become ministers of the Gospel. In South America we have a college and seminary at Porto Alegre, Brazil. At two normal schools, River Forest, Ill., and Seward, Nebr., young men, in a six year course, are prepared to become teachers in our parochial schools."

The American Lutheran Church is conducting nearly 200 schools of higher education—seminaries, colleges, academies—with 1,600 teachers and 15,000 students. The largest theological seminary of any denomination in the United States is the Missouri Synod Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, where over 400 students are preparing for the ministry. A new group of buildings on a new location in St. Louis is about to be erected for this Seminary to cost two and one half million dollars. During the last 60 years the Lutheran Church in this country has doubled its membership every 14 years. In some localities it has grown to such proportions that it outnumbers the combined membership of all other Protestant denominations. Such is the case, for example, in the state of Wisconsin, and in this state in the city of Milwaukee. In Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and other cities it ranks first among the Protestant churches.

Jazz, Jazz, Jazz.

An American Society woman, returning from Europe, was asked what she liked most on the other side.

"The absence of jazz," was her prompt reply.

Europe has returned to its sanity on the jazz question, but America is still jazz mad.

If we go to a dance it is jazz, jazz, jazz. When we put a new record on the victrola it is more jazz. If we hear a band approaching, the march girls sing in jazz, mothers hum it, and the old man snores in jazz. The cat purrs jazz, the dog barks it, and the lizzies wheeze it. When the hogs begin to grunt in jazz our modern ideas of harmony will be complete.

Loken Bros. Given First Prize For Window Display in Madison Store

It will be of interest to citizens of Thief River Falls and vicinity to know that the Loken Brothers Department store in Madison, Wis., was awarded first place for a window display in the fall opening contest conducted by Madison merchants.

H. O. Loken and George Loken, who until last fall conducted a department store in Thief River Falls and built up an extensive trade thruout the northwest, are doing splendidly in their new location in the Wisconsin capital and are successfully operating the finest store of its kind in that city. The former is taking an active and progressive part in the business life of the city of Madison, as is evidenced by the following article from the Wisconsin State Journal, issue of Wednesday, Sept. 19:

"That it is possible for Madison merchants to extend their trading area for many miles around the city was the opinion expressed by H. O. Loken, of Loken Brothers store, at a meeting of the Madison Advertising club this noon.

Mr. Loken told how his store at Thief River Falls, Minn., a town of 5,000 inhabitants, built up a substantial business among the farmers within a radius of 108 miles and successfully competed with the mail order houses.

Monthly catalogues and direct mail and newspaper advertising induced many to buy at the store, he said. The same methods have been found equally successful in Madison."

Another Guess Coming

"Those who claim the American Legion is run by officers have another guess coming," declares the Sleepy Eye Herald-Dispatch. "At the Faribault Convention Ludvig I. Roe, editor of the Montevideo News and a plain 'buck private,' was elected State Commander. He has announced that the keynote of his administration will be community service. The Legion posts all over the state are coming to be a dominant factor in community development and during the coming year they will no doubt be of greater service than ever to their communities."

CROOKSTON CLOSES SHOP TO HELP SPUD GROWERS GET QUOTA

Business Men of Polk County City Go Into Country To Sign Up Quota Among Growers

Business men of Crookston and vicinity are determined that the campaign to organize the new Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange shall be a success. Following Aaaron Sapiro's meeting there on Sept. 10, merchants, bankers and editors arranged to close business houses of the city on Sept. 21, don working clothes and help farmers sign up Polk county's quota with as little delay as possible.

As a result, 15 teams, including business men, took to the fields on the appointed day and by nightfall, unofficial reports indicated that nearly 5,000 acres were under contract. Not content with this unusual interest in co-operative marketing, the business men decided to continue their efforts until the full quota—18,000 acres—is under contract. This spirit, leaders say, assures Polk county, second largest potato growing county in the state, obtaining its legal minimum. Contracts covering over 7,000 acres have been signed up and delivered according to late reports. Twelve new meetings are scheduled for this week.

Polk county raised 43,000 acres of potatoes in 1922 and following 3,000 acres deduction for seed and home consumption, a total of 20,000 acres must be covered in order to reach 50 per cent or the acreage considered necessary in each county to make the organization substantial and effective.

The example set by Crookston business men is being followed in several other sections of the Red River Valley.

The potato organization's state office at St. Paul last week announced that the membership had increased to nearly 1500 and that the aggregate acreage is aproaching 30,000.

Prominent Salvation Army Man to Hold Service Here

Staff-Captain Alfred B. Whitney of the Salvation Army, residing at Minneapolis, will conduct a children's and Young People's meeting at the army hall in this city Monday directly after dismissal of school. He will also hold evening service at the hall Monday at 8:15 o'clock p. m.

Staff-Captain Whitney, Divisional Young peoples secretary has the oversight of the Salvation Army Young People's work of the Northern Division comprising the states of Minnesota, North and South Dakota, with headquarters at Minneapolis. The Staff-Captain has had a wide experience, having been in active Army service for the past twenty five years and has had command of some of the large Army's large and important centers, with many years service in Chicago and the Northern Pacific Coast.

Concerning Potatoes.

Those who are in any way skeptical as to the possibilities of potato raising in this section should cast their optics on the following item from the Red Lake Falls Gazette of last week:

Edmund J. Porter, the largest grower of certified potatoes in Red Lake county had shipped thirteen cars of Early Ohio potatoes up to Tuesday morning. He estimates that he will ship about twenty carloads of his own potatoes this season. Other potato growers thruout the county have commenced the digging of their crop for market. The yield is not as large as has been estimated by the buyers and state and federal men.

Local Post Office Selected to Help Department in Cost Ascertainment

On September 21 the post office department started an analysis of the cost of mail distribution thruout the entire country for a period of one month until midnight October 20. The department has instructed certain offices in each state to secure the data for the purpose of ascertaining the cost of handling, transporting and delivering the several classes and subclasses of mail matter, and of conducting the special services, and ascertaining the amount of revenue derived from same.

The fact that the Thief River Falls office is among the Minnesota offices to be chosen to aid in this ascertainment campaign is an indication of its standing as compared with others in the state. It has shown the greatest possible degree of efficiency in its service which has at all times proved to be the satisfaction of the public as well as the department. The work at the local office is under the supervision of Ray Pope, postal clerk, and entails a great deal of extra detail work in all the various divisions of the service.

A result of this investigation may be a revision of some of the postal rates existing at the present time, and which may prove to be out of proportion.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid will serve a 15 or 25c lunch at the church Friday afternoon commencing at 4 o'clock. Lunch will consist of sandwiches and coffee, creamed potatoes, salad and cake.

CASH PRIZES OF $1000 FOR BEST SHOW DISPLAYS

Preparations For Crop and Poultry Show In This City Progressing Rapidly.

EXHIBITORS SHOULD PREPARE DISPLAY NOW

Committees For Many Departments Are Selected and Will Take Active Charge.

More than $1,000 will be available for prizes to be awarded at the crop and poultry show in Thief River Falls to be held during the first week of December. This feature alone should prove an incentive to prospective exhibitors, the various awards being very liberal. A total of $400 for premiums in the poultry show will be received from the state, while the remaining $600 was subscribed in this city without difficulty. The financing of the exposition is now entirely taken care of and all indications are that the event will meet with splendid success providing the attendance is in proportion to the preparations and interest shown by those in charge.

A number of prominent speakers, authorities on grain and poultry problems, will be secured for the occasion.

It is urged that exhibitors prepare their displays for entries in the show as soon as possible, especially in the potato and corn departments, because a good selection can be more easily made at this time. The poultry show will be open to exhibitors from all over the world while the grain, grass and seed departments will be limited to Pennington county farmers and those residing a reasonable distance from Thief River Falls in adjoining counties. The best exhibits at the show here will be entered at the Winter Shows at Crookston this winter.

A meeting of the committee in charge of the preparations was held this week and various details of the event worked out. Following are some of the department superintendents and their assistants: Corn-T. L. Melgaard, Carl Lee. Potatoes-H. S. Dahlen, Henry Oen; Building-H. A. Brumund, F. J. Stebbins; Entertainment-Supt. I. T. Simley, Olaf Neset. Grasses and legumes-F. F. Haynes, Herbert Fuller. Miscellaneous-E. M. Bennes, H. C. Woolson. The officers of the poultry association will have charge of that department. They are: Olaf Neset, president; J. J. McCann, secretary; H. Schuster, treasurer; directors: C. D. Gustafson, C. M. Bacon, F. B. Conklin, L. A. Westphal, Ed. Battenfeldt and Mrs. H. C. Woolson.

Y. M. C. A. SEASON TO OPEN NEXT MONDAY EVENING AT LIBRARY

Interested Persons Volunteer to Take Charge of Quarters Until Worker is Secured.

The Y. M. C. A. quarters in the library building will be opened for the young men of Thief River Falls next Monday, October 15, is the announcement made public this week by the board in charge of Y activities in this city.

The decision was made Tuesday evening when the executive board and a number of interested persons met at the Brumund hotel to discuss plans for carrying on the work of the organization during the fall season. Several attempts have been made to secure a Y worker to take complete charge of the local quarters and supervise all activities, but so far negotiations have not been successful. However, it was agreed at the meeting Tuesday that a number of those interested in the movement will take turns in taking charge of the library basement during the evenings until a permanent supervisor is secured, and assume the responsibility of keeping up the work as long as will be necessary. All those present at the meeting volunteered to do this and several others have also promised their cooperation and services in keeping up the work. The Y. M. C. A. proved a popular place for the youth of the city last season and it is anticipated that the coming year will witness even more activity and interest. It is urged that as many as possible attend the opening Monday, when C. D. Gustafson, head of the Y. M. C. A. Board will have charge.

Those who are to take charge of the quarters during the first two weeks, beginning next Monday evening, are: Monday, C. D. Gustafson; Tuesday, Supt. I. T. Simley; Wednesday, Clarence Pope; Thursday, Lester Guss; Friday, Dreng Bjornaraa; Saturday, F. F. Haynes; Monday, Oct. 22, Leonard Thune; Tuesday, Morris Bye; Wednesday, Thos. Chittick; Thursday, Lester Guss; Friday, Rev. J. B. Smith; Saturday, Dr. O. F. Mellby.

County Commissioners Meet In Brief Session

A regular meeting of the board of commissioners of Pennington county was held at the court house Wednesday of last week. Routine matters of county business were taken up and the usual bills allowed.

The board also viewed the work on State Road No. 5 going southeast from Bridge street and connecting with the Hazel-Oklee road. The work on the six miles constructed by Contractor H. P. Lund which was just completed, was found satisfactory and was accepted by the commissioners. Gravelling will be started as soon as gravel can be secured and a crew employed.

Highway Officials Speak Highly Of Pavement Here When In City Making Test

Representatives of the state highway department were in Thief River Falls last week to test the paving on Main avenue, which is a part of the state highway trunk system. The road going thru this city, Trunk Highway No. 32 coming from the south and 33 going north, is commonly known as the Jefferson and there is a question of the state reimbursing the city with a certain amount of the expenditures connected with the construction of the blocks of paving between First and Sixth streets on that route.

Atho the official results of the tests are not available at this time, the local highway engineer states that according to statements by the inspectors, they are very much pleased with the pavement in this city and complimented Thief River Falls very highly for this splendid improvement. Nothing definite is known at this time, however, as to the matter of the state's reimbursement of this portion of the paving expense which is included in the trunk system. The department men left Saturday.

ORDINANCE GOVERNING MILK DEALERS PRESENTED COUNCIL

Must Secure License If Proposed City Ordinance Is Passed By Aldermen.

A milk dealers' ordinance licensing all who sell milk in the city of Thief River Falls has at last been drafted and is now before the city council for final action. The ordinance was presented to the aldermen Tuesday night by Dr. J. T. Bowers, who spoke briefly in favor thereof. Together with Dr. O. F. Mellby and H. S. Dahlen they had been asked some time ago by the Commercial club to draft such an ordinance and considerable time was necessary to get the proper data.

The ordinance regulates the selling of milk, butter milk and cream in the city by residents thereof or by others living outside the city who deliver or sell milk here. The purpose is to better protect the public from danger of tuberculosis transmission to children from tuberculin cattle.

It will be necessary for all who sell milk to use bottles hereafter, if the ordinance is passed as drawn, and to have caps bearing the names of the owner of the cattle. The milk and cream must conform to state standards and all cattle must be regularly inspected by an inspector working under authority of the city and backed by state laws.

The ordinance as drafted is similar to those in effect in cities of this class, such as Alexandria, Crookston, Ely, Wadena and others, all of whom reported to Dr. Bowers as being well pleased therewith. The best features from all ordinances were taken, as were also those from the tentative draft sent by the state board of health.

The second reading will be given at the next regular meeting of the council, Tuesday night, Oct. 23, at which time changes may be made if objections worth while are offered by those directly concerned.

PARENT-TEACHER'S ASSOCIATION WILL BE HOST TOMORROW

Everybody Urged to Attend Get-together Meeting at Auditorium Friday Evening.

The plans for the reception for the teachers of the city schools to be given at the city auditorium tomorrow, Friday evening, have been completed and no effort has been spared to make it one of the best get-together events of the season.

The Parent-Teachers Association under whose supervision the reception is to be held, is well aware of the fact that co-operation between the parents and teachers is essential for the best results. To give every parent and teachers an opportunity to become acquainted is the purpose of this reception and every parent is urged to be present. A committee has been appointed to decorate the auditorium and an entertaining program has been worked out.

A vocal solo by Miss Dora Holmes, a piano solo by Miss Dora Halvorson and a reading by Mrs. Oscar Melby have been secured for the occasion. Toasts will be given by members of the teaching staff and the parents. Refreshments will be served. This will no doubt be one of the biggest social events of the season. The Parent-Teachers association is to be highly complimented for active interest and the good results they are obtaining. They are creating a spirit of co-operation that is proving to be a big factor in the education of the large number of Thief River Falls students, and making conditions that are conducive to good results.

Froseth Remains Unchanged.

Perry Froseth, who was seriously injured in an auto accident a week ago last Friday, is in the same condition that he was a week ago. Physically he is very well but he has not gained a complete consciousness for any length of time. It is impossible to say what may develop, but with his physical condition up to par he has a good chance for recovery.

CITY MAY GET 1924 MEETING OF EDUCATORS

MANY T. R. F. TEACHERS PARTAKE IN PROGRAMS

Morris Bye, H. S. Principal, New Sec'y-Treas. Clara Gullingsrud Vice President.

Thief River Falls teachers who attended the annual convention of the Northwestern division of the Minnesota Educational association are unanimous in expressing their wholehearted satisfaction of the gathering. Several who have been interviewed by a Times reporter state that it was the best convention of its kind they had ever attended, the program being of the most instructive and entertaining. The convention opened on Wednesday evening and continued until Friday evening, most of the teachers from this county being in attendance during the last two days. About 500 Northwestern Minnesota pedagogues were Crookston visitors those days.

Practically every teacher in the city attended the Crookston meeting but only a small number of the rural teachers assembled here for their annual institute the fore part of the week took part, as did also teachers from the graded schools and from some rural districts in Red Lake and Marshall counties. Supt. Ole R. Sande reports a very satisfactory institute, both as regarding attendance and work accomplished. The schools in Goodridge did not close for the occasion, but the St. Hilaire teachers attended.

Thief River Falls is well represented on the board of officers of the association for the coming year. Miss Clara Gullingsrud of this city, principal of the Gully school in Polk county was elected vice-president and Morris Bye, principal of the high school of this city, was chosen secretary-treasurer. O. L. Troxel of Fosston was named president to succeed A. C. Peterson of Argyle. Members of the state committees are; appropriations, G. H. Stanberg, Crookston; legislation, C. G. Selvig, Crookston, and resolutions, John Bendol, Hallock.

A large number of instructors in the Thief River Falls schools took part in the sectional meeting and round table discussions, mention of which was made in last week's issue of The Times. Thursday's session was a general assembly at the armory, at which addresses were given by Mrs. E. G. Quamme, president of the Minnesota Parent-Teachers association, and Dr. William A. Cook, of the University of South Dakota. Mrs. Quamme explained the aims by the Parent-Teachers association through closer co-operation between the home and the school, while Dr. Cook spoke on "The Chance of the School to Succeed."

Thursday evening a Schoolmasters banquet was held at which Supt. I. T. Simley of this city was one of the speakers.

Crookston high school was defeated on the gridiron Friday afternoon in a contest with the Warren eleven, the final score being 6 to 16. Crookston played vastly superior football to that shown in the Grand Forks game a week previous. The Crookston line, however, was weakened by the loss of four regulars through ineligibility.

Crookston scored in first quarter through an end run by Geer, Warren tied the score by a similar play in the same quarter. Recovering a punt in third quarter, Warren advanced towards Crookston's goal until Tullar went around end for Warren's second touchdown.

Tullar and Captain Laroon, Warren's stars, went out in final quarter through injuries and Crookston marched down the field with Geer carrying the ball most of the time. Warren recovered the ball on her four yard line and punted. Crookston again was threatened to score when time was called.

Either Thief River Falls or Red Lake Falls will entertain the 1924 convention of the Northwestern Division of the Minnesota Educational Association, according to the choice of the executive committee, it was decided at the annual business meeting of the organization.

A vote was taken at the convention showing the sentiment in favor of this city.

The annual meeting of the District High School Athletic Association was held Thursday, which resulted in the election of M. C. Hayes of East Grand Forks as chairman. Other new board members elected were A. C. Pederson, Argyle, and G. Holmquist, of Warren. The board decided to conduct next winter's basketball tournament along previous lines, except that each team in the conference must play at least seven games, with four different teams to maintain its conference standing in the championship race.

The new constitution for the state association was adopted by the district association. Two new features are contained in the constitution: first, the state association will be governed by an assembly of delegates from the different sections, the number from each section to be determined by the number enrolled in that section; and second, the different sections will receive 50 per cent of the enrollment fee, instead of the former 30 per cent.

Skottem Recovering.

Syvert Skottem of St. Hilaire, who was injured in an auto accident Friday, Sept. 21st, left the Swedenburg hospital Saturday in a very good condition, considering the nature of the accident. A deep wound in the skull and severe sprains in his left collar bone and right arm and leg were the chief injuries incurred. He will be able to use the affected limbs in a short time.

U. C. T. Stage Initiation At Masonic Hall Saturday

A banquet, to begin at 5:30, will open the event. Grand Counselor T. I. Lewis of Moorhead and Grand Sentinel J. J. Daly of Grand Forks, N. D. will be present. The occasion is the usual annual meeting of the grand council officers of the U. C. T. and an initiation will also be held. MANY MATTERS TAKEN UP BY COUNCIL TUES.

Two Suits Filed Against City And Milk Dealers' Ordinance Introduced.

LIGHT DEPT. EARNS $5000 DURING MONTH

Reports of Departments Heard. Two Building Permits Issued By Aldermen.

The regular session of the city council Tuesday night was a busy one, with all aldermen present when the clerk called the roll. As mentioned elsewhere two suits were filed against the city and a milk ordinance licensing all milk dealers was introduced. Much routine business also occupied the attention of the aldermen till a late hour.

The regular monthly reports were submitted, with the exception of that of the library. The report of the clerk and treasurer showed a balance Sept. 1 of $28,197.17 and of only $16,966.45 the first of this month, receipts having been $4,333.66 as against disbursements of $15,564.38. The clerk's report also showed that the light department earned the nice sum of $4,614.53 during the past month while the few water meter readings that necessarily had to be made showed that department earned $24.96. The municipal court report showed receipts of $16.50 while the report of the manager of the auditorium showed receipts of $20. The report of the chief of police showed but one arrest.

The council completed the appointment of clerks at the next election, Nov. 6, by naming the following: first ward, L. H. Hermanson, and L. C. Nielson; second ward, Scott Laird, and John Waag; third ward, Andrew Bottelson and H. E. Roberts; fourth ward, Mrs. T. P. Anderson and J. T. Neseth.

The manager of the telephone company appeared before the aldermen stating that his company was trying to reduce running expenses and as the positions of manager and wire chief had been consolidated it would be possible to dispense with the office room in the southeast corner of the main floor, using the basement room in the future. The aldermen took no action but were not inclined to change the present lease which has over a year to run, unless the telephone company can find a tenant to take this office

CITY IS DEFENDANT IN CLAIM ACTIONS

C. M. Carlson Brings Action Against City to Recover Balance on Contract.

Notice was served on the city at the regular meeting of the city council Tuesday evening of a suit to collect the sum of $1,000 and interest at the rate of six per cent from May 1 of this year claimed to be due the plaintiff, C. M. Carlson, contractor who built the filtration plant.

The second suit is of minor nature and for only $60, the same being the result of Hy. Esplee and Alex Tveit running into a sewer trench which it was claimed was not properly protected at night time by a red light. The machine was lodged in the hole for several hours afterward, it is stated. No action was taken by the aldermen on this matter.

The suit of Mr. Carlson is for the final payment on the filtration plant which has been a source of trouble ever since it was completed last winter, a chack in the walls developing and which rendered the plant unacceptable to the city without a final O. K. from the engineer in charge, L. P. Wolff of St. Paul.

The engineer has been here several times the past spring and summer but never has definitely placed the blame for the trouble, but is expected here the present week to give the matter more careful consideration. The crack has been gradually widening and is quite perceptible at the present time.

The city attorney, H. O. Chommie, was authorized by the council to interpose an answer and to defend the city when the case comes to trial.

In addition to this $1,000 still due Mr. Carlson the final estimate on work of the J. G. Robertson Co., of St. Paul for the machinery in the plant has been held up and this company is likewise preparing to take steps to collect the amount due them. The engineer in charge also has a final payment due him and the aldermen feel they are entitled to a final O. K. on the building before paying for the work.

POTATO DRIVE IN PENNINGTON NEXT TUESDAY

Growers of County Will Be Asked To Sign Up Acreage With Co-Operative Exchange.

BUSINESS MEN AND FARMERS TO CANVASS COUNTY

Rubinow In City Tuesday Presents Plan of Organization. Must Get 50% of Acreage.

Next Tuesday, Oct. 16, is the day set for the final drive in the campaign to get Pennington county potato growers to sign up their acreage in the Minnesota co-operative potato exchange. The drive is being sponsored by the Commercial club of Thief River Falls in an effort to secure sufficient acreage to make a Pennington county organization effective. Fifty percent of the 1922 acreage must be signed up before an organization can function or even exist. Already the former Exchange members in this county have signed up about 800 acres.

The county has been divided into a number of districts and a business man of this city together with a farmer has been assigned to each and will canvass every grower in that particular section. About twenty business men have volunteered to go out among the growers of the county to present the marketing plan and explain the contract which they will be asked to sign in order to take advantage of the co-operative system. It is expected that the entire county can be covered in one day and the fate of the organization determined.

S. G. Rubinow, organization manager of the Minnesota Potato exchange, who is at present conducting a co-operative marketing campaign in the Red River valley, was in Thief River Falls Tuesday and spoke to a group of committee men and representative farmers from the potato growing sections. Plans were then laid for the drive to complete the campaign here. He explained the contract and marketing system and prepared those present as to presenting the proposition to the growers. He told of the splendid success enjoyed in the drives in Becker, Polk, Kittson and Norman counties. Frank Kiene, one of the leading growers in the valley, signed up a total of 700 acres. Rubinow left the same day for Crookston and thence to Moorhead where he met an attorney of that city in a debate on the issue of co-operative marketing.

Where 250 acres are secured surrounding a marketing point, a warehouse will be erected, this being done by the state association thru the sale of bonds. The building is paid for by deducting ten cents per bushel for each bushel handled thru the warehouse for a period of five years which goes to pay off the principal and interest. The growers are not asked for any direct outlay. The state organization plans to have the marketing machinery in operation by March 1.

The contracts cover a period of five years during which the farmer pools his potatoes according to grade, variety and time. They are entered in the pool as soon as they are stored in the home bin or in the warehouse and receipts may be secured in advance of marketing. In places where it has been tried this has often amounted to more than the regular price received outside the pool, according to Mr. Rubinow.

The Commercial club committee consists of the following: F. J. Stebbins, chairman; Dr. O. F. Mellby, Math Barzen, L. R. Johnston, H. E. Nelson, F. L. Christenson and L. H. Larson.

Fine Road Southeast Of City Is Accepted And Ready For Gravel

What is probably one of the best accomplishments in road building in Pennington county, was completed last week when the county board of commissioners accepted the construction work and grading of the outlying six-mile stretch of state road No. 5, going southeast from this city and connecting with the Hazel-Oklee road. The board in session Wednesday also accepted the bridge and culvert constructed by The Prichard Company of this city. The road, which was built by H. P. Lund, local contractor, is of the very latest and best in the art of modern road building and will assure one of the finest thoroughfares in this section. It is a much needed improvement for the farmers in that section.

Bert F. Umland, local highway engineer under whose supervision the road building is being done, announces that the surfacing part of the work will be started as soon as possible. He is now prospecting for gravel and expects to have a crew at work within a short time.

Power Men Investigate Decreased Water Flow; Much Grass in Channel

Ole Legvold, superintendent of the city water and light department, Alderman Andrew Ness, Math Barzen, Leonard Peterson, of the Crookston power company, and Wm. Brown of the Northern States Power company, Grand Forks, composed a party making a trip to Red Lake to investigate the flow of water from the lake, the trip being made by car last Thursday. Trouble has been experienced by power plants operating along the Red Lake river owing to the low level of the water. Returning by boat on the river as far as Hilda, the party found the water flow being impeded by a heavy growth of reed and grasses in the river bed. They state that the lake is at its usual level and nothing can be done at this time to remove the foreign matter from the river channel.

Film Depiction of Huge Japanese Earthquake Is Booked For Fri. and Sat.

An authentic film presentation of the terrible Japanese earthquake, which horrified the world recently, produced by the Paramount Picture Corporation will be shown at the Princess theatre Friday and Saturday of this week. Manager Brumund is to be congratulated in securing this picture and showing at such an early date, for the first time in the Northwest.

The Paramount Picture Corporation maintains an office in Japan and the picture was taken by their personal representative. It was sent by a runner to Kobe, Japan, and delivered by sea plane to a fast Pacific mail boat. Thence it was taken by aeroplane from the boat at Vancouver to the Paramount studios in New York City, and comes to Thief River Falls direct from New York City, according to Manager Brumund. The Paramount was the first film company to show the picture now showing at the Realto theatre, New York. It is a spectacular production and should be of interest to everyone.

CLUB WORKERS WILL SELL MANY PIGS AT SALE HERE MONDAY

Poland Chinas Offered at Public Auction at Fair Grounds October 15.

A splendid opportunity for those who desire to secure first class hogs will be given next Monday, Oct. 15, when the annual 1923 Pig Club sale will be held at the fair grounds in Thief River Falls. The sale is being conducted by C. H. Fuller, prominent Mavie farmer, who will offer 35 of the best sow pigs from the Fuller and Mayhew herds, to be disposed of at public auction. Mr. Fuller, manager of the Pig club, also announces that among the offers are a couple of his best tried sows, a few six-weeks old sow pigs and some boars.

All the pigs are thoroughbreds of the large Poland China type and registry papers will be furnished on the day of the sale.

Preceding the sale there will be a pig show and judging at 10 a. m., the sale being scheduled to start at one o'clock sharp. It is expected that County Agent J. J. McCann will officiate at the judging while W. J. LaBree will act as auctioneer.

Mr. Fuller last spring distributed a large number of young pigs among girls and boys of the county who are members of the Pig club. The club worker receives one half of the price the pig brings at the annual fall sale for taking care of it during the summer, and the boy or girl who has the best animal in the lot at the show receives the total amount paid for the pig. A great deal of interest in this phase of the club activity is being shown by the youth of the county and is a splendid incentive to increased hog production in the community. It also tends to distribute among the farmers a better grade of animals from which greater returns can be derived.

It is in the best interest of every farmer in the community to attend the show and sale Monday as it will provide a means of getting better acquainted with the hog industry in this section. Plans for next year's contest and club work will also be considered on the day of the sale, and it is expected that many prospective club workers will be on hand to get first hand information as to how the contest is being carried on.

BIBLE CONFERENCE IN THIS CITY OCT. 16-21ST INCLUSIVE

Dr. Gaebelein, New York, and Sidney Smith, Winnipeg, Among Speakers.

Thief River Falls is to have another Bible Conference on lines similar to that held last fall. Peter MacFarlane of the Union Gospel Mission, St. Paul, who was in charge last year and will be in charge this year, also, announces that he has secured several excellent men to address the Conference sessions. It is to begin Tuesday evening, October 16, and to continue through Sunday evening, October 21. Dr. A. C. Gaebelein of New York City, experienced Bible teacher and lecturer, and editor of the devotional magazine "Our Hope," will be the principal speaker. He will speak each evening and afternoon except Sunday. On Sunday Sidney Smith, who was here last year will speak at the Sunday sessions. Mr. Smith is a prominent business man of Canada, president of the Smith Murphy company of Winnipeg. There will be a missionary speaker also. F. A. Steven, of the China Inland Mission, will speak of Christian work in the interior of China. Miss Nellie Nelson is coming to aid in the solo work, the singing being in charge of C. F. Philstorm of Warren. Peter MacFarlane will speak at some time during the Conference on the Rescue Mission work in which he has been engaged all his life.

Sessions are announced to be held in the Presbyterian church as was done last year unless the attendance is too large, in which case larger quarters will need to be secured. There will be two sessions each day at 3:00 and 7:45 p. m. The work is entirely interdenominational and is open to the support of all the people of Thief River Falls. It is believed the number of churches supporting the Conference this year will be even greater than last, because of the growing recognition of the great value of such emphasis on the study of the Bible at this time.

FAIR SOCIETY REPORT SHOWS $2000 BALANCE

Premiums Totalling $1685 Will Be Reimbursed To Organization By The State.

Property of Association Valued At Over $20,000 Owned By 200 Stockholders.

The Pennington County Agricultural Society will finish the year with a balance of nearly $2000, according to report made to the members of the association by Secretary J. J. McCann at a recent meeting. This includes an actual balance of $358.87 in the treasury at the present time and state aid in the amount of $1685, reimbursement for premiums, which has not been received yet. A complete report of the activities of the association is sent to the public state examiner and upon its acceptance the state refunds the total amount awarded in premimums at this year's fair, not to exceed $1700. Appropriations for this purpose are made by the state legislature each year.

The report that the total receipts for the past year were $8,811.91 while the disbursements totalled $8,453.04. The disbursements included the sum of $3626 for music and attractions and $1685 for premiums.

The income includes gate receipts, city and county appropriations and state aid.

The total attendance for the 1923 county fair is given as 15,000, which places the Pennington fair among the best attended in the state. In fact it exceeds practically all other counties in the northern section. Entries in the various contests numbered 2400 this year, according to the report.

The society owns lands in the valuation of $9,300 and buildings valued at $13,000. It has capital stock in the amount of $7,525, which is controlled by 200 members or stockholders. It was decided at a recent meeting of the association to have a committee consider the matter of selling more stock for the coming year.

It is also the intention of the Fair association to make the necessary improvement of the fence surrounding the grounds and also build or repair the grand stand.

With the efficient set of officials in charge of the society's affairs a successful year may safely be predicted for 1924. The organization is doing a great deal in promoting the agricultural interests of the community.

Brother of Local Banker Passes At Minneapolis Home. Formerly Argyle Resident.

Melgaard of this city, a prominent figure in Minnesota banking circles for nearly 40 years, and former republican national delegate, died shortly before midnight at his home, 2002 Pillsbury avenue, Minneapolis, after an illness of 13 months. Building for Tomorrow's Telephone Needs

MANY people become new telephone subscribers each month of the year.

Wherever practical, we aim to have the necessary wires in place, switchboards equipped, telephones on hand and other mechanism ready when service is requested.

In order to do this economically, our engineers must estimate several years in advance the number of telephone users there will be, where they will live and how much telephone equipment they will need.

Planning today for tomorrow's telephone needs, is one of the many things we are doing to furnish reliable service at the lowest possible cost to the public.

Your interests and ours are the same.

FIRE PREVENTION

Citizens of Thief River Falls and all other communities as well are urged to take special pains to observe Fire Prevention week, which opened Monday and terminates Saturday, October 13. This is the annual week held thruout the nation upon proclamations issued by President Coolidge and by Governor Preus in Minnesota. In the schools, in public buildings, in business houses and in the homes of our citizens the cleanup process should be in motion. Examine every nook and corner for a possible fire hazard. Attics should be cleaned out and all inflamable material removed. Furnace pipes and all equipment about the house or business place which is connected with the heating system should be inspected and its safety determined.

This city and community has not been subject to very heavy losses as a result of disastrous fires but some of them are, nevertheless, silent testimonies to carelessness and neglect. Considerable loss could have been prevented if precautions and care had been exercised.

The importance of Fire Prevention Week and the lessons its proper observance will convey can be realized when it is known that the fire loss in America last year exceeded 521 millions and that fatalities resulting were nearly 15,000 in number. The months period in the world's history fire loss was the greatest of any 12 and was supplemented by fatalities that fairly stagger. As in the case of fires in Minnesota, much of both are due to the great American habit of carelessness and thus those in charge of Fire Prevention Week hope to minimize. Fire losses cannot be entirely eliminated but can be considerably lessened by education.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ross, and son, Richard, Jr., and daughter, Betsy, leave today for Madison, Wis., where they will make their future home.

On their way they will be guests at the home of Mrs. Ross' father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. Rathjen of Luverne, this state, for a period of two weeks and will spend a week with Mr. Ross' mother, Mrs. J. C. Ross, at Minneapolis. From that point they will go to Madison, where Mr. Ross will be engaged in the printing business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross have been residents of this city the past nine years and have taken an active part in the civic and social life of the city.

When Mr. Ross came here nine years ago from Grand Rapids, Minn., he purchased the Times from Thos. H. Smith. In December, 1917, he took over the News-Press, then owned by Mitchel and Vandersluis, and in June, 1919 he bought the Sharp job printing and box making plant.

Under Mr. Ross' management The Times came to be recognized as one of Minnesota's best newspapers and gained the largest circulation of any weekly newspaper in the state. During their stay here, Mr. and Mrs. Ross have made a host of friends who extend their sincere wishes for success and happiness in their new home.

Members of The Times staff take this opportunity to bid them a sincere farewell. Many months and years have been spent in pleasant associations that will ever be a part of the memories that come back in moments of reflection and retrospect.

MAKE 'EM PAY.

An out of town woman, whose son was lodged in the county jail recently on a moonshine charge and who came here to pay the necessary fine to get him released, remarked that the local authorities are rather merciless in imposing penalties on offenders of the prohibition laws. Others have also come to that realization and are apparently quitting or limiting their operations. When the penalties become severe enough the producers and distributors of the illegal stuff will soon find it unprofitable business and the public will gradually become less interested in buying it.

"Attempts Suicide After Long Drunk," says a head line. One of our exchanges suggests that the chap who did that should let nature take its course and one of these days he'd kick off from heart failure and there wouldn't be all the muss that attends a suicide.

Pennington county may well be proud of its road system. One of the finest pieces of road anywhere in the state was partially completed last week when the grading of the angle road southeast from Thief River Falls was finished. It is a splendid indication of what can be done in road building under proper supervision, even under difficulties as were met with in this project, such as stretches of peat, heavy clay and other mixtures which make road construction difficult. In consideration of the heavy traffic which passes over the highways each day it is of the greatest importance to have them in the best of condition possible and that they are properly built in the first place. If the latter is not the case there will be much additional expense in the upkeep of a poorly constructed roadway. The hauling of hundreds of loads of sugar beets is at present taxing the stability of the roads leading into Thief River Falls.

Young men of Thief River Falls should take notice of the opening of the Y. M. C. A. quarters in this city next Monday evening and make it a point to be there. The movement for an organization of young men and a place at which to gather was successfully launched here last year and has met with much interest on the part of the parents as well as those who took part in the activities. A large number became members at the opening last fall and an increased membership is looked forward to this season.

It is of the most vital interest to parents to know where their young son spends his evening and where he seeks his diversions.

The Y. M. C. A. is meeting a much needed want in the life of the youth of the city and it is up to them to avail themselves of this splendid opportunity of getting together in quarters where there is athletic equipment and various other things of interest to young men.

The Holstein consignment sale of the finest purebred animals in the country held in this city last week, gave proof of the fact that Pennington county farmers want the best there is in the cattle world. Most of the animals disposed of at the public sale were bought by dairymen of this county. These men have learned that it pays to have good cows and as an herds with animals that are known to indication of this are increasing their be from the best strains in the country. It is also encouraging to know that so many splendid animals are retained in Pennington county and will continue to help in putting this community in the front ranks of dairy sections.

Nearly every county in Minnesota has concluded holding the most unqualifiedly successful fair in the whole state. Even Lake of the Woods county, the baby born last winter, stands up on its hind legs and proclaims through the local press that it has all competitors backed off the boards. Our own in everything are always a little the best, because we know them better, we study them closely and find the good qualities. Of course they magnify in our minds. That's the system that makes success. Minnesota is great and every county is a little better than every other county, in some respect.—Grand Rapids Herald-Review.

The Pig Club show and sale next week will reveal many features of hog raising in this community and should be attended by a large number of Pennington county farmers, as well as boys and girls interested in club work activities. Get the young boy interested in the growing of a few pigs each year and you are getting him acquainted with a most profitable line of farm production.

LET'S IMPROVE THE MAILBOX.

In every direction from Thief River Falls, good roads radiate and many very fine farm homes are seen. All of these highways are rural mail routes, but this fact certainly adds nothing to the appearance of the roads, the farms or the buildings on them. Out of several hundred mail boxes, not to exceed a dozen are anything but an eyesore.

Why a man paints buildings and fences, plants a grove, has a fine looking place and then puts out in front a contraption, fearfully and wonderfully made to support a mail box, that has not received a touch of paint in perhaps ten years, is beyond comprehension.

These so called supports for mail boxes projects more or less prominently into the highway and appear to be built of the refuse wood of the farm yard, the bark still adhering in many cases to the poplar sticks.

People on the outskirts of the city who receive rural service are as great offenders as the farmers. The cost of a decent looking support for the mail box, a little paint for each and the labor involved is so trifling that no one need be excused for the present unsightly looking fixtures.

Much Interest Is Shown In Big Potato Campaign Thruout Valley Section

Last week witnessed some of the best strides in the formation of the potato growers of Minnesota into one selling organization that have been accomplished yet, according to reports made to the campaign field office at Crookston.

Kittson county came into the limelight through meetings held at four points at which State Campaign Manager S. G. Rubinow spoke. Fifty per cent of the county's total that must be reached is 5,000 acres, and over 3,000 acres were signed up at the four meetings. Frank Kiene, one of the leading growers of valley territory, signed up a total of 700 acres.

Norman county launched its campaign with meetings at Ada, Twin Valley and Halstad on Saturday evening. Six other meetings are scheduled for this week and if the results of the first three meetings may be taken as indication, Norman county will go well above the required 50 per cent within the coming week or ten days.

Pennington county business men and growers met with S. G. Rubinow at Thief River Falls on Tuesday and laid plans for putting that county early in line. The county will be laid out into districts along the same plans as those followed by Polk and Norman counties, and business men and growers will work together to get the organization work completed.

Wilkin county growers have arranged for a meeting at Wolverton on Thursday evening and another at the Rothsay fair on Friday afternoon. Mr. Rubinow is to speak at both places and it is believed that an energetic campaign will be opened in that county the following week.

Polk county is making excellent progress in its organization work. Meetings were held at ten points in the east end of the county last week and a large number of growers were signed up in the potato marketing organization. The acreage of individual growers in the eastern end of the county is smaller than in the western portion so that more signers are needed to boost the acreage total to the extent that was accomplished in the western part. Good meetings were reported at all potato shipping points and at Rindal, an inland point, the plan was well taken in hand. East Grand Forks business men are continuing their drive with good results.

The debate in Clay county this week served to arouse interest in that county and gave good impetus to the signing up of Clay county growers.

J. M. Witherow, an attorney for potato dealers in Moorhead, took exception to remarks made by Aaron Sapiro and challenged Rubinow to defend the issue.

Will Reside in Bemidji.

Mr. and Mrs. Erling Dahl, who made their home in Thief River Falls for the past several years, departed last week for Bemidji where they will make their home, Mr. Dahl having accepted position with a tailoring firm there. Mr. Dahl was connected with the Kissnall Shop here until a few months ago when he disposed of his interest to N. Reiter. The many friends of the couple will regret their departure.

Grygla Farmer, 73, Passes.

Colben Olson, aged Grygla farmer, passed away at his farm home in Benwood township, Marshall county, Sunday, Sept. 30. He had been in poor health for some time, asthma and other complications finally causing his death at the ripe old age of 73 years. Funeral services were held Thursday of last week, Rev. Anderson officiating. Interment was made in the Valle cemetery.

Deceased was born in Sundahl, Norway and came to the United States in 1872, settling first in Norman county. In 1909 he homesteaded the farm on which he resided at the time of his death. He leaves to morn his death, his wife; four sons, Ole who lives in Sidney, Mont., Gideon, Carl and Swen, living at Grygla; and three daughters, Mrs. Martha Askeland and Mrs. Manda Hoaas of Gary, and Miss Sina Olson, who with her brother Swen live on the home farm.

Gully Teachers Visit Here.

Misses Lena and Clara Gullingsrud and Mabel Engen returned Monday morning to Gully where they are teaching after having spent the latter part of the week in attendance at the Northwestern Minnesota Educational convention at Crookston. Miss Clara Gullingsrud, who is principal of the Gully graded school, was chosen vice president of the organization, a recognition of her high standing as an active educator in this section.

A Correction.

The purchase price of the three animals bought by M. T. McFarland at the Holstein sale here last week should be $200, $105 and $175 instead of $200, $170 and $100 as stated in The Times last week.

"Olle i Skratthult" Plays To Full House Saturday;

"Olle i Skrathult" and his company presented one of the best performances Thief River Falls has had the priviledge of witnessing, Saturday evening at the city Auditorium when they gave the Swedish play "Lars Anders, Jan Anders and Their Children," a rural comedy drama in three acts, with Olle i Skrathult himself and Hans Hagman appearing in song and story telling between the acts.

The play, an interpretation of Swedish peasant life, given by a company marked for their ability in presenting life in a realistic manner that is not itself, was a hit from the raise to the fall of the curtain. The plot, an old feud between two families, originated and repeatedly kindled by the quarrels over the mixing of the two herds of cattle, caused by the absence of a fence between the lands of the two farmers, was one that might be applied directly to many communities in a general way.

A love affair between the son of one family and the daughter of the other added complications to the feud and continually brought the subject up when it would never have been mentioned. At times even the love of the young couple was dampened by the quarrels over the petty affairs of their parents.

However, after several fistic combats and a general jilting by the younger set, the "Old Foggies" came to an agreement to jointly erect a fence. This ended the controversy and the elder generation saw their folly. The play was cleverly brought out to end in a beautiful folk dance by Mrs. Hjalmer Peterson and Annar Myhre, who showed exceptional grace and ability in its execution.

The songs by Mrs. Peterson and Annar Myhre were well received, and these artists are becoming very well known for their talent thruout the country. Hans Hagman, baritone, also deserves much credit. Mr. Hagman's solos were received with much enthusiasm both at his appearance last spring and this time. Harry Swanson, piano accompanist, is a man of no mean talent. Strength and quality of tone, precision, accuracy and a fine rence of interpretation are the outstanding features of his work.

"Olle i Skrathult" drew a full house and judging by the enthusiasm with which the company was received, the next performance will be a repitition of the large attendance.

Money Won't Buy Loyalty

Loyalty, vigilance, alertness and service are four elements which every business man would like to believe are inherent in all of his employes.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has abundant evidence to show that such qualities are common to all but a negligible portion of its employes.

This evidence comes in the form of unsolicited letters. As an example we quote one received from Mr. Wm. E. Small, of Fargo, North Dakota, written under date of September 11, in which he says:

> "I wish to acknowledge the courtesy of your station attendant, Mr. Grassell, of Grafton. I am used to receiving the best treatment at the hands of your Fargo Service Station men but this young man has the idea of service and accommodation raised to the nth power.
> "The soil around Grafton is about the slimiest, greasiest, blackest, and most all-'round detestable stuff in the world to get smeared up with but, notwithstanding this and notwithstanding the fact that I was a total stranger to him and not one of his regular customers, when I drove into your station at Grafton after an unusually heavy down-pour of rain last week your agent at that point insisted that I remain in my car while he attached the chains over wheels and under fenders literally plastered with Grafton gumbo. When informed that I intended driving through to Grand Forks he not only put on the chains but wired them on and made an expert job of it. When he had finished he was covered from head to foot with mud and slime but refused absolutely to accept a cent for the service rendered.
> "I know of no other way to square accounts than to report the matter to headquarters. As I drove down to Grand Forks through a sea of mud but clean and comfortable I swore eternal gratitude to my friends, the Standard Oil Company, for all time to come. You are giving us real service up here in the Red River Valley and I, for one, appreciate it."

It was loyalty to the Company's ideals of service that caused this service station attendant to go far out of his way to render Mr. Small an extraordinary degree of service in an extraordinary situation—and he made another friend for the Company.

Such loyalty cannot be bought—it must be earned.

Skillful management is one thing—shrewd buying is another—scientific manufacturing processes constitute still another—but the loyalty—the spirit—the morale—of the 27,000 employes is what has made the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) great—in size—in achievements—and in service—to the thirty million people of the Middle West.

Through this column, the staff would like to show its appreciation for the help given to the Progress by some of the members of the senior class. Because there will be no Typewriting II class this year until the second semester, it is very difficult to get the Progress material typewritten, but due to May Roberts, Margaret Williams, and Harriet Morgan this work has been well cared for. These girls give up several of their study periods every week for the purpose of typewriting for the Progress and we feel that they deserve praise. Without their help it would be almost impossible to get our material in on time and we appreciate this fact. These girls seem to realize that the Progress belongs to the entire school and are doing their best to coöperate for its good. We wish that there were more of this kind in Lincoln High.

New Staff Member

Last spring when the Progress staff was chosen, Henry Waale was made Assignment Editor, but due to the fact that he has not returned to Lincoln High this year it was found necessary to select a new member for this position. Hilda Peterson, a member of the Senior class, was chosen and we are certain that she will be a most helpful and valuable assistant to the present staff and will fill this office exceedingly well.

Local Faculty Member Speaks at Convention

We have heard that Thief River Falls was ably represented by Mr. Pope at the Industrial Arts Round Table at the Northwest District Teacher's Convention held in Crookston last week. His speech, it was said, was very well delivered and was well received by the audience. We wish to compliment him.

Several members of the high school faculty took part in the program at the Northwest District Teacher's Convention. An account of the convention meetings will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Freshman Meeting.

Monday afternoon after school the Freshmen class held a meeting to decide on their class motto, colors, flower, and dues. The results of the meeting were: Class Motto—No Victory Without Labor; Class Colors—Rose and Silver; Class Flower—Carnation; Class Dues—Ten cents a month.

COOLIDGE ISSUES PROCLAMATION FOR EDUCATIONAL WEEK

Week Beginning November 18 is Proclaimed National Education Week by President.

President Calvin Coolidge has proclaimed the week beginning November 18 as National Education Week. The purpose of this is to bring before the people the need for "more liberally supporting and more effectively improving the educational facilities of our country." He calls upon the State and local authorities to cooperate with the civic and religious bodies in the proper observance of the day.

Plans are being formulated for the observance of National Education Week with appropriate exercises in the local schools. More detailed information will be given concerning these arrangements at a later date.

The proclamation of President Coolidge follows:

"From the earliest beginnings, America has been devoted to the cause of education. This country was founded on the ideal of ministering to the individual. It was realized that this must be done by the institutions of religion and government. In order that there might be a properly educated clergy and well trained civil magistrates, one of the first thoughts of the early settlers was to provide for a college of liberal culture, while for the general diffusion of knowledge, primary schools were established. This course was taken as the necessary requirement of enlightened society.

Such a policy, once adopted, has continued to grow in extent. With the adoption of the Federal Constitution and the establishment of free governments in the States of the Union, there was additional reason for broadening the opportunity for education. Our country adopted the principle of self-government by a free people. Those who were worthy of being free, were worthy of being educated. Those who had the duty and responsibility of government must necessarily have the education with which to discharge the obligations of citizenship. The sovereign had to be educated. The sovereign had become the people. Schools and universities were provided by the various governments, and founded and fostered by private charity, until their buildings dotted all the land.

The willingness of the people to bear the burdens of maintaining these institutions, and the patriotic devotion of an army of teachers, who, in many cases, might have earned larger incomes in other pursuits, have made it possible to accomplish results with which we may well be gratified. But the task is not finished, it has only been begun.

We have observed the evidences of a broadening vision of the whole educational system. This has included a recognition that education must not end with the period of school attendance, but must be given every encouragement thereafter. To this end the night schools of the cities, the moonlight schools of the southern Appalachian countries, the extension work of the colleges and universities, the provision for teaching technical, agricultural and mechanical arts, have marked out the path to a broader and more widely diffused national culture. To insure the permanance and continuing improvement of such a educational policy, there must be the fullest public realization of its absolute necessity. Every American citizen is entitled to a liberal education. Without this, there is no guarantee for the permanence of free institutions, no hope of perpetuating self-government. Despotism finds its chief support in ignorance. Knowledge and freedom go hand in hand.

In order that the people of the nation may think on these things, it is desirable that there should be an annual observance of Educational Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim the week beginning on the eighteenth of November, next, as National Education Week, and urge its observance throughout the country. I recommend that the State and local authorities cooperate with the civic and religious bodies to secure its most general and helpful observance, for the purpose of more liberally supporting and more effectively improving the educational facilities of our country.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

DONE, in the City of Washington, this twenty-sixth day of September, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-three, and of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Forty-eighth.

(SEAL) (Signed) Calvin Coolidge.
BY the President:
(Signed) Charles E. Hughes
Secretary of State.

Library Work

Miss Minnie Leavitt is using one of the rooms in the basement for a work room for the library. She finds it is more pleasant not to have to move from one place to another with her mending materials. If you do not realize how a book can be transformed, observe the book Miss Leavitt is exhibiting in the library and then note its appearance when it returns from her workroom.

At Crookston last week Miss Leavitt demonstrated book repairing. There were a number of schools who sent their librarians to learn how it was done. The young women were so interested that they were more anxious to do that work than attend the regular meetings of the Convention.

Norman Dybvik, a former Lincoln High student, is attending the University of North Dakota.

Myrtle Helgeland, Normal training student, attended the Teachers Convention held at Crookston, Thursday and Friday.

SENIORS SELECT '24 PROWLER STAFF

Staff Submitted By Nomination Committee Voted Upon Last Wednesday By Class.

For the past two weeks the Nomination Committee, composed of Principal Bye, Miss Thompson, Melvin Engelstad, Elsie Blair and Hazel Krause has been busy selecting candidates for the Prowler Staff, and after a good deal of re-arrangement, a competent staff was nominated.

The election by the class was held last Wednesday evening, and the nominated staff was voted upon. The following members were elected:
Editor-in-chief, Melvin Englestad.
First Associate Editor, Margaret Melgard.
Second Associate Editor, Elsie Blair.
First Associate Ed., Elsie Blair.
Business Manager, Clifford Storholm.
Associate Business Manager, Agnes Johnson.
Literary Dept. Hazel Krause.
Lit. Assistant, Mildred Griffin.
Athletic Dept. Orrin Storholm
Athletic Asst., Math Barzen.
Art. Dept. Evaline Thompson
Art. Asst., John Sether.
Kodak Dept., Olga Lokken.
Kodak Asst., Myrtle Oen.
Feature Dept. Harriet Morgan.
Feature Asst., Joseph Lundin.
Organizations, Gladys Kolden.
Organization Asst., Thordys Svensgaard.
Social Department, Hilda Peterson.
Alumni—Myrtle Helgeland.

It is not known yet how soon the systematic work will begin, but each member is already busy collecting and writing material for his or her section. It is almost certain that with such a staff, the "Prowler" for this year will be fully as good, if not better, than those of previous years. With such a precedent as has been set in the last few years, this staff will have to do an unusual amount of good work, but there is no doubt that the present set of members is equal to the task.

Northrop

The sixth grade organized a literary society and elected the following officers:
President, Wendell Sether.
Vice-Pres., Harriet Hellquist.
Secretary, Gladys Bowers.
Treasurer, Jerome Hilliard.

The first meeting will be held Oct. 12, in the form of a Columbus program.

John and Arthur Battenfield are absent from school on account of sickness at home.

Helen and Louise Hagen left school last week. They have moved to Henning, Minnesota.

Football Men Suffer Many Mishaps on Trip

Coach Thune, accompanied by Mr. Mickleson, Math Barzen, Tien Gullingsrud, Michael Parenteau, Arthur Penney, and Richard Zeh, motored to Fargo in Barzen's car last Friday night after the Grand Forks football game. They intended to go to Detroit Saturday morning to see the game between Detroit and Bemidji, and to get a line on Bemidji's team, but alas! A spring broke in the car and forced them to remain in Moorhead all day Saturday. This was not such a great disappointment as it might have been because they saw two games there. One was between the Fargo high school and Wahpeton and the other between Superior Normal and the North Dakota A. C.

Sunday morning they set out on the homeward journey, but once more Fate delayed them. One of the bearings in the car burned out, and they were compelled to stop in the metropolis of Georgetown, not far from Fargo. The boys being resourceful as usual, took their football and scrimmaged on Maine Street and amused the inhabitants, both of them.

They hailed several cars as they went through the town, and in this way "Dutch" Zeh caught a ride to Grand Forks, from where he took the bus to Crookston. Mr. Mickleson hailed some friends who took him to Mahnomen and from there he took the Minneapois flier and got home on Monday morning. The remaining ones rode in a bus from Georgetown to Crookston and from Crookston home. Their troubles were not yet over, though, for just outside of Red Lake Falls the bus broke down and had to be towed in.

Thus outside of a few minor troubles, the trip was altogether a very enjoyable one.

DOPE ON GAMES.

Warren 17 ____ Crookston 0.

Warren has a fast team which is evident by the defeat given Crookston on the losers field last Friday. Marked improvement has been accomplished by the Crookston eleven since their first games, however, which was clearly shown by the stiff opposition given the Warren team.

East Grand Forks 28 ____ Stephen 0.

The strong East Grand Forks eleven made a decisive victory over the Stephen team on the East Grand Forks field by a score of 28 to 0.

Bemidji 86 ____ Detroit 0.

Bemidji defeated the Detroit team overwhelmingly on the latter's field, Saturday. The Bemidji eleven had little difficulty in making their victory which is shown by the fact that they made four touchdowns in the first five minutes.

School Party.

The Social Activities Committee held their first meeting Thursday afternoon and started preparations for a school party to be given at 8 o'clock, Saturday, the 13th, at the Sons of Norway Hall. Every student of Lincoln high and the teachers from all the Thief River Falls school are invited.

LINCOLN ELEVEN TO PLAY BEMIDJI SAT.

Coach Thune's Men to Play Big Game of Season at Bemidji This Coming Saturday.

Next Saturday at Bemidji Coach Thune's men will play the big game of the season as Bemidji is always the team that Thief River most desires to beat. Having been defeated twice this year, the boys are out for blood and are determined to beat the strong Bemidji aggregation. The boys have not been very successful so far this year and as this is a chance to redeem themselves they are going to do it.

Bemidji has a very strong team and has been practising since the first of August so that the Lincoln eleven will have to put in some hard work before the game as well as during it.

Principal's Heroic Deed Thrills Entire School

On Monday morning Lincoln High was thrilled upon hearing of the heroic deed performed by our worthy principal, Mr. Morris Bye.

It happened, thus: It came to pass that during the first period when the Seniors were studiously at work that a Senior girl took a piece of paper to the waste basket and dropped it gently in. Now, it also happened that a tiny mouse had started to make its home in said waste basket. The paper that the Senior gently dropped in the waste basket fell none to gently on Mr. Mouse. He was not the man to stand this so he leaped into the air. The Senior gave a muffled shriek and retired to her seat to recover from the shock.

Her friend, seeing her predicament immediately rushed up to our esteemed principal and told him of the terrible affair.

Mr. Bye, like the knights of old, did not hesitate in the face of danger. He hurried to the back of the assembly, seized a window stick, and rushed to the waste basket.

Crash! went the window stick.

"Eek!" squeeked the mouse as it departed from this life.

Suffice to say, our principal did not this time agree with Napoleon when he said, "To the Victor belongs the spoils!"

The Normal training girls visited some of the rural schools in their community during the week end.

Misses Keye and Finnigen returned from Crookston by the way of the bus line after attending the M. E. A. meeting at that place on Thursday and Friday.

Customer: "Say waiter, what kind of soup is this? It tastes like soap. I ordered pea soup."
Waiter: My mistake. That's tomato soup. Pea soup tastes like gasoline.

Activities Committee Is Chosen For Coming Year

The Social Activities Committee for this year has been chosen and will probably start making preparations for the coming social events very soon. This committee sets the dates for all school parties and has charge of all arrangements for them. They will probably arrange for a school party within the next two weeks and then parties at regular intervals throughout the remainder of the year. Those chosen to act on the committee were: Principal Bye, Maude L. Johnson, Jim Herleckson, Olga Lokken, Thomas Melgaard, Grace Mostue, Bertha Gullingsrud, and Myrtle Helgeland.

Juniors Make Plans To Give Annual Class Play

The Juniors held a meeting after school Tuesday to decide several class matters. It was decided that they would give a play sometime before Christmas and a committee was selected to choose the play. This committee is composed of: Miss Keyes, Ariel Kinghorn, Lucille Roark, and Elizabeth Keating. The Juniors plan to give a candy sale sometime in the near future for the purpose of making more money for the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Normal Notes

The Normal girls and Miss Stapleton were hostesses at a party given Oct. 2 at the Normal Training rooms in honor of the rural teachers who attended the institute. Miss Amundson and Miss Olds, instructors of the Institute, Messrs. O. R. Sande, I. T. Simley, Morris Bye, F. Holzknecht, O. Sortland, and the grade teachers at the Washington building were guests. Victrola music accompanied the serving of refreshments.

The rooms were artistically decorated, and a vase of flowers was the centerpiece of each table.

Wind—Air when it gets in a hurry.
Dust—Mud with all the juice squeezed out.

GRAND FORKS TEAM WINS OVER LOCALS BY SCORE OF 57-0

Second Defeat of Season Given H. S. Eleven at Grand Forks Last Friday.

The Thief River Falls pig skin artists invaded North Dakota last Friday when they met the Grand Forks eleven, and incidentally their Waterloo. The locals were unfortunate in having the second goose egg of the season handed them, the score at the time the final whistle blew being 57 to 0 in Grand Forks favor. A number of boosters accompanied Coach Thune's proteges on their trip, which was made by auto.

Following is an account of the fracas given in the Grand Forks Herald Saturday:

It took Grand Forks nearly all of the first period to get going and did not scored until the opening of the second quarter. During that time the Minnesotans showed their only real opposition. It crumbled, however, and from then on the locals scored every time they got hold of the ball. Thune has a husky team that had plenty of fight, but it is green, and overwhelmed with the slashing attack of Cortright's backs, weakened rapidly in the closing moments of the game. The visitors did not have an outstanding player on the team, and aside from the forward passes completed most of the plays were broken up by the Grand Forks forwards before they reached the line of scrimage.

Both teams fumbled repeatedly throughout the game, but luck seemed to be against the visitors in this respect as several of their fumbles were costly.

Practically all of the yardage made by the Thief River Falls team was by passes.

Thief River Falls held the locals in the first quarter and took the ball when the locals had but a yard to go to make their downs. The visitors were forced to punt immediately, however, and were then penalized 15 yards for rough playing. This put the ball on the visitors' 25 yard line, but McCracken fumbled and Thief River recovered. Parenteau went 20 yards around Fadness, but the locals stiffened and took the ball. Getting together for the first time the locals took the ball straight back to the goal line and McNeil went over. The timekeeper ruled that time was up before the last play started and the touchdown was not allowed. The first half of the game ended 19 to 0.

Three minutes after the opening of the third period the locals counted again. Thief River Falls fumbled on their 40 yard line and Central started a steady march to the goal. Following a 20 yard sprint by Lazier, Watson crashed over and McNeil scored the extra point. The visitors received the kick and made their downs for the second time by the aid of a pass; they were forced to kick, however, and Grand Forks started for another counter. It was accomplished when McNeil broke through the line and went 23 yards. The attempt to score the extra point was a failure.

The third period ended with the score 82 to 0.

LEGIONAIRES GET CORDIAL RECEPTION BY CANADIAN VETS

Americans Are Royally Entertained On Tour Across Border Saturday-Sunday.

The auto tour to Winnipeg last Saturday and Sunday by members of the American Legion posts along the line was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone, according to local Legionaires who took part in the event. They are all unanimous in expressing their utmost satisfaction and pleasure as to the reception accorded them "across the border."

Members of the Pennington county post left Thief River Falls at 6 o'clock in the morning and were joined by other buddies from Warren, Middle River, Greenbush, Argyle, Stephen and Crookston, making a total number of about twenty cars carrying more than fifty persons participating in the tour. One of the cars, a Chevrolet driven by W. A. Hall, was put out of commission in an unavoidable collision near Hallock. It was taken to Hallock for repairs and put into use on the return. No one was injured in the accident as neither of the cars turned over.

The boys arrived in Winnipeg at 3:30 in the afternoon and were met with the most cordial spirit at the Marlborough hotel, which was made their headquarters. It is one of the city's finest hotels and was opened only a short time ago under the management of Colonel R. N. Webb, an ex-service man. Every person employed there is also a veteran of the World War. The Legionaires were shown about the city by members of the Great War Veterans association of Canada, who did everything in their power to make their brothers from across the border feel at home.

Saturday evening the American visitors were guests at a splendid banquet to which they were bid welcome by Manager Webb and President Ruther of the Canadian Veterans' association. Several of the wounded Canadian soldiers also gave brief talks as did members of the tour. Among the speakers was also the American consul to Winnepeg. The return trip was made Sunday after a tour of sightseeing around the city.

While on their way back parties from this city found a car turned over on the side of the road near Hallock and assisted in releasing a number of occupants who were pinned under the machine. The occupants were Mr. and Mrs. Hagen and daughters Olga and Mae of Northcote, Mr. Hagen and Miss Olga, who occupied the front seat, being quite seriously injured. They were immediately rushed to Hallock for medical assistance.

The trip is one that will long be remembered by those who participated and it is expected that a return tour will be made by the Canadian veterans.

August Carlson Family In Auto Spill When On Way to Bemidji Sunday

Mrs. August Carlson of this city was quite seriously hurt last Sunday when the car, occupied by her husband and three children, tipped over on the side of the road east of Bagley, while on the way to Bemidji.

Mr. Carlson and family of wife and three children, left Thief River Falls early Sunday morning with the intention of visiting with the D. Knutson family, formerly of this city. At about nine o'clock, while driving along some distance east of Bagley on a rather narrow road, a big automobile approached at a high rate of speed, forcing Carlson to turn his Ford to the right of the road in order to avoid a collision, to such an extent that it tiped over on its side. Mrs. Carlson, who occupied the front seat with her husband, was in some manner thrown partly out of the car with the result that her legs were pinned under part of the machine. She was rendered unconscious for a short period. The other occupants of the car were not injured, although the California top was entirely smashed and other parts of the car's frame broken. The girls at once hurried to a nearby farm for assistance but it was about one half hour before help could be secured so as to get the car into shape again and take the injured lady to a hospital in Bemidji, where she was given medical attention, altho it was found that her injuries were not serious. She remained at the hospital for a while and is at present staying at the Knutson home, while Mr. Carlson and the children returned Sunday night in a new Ford sedan purchased in Bemidji. The other machine is in a badly wrecked condition and requires considerable repair.

The car which forced Carlson to turn out of the narrow road with such disastrous results, drove right on without any notice of what happened to the occupants of the Ford which was going at a moderate speed, according to Carlson.

He stated that he estimated that the big car was aproaching at a speed of about 40 miles an hour. The accident occurred only a short distance from the place where a Miss Miller was killed in an auto spill recently, that also being caused by a speeding car passing another.

Mosbeck Gets First Wolf This Year With Shot Gun

Victor Mosbeck, Soo Lie employee of this city has the distinction of having killed the first wolf in Pennington county this year, since the first of January, and also of being the first of receiving the first bounty since the amount given for wolves was raised from $7.50 to $15, the rate now offered.

Mr. Mosbeck was driving west of St. Hilaire Sunday when he noticed a wolf near the road in the weeds and short brush. He stopped the car and got out with a 12 gauge shotgun in his hands. The wolf was about to "hit the high spots" when he fired. However he was so close that the shot took effect and the booty was his.

New Sales Agency For Coarse Grains Is Announced by Associated

The American Wheat Growers Associated, sales agency for nine state wheat growers' associations, has announced a new department in marketing grain which should be of interest to farmers of the Northwest. Through the purchase of the U. S. Grain Growers sales agency by the state associations, this organization hereafter will market, on a commission basis, coarse grains which are shipped to it at Minneapolis.

The coarse grain consignment business of the American Wheat Growers Associated will be conducted at regular commission rates, according to officers of the cooperative marketing concern, and as the organization is non-profit in operation, the producers will receive all financial benefits from the work.

"The cooperative marketing movement is extremely pleased to be able to offer this new service to northwestern farmers," said Wm. J. Brown, president of the American Wheat Growers Associated, in discussing the merger of the U. S. Grain Growers with state associations. "In the past many members of the wheat growers' associations have asked us to handle their coarse grains trough our sales agency, but heretofore we have been unable to give them this service. Now we are not only only in a position to sell the coarse grains of our members to the very best advantage but can perform the same service for unorganized farmers who wish to make use of our sales machinery.

"All coarse grains should be billed to the American Wheat Growers Associated, 400 Corn Exchange, Minneapolis, Minnesota, where every car will be sold for the best available price, entirely upon its own merits."

Ships Spuds to California.

Frank Dann of St. Hilaire loaded out in the neighborhood of 1000 bushels of extra fancy white, flat Burbank potatoes early last week, according to the St. Hilaire Spectator.

Mr. Dann received 80 cents a hundred for his stock which is considerable above average spud price at this time. His potatoes were sold for shipment to California where they will be used for seed, and where they pay a premium for that particular kind and class of stock.

SIGHT ENDANGERED WHEN CAR CRASHES INTO EMPTY RACK

Rosewood Resident Suffers From Flying Bits of Glass When Windshield Breaks.

Mrs. James Thompson, wife of James Thompson of Rosewood, grain buyer for the Hanson and Barzen Milling company, narrowly escaped the loss of her sight Saturday night when the car in which Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were driving crashed into a hayrack, smashing the wind shield and throwing many of the fine particles of glass into her eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were on their way to Gully to spend the week end at the home of relatives. They were a mile west of Terrebonne, about nine o'clock, when they approached a wagon and empty hayrack being hauled in the same direction. However just ahead was a second wagon and hayrack, driven by a young boy, said to be Albert Perault, aged 16. The first team turned to the right side of the road to allow Mr. Thompson to pass, but the young lad who drove the second team in the lead, became confused and did not turn aside. Mr. Thompson did not see the second wagon until after he was along side the first. Seeing that the boy did not intend to give room, and to avoid a collision if possible, he swung sharply to the right. The two wagons were so close together that before the car could reach the opposite side of the road it struck the lead wagon. In striking the wagon the car was almost clear of the wheel and crashed under the edge of the rack. This smashed the wind shield and before Mrs. Thompson could cover her face the fine particles had pierced her face and many entered her eyes.

The rack was thrown completely off from the wagon and into the ditch and the boy alighted on the other side of the ditch, across a fence, shaken up but not hurt. The car remained in a upright position on the road. Mr. Thompson saw that a crash was coming in time to close his eyes and somewhat shield them with the visor of his cap.

Mrs. Thompson was taken to Terrebone as soon as possible and Dr. Bowers of this city was called. He removed the glass from her eyes and several pieces that had penetrated her face. Altho the shock and the pain was great she is rapidly recovering. She is now at her home at Rosewood.

The car was badly damaged, the front bent out of shape, and the side crushed in. One wheel was torn off and the fenders and a running board will have to be replaced in addition to the radiator, which was also smashed.

The cause of the accident is given as the failure of the boy to take the right side of the road. The two wagons were so close together that it was very difficult to find a way between and Mr. Thompson was unable to see the wagon in the lead as he approached from behind, until he was by the side of the first wagon, or the wagon in the rear. The two teamsters were going home, after a days threshing at a neighbors, with the empty racks.

Three Deer Seen Near City By Carrier O. Ose While On Route Monday

Three deer, a doe and two grown fawns, were seen by Ole T. Ose, carrier on rural route No. 2, while making his regular trip last Monday. The stray animals were discovered along the road four or five miles north of Thief River Falls but made hasty retreat upon the approach of the "mail man."

Deer are very seldom seen in this community these days and the report of having seen specimens of the tribe usually calls forth skeptical remarks from the hearers. However, this time The Times ventures to vouch for the authenticity of the report.

Pennington Farmer Grows Considerable Walnut Crop

A. G. Loftness, who has a beautiful farm four miles north of Thief River Falls, last week sent to the state forester a batch of about fifty walnuts which were raised in his grove surrounding the house. As this land was first settled upon 19 years ago, it is evident that Mr. Loftness lost no time in getting the walnuts started or that it is, contrary to the general opinion, a fast grower. The trees have been raised from small seedlings and it is interesting to note the yield being produced.

The specimens were sent to the state department in the interest of determining how far north the walnut can be grown successfully and should prove of more than passing interest to anyone wishing to raise at least sufficient for his home consumption.

ELKS ANNOUNCE NEW HOME TO BE BUILT EARLY NEXT SPRING

B. P. O. E. Lodge No. 1308 Are Laying Plans For New Building at East End of 3rd St..

The B. P. O. E. lodge no 1308 held one of the biggest meetings of the season last Friday when they staged an initiation at which many out of town Elks were present. After the initiation ceremonies, a social time was enjoyed.

An important development of the Elks program was disclosed this week when it was learned that at the business meeting of the session last Friday members voted in favor of going ahead with the erection of the new Elks lodge building. F. H. Herrick, chairman of the building committee, stated that work will possibly go forward in the spring on the site at the east end of Third street, near the river. Plans are now being drawn up for early spring work.

The Elks have proven themselves to be a big asset to the civic and social life of this city on many occasions and are to be credited with haying a live wire bunch that is progressive in every sense of the word.

Many Matters Taken Up By Council Tuesday

The street commissioner filed his report on cleaning snow from sidewalks last winter, cutting weeds and hauling garbage this summer from certain lots in the city and the council ordered the cost thereof assessed against the property benefitted thereby, the clerk to spread the assessment with the county auditor for collection next year. Similar action was taken to cover the cost ofpaving the post office alley recently.

A building permit was granted to S. Sether for the erection of a dwelling to cost about $4,000 and to be erected on lots 23 and 24 in block 23 of the original plat. Albert Berg was also granted a building permit for the erection of a garage on his premises, lot 3 block 10, Oakland addition. The cost thereof is placed at $100. A transfer of refreshment license from L. P. Christianson to L. Cerny was also authorized by the council, following which the customary batch of monthly bills were allowed and adjournment taken for two weeks.

Bemidji Mayor Opens War Against Gambling in City

Acting under the assumption that a card game where there is a consideration is gambling no matter whose place of business it may be played in, Mayor Morris Kaplan has given the members of the police force strict orders to arrest all persons who indulge in that kind of pastime and William McDermid who operates a pool room on Third street, was the first victim of the new order.

Mr. McDermid was arraigned in municipal court last week on a charge of permitting gambling on his premises and was fined $15. The arrest was made Wednesday evening by Patrolman Harry Palmer, who discovered a rummy game in McDermid's where a consideration of 20 cents in chips was involved.

The new order to the police is the mayor's answer to "purity" members of the city council who when the mayor made a statement at Monday night's council meeting that cards were being played for consideration in practically all the card rooms in the city asked the mayor why he did not prosecute. The mayor accused members of the council with playing favorites in the granting of licenses and contended that gambling on a small scale was being done in practically every place in the city.

The police force now has orders to make the arrests in any places where cards are being played for a consideration and the mayor will probably have an interesting report to make to the council at the next meeting.

Reshaping and Gravelling Of Sixth Street Highway Now Progressing Rapidly

Sixth street is now undergoing a much needed improvement, having been reshaped and is now being surfaced with gravel, which will be completed within a short time. It is a part of the state trunk highway system and is being put in first class condition so as to complete the splendid thoroughfare passing thru this city. The road adjacent to the fair grounds and the stretch three miles due west is also being reshaped prior to graveling. Users of this road have been almost unable to get thru at times owing to its deplorable condition and the completed improvement will be a great aid, especially to farmers in that section.

Attend Convention.

Mrs. W.H. Froehlich, state delegate and Mrs. Daniel Shaw, delegate from this district, to the annual convention of the Federation of Woman' clubs, which is being held at Hibbing this week, left Tuesday morning for that city. They are expected to return the first of next week.

EX-SERVICE MEN TO MEET TO CONSIDER INSURANCE PROBES

Veteran's Bureau Men Will Be In City Oct. 16 to Discuss Government Insurance.

The mangled and crushed body of a World War veteran was found on the Omaha railroad tracks in St. Paul the other day. Those in the vicinity of where the body was found stated that it was fully two hours prior to such finding that the last train passed. The body was so badly crushed that it was almost unrecognizable. Evidently the entire train passed over it. It is a mystery how the man happened to be struck at that particular spot on the evening in question, and it is seriously doubted whether the railroad company will be responsible under the circumstances of this case.

Identification of the man brought to life a poor, old father, badly crippled with rheumatism, and almost totally unable to earn a livelihood for his wife and self. The old mother, being too old to work, even though her health would permit, will not be able to assist him. Both are wondering what will happen to them when their very limited funds are exhausted. The son had dropped his government insurance when he was discharged from the army, and neglected to take out any insurance since. About a month prior to his untimely death, he contemplated reinstating this insurance and secured the necessary information, but for some unknown reason neglected to do so.

This, says Oscar C. Paulson, service officer of the American Legion Post 117, is a true demonstration of the old motto, "Time waits for no man." He sincerely hopes that no ex-service member, either from the Army or Navy, in this community will permit such an occurrence to happen, thereby increasing the burden of the American Legion or other organizations interested in ex-service men, of caring for their dependents. He says, it is unquestionably true, that if we all put our shoulder to the wheel and carry the proper protection while we can, it will be very much easier for those who are sincerely interested in the welfare of the community to shoulder the burden of caring for the indigent.

In this connection he calls attention to the wonderful proposition the U. S. Government offers to its ex-service men and women, in the form of insurance protection at a materially reduced premium rate. This insurance is offered in the usual standard policies with the usual guaranteed values, but with this difference. The guaranteed values almost without exception, are greater than those offered by any insurance company. Also the total permanent protection that goes with the policy without extra charge, is a real protection against total permanent disability, in that there is no age limit as to when that condition must occur to entitle the insured to receive those benefits. One becoming totally and permanently disabled any time during his or her life, will commence drawing those disability benefits provided the policy has been kept in good standing. He wishes it to be known that no argument is necessary to sell government insurance. All that is necessary is a proper understanding and he believes that each and every ex-service member owes to the community as well as to his dependents and self the benefits of that understanding. Mr. Paulson is always prepared and willing to assist any ex-service member to reinstate and convert or convert his or her war-time insurance.

Commander Paulson announces that a meeting has been called for the evening of Oct. 16th at 8 o'clock at the regular club rooms which will be open to all ex-service members in this community. Fred Zeller, district supervisor of the Veteran's Bureau and other representatives of the bureau will be at the meeting to give information and advise regarding insurance question. The meeting is called for the purpose of securing insurance information from persons well versed not only in government insurance, but in all other forms of insurance. The Bureau man will be prepared to take up any individual problem which might be presented. He will be assisted by the local American Legion service officer and the members of th Thief River Clinic, who will conduct examinations free of charge. Mr. Paulson admonishes "Buddies, the longer you wait; the higher the rate and the sooner you secure your policy, the quicker your annual dividends will commence.

Polk Rum-Runners Face Lengthy Jail Sentence

The moonshiners and booze-runners are getting their fill in this section these days. The following account from Saturday's issue of the Crookston Times relates recent activities of the Polk County authorities:

"A long jail sentence lies ahead of Cecil Casey, of Crookston, who is now serving a 90-day sentence in the Polk County jail on the charge of transporting liquor. Following the completion of that sentence he must serve a six months' suspended sentence imposed by Judge Watts on a previous liquor charge. In addition he must go before the district court in January to plead to another liquor charge.

Casey and Clifford Hanson, of Fosston, were arrested by the county and city authorities Thursday on a charge of transporting liquor after two gallons of alcohol were found in a car driven by them and owned by Dr. Trumbull, of Fosston. The car and liquor were seized and the two men were taken before Judge Hendricks for breaking a city ordinance. Both pleaded guilty and Casey was given the 90-day jail sentence, while Hanson was fined $50. Later a charge of breaking the state law was placed against them and both were bound over to the next grand jury.

John Pink of Godfrey township also appeared before Judge Hendricks Friday and was bound over to the grand jury, accused of making and keeping intoxicating liquor. A raid on his farm disclosed two quarts of moonshine and a large quantity of mash. No still was found.

B. H. Dickey To Become Manager of New Store In Lieberman Building

B. H. Dickey, for the past year and a half manager of the ladies department of the J. C. Penney store in Thief River Falls, has severed his connections with that concern, it was announced this week, and will have charge of the Variety store to be opened in the building at present occupied by Lieberman Bros. clothing store, which has been purchased by John Morgan who will take possession Nov. 1. Mr. Morgan stated to a Times reporter yesterday, that he expects to open his new store about the 15th of November, definite announcement to be made later. Mr. Morgan and Mr. Dickey will leave Sunday evening for the cities to make purchases of stock which will include various lines of dry goods, notions, holiday specials and other merchandise along that line. It is the intention to make it one of the most up to date stores of its kind in this section of the state.

Mr. Dickey has been with the J. C. Penney company since he came to this city in May, last year, and has in a large degree been responsible for the splendid trade now enjoyed by the dry goods department of that concern. He is thoroughly familiar with the retail business, having been engaged in this line of work during the past several years. Prior to his coming here he was connected with the McAllister stores, Chicago, for a period of five years, of which he spent two years as manager of one of their stores in Michigan. He has proven to be a live merchant and will without a doubt build up a first class business which will be a credit to this city.

Big Game Picture To Be Presented at Princess

The following comment on the film production "Trailing Wild Animals in Africa," to be shown at the Princess theatre Friday and Saturday this week, was given recently by Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania:

"The picture is by far the finest big game picture I have ever seen. From the point of view of beauty and interest it stands all by itself. I have never been in Africa but I have been in the woods a good deal with a rifle, and have enough experience with big game to know that this picture is the real thing. None of it was taken in a zoo. It is a picture of wild animals in the wilds, and to me was so full of interest that I am keen to see it again and again. You have done me a real favor by giving me a chance to see what is certainly the best big game picture I have ever come across, and I imagine is the best in existence.

If anything more striking was ever filmed outdoors than the pursuit of those gigantic African elephants by little Mrs. Johnson, I never saw or heard of it."

FEW CANDIDATES IN RACE FOR CITY OFFICES; SIX FILINGS

No Petition Necessary to Become Candidate. Must File 15 Days Before Election.

It is not necessary for the candidates in the city election to circulate a petition for the purpose of securing signers, equal to ten percent of the votes cast in the city at the last general election, according to information received from the office of the attorney general this week. This proceedure of becoming a candidate was done away with at the last session of the legislature, Chapter 317, Minnesota Laws of 1923, stating that all a person has to do in order to get his name on the ballot is to file an affidavit with the city clerk fifteen or more days preceding the date of election. Election will take place Nov. 6 so that filings must be made not later than Oct. 22.

A number of candidates for city offices in Thief River Falls had already started the circulation of petitions when the opinion was received from the attorney general. Only six filings have been made at the city clerk's office as yet, but it is expected that there will be a sufficient number of candidates to make the campaign interesting by the time filings close.

The following have filed as candidates up to last evening, according to City Clerk Akre: Alderman, first ward, Carl Froseth; alderman, second ward, Chris Porter; alderman, fourth ward, Andrew Ness; alderman-at-large, M. V. Evenson and J. J. Weeks; municipal judge, N. W. Tarrant. It is understood that John Dahl will file this week for re-election as alderman of the second ward, as will also H. A. Brumund in third ward. O. M. Evenson is expected to be a candidate for the city treasurer office, which he now holds.

PENNINGTON COUNTY BANKERS LAUNCH EXTENSIVE CAMPAIGN FOR GREATER ALFALFA GROWTH

Endorse Movement to Increase Acreage In Pennington Co., At Meeting Tuesday.

THRONSON CHOSEN HEAD OF COUNTY ASSOCIATION

Consider Establishment of Intermediate Credit Bank In Thief River Falls.

An enthusiastic and eventful meeting of Pennington county bankers was held in the main lobby of the First and Peoples State bank in this city Tuesday evening.

Practically every banker in the county was in attendance, only one institution failing to send a representative. The subject which occupied the attention of the financiers during the greater part of the session was the promotion of alfalfa raising among the farmers of this community. Nearly every one present had something interesting to tell regarding the success of alfalfa growing in this section and how a number of their patrons have cleared themselves out of financial difficulties by raising alfalfa or clover. The growing of these crops have proved to give splendid results to Pennington farmers, and not only give good returns in money but are also among the best agencies in the eradication of noxious weeds, such as the sow thistle.

The bankers in session decided to take up the matter of helping the farmers of Pennington get a start in alfalfa raising and thus aiding them in an effort to make farming in this community a profitable occupation. They are determined to give their united support, financial and moral, to the movement, and will aid in making proper analysis of the soil, studying methods of soil preparation and various other matters concerning the growing of the crop, and also financing on a large scale the securing of seed properly certified.

Plans are now under way to materialize and develop this movement. Another meeting will be held next Tuesday for further consideration of definite plans by which to proceed in the campaign. The bankers will then decide upon what program to follow in carrying this project thru in the most beneficial way for the farmers of the county, the purpose being to increase the acreage many fold of what it is at the present time. It is hoped that several thousand acres of Pennington county land may be devdted to this crop in the near future. The success of alfalfa here has been proven by a number of growers who have realized neat sums from their alfalfa fields the past summer, both in the form of hay and seed.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Theo M. Thronson, cashier of the First National bank of this city, president; J. P. Jenson of Goodridge, vice president and Thos. H. Smith of Mavie, secretary-treasurer.

Another thing which occupied the attention of the bankers is the organization in this city of an intermediate credit bank. A committee was appointed to gather data and to secure blanks with the idea that stock would be offered for sale in the near future. Similar institutions are now being formed in many sections of the middlewest, particularly in the cattle and dairying districts. Under the terms of the act money is loaned to the farmers to finance the purchase of cattle on a basis of seven per cent interest, the loans running for a period of three years.

The well directed action of the bankers of the county will do a great deal towards renewing activity of the community and putting it in a prosperous condition. They are to be highly commended for their move, which The Times is confident is in the right direction. It is another step in the march of better and diversified farming.

Real Estate Taxes Are Due on November First

As the last half of the annual real estate tax in Minnesota falls due November 1, it is pointed out that if this levy is not paid by that time a penalty of 10 per cent of the amount will be added, in accordance with the Minnesota law.

In order that the money may be in the hands of County Treasurer John Gullingsrud in due time, the people of Pennington County are asked to pay their required tax prior to the last of October.

The first one-half of the tax was due June 1 and after that date 5 per cent was added to one-half of the year's taxes and for each month succeeding that date 1 per cent was added, if the levy remained unpaid.

On the first day of November this penalty will reach 10 per cent, and it is pointed out, if the first half of the tax is not paid by that date, this penalty will be attached to the entire tax for the year.

Four new members were initiated into the council.

Pin Lodged In Hand 17 Years Finally Causes Pain and Is Taken Out

An unusual case was reported from the Physicians hospital this week. Mrs. Araline Cloutier of this city complained to Dr. Froehlich that she had pains in the palm of her hand and upon making an X-ray examination it was found that something was lodged in the hand. Tuesday morning she was operated on and a needle, broken into two parts, was taken out.

The needle was beginning to corrode and showed signs of having lodged in the hand some time ago. After considerable reflection Mrs. Cloutier remembered that 17 years ago a needle entered her arm near the wrist, and being unable to get it out and not feeling any pain, she allowed it to remain. The pin had worked itself into her hand and in the course of time had been broken. It did not cause any pain until recently.

GROWING GRASSES FOR SEED IS PROFITABLE PRACTICE

Many Pennington Farmers Raise Clover and Timothy Seed For Marketing Purposes.

Three carloads of grass seeds were shipped last week by the Farmers Elevator company at Goodridge, this having been purchased from farmers in the eastern section of Pennington county. The shipment included clover seed of the Sweet, Medium and Red varieties and also timothy seed, and totalled about 200,000 pounds. An average price of nine cents per pound was realized.

A considerable number of farmers in this community are getting good returns from harvesting grass seed, which is another money making branch of diversified farming if properly taken care of. A large amount has been shipped out of this county, the exact figures of which are not available. Much is also sold to neighbors.

The following article from the Roseau Times-Region pays splendid tribute to sweet clover growing in that section, and for the benefit of Times readers who are interested in this line, the story is reproduced in full:

"Sweet clover has re-created the Greenbush community the last month. General Depression has been routed by General Optimism and the entire community has taken a new lease on life, eager to go ahead. Sweet clover has done it. Greenbush and Strateona communities have soil especially well adapted for raising the crop. Several of the wide awake business men and farmers in that section have realized it and this year they are cashing in on it. Most every farmer in that section had some sweet clover and some had from twenty up to fifty acres seeded to the crop. This year the yield is not the best, the average yield being about five bushels per acre, as compared to ten last year. But prices have become good thru competitive buying so that now the farmers are offered eleven cents per pound in place of six cents at the beginning of the season. Five seed houses have agents in the county and a merry war is on to get the seed.

The farmers are realizing from $25 to $60 an acre on the crop this fall. Already eight carloads have been bought, and it is expected that considerable more will be marketed before spring.

Five years ago about all that was known about the crop was what Olaf Hildahl said about it. Right here it may be remarked that Mr. Hildahl is sort of the chief priest of the sweet clover seed tribe, having talked it in season and out of season, even to the annoyance of his good wife.

The Greenbush farmers raised a fair crop of small grains. They have plenty of fodder and feed for their stock and their cows are increasing the business at the Greenbush creamery. Nearly every farmer has a flock of poultry, some having as high as 200 turkeys. Sheep are also becoming more numerous in that section.

With sweet clover yielding well in seed and cash, enriching the soil, and all other products supplementing, less wheat acreage and price fixing will not worry the farmers in the west end of the country."

Pioneer Resident Dies At Age of 72 Following Illness of A Few Days

Mrs. Louisa Frances, for 36 years a resident of this county, died at her home on Red Lake Boulevard October 16 after a very short illness.

Mrs. Douglas was born in Wisconsin, Nov. 18, 1850 and was 72 years, 10 months and 28 days of age at the time of her demise. She was married in Milwaukee, Wis., and to this union six children were born, two of which are dead. Her husband died in 1893. She is survived by four sons, Dallas, DeLoss, Clarence and Ralph, and one sister, Mrs. W. A. Reed of Wisconsin.

The funeral services will be conducted at the house today and from the chapel at the Larson Undertaking parlors. Rev. J. B. Smith will conduct the services. Interment will be made in Greenwood cemetery.

Judge Andrew Grindeland of Warren was in the city yesterday to preside at the hearing for the dissolution of the Thief River Iron Works.

Growing Clover and Alfalfa For Seed Nets Splendid Returns To Local Farmers

A carload of sweet clover seed was shipped from Hazel Thursday of last week, the buyer being C. D. Hall of Brooks. A considerable amount of this seed has been harvested in Pennington county this year and several farmers have realized neat sums from clover fields which produced a hay crop in addition to the seed.

The best results this year were obtained from fields where the first crop was cut for seed, the season being too short for proper ripening of the second crop. Many growers cut half of the acreage for hay and crop, according to farmers who the first crop and allow the other half to ripen for seed, thus eliminating the chance for a total failure in getting the entire second crop ripe. This practice has proven very satisfactory to farmers of this community.

A certain farmer in the neighborhood of Hazel is reported to have produced six tons of hay and seed to the value of $270 from an alfalfa field of three acres, indicating that there is a wonderful opportunity in this branch of farming.

Another Hazel farmer is said to have received returns of $560 from a five-acre field of alfalfa, which is more than a hundred dollars per acre for one year. Halvor Wiken of the same vicinity harvested 100 tons of alfalfa hay this year, and others are following the same line, finding it particularly profitable this year, when many of the other products raised on the farm bring only a small revenue at the present time.

Times Want Ad Brings Results Immediately

An indication of the quick results of advertising was brought to the attention of The Times this week when a subscriber who had a want ad for the sale of a car in last week's issue, called the office saying that he sold the car a few days following the publication of the paper. The purchaser resides in the vicinity of Erie, in the eastern part of the county, while the owner of the car resides in this city. Upon reading the ad in The Times the Erie man immediately came in touch with the owner and the deal was completed.

When you want results, use Times want ads. It pays.

PYRAMID OIL CO. BUYS PROPERTY OF NORTHERN STATES

New Organization Establishes Branch In This City.; Many Local Stockholders.

A deal was consummated this week whereby the Pyramid Oil company became owners of the Thief River Falls property of the Northern States Oil company, a number of local business men and farmers of the community being financially interested. It is understood that the company has also purchased the property of the Peoples Auto company on Main avenue, across from the courthouse, the intention being to change the front of that building so as to make a modern filling and service station. Work on the station will commence as soon as possible, the present occupants of the building at present being busy moving stock and equipment to the company's headquarters at Red Lake Falls, where they will continue their business operations in the future.

The deal includes the purchase of all filling stations formerly maintained by the Northern States Oil company. They are pumps at Kolm and Fiterman's and Borry's garage, Thief River Falls; Peoples' Auto company, Red Lake Falls; Leo. J. Carpenter, St. Hilaire; and the Goodridge Auto company, Goodridge. The new owners intend to install pumps at the McFarland garage in this city and the Speller garage at Mavie, as well as a number of other garages in the towns in this section.

The Pyramid Oil company was organized five years ago and has enjoyed splendid success in the short period of operation. It maintains some of the best stations in the Northwest and thru the purchase of the Northern States property will be established in this territory to the best advantage. The local backing will also aid greatly to the future success of the concern. A royalty will be paid to certificate holders on every gallon of gas and oil sold in this territory and this will naturally draw much trade to the new organization. Certificate holders are guaranteed seven per cent interest on their investments.

The pump stations will handle a complete line of Pyramid oils, gasoline, kerosene and greases, all goods are sold under a guarantee of satisfaction or money refunded.

Organization activities have been in progress in this city for several weeks, the work being under the direction of E. L. Kennedy with Robt. A. Clyborne and H. M. Mueller as assistants. Ben Erickson has been secured as local manager.

Addition To Staff at Physician's Hospital; Sterilizer Purchased

Miss Clara Turnquist arrived Monday evening from Dawson, Minn., to assume duties as assistant superintendent of the Physicians hospital in this city, having been added to the staff of that institution. Miss Turnquist is a graduate of the Emanuel hospital of Mankato.

A new high pressure sterilizer, the latest and best in hospital equipment, was recently installed at the hospital. The apparatus was added to the present modern equipment at the cost of $2,000, and will add greatly to the efficiency of the hospital. An up-to-date X-ray machine was also installed during the past summer.

STATE ISSUES CALL FOR BIDS ON HIGHWAY 32

Bids to Be Received at St. Paul Nov. 7 For Grading T. R. F.-St. Hilaire Road in 1924.

ESTIMATED COST OF IMPROVEMENT $25,000

Urgent Appeals From Patrons Of Road Brings About Action By State Department.

Ten big betterments on trunk highways in different parts of the state, virtually all improvements which for urgent reasons cannot be deferred, are to be placed under contract next month for completion in 1924. They comprise 60 miles of grading, 12 of gravel surfacing, 12 of paving and 17 bridges, to cost altogether more than $1,000,000.

Among the projects to be taken up is the construction of trunk highway No. 32, between Thief River Falls and St. Hilaire, which the department estimates will cost $25,000 to complete. This matter was dropped this summer when the county reimbursement bonds were not approved and it looked for a while as tho the road would not be built for some time. However, after numerous appeals from patrons of the thoroughfare the department realized the urgent need and necessity of the improvement and decided to push it thru. Among the organizations active in bringing the matter to the attention of the state department was the Commercial club of this city.

The new road will be made much straighter than the present route and will be laid on the east side of the Great Northern tracks which the present highway crosses in several places and are danger points. A considerable part of the surveying has already been completed with the expectation of having the project completed this summer, but there still remains some question as to the right of way in a few instances.

The building of the bridge on the trunk highway, just outside the limits south of the city, is progressing rapidly under the supervision of Bert F. Umland, local highway engineer, the completion of which will be one of the initial steps in making that part of the thoroughfare in such condition as ~~it should be as a part of the trunk~~ highway system.

Engineer Uhland reports that local contractors have already made inquiries at his office regarding the proposed job, but no definite information as to the building of the new road has been received by the local office as yet.

Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, this week called for bids to be opened Nov. 7 at the highway department offices in St. Paul and as usual urged local contractors to enter the competition.

"Some of these improvements will take 1924 auto tax money and federal aid but they are projects that must be contracted without further delays and in localities where no county reimbursement bond funds are available," said the commissioner. "The department has been trying for two or three years to find funds with which to surface T. H. No. 5, north from Minneapolis—the Central avenue route north through Anoka country—where a $450,000 investment built by the county has been little used and its load is adding to congestion on paralleling routes. The Owatonna-Faribault section of T. H. No. 1 cannot be kept up and must be graded to hasten paving. Improvement of No. 1 north from Duluth must be carried through because the North Shore region is without railway service and depend the year round on the highway. Other improvements are of ranking importance or will be financed with county bonds."

The contracts are to be made this fall because lettings in the early winter have been found to bring the lowest prices, highway officials said. The new list of improvements follows:

T. H. No. 1—Owatonna-Medford, 7 miles of grading and two bridges, estimated at $95,000. Medford-Faribault, 6 miles of grading and one bridge, at $46,000. Split Rock, Gooseberry and Crow Creek, three bridges, at $90,000

T. H. No. 3—LaCrescent-LaMoille, 15 miles of grading, and six bridges at $309,000. Southeast of Winona one bridge at $2,500.

T. H. No. 6—Columbia Heights-Bethel, 12 miles paving and 12 miles of gravel surfacing, at $396,000.

T. H. No. 16—Windom-westward, 17 miles of grading and three bridges, at $166,000. Fulda eastward, 7 miles of grading at $37,000.

T. H. No. 32—Thief River Falls-St. Hilaire, 7 miles of grading, at $25,000.

T. H. No. 11—Cook, bridge, at $1,800.

Portable and standard monolithic culverts on all grading are included in the plans and estimates. The bids will be opened publicly Nov. 7 at 10 a. m. at St. Paul offices of the state highway department.

Hazel Farmer Grows Huge Pumpkin Weighing 55 Lbs.

A pumpkin weighing 55 pounds is being displayed at the Citizens State bank at Hazel. The specimen was raised by Oscar Johnson on his farm 2½ miles south of Hazel and is considered of unusual size for this season. Altho larger pumpkins have been raised in this section in years past, the 55-pounder is the largest reported to the Times this year, and unless someone else in the county has a larger one, Mr. Johnson is the champion producer of pumpkins in Pennington, as far as size is concerned.

SPUD GROWERS OF PENNINGTON SIGN UP QUOTA

Farmers of County Respond 100 Per Cent In Drive To Contract Potato Acreage.

BUSINESS MEN HELP IN STATE WIDE CAMPAIGN

Effective Organization · Warehouses In County Are Now Assured.

The drive for signing up potato growers of Pennington county exchange proved highly successful, the quota being greatly exceeded. The necessary 50 per cent of the 1922 spud crop, which totalled about 900 acres, was easily secured and indications are that this county will go about 200 per cent in the campaign.

Arrangements were made by the Commercial club for a group of local business men accompanied by a number of farmers to canvass the county Tuesday but owing to the muddy condition of the roads only a few went out that day. Several teams worked thruout the county yesterday and splendid results are reported. However, a complete report from all those who took part in the drive is not available at this time. The total of the reports so far indicates that over 100 per cent of last year's acreage has already been signed up and it is expected that an equal acreage has been signed up by those who still remain to be heard from. Goodridge, St. Hilaire, Hazel and Mavie are conducting their own drives in an effort to secure acreage to get a potato warehouse. A working organization in the county and warehouses at the marketing points are now assured.

F. J. Stebbins, chairman of the committee in charge of the potato drive, states that unusual interest is being shown by local growers in the co-operative movement. A report of the activities of the committee was made at the regular Commercial club luncheon today.

TEACHERS OF CITY ARE GIVEN PUBLIC RECEPTION FRIDAY

Parent - Teachers Association Sponsors Get-Together Affair at Auditorium.

An interesting program, a gratifying attendance and a get-acquainted spirit served to make the reception to the teachers of Thief River Falls, sponsored by the Parent-Teachers association, Friday evening at the city auditorium, a highly successful affair. Parents mingled freely with the instructors of their children and a closer relationship was undoubtedly formed between the two forces—the home and the school, which was the express purpose of the gathering. The management announced it to be a good get-together party, and it was in the true sense of the word. The faculty attended in full number and a large number of school patrons were present, most of whom are members of the association.

The program of the evening was opened by a welcome by L. M. Rayson, president of the organization, who urged co-operation between the parents and the teachers and gave the purpose of the gathering as an opportunity to become acquainted. Superintendent I. T. Simley responded in a brief but direct address in which he also urged co-operation between the parents, teachers and students in order to produce the greatest efficiency. He asserted that Thief River Falls has one of the most extensive and best school systems in the state and that the staff in charge of the instruction of the city's young folks is of the best obtainable.

Vocal solos were given by Miss Dora Holmes accompanied by Miss Theone Walker, which were very well received, as were also the splendidly executed piano selections played by Miss Doris Halvorson, who displayed her usual fine interpretation of music. The audience was favored by the reading of "The Trainmaster's Story" by Mrs. Oscar Melby who also brought out volumes of laughter by a humorous selection. A grand march played by Mrs. N. K. Harris concluded the evening's program, the rest of the time being given over to the serving of refreshments and enjoying a social time.

The next meeting of the association is scheduled to take place at the high school auditorium Monday evening, Nov. 5, at which time a regular business session will be held and officers for the ensuing year elected. The present officers of the organization are: President, L. M. Rayson; vice president, Mrs. W. W. Prichard and Mrs. R. Arnold; secretary, Mrs. E. J. Richards; treasurer, Mrs. William Korstad.

LLOYD GEORGE IN T. R. F.

Thief River Falls last Sunday night had the honor of having within its limits David Lloyd George, former premier of England, accompanied by his wife and daughter and a party of notables. However, the noted Welshman "slept thru it all," having retired before the train, a portion of the Soo Line train No. 110 from Winnipeg to Minneapolis, reached this city. The journey was rather strenuous for the former premier, who is about 60 years old, and his physician had advised him to retire early that night. The train arrived in this city about 11 o'clock and a large number of people who congregated at the depot to get a glimpse of the great statesman, were disappointed in being informed that he was not to be seen.

Lloyd George was on his way from Winnipeg to Minneapolis on a tour of Canada and the United States, where he visits the larger cities, being greeted royally wherever he appears. Minneapolis was the second point in this country to be favored with the presence of the premier, who spoke there last Monday.

Heavy Advertising Draws Large Crowds For Sales

The Lieberman Brothers Clothing stores have been the scene of much activity the past couple weeks since the opening of the large consolidation sale. The building occupied by the clothing store has been purchased by John Morgan, who will take possession the first of November, and as a result the stock has been placed at sacrifice prices for quick disposal.

A first class stock of merchandise is being handled by the Lieberman stores, making it very appealing to the buying public. A large number of out-of-town people have taken advantage of many of the bargains offered at the sale.

"This should be proof," says A. S. Lieberman, "that low prices on high grade merchandise and good advertising will rapidly move the stock." It will be worth while for Times readers to peruse the two-page advertisement published in this week's issue and take notice of the various extraordinary bargains.

Odd Fellows Will Open Season With Series of Events During October

Activities in the Odd Fellow lodges for the winter season are now commencing, the first initiation class having completed its preparations. From now on there will be monthly class initiations, according to officials of the lodge.

The I. O. O. F. lodge in this city has decided to make it a point to visit brothers in other towns in order to create a stronger relationship between the various units of this section. The first visit of this kind was made about two weeks ago when a delegation visited with Warren Odd Fellows.

On Saturday, Oct. 27, a group will go to Red Lake Falls to attend the district meeting of the subordinate lodges, at which Grand Master Levis of International Falls will be present.

SIX PERSONS HURT IN EIGHT MISHAPS SATURDAY AND SUN

Many Persons Injured When Cars Collide and Overturn on State Roads Recently.

Eight accidents of a more or less minor nature were reported to have taken place within 25 miles of this city, Sunday.

An automobile, driven by Fred Will, crashed into a car, parked on the state road near St. Hilaire, Sunday morning at two o'clock, overturning the car and injuring three occupants.

Hjalmer Bundy received a severe injury to the right hand and cuts about the face, Fred Will received minor bruises and slight injuries to the back and Herbert Haraldson suffered a badly twisted knee. Phillip Larson, who was also in the car, escaped injury.

The young men were on their way to their homes in this city from St. Hilaire and were keeping to the extreme right, going at the rate of about thirty miles an hour. The car which they struck was parked along the road side, the driver having had trouble with the motor. No tail or head lights were on the standing car and young Will did not see the car until he was within a few feet of it. He swung out toward the center of the road as quickly as possible and succeeded in clearing the front wheels but the rear wheels and fender caught the car. The car driven by Fred Will turned completely over in the center of the road, pinning Bundy and Haraldson beneath it. Will crawled out of the wreckage and with the assistance of Phillip Larson, who was thrown clear off the car, they managed to get Bundy and Haraldson out. They telephoned for A. P. Fox of this city to come for them. Before he arrived young Will became unconscious. They were taken to the Svenbury hospital for surgical aid. Bundy had incurred a cut across the knuckles and injuries to the bones of his hand and the limb was dressed and placed in a sling. Five stitches were taken in his lip. Haraldson escaped with a wrenched knee and is rapidly recovering from the accident. Fred [illegible] consciousness in the morning and, save for pains in the spine showed no serious effects, and by Tuesday he had recovered.

The car was badly smashed. The front wheel, two fenders, the windshield and the top were completely destroyed. The body is also badly damaged.

In addition to running into the car parked at the roadside, a racer, without lights, approached from the opposite direction at the rate of about thirty-five miles an hour and crashed into the car driven by the boys. They hit the car squarely and no one was hurt. The racer was occupied by three young men. The car driven by Fred Will was the only one of the three which had lights and when the car overturned the battery ceased to operate. The absence of a parking light on the abandoned car was the cause of the accident.

Narrowly Escapes Injury.

An eight year old son of Frank Cook, of Newfolden, narrowly escaped serious injury Tuesday when he was run down by Martin Bothun. The lad was crossing the street in front of Simonson's store and on seeing the car approaching he hastened to get out of the way, but in his effort he slipped on the wet pavement. The car was within a few feet of him when he fell and as he tried to rise, the bumper struck him in the face, across the nose, and he was again knocked to the pavement. The car came to a stop with one front wheel across his legs. He was taken to the clinic and was given surgical aid by Dr. Froehlich. He was only slightly hurt and was able to walk that afternoon.

Tales of the Rails

Not April 1.

Had it been the first of April some one might have converted a bit of mis-taken information into a practical joke. But it wasn't. Monday ten of the Soo line employees declared a holiday and made a trip to Warren, expecting to attend a sheriff's automobile sale. According to some reports, 300 cars were to have been sold. On arriving at that supposedly autoist's paradise they found that they had allowed dame rumor to kill one day's time for them and no sale had even been contemplated, to say nothing of disposing of cars in lots of 300. However, they enjoyed the incident as a joke and thanked themselves for the holiday. Those who made the trip are: Victor Hedbee, Gust Holmgren, William Schumacher, William Wilson, Claude Evenson, Ed. Odelin, Andy Williamson, Arthur Gjolhaug and Ole Christenson. Adolph Williamson was accompanied by his wife.

Ford Near Destruction.

Fred Lorentson, register of deeds, nearly had his Ford destroyed by fire last Saturday afternoon. He had parked the machine near the court house and after a short period went out to use it on a trip to Black River. Upon entering the car he noticed that smoke was coming forth from beneath the cushion in the front seat in a dense cloud, and immediately threw out the cushion, where the fire was about to burst out into flames. But a few minutes more would have been sufficient for the fire to reach the gas tank, which would have meant disastrous results to Lizzie. It is not known just how the fire started but is thought that a cigaret or sparks from a chimney had entered the cushion thru a small hole in the upholstering, making rapid progress in the stuffing.

WHEAT PRICE FIXING

The wheat growers of the spring wheat states have been holding meetings demanding the return of government price fixing. This was aftermath of two conferences held in St. Paul last winter at which two distinct programs were developed. One was for the immediate fixing of a price on wheat, the other was for farmer self-help through cooperative organization and control.

The cooperative program is under way, without any prospect of coming into the 1923 marketing situation. Meanwhile the crop season has been none too favorable, and those favoring price control see another spring-wheat crop moving to market at less than the cost of production unless the Government arbitrarily steps in to save the situation.

Naturally the man who has a wheat crop is in favor of a good price for it, but is price fixing the best way out—is it a way out at all?

As a basic proposition it is unsound as witness the increased acreage in the price-fixing days of the war and the inflation of values that went with wildcat wheat growing. Witness also a wheat acreage still far above normal, the result of such paternalism.

But the answer of those favoring fixing of a price on wheat is that an emergency now exists—that the Government intervened to save the railroads, that it protects the banks, that it arbitrates the price of labor, and that it can with equal propriety step in and set a living price on the product of the farmer's labor.

But can it? Granted that price fixing is adopted for the sole purpose of helping out a staggering industry, will it have that effect? It will add some millions to the pocketbooks of the wheat growers as a whole; but how about the man with a five-bushel yield—can any blanket price fixing save him? And the effect upon the casual grower may be—very likely will be—quite as disastrous. Both will go on, the one producing wheat as a main crop when he should be bending every energy toward diversifying his farming, the other into more wheat because wheat has suddenly become, for him, a sure-fire profits crop.

It is elementary fact that the effect of price fixing will be to increase the wheat acreage, no matter how bluntly the farmer may be told that such action is for the 1923 crop only. Millions of acres will go into wheat another year, on the assumption that what has happened once by way of special protection against loss will happen again if occasion should arise.

This is an obvious angle of the situation. There are others to be considered. If the price of wheat is to be fixed, how about barley, flax, potatoes, corn, hogs, cattle, butter, milk, peanuts, cotton oranges, et al.? And machinery, lumber, supplies, and so on?

And there is, too, the hand of government control to consider. Does the farmer want a wobblies strike on his hands, and a labor board at Washington telling him how much he must pay his help?

Cold facts are sometimes disagreeable, and the cold fact of this price-fixing business is that even as a war-emergency measure it was a colossal blunder for which the farmer has been paying ever since. The results that would follow inevitably upon its adoption as a relief measure promise to be so far-reaching and so serious in their character that it is well for the farmer to look them squarely in the face before intrusting himself and his fortunes to government supervised and controlled farming.

The cooperative way out is a bit less spectacular, a bit harder—but it has the merit of safety and independence. —The Country Gentleman.

WHAT ONE FARMER LEARNED.

There is strength in numbers, is an old adage, but a writer in an exchange relates the following revision given it by a certain progressive farmer: "A farmer told me the other day, that he was milking too many cows, and was going to cut down the work. Not knowing him, I thought he was going to cut down his dairy operations. He said, 'I am milking on an average 30 cows and it is too much work. Life is too short. I am getting about 7,500 pounds of butterfat a year. I am going to grade up my herd until I have 16 cows that will produce that much butterfat. Then I will have cut my milking one-half and not reduced my income one penny!' As a matter of fact he would increase his net income for he would save the feed and care for 15 cows."

The numerous accidents taking place in this community the past week indicates that it would be well for [illegible] to consider the "Safety First" [illegible].

Wild reports to the effect that Baudette and other northern Minnesota towns are burning up, are still the result of the vivid imagination of some officials, who are supposed to be familiar with the situation, and too eager twin city reporters. This is not the first time that rumors of this kind have found their way into the metropolitan press where it is enlarged into enormous proportions.

The Baudette Region and other northern Minnesota publications state that few fires of any damaging nature have been reported, most of them being in sections where they prove beneficial as means of clearing the land, which is otherwise difficult to remove of brush and useless timber.

Turn a bright light into a dark place and it is bound to disturb somebody. Expound a great new idea where new ideas are seldom found and the old foggies will always kick you out. It has taken a million years for cavemen and tree men to become partially civilized because new thoughts are seldom accepted by those in authority. They would never win if it were not for the fighting men who would surrender popularity and pleasure taking on risk and effort to put new and better things across. It is the restless desire of forward looking, broad minded men which has helped civilization in its slow and painful progress. Encyclopedias hardly mention the old cranks, the stay-pats or the backsliders. — Bemidji Pioneer.

Pioneer Resident Dies At Farm Home Oct. 17 After Six-Day Illness

Lars G. Netteland of Rocksbury township passed away at his home yesterday, Oct. 17th, cause of death being attributed to the infirmities of old age.

Mr. Netteland was born in Hardanger, Norway, Jan. 17, 1855, and at the time of his death was 68 years and 9 months old. He came to this country 50 years ago and settled on a homestead south of this city in Rocksbury township. He was one of the first pioneers to come into this section of the state and saw this territory grow from uncultivated territory inhabited by Indians to the farming section it now is.

Mr. Netteland served for many years in various offices of the town board and was one of the county's best farmers. He enjoyed good health until last summer when he began to fail slightly. He worked quite regularly until Thursday when he was suddenly taken ill. Attending physicians could find no inactive organs or traces of disease. Death was attributed to old age.

To mourn his death he leaves his wife, a sister in Norway, and seven children, who are George, the eldest, of Verdi, Minn., Mrs. John Sundahl, of Montana, Albert of this city, Louise, Mrs. Anna Gryting, student at the University of Minnesota, Mrs. Leonard Sognard of Minneapolis, and Otto at home.

At her bedside when death called her, were her three daughters, Mesdames Cornelius and Anderson, and B. Jenson of Neche, N. D., and her son, Miller Peterson of St. Hilaire. Deceased was born in Karmoen, Norway, April 19, 1840, and was therefor 83 years, 5 months and 6 days of age at the time of death. She came to this country in 1858 and was united in marriage to Peter Peterson, Sept. 25, 1863. She and her husband, who preceded her in death some years ago, lived in Chicago until 1865 when they moved to Iowa. In 1869 they located in Lac Qui Parle county in this state, later moving to Yellow Medicine county. In 1902 the family came to River Falls township which has been the family home since.

To mourn her departure she leaves two sons, Gabriel and Miller Peterson of St. Hilaire, and three daughters, Mrs. M. B. Jenson of Neche, N. D., Mrs. G. Cornelius and Mrs. C. Anderson of Minneapolis, and a foster-son, Eddie J Eide of Virginia. She is also survived by two sisters and 14 grandchildren.

Secretary Wallace Defends Action in Stockyard Probe

Henry Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, in replying to critics, defended steps that have been taken to punish South Saint Paul commission firms found by the federal investigations to have been guilty of corrupt practices in dealing with patrons of the market.

Administrators of the Stockyards regulatory act have been criticised for having permitted the South St. Paul Exchange and the Stockyards to exercise their police power in connection with the investigation.

"Our critics," says Secretary Wallace in a recent statement, "do not understand the law. Administrators of the act are permitted first to warn guilty firms and then punish them if illegal practices are continued. The Exchange and the Stockyards company could proceed with immediate punishment, under their rules. Had those agencies not acted, punishment under the law would have been long delayed and so far as authority of the Department is concerned, the firms now off the market would still be doing business. Those who want delayed and ineffective punishment are quite right in criticising our policy, but those who want the guilty ones brought to book in the quickest and most vigorous way will endorse it."

Secretary Wallace explained that when he tried his investigation he was assured of the co-operation of the members of the live stock exchange, all of whom placed their books at his disposal. The investigation disclosed one rather unexpected and amazing condition—that in most cases where there was evidence of fraud the violation of law and rules was in the form of an apparently corrupt arrangement between a commission firm and the managers of local farmers' shipping associations by which the latter get a "rake-off" on some shipments. Whether this "rake-off" went into the pockets of the members of the farmers' association or into the personal pockets of the managers remains to be disclosed after an investigation of the books and accounts of the local associations.

Without the co-operation of the Stockyards company and the Exchange, the statement says, the Department would have been unable, under the law, to take any steps until the whole investigation has been completed. The probe is still under way. An official summary of the investigation will be made public from Washington when the Department of Washington gets the complete report from the South St. Paul investigators.

Public Forum

Editor Times:

I am utterly unable to understand why so many people should today give their unqualified endorsement to the various efforts to organize the farmers under the so-called California or Sapiro plan. No doubt such people mean well enough, but they are doing so thoughtlessly and without investigation. The Sapiro plan may turn out to be a great help for the farmers. It may also turn out to be a calamity for the farmer who joins those organizations. As a matter of fact in this part of the country the plan is a new and untried experiment; so that it is well to go slowly and carefully before signing their contracts. Not all California farmers have joined in that state. A large number have not joined, and there has been much litigation in connection with the organizations in California.

In the first place the Sapiro contract is absolutely ironbound and ties up your wheat, potatoes, etc. for five years. The organization is given the right to mortgage, handle and sell the crop and the farmer has nothing left to do except to deliver. The potato contract is fairly reasonable, as it does not become effective until a certain number of farmers join, but the wheat growers contract is absolutely dangerous. The farmer has no protection whatever. Even if only a few farmers joined, their crop would still be tied up for five years. So I would say go slowly and carefully, and make a careful investigation before you sign and join the organization.

Another objection to the co-operative plan of Mr. Sapiro is the salary graft connected with it. Their presidents, managers, and other officials are paid outrageously high salaries. Men who never before cared a particle for the welfare of the farmer, are today shouting co-operation and trying to graft in the sales organization of some co-operative. And the farmer's wheat, potatoes, etc., has to pay the bill. There is no guess or uncertainty about this. Just find out for yourselves what the presidents, managers, etc., of these new Sapiro co-operative organizations are being paid. There have so far been no announcements as to that, because if farmers knew there would be a howl that would raise the roof. Some officials are even drawing two or three salaries aggregating ten, fifteen thousand dollars a year. So I say, fellow farmers, go slowly and carefully. Find out what is going on, on the inside before you decide. Sapiro's co-operative organizations may be the salvation of the farmer in time. Before it can become so however, it will have to be placed on a business basis, and rid themselves of the schemers and grafters who are now seeking to feather their own nets, rather than to help the farmer.

Yours truly,
H. K. Larson.

SUCCESS OF POTATO CAMPAIGN ASSURED

Twin City Business Men Give Additional Financial Support to Movement.

Success of the campaign to organize Minnesota potato growers in the California plan of co-operative marketing was assured last week when business men of Minneapolis and St. Paul pledged to the movement funds to carry on organization work until the minimum acreage quota is obtained. A loan of $10,000 was made available at once and an additional $10,000 was guaranteed if it is needed. These amounts will supplement the advances now made by County Bankers' Associations.

Cash advances in addition to the $10,000 loaned at the time the campaign started are necessary, according to J. A. Monson, chairman of the state committee, because so many potato growers are not in financial position to pay the membership fee of $5. "The present demoralized potato market," he continued, "has resulted in a very serious financial situation in the heavy potato producing sections and it is here that we must sign up acreage if the program is to succeed."

Mr. Monson explained that none but those directly connected with the movement appreciate the size of the [illegible] task. "Minnesota is the [illegible] producing state in the Union and the growing area covers all sections except southwest counties. Our field men have to travel great distances to fill the demand for larger than it would have been, had the potato market been average. Though the number of members signed and the acreage obtained has been satisfactory, the financial problem was one which has given considerable concern since the movement started. With working capital now available, success of the organization work is assured."

The additional credit is in keeping with pledges made by Twin City business men at the time the campaign was started. Organization Manager S. G. Rubinow, made it plain to all concerned, at the time he undertook the task, that an initial loan of $10,000 would be insufficient, unless the percentage of membership notes was unusually low. He started the work with the understanding that additional advances would be available when needed.

"Determination of Twin City business men to see the campaign thru to a success," says Edward Barr, secretary of the state committee, "is one of the best signs of progress we have had in the Northwest in years. These business men are supporting the movement as they are because they have become convinced that the California plan of co-operation offers the best and only solution for the economic problem in this state. They know what the plan has done for the fruit growers of California, for the cotton growers of the South and the tobacco growers of Kentucky. They are determined that financial difficulties which are facing the average farmer shall not prevent the plan from having a fair trial in Minnesota."

Marius Waldal of Plummer, representative from this district, is first vice president and field organizer for the Minnesota Exchange and has done much towards the success of the movement.

Red Lake County Bankers To Help Farmers Getting a Start in Alfalfa Crop

The Red Lake County Bankers association, consisting of all the bankers in the county, in order to encourage the raising of alfalfa which in turn will mean better livestock and more prosperity for the farmer, decided at a recent meeting in Red Lake Falls to furnish seed to any responsible farmer in the county who will put in an acre.

The association will loan seed to the farmer who will be given 18 months in which to return it or to pay for it without interest. This will give ample time for the farmer to harvest his crop and out of it he can pay for the seed he has used.

Not one cent of interest is charged for it is not a money-making project on the part of the banks tho the banks of course will benefit in proportion as the farmers of the county prosper.

TWIN CITIES MARKET FOR QUALITY BUTTER

Co-operative Association's New Department To Unify Sales Activities.

Co-operative creameries, having made Minnesota the foremost quality butter producing state of the union, soon are to make its two largest cities the reorganized center for marketing that product, according to A. J. McGuire, general manager of the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries' association.

Activities of the new sales department, under the management of H. F. Meyer, proposes to centralize, for sales purpose, all of the "A-No.-1" butter produced in the co-operative creameries of the state. New quarters recently obtained at Hampton ave., and Charles St., St. Paul afford ample facilities for concentrating the output of creameries whose directors sign the new marketing agreement. The goal of the present sales proposal is to bring the 85,000,000 pounds of butter annually produced by the 426 creameries that are members of the association to St. Paul for grading and sale.

This will result in buyers from all parts of the country finding their way to St. Paul and Minneapolis, instead of to eastern centers, where the butter has been handled by brokers, or direct to the creameries as has been the case in the past.

When the new sales department is established, it will specialize in two grades; butter made from sweet cream and scoring 94 to 96 and Superior ripened cream butter, scoring 92 and 93. It has been the manufacturer of this quality butter that has been responsible for the success of the individual farmer-owned creamery. Now, the state association proposes to still further strengthen the position of member creameries by centralizing sales, making the unit of sale a car lot, all of uniform grade and brand.

The local Farmer's Co-operative creamery is not selling thru the associated sales agency owing to the fact that another outlet has been secured thru which an equally good price for the product is received.

Largest Potato Grower In State Joins New Movement

Frank Kiene of Kennedy, present owner of the J. J. Hill Farms at Northcote in Kittson county, has joined the movement to establish the new Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange. Mr. Kiene is rated as the largest single grower of potatoes in the state having 700 acres under his personal direction.

Mr. Kiene, who specializes in certified seed potatoes, signed the marketing agreement only after he had made a careful investigation of the whole plan, having devoted several weeks to his study.

Kittson County, in three days signed more than 3,000 acres and has given promise of being the first big potato growing county in the state to complete its quota.

TOURISTS MAY HELP PAY FOR HIGHWAYS

"Painless Tax" on Gas Would Yield Large Sums Annually, Census Figures Show.

Passage of the proposed gasoline tax amendment at the next election and a rate of 2-cents-a-gallon in 1925 will mean that tourists in Minnesota will contribute a million dollars to state trunk highway funds that year, according to estimates made by the highway department.

Automobile tourists from other states who are leaving more than $37,500,000 of new money in Minnesota this season would have left something like $750,000 more toward the state highways they are using, were a gasoline tax in effect this year.

Tourist traffic revenue figures—present and possible—are given this week in a highway bulletin review of 1923 traffic census showing recently made public.

The conservative estimate of $37,500,000 of new money brought and left in the state this season by out-of-state tourists from the outside is based on a daily average of 19,25[illegible] 'foreign' cars on the 7,000 mile trunk system. The actual count of 15,568 cars from out of the state mid-year, meant a total of nearly $30,250,000 of money spent by tourists using them. On the same basis this year, tourists left nearly $7,500,000 more than last.

The count of cars indicates that the daily average of auto tourists in Minnesota this year was 62,750, the bulletin states. Assuming that two-thirds of them stayed with friends or camped out at $2 a day for each person and the others stopped at hotels at $5 each a day—there was a total of $187,750 a day for lodgings and meals. Incidents of $1 a day each added $62,750. Each car averaging 150 miles a day and taking 10 gallons of gasoline and a quart of oil, meant more than $50,000 a day for those items, all exclusive of repairs and like items. So the tourists left over Minnesota more than $300,000 a day for necessaries.

And at that rate only little more than four months there than $17,500,000 of new money was placed in circulation in Minnesota by highway tourists.

BEMIDJI DEFEATS LINCOLNITES 57-0

Coach Thune's Men Show Improvement in Game at Bemidji Last Saturday.

Lincoln High's football eleven played Bemidji on the latter's field in the third game of the season last Saturday afternoon and were defeated 56 to 0.

First Quarter.

Locals receive ball and return it to the 20 yard line. They try a play through each side of the line with slight gains and are forced to punt. Bemidji makes their first down by smashes. Lundell injures his shoulder and Peterson goes in in his place. Bemidji tries a wide end run around the right end and makes the first touchdown. Bemidji makes the try for goal kick. The locals again received the ball but make no gains and are forced to punt. Bemidji again brings the ball to the local's 20 yard line, but the locals stiffen. Bemidji completes a drop kick, making the score 10 to 0 at the end of the first quarter.

Second Quarter.

The second quarter began with the ball in Thief River's possession. A pass was completed to Gavin but no ground was gained on the next play, a pass, as that was incompleted. Bemidji was penalized for roughing the punter, making it the locals first down, Parenteau was forced to punt out of danger. Bemidji made a long return and soon after made their second touchdown. The try for goal kick succeeded and the score stood 17 to 0. The locals again received the ball but neither team scored during the remainder of the half. The score at the end of the first half was 17 to 0 in favor of Bemidji.

Third Quarter.

The third quarter began with the locals again receiving the ball. The boys were soon forced to punt. Bemidji soon made another touchdown by end runs and line smashes. The Lincoln eleven again received the ball and Zeh punted but they were unable to make their downs. The third quarter showed the weakest opposition the boys put up and Bemidji put over several more touchdowns during that quarter. It ended with the score of 37 to 0 in favor of Bemidji.

Fourth Quarter.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter the boys stiffened for a while and Bemidji had some difficulty in making their downs, but the locals again seemed to weaken and Bemidji made a touchdown. With only 25 seconds left to play, Bemidji made another touchdown from the 10 yard line by a wide end run. The game ended with the locals at the short end of a 56 to 0 score.

Coach Thune's men showed a good deal of improvement over the Grand Forks game and the dope on other games gives them a good chance to win the remaining ones. The boys have learned a lot of football that they didn't know at the beginning of the season and with this knowledge and their experience they hope to make up for their defeats. The Thief River line-up: Wengeler, l end; Sether, l. tackle; Barzen, l. guard; Sorenson, center; Belland, r. guard; Lundell, r. tackle; Langevin, r. end; Parenteau, quarterback; Zeh, r. halfback; Penney, l. halfback; Gavin, fullback. Substitutes: Peterson for Lundell, Berg for Peterson, Myrin for Sorenson, McCrum for Langevin, Bottleson for Sether, Sorenson for Langevin, Langevin for Penney, and Penny for Parenteau.

Knox School Notes.

On Monday the pupils of the sixth grade were saddened to learn of the death of Oscar Seranstad, who was a member of their class last year, but who had not yet enrolled this year, having been in Canada up to the time of his sickness and death. Also a parent of Carl Johnson, a member of their class, had passed away. The sympathy of the room and entire school goes out to those who are left to mourn for these dear ones.

The normal training girls began their group practice in drill work with the pupils of Miss Saugen's room last week.

The pupils neither tardy nor absent in grade four are: Eleanor Bottleson, John Chommie, Dorothy Dalton, Arnold Haroldson, Lewis La Salle, Adelyn Lindberg, Lloyd Newland and Lorraine Rayson. This is a very small per cent. less than one-fourth. Can't we help to better this?

Romaine Howe from Crystal, N. D., entered the sixth grade of the Knox school Monday, Oct. 8.

Columbus Day was observed in all rooms on Friday by story telling, paper cutting and booklet work.

The children of the fifth grade had a very interesting socialized history lesson on Friday afternoon, Columbus Day.

Lucille Riedy has been transferred from the Knox to the Northrop.

Norman Matthees, a former pupil of the Washington school, entered the second A class at the Knox school last week.

Wilma Matthees has been transferred from the third grade at the Washington to the third grade at the Knox.

The children who have been in perfect attendance the first six weeks' period are: Katherine Stenn, Ruth Erickson, Ingvold Wold, Douglas Olson, Margaret O'Hara, Florence Christopherson, Avis Fellman, Lucille Mickulicky, Mildred Mickelson and Ward Votava.

Geraldine Howe entered the second grade last Monday.

Geraldine Connell, Margaret Dillon, Wayne Kielty, Marvin Lindberg, Ardith Ness, Wandabelle Semisch, Charles Shirley and Ruth Schuster have been neither tardy nor absent the past six weeks.

Normal Notes.

The Normal students started practice teaching last Wednesday. The class is divided into two groups: Group I is teaching at the Knox and group II at the Washington.

Miss Pryor, the normal instructor at Red Lake Falls, visited the normal department last Friday.

For A' That

A Freshman may be studying hard,
Trying his best, an' a' that,
To be a loyal, honest, child,
To Lincoln High, an' a' that.
For a' that, an' a' that!
Have lot o' pep, an' a' that;
The green is there, the Freshman must,
A Freshman be, for a' that.

A Sophomore may be very bold;
Chew gum at school, an' a' that,
And learn the lessons hard, so well;
That "A" results, an' a' that,
For a' that, an' a' that,
Control his mind, an' a' that,
The brain is but a Sophomore brain,
A Soph's a Soph for a' that.

A Junior may his class dues pay,
Hold high his head, an' a' that,
Make fun of Freshmen, feeling gay;
And Sophomores, too, an' a' that,
For a' that, an' a' that!
Blue books about, an' a' that;
A Junior is what "Junior" means,
And nothing else, for a' that.

A Senior may respected be,
By Freshies, Sophs, an' a' that,
An' Juniors and the faculty,
May love them much, an' a' that,
For a' that, an' a' that!
Be privileged much, an' a' that;
A Senior "would" be nothing but
A Senior still for a' that.

PEP MEETING SHOWS ATHLETIC SPIRIT

Last Friday afternoon, at the regular Chapel period, the Assembly became the center of noise, excited talking, and united yelling. A pep meeting held to encourage the football boys before the Bemidji game, was in session. Bemidji has a strong team, and they all wanted to help the Lincoln High eleven put up as stiff a fight as possible.

Mr. Bye opened the Chapel period in a spirited manner, giving a short talk, and was followed upon the stage by two of the most enthusiastic members of the faculty, Miss Maude L. Johnson and Mr. Lawrence Mickelson, who took charge of the singing.

Two new school songs have been written and the student body, catching the spirit of the songs, learned them in a few minutes. Under such excellent leadership and accompaniment, the singing soon resounded thru out the whole building.

A speaker from each class had been asked to deliver a short talk on athletic spirit, and each was loudly and earnestly applauded. Melvin Englestad was the first speaker, and was followed by Lucille Roark, Millicent Sweger and Delton Rhodes, who spoke convincingly and well.

Math Barzen, the newly-elected football Captain, was then called upon for an impromptu speech, and told just how much the student body by its interest and encouragement helped to win the game.

Katherine Barzen then took the platform and Lincoln High fairly shook with the "Locomotive" and other yells. There is no doubt that this pep meeting gave the boys vim and fire, and helped them to play their best on the following day.

Dope on Games

Warren, 37; Red Lake Falls, 0

Last Saturday Warren played Red Lake Falls on her own field and beat them 37 to 0. Thief River has not played either of these teams yet, but hopes to arrange for a game with one of them before the close of the season.

East Grand Forks, 19; Crookston, 0

East Grand Forks beat Crookston 19 to 0 last Saturday. Crookston is improving with each conflict so the game with Thief River a week from Saturday should be a very close one.

Joke Exchange

Wise Soph: "They say that Mr. Bye hasn't slept for ten days."
Dumb Fresh.: "How come?"
Soph: "He sleeps at night."

Junior: I've never seen such dreamy eyes."
Senior: Maybe you never stayed up so late before.

Miss Thompson: Who was victorious?
Lylian A.: I don't know who she was.

EAST GRAND FORKS TO PLAY HERE SAT.

Saturday's Contest Is Last Game To Be Played on Local Field This Season.

The Thief River eleven will meet the East Grand Forks team on the local field Saturday, Oct. 20. This is the second and, unless another game is scheduled, the last game at home this season.

East Grand Forks has a very strong team this year and so far has defeated Stephen, and Crookston and tied Grand Forks. Though the local team has been defeated in the first three games, the very great improvement shown in the Bemidji game has given them new life and they are determined to make up for these defeats in the last few games.

Coach Thune has been putting them through hard practices the past week and has stiffened up the defense and offense and improved the tackling ability of the men. Because of the number competing for each position on the team there is keen rivalry among the boys and this has tended to raise the standard of each player.

As there are only two games at home this year and this is the last, a very large crowd will be expected to attend. The high school students should turn out one hundred percent strong and all the football fans from town should be there to back up their team.

Freshman Speech

I am a freshman, one of the greenest and most bothersome things to have around that the average student can think of. Nevertheless, among the things that I do not know, the fact that the student-body and its enthusiasm and interest in the work of its representatives is necessary to the completion of the work itself, is not to be found. The enthusiastic support of every high school student who can possibly give it will naturally have a very vivifying effect on the school's representatives who, in this case, are the team. While there is life there is hope but when the backing to something as a football team fails to put life into it there is no longer any hope. Our men, they are no longer boys, are going to a field far distant where our well known yells and cries of joy will not be heard as they make a yard at a time, working, struggling for the game while we sit at home warming our toes at the open fire and sip dainty nothings, unmindful of the struggle and the fight in which they are taking our place on the field. The game is over, the men are back with the news that the game is ours. The next eve over the fire is heard, "We sure had to fight to get the last score, the one that broke the tie. Didn't we?" The "we" is emphasized but of the team no word is spoken. We must remember that they are not hired per score, they receive no compensation for the work done and the fat worked off. All they expect and all they want is a good warm hand shake or anything that assures them of our confidence in them at the beginning of the game and congratulations and a few small bits of praise at the close. They are the victors but very few of the spoils are left when the plate reaches them. They work, toil, and perspire to bring home to us the honor that goes to the victorious.

Let us then give them an uproarious, ear-splitting, send-off and a rousing welcome. Remember, it is up to us. I mean half of the game and the accompanying responsibility. May the echoes of our cries and memories of leaving coupled with thoughts of a victor's welcome home make it unnecessary for us to be there to boost them along through the enemy tackles. That when the referee calls foul a freshman looks for the feathers may be true, but I will also hold that what I have said is at least half way right. A student-body that can shirk or foul and expect its representatives to fetch them the spoils of war is disloyal. This can be best stated in the immortal words, "In life as in a football game you must hit the line hard, don't foul, don't shirk but hit the line hard." With the snap of whipcord let's jerk into line, we'll show them that Lincoln High is built on a rock foundation. We'll show them that the full force of the enthusiasm of the entire student body is behind every move and motion of our men. This school and its reputation is no more than what we make it, so let's make it of the best.

First High School Party Held Last Saturday Eve.

The first high school dancing party this year was held last Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Sons of Norway hall.

Several fancy dances and ladies choice put spirit into the evening's enjoyment. Mrs. C. A. Nason and Mrs. T. L. Melgaard were the patronesses while Supt. F. T. Simley, Miss Alice Stapleton and Mrs. Blanche Korstad acted as chaperones. Excellent music was furnished by Miss Theone Walker and Arnold Anderson.

Although a fairly large crowd attended, it is hoped that the pupils will turn out even better next time. Everyone fully enjoyed the evening and the students are already looking forward to the next affair of this kind.

Eleanor Lonson, Class of '23, is employed as a stenographer in the office of the Illinois Macaroni Factory in Chicago.

A committee of three Juniors has been elected to work with the President and Advisor to select a Junior Class Play.

Elin Johnson, a member of the Junior class, has been absent from school for the past four days because of the death of her mother.

Miss Agnes Stavig, a member of last year's faculty, visited school Tuesday. She arrived in Thief River Monday night from Sisseton, S. Dak., and will remain here with Miss Clara Baumann for an indefinite period.

Ed Brevig Writes About Trip To Pacific Coast

A very interesting and informative letter was received a short time ago by Mrs. T. L. Melgaard from Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Brevig who were then at Portland, Oregon. The following reproduction of the letter will prove of much interest to the many local friends of the couple, who have been among the most highly esteemed residents of this city and left about a month ago on a trip thru western points.

"We have arrived, in the words of Columbus, 'after a long and arduous and dangerous journey.' Dangerous according the version of some motorist we met on the other side of the Rockies. As one returning friend of the road informed us, he wouldn't make the trip again for thousands. Well, we haven't seen anything that a woman, blind in one eye and with the palsy, couldn't drive over in comparative safety. Really if one comes out the Yellowstone Trail into the Park through Gardiner and out the west entrance through southern Idaho, the hills are practically unnoticeable, even with a Ford and could be scaled with comparative ease by a W. K. However I can't say much for the roads, since leaving Minnesota, except that, generally speaking, they are bum in S. D., Wyoming and Montana are very bad and in Southern Idaho they are terrible. Of course a Minnesotan is a prejudiced judge of roads, because I find that people from most states consider any thing good that they can get over, but suffice it to say that I have many times longed for the poorest side road in Pennington County. Even now that we are on the Gold Coast, the help of Providence is necessary if you ever leave the main road. The camps too, since leaving Minnesota, have as a rule been abominable places, without a vestige of grass and of course not a tree. In all cases where possible we have stopped by the wayside, but through the desert one is compelled to put up at the public grounds. Many an evening I have wished that you were along, just to hear you crab about the dust and dirt in which we have had to pitch camp. Small wonder that seasoned campers extol the qualities of the Thief River grounds. In spite of it all, we have stopped at a hotel only once and that at the miserable town of Ashton, Idaho. It was snowing when we left the Park and blowing a cold gale of dust when we struck Ashton. So for that one night we weakened and slept like white folks.

The first item of interest was the Black Hills district. Some of it is pretty, but I wouldn't advise anyone making the side trip, as the roads up through the mountains are a crime to humanity and the hills are still wild and untamed. That is the only place that Lizzie had to back up and get a second breath. By the way, when I got up in those hills I wanted more power and so with a wrench and screw driver took the carbon out of the engine.

From Deadwood we drove up across the Bad Lands of Wyoming and on to Billings. That is a desolate country and one day I think we drove for 120 miles and met only three cars. There is room for plenty of farmers in that country.

The next point of interest was the Park and in it we were not disappointed. One would not be disappointed if it contained only Old Faithful and the Grand Canyon. The roads are very fine and the whole drive through the place is a pleasant one.

The desert of Idaho is a tiresome one, but around Twin Falls and Boise where it is irregated they have a wonderful country. We liked it better than anything we have seen, not excepting Oregon. The Twin Falls and Boise country is largely devoted to fruit; peaches were selling for 60c a bushel and at that much of the fruit was rotting on the trees. So there are problems in all the ideal places. I can't say that I have seen anything that looks as good as Minnesota, thus far. We have struck Oregon during a miserable rain so it is rather dreary looking, although not very cold. The flowers and vegetables and fruit look fine.

Taking it all in all it has been a very enjoyable trip and very educational.

We have had very good luck with the car and only two tire blowouts, they being old tires when we left home and then did not give out until we struck Oregon. When we arrived here we bowed our heads in solemn thanks to old Liz for her faithful performance.

SENIOR CLASS RING CHOSEN THURSDAY

Class Votes on Two Rings Selected by Committee and One Unanimously Selected.

Last Thursday after school the Seniors held a meeting to vote on the Senior Class ring. The ring Committee, consisting of Mr. Bye, Miss Thompson, Harriet Morgan, Margaret Melgaard, Helen Sorenstad and Clifford Storholm, had chosen two rings to be voted on, one a yellow gold, the other a combination of green and yellow gold.

After a short discussion on the merits of both, the class voted, and the yellow and green gold ring won by an overwhelming majority of forty-two to one. It is an exceptionally good-looking class ring, and it is certain that the entire class will be satisfied with it.

The Seniors are now having their ring sizes taken at Stebbin's Jewelry store, and expect to have the rings in about a month.

Crookston Team Defeated E. G. Forks Eleven 19 to 0

Playing on a field made slippery by heavy rains and sleet and during intermittent drizzles East Grand Forks high school football team defeated Crookston high Friday afternoon.

The local footballers meet the East Grand Forks eleven Saturday afternoon, this week and a hot contest is assured by those who know the strength of both teams. The Thief River Falls boys, practically all of whom were inexperienced at the opening of the season, have now suffered three defeats but have learned much in football tactics and give assurance of a royal battle with the visiting aggregation.

It is expected that East Grand Forks will use practically the same lineup against the locals as against Crookston.

Leigh Anderson was absent from school Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday on account of illness.

Car Cost Computed

The generally accepted figure of ten cents a mile as the cost of operating the average automobile was adopted recently by the Wisconsin railroad commission as its official standard. The rate is held interesting for its many applications.

In Minnesota, for example, the recent traffic census showed that the average section of the state trunk highway system is traveled by 354 vehicles a day. If a new location or other change shortens the distance on a route carrying average travel it follows that it would mean a saving to 834 car-owners—auto tax payers who are bearing the big share of trunk highway costs.

At ten cents a mile, that saving would be $83.40 a day—more than $30,000 a year and $300,000 in ten years, all exclusive of the cost of improving and always maintaining the extra but unnecessary mile.

This discloses a big reason for the right building of highways in the first place—to secure the biggest returns on funds so invested.

General Agent in City

Gerry H. Hawes of Minneapolis, general agent of the Soo railroad, was in the city Tuesday to look after matters pertaining to the traffic department of this division.

School Dances

Just as any other important problem has to be carefully considered, so the popular issue of school dancing has to be looked into. People are constantly arguing, both sides supplying strong arguments to uphold their side of the question, but some time the line must be drawn, and we must take our choice of the two sides.

It is said to be detrimental to the community in that it leads the student to think more of good times and less of his school work. Then there is the opposition from the parents, who are against dancing, and do not want their boys and girls to learn to dance. Another objection is brought about thru the opinion of some, who claim the High school dance is not detrimental in itself, but that it has a tendency to cause the student to attend public dances.

During the last few years public dances have aroused much unfavorable comment, due to a certain type of entertainment held at places where very little order exists. A great deal of freedom and unbridled license was the result, and consequently was taken advantage of by those who attended such places. This type of entertainment is of two kinds, the barn-dance, and the small-town dance. Communities soon realized that there was need for new order and supervision, and took steps to discontinue such a practise. State officials exercised the authority in their hands, took the matter up and passed rules concerning this kind of amusement, as well as all public dancing. Therefore we find that today dances are much better conducted, and little complaint except that of former years comes from the public.

We find that in High School about 40% of the entire student body attends high school dances. They are attended by teachers and parents as well, and furnish the students with the wholesome entertainment they desire. It is the source of a clean social gathering, where those who partake are chaperoned and well cared for.

Gas In Well

While digging a well at the H. F. Hanson place at St. Hilaire recently, Ordean Olson and Albert Nash had an experience they do not wish to repeat. Gas had accumulated in the well and both men were subject to a liberal dose of it before they became aware of the danger. A lighted lantern lowered into the well after the men were on the surface, went out when it came within six feet from the bottom.

CO-OP PAYS FOR FIRST CAR EGGS

Return To Rice County Farmers Is 15 Per Cent Above The Local Market.

Rice county farmers, who are members of the newly organized co-operative egg marketing association recently received returns on the first car shipped by the association. Net returns to the farmer, according to A. A. McPheeters, county agent of Faribault, averaged 15 per cent over prices prevailing on the local market at the time of shipment. The co-operative shipment netted 29 cents a dozen for first grade eggs and 20 cents a dozen for those under grade. Much of the increase from local price of 25 cents a dozen was due to the close manner in which the shipment was graded.

The Rice county association is growing rapidly, according to Mr. McPheeters, and is in position to handle poultry, as well as egg shipments.

Several other county associations are about ready to begin operations, while still others are now in the organization stage.

EMINENT SPEAKERS ADDRESS BIBLE CONFERENCE THIS WEEK

Sessions at Presbyterian Church Well-Attended.—Will Continue including Sunday.

Dr. A. C. Gaebelein of New York City arrived in Thief River Falls Tuesday evening for the opening session of the Bible Conference which is being held in the Presbyterian Church every afternoon and evening through Sunday of this week. Dr. Gaebelein was accompanied by Peter MacFarlane, superintendent of the Union Gospel Mission of St. Paul, Miss Nellie Nelson soloist, and C. F. Philstrom of Warren, who is acting as song leader. On Saturday F. A. Steven, returned missionary from China Inland Mission will speak on his experiences in China. On Sunday the services will be in charge of Sidney Smith, business man from Winnipeg, who will speak morning, afternoon, and evening.

The sessions opened Tuesday evening with a large gathering of people. Dr. Gaebelein is a lecturer of note as well as an author. He has just completed a nine volume commentary on the Bible. He is editor of a devotional magazine entitled "Our Hope." He is also author of a number of books on religious subjects. Thief River Falls is fortunate to secure a man of such ability. It was possible to secure him only by arranging a series of Bible Conferences in other cities of this section. Dr. Gaebelein lectures in Hallock, Warren, Winnipeg, and Thief River Falls. Crookston wished to secure his services but were unable to do so at this time because Dr. Gaebelein must return to the East within a few days.

The sessions of the conference are held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and at 7:45 in the evening, and everybody is cordially invited to attend. The gatherings are highly instructive and inspirational and citizens of Thief River Falls should not fail to hear the splendid speakers who are visiting the city for this occasion

ROBINSON BECOMES LEGION COMMANDER

Oscar Paulson Resigns After 2 Years Service. Legionnaires Have Busy Session.

Dave Robinson is now commander of the Elmer J. Ecklund post of the American Legion, the change being made by reason of the resignation of former commander Oscar C. Paulson, who has held that position during the last two years. The resignation was tendered at the regular meeting on Thursday evening. Mr. Robinson, who was vice commander, automatically took Mr. Paulson's place upon his resignation, the reason for which was his entrance into the race for the office of alderman at large in the city election. Officers in the Legion posts cannot partake in city politics.

P. G. Peterson was chosen vice commander of the Pennington county post to fill the vacancy occasioned by Mr. Robinson's promotion. Both Mr. Robinson and Mr. Peterson have always been active in Legion doings and are able men to take care of the offices with which they are entrusted. Both were properly installed at the meeting last week.

Matters concerning the American Legion essay contest were acted upon, an explanation of which will appear later.

Action was also taken to proceed with a definite program for American Educational week, November 18 to 24, the details of which have not been worked out as yet. A feature of the week's observance will be meetings thruout the country, directed by the county superintendent and teachers.

The local post voted in favor of making a tour, similar to the recent Winnipeg tour, an annual event of Ninth District Legionaires, and designated W. W. Hall, Oscar Smith and H. S. Snyder as a local committee to attend to that feature. District Commander Yngve of Strandquist was made this post's choice as chairman of a Ninth District committee to make arrangements for such a tour.

Plans were also considered for the observance of Armistice Day, Nov. 11, which will this year be celebrated here on Monday, the 12. A committee was chosen to take care of arrangements for the affair, which will be similar to that given last year.

Warren Defeats R. L. F.

The Warren high school football team defeated the Red Lake Falls eleven to a final score of 34 to 0 in a game played last week. The Warren team is reported to be a strong aggregation this year and so far have been successful in winning every game played. No contest between the Warren eleven and the locals has been arranged this year, owing to the fact that the schedule could not be so arranged.

LOCAL EX-SERVICE MEN HEAR BUREAU REPRESENTATIVES

Re-Instate Government Insurance at Special Meeting of Legion Post Tuesday.

E. M. Bennes, local representative of the Lincoln National Life Insurance company, gave a very instructive talk on the need of life insurance, emphasizing the many ways in which such protection may be made to serve the interests of the insured, which was followed by an explanation of the advantages and privileges of United States life insurance by S. A. Warren, of Minneapolis, a representative of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau.

At this meeting the ex-service members of this community reinstated and converted $15,000 of government life insurance, thereby assuring that should they or their dependents need aid because of death or total permanent disability occuring to the insured, proper care of those needing such assistance, and relieving organizations interested in the welfare of ex-service men and dependents, of sharing the burden of caring for them. The medical examination of the men was made by Dr. A. W. Swedenborg, local post physician, without charge.

Fred W. Zellers, local field representative of the bureau, who supervises local training of the disabled and handles compensation claims against the government, was present to assist those having such matter to attend to. He urged those who have not yet filed to do so at once so as not to be barred because of the time limit for filing. He announced that he would be in the city from time to time to give such assistance as he can in settling claims against the Government, and during his absence T. P. Anderson, local service officer, is prepared to handle such questions as may arise, and urged the boys to call upon Mr. Anderson for assistance. O. C. Paulson is also prepared to give assistance to any exservice man desiring information or aid.

At the close of the meeting very appetizing refreshments were served by members of the local post.

Rev. Gerlinger to Give Series of Lectures on History of the Church

Are you a critic of the church? Have you found fault with it for having so many divisions and so little unity? If so, you will be interested in a series of lectures which Rev. Chas. Gerlinger has announced in connection with the Wednesday evening services of the Presbyterian church. The purpose of these lectures will be to give the people information on the history of the church so they will be more sympathetic with her problems. If one is to criticize the church, he ought to do it intelligently. Here is an opportunity to be informed. Here is an opportunity to see the reason why there are Lutherans and Methodists and Presbyterians. If one understands the history he will be less adverse in his criticism.

There lectures will deal with the founding of the church, and with its spread to Europe and America, the rise and decline of Papal power, the Prostestant Reformation, and the struggles of the branches of the church for their lives, the rise of Lutherans, Baptists, Presbyterians, Congregationalists, Quakers, and Methodists. They will also deal with recent progressive movements of the church and progress made toward unity.

The first of the lectures will be given Wednesday evening, Oct. 24, at 7:30, being preceded by a twenty-minute devotional period.

Does Not Loose Sight.

Mrs. James Thompson of Rosewood, who was injured in an automobile accident last week, and who nearly suffered the loss of her sight, is rapidly recovering from the effect of the flying glass from the broken windshield. She has incurred no permanent injuries.

John Morgan and B. H. Dickey left Sunday morning, by car, for Minneapolis and St. Paul where they will purchase stock for the variety store which Mr. Morgan will open in the building formerly occupied by Leiberman Bros. clothing store. B. H. Dickey has accepted the position of manager of the store. Opening of the store will take place November 15.

Wes Barry In Thrilling Picture at The Princess

Wesley Barry, the boy actor whom everybody likes to watch on the screen because he is boyhood incarnate, the spirit that never dies, is to be seen Friday and Saturday at the Princess Theater in his latest picture, "Heroes of the Street", a Harry Rapf production distributed by Warner Brothers.

This is a screen adaptation of Lem Parker's stage play; the scenario was written by Edmund Goulding and Mildred Considine. The story centers around young thirteen-year-old Micky Callahan. Irish up to his blue eyes, and blessed with a pair of fists which he finds useful in defending his reputation in the usual street fights of kids. Mickey's father is a goodhearted policeman who loves his family devotedly. A gang of clever blackmailers is busy in the city; they are the tools of some mysterious super-criminal, unknown even to the crooks themselves. Mickey's father is shot dead in the course of his duties; and all clues point to this shadowy sleuth, but the police are baffled. Left an orphan and the home provider, young Mickey is unhappy; the Irish in him wants to see the murderer brought to book, and he starts out on the search.

This involves him in some of the most extraordinary escapades, some laughable and ridiculous, others exciting and adventurous. Mickey, while sleuthing, helps to smooth the course of true love between an actress and a young man who has befriended him.

Attend U. Home Coming

A. R. Kohn and Roscoe Bakke motored to Grand Forks Saturday and spent that day and Sunday attending the Home Coming Festival for graduates. The city was elaborately decorated and the celebration was a gala event to many people. A feature of the Home Coming celebration was a football game between the Universities of South Dakota and North Dakota. The game ended in favor of the South Dakota team with a score of 13-12. Gordon LaBree of this city played center for the University of North Dakota during the greater part of the game.

ALLEGED AUTO THIEF IS SHOT AT HALLOCK

Young Manitoban Is At Warren Hospital With Bullet Wound. Faces Prison Term.

Shot in the leg as he attempted to board the south-bound flyer at Hallock in an effort to get away from a sheriff's posse after an alleged attempt to steal an automobile, a young man as George Rairie of 515 Windsor avenue, Winnipeg, Manitoba, was taken off the flyer at Warren Thursday night and removed to the Warren hospital for treatment of a serious bird-shot would in one leg.

When he recovers sufficiently he will be returned to Hallock to face a charge of stealing an automobile. Conviction on this charge carries a maximum penalty of ten years at Stillwater.

Rairie and another young man who escaped are alleged to have stolen a five passenger automobile belonging to Earl Turner in St. Vincent early Thursday and to have driven the car to within a short distance of Hallock where the car was abandoned in a pit and the two walked into town. Arriving in Hallock the two were said to have made the acquaintance of a young Hallock man who believed them to be laborers. They were said to have walked back to the pit only to walk into a sheriff's posse under command of Deputy Sheriff Ferguson, who were searching for the car and the thieves. They escaped in the brush, however, but Rairie was shot that night as he attemped to board the train. While at Warren Rairie is under supervision of Sheriff Hans C. Hanson.

The Hallock community is being combed for the man who got away.

Six Loyal Democrats in Fourth Ward

The attention of The Times has been called to the fact that in the last special election six votes were cast in favor of the democratic candidate in the fourth ward instead of two as reported in the issue following the election.

Creameries Adopt Sales Plan.

Co-operative creameries of Meeker county have formally approved plans for the establishment of a state sales agency, now being perfected by the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries' association, under the direction of H. F. Meyer, manager of the sales department. At a meeting held recently at Litchfield, representatives of 23 creameries were present to hear the plan explained. Officers of eight creameries signed the agreement at that time and Mr. Meyer was given assurance that all others would join the movement as quickly as board meetings could be called.

You must see these new overcoats

Jacobs Oregon City Virgin Wool

OVERCOATS

judge them by any standard

1. STYLE There's style in Oregon City coats from the fashion centers of the world—as smart as you'll see on any avenue. "Kimona" sleeves and back, raglan shoulders with yoke, set-in sleeves, patch pockets with flap and button, disappearing belts, hook vents. The fabrics themselves have style. There are plaid backs, the new "through and through" plaids, and rich plain colors.
2. QUALITY Quality of Oregon City coats is the sort that only pure virgin wool can give. Pure virgin wool is new fleece just as it comes from the sheep's back, never used or worked before. Oregon City fabrics are warm and wearproof. They hold their style. They have been winning prizes at World's Fairs since 1875.
3. PRICE You'll be surprised at the moderate prices of these quality coats. We buy direct from the Oregon City people, makers of both fabric and garment.

A Word to Our Out of Town Customers

We have sold our men's store building to John Morgan and must vacate the building before Nov. 1st. The selling of our store building was entirely unforseen by us at the beginning of the season when the heavy stocks in both stores were purchased. In order to cut our stocks down and condense the two stores into one before Nov. 1 we are therefore forced to slash prices to the lowest ebb. After Nov. 1st our Men's and Ladies' stores will be consolidated under the main Lieberman's Department store at the Citizens State Bank Building.

Gas In Well

While digging a well at the H. F. Hanson place at St. Hilaire recently, Ordean Olson and Albert Nash had an experience they do not wish to repeat. Gas had accumulated in the well and both men were subject to a liberal dose of it before they became aware of the danger. A lighted lantern lowered into the well after the men were on the surface, went out when it came within six feet from the bottom.

CO-OP PAYS FOR FIRST CAR EGGS

Return To Rice County Farmers Is 15 Per Cent Above The Local Market.

Rice county farmers, who are members of the newly organized co-operative egg marketing association recently received returns on the first car shipped by the association. Net returns to the farmer, according to A. A. McPheeters, county agent of Faribault, averaged 15 per cent over prices prevailing on the local market at the time of shipment. The co-operative shipment netted 29 cents a dozen for first grade eggs and 20 cents a dozen for the under grade. Much of the increase from local price of 25 cents a dozen was due to the close manner in which the shipment was graded.

The Rice county association is growing rapidly, according to Mr. McPheeters, and is in position to handle poultry, as well as egg shipments.

Several other county associations are about ready to begin operations, while still others are now in the organization stage.

Sessions at Presbyterian Church Well Attended. Will Continue Including Sunday.

Dr. A. C. Gaebelein of New York City arrived in Thief River Falls Tuesday evening for the opening session of the Bible Conference which is being held in the Presbyterian Church every afternoon and evening through Sunday of this week. Dr. Gaebelein was accompanied by Peter MacFarlane, superintendent of the Union Gospel Mission of St. Paul, Miss Nellie Nelson soloist, and C. F. Pihlstrom of Warren, who is acting as song leader. On Saturday F. A. Steven, returned missionary from China Inland Mission will speak on his experiences in China. On Sunday the services will be in charge of Sidney Smith, business man from Winnipeg, who will speak morning, afternoon, and evening.

The sessions opened Tuesday evening with a large gathering of people. Dr. Gaebelein is a lecturer of note as well as an author. He has just completed a nine volume commentary on the Bible. He is editor of a devotional magazine entitled "Our Hope." He is also author of a number of books on religious subjects. Thief River Falls is fortunate to secure a man of such ability. It was possible to secure him only by arranging a series of Bible Conferences in other cities of this section. Dr. Gaebelein lectures in Hallock, Warren, Winnipeg, and Thief River Falls. Crookston wished to secure his services but were unable to do so at this time because Dr. Gaebelein must return to the East within a few days.

The sessions of the conference are held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and at 7:45 in the evening, and everybody is cordially invited to attend. The gatherings are highly instructive and inspirational and citizens of Thief River Falls should not fail to hear the splendid speakers who are visiting the city for this occasion.

ROBINSON BECOMES LEGION COMMANDER

Oscar Paulson Resigns After 2 Years Service. Legionaires Have Busy Session.

Dave Robinson is now commander of the Elmer J. Eklund post of the American Legion, the change being made by reason of the resignation of former commander Oscar C. Paulson, who has held that position during the last two years. The resignation was tendered at the regular meeting on Thursday evening. Mr. Robinson, who was vice commander, automatically took Mr. Paulson's place upon his resignation, the reason for which was his entrance into the race for the office of alderman at large in the city election. Officers in the Legion posts cannot partake in city politics.

P. G. Peterson was chosen vice commander of the Pennington county post to fill the vacancy occasioned by Mr. Robinson's promotion. Both Mr. Robinson and Mr. Peterson have always been active in Legion doings and are able men to take care of the offices with which they are entrusted. Both were properly installed at the meeting last week.

Matters concerning the American Legion essay contest were acted upon, an explanation of which will appear later.

Action was also taken to proceed with a definite program for American Educational week, November 18 to 24, the details of which have not been worked out as yet. A feature of the week's observance will be meetings thruout the country, directed by the county superintendent and teachers.

The local post voted in favor of making a tour, similar to the recent Winnipeg tour, an annual event of Ninth District Legionnaires, and designated W. W. Hall, Oscar Smith and H. S. Snyder as a local committee to attend to that feature. District Commander Yngve of Strandquist was made this post's choice as chairman of a Ninth District committee to make arrangements for such a tour.

Plans were also considered for the observance of Armistice Day, Nov. 11, which will this year be celebrated here on Monday, the 12. A committee was chosen to take care of arrangements for the affair, which will be similar to that given last year.

Warren Defeats R. L. F.

The Warren high school football team defeated the Red Lake Falls eleven to a final score of 34 to 0 in a game played last week. The Warren team is reported to be a strong aggregation this year and so far have been successful in winning every game played. No contest between the Warren eleven and the locals has been arranged this year, owing to the fact that the schedule could not be so arranged.

LOCAL EX-SERVICE MEN HEAR BUREAU REPRESENTATIVES

Re-Instate Government Insurance at Special Meeting of Legion Post Tuesday.

E. M. Bennes, local representative of the Lincoln National Life Insurance company, gave a very instructive talk on the need of life insurance, emphasizing the many ways in which such protection may be made to serve the interests of the insured, which was followed by an explanation of the advantages and privileges of United States life insurance by S. A. Warren, of Minneapolis, a representative of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau.

At this meeting the ex-service members of this community reinstated and converted $15,000 of government life insurance, thereby assuring that should they or their dependents need aid because of death or total permanent disability occuring to the insured, proper care of those needing such assistance, and relieving organizations interested in the welfare of ex-service men and dependents of sharing the burden of caring for them. The medical examination of the men was made by Dr. A. W. Swedenburg, local post physician, without charge.

Fred W. Zellers, local field representative of the bureau, who supervises local training of the disabled and handles compensation claims against the government, was present to assist those having such matter to attend to. He urged those who have not yet filed to do so at once so as not to be barred because of the time limit for filing. He announced that he would be in the city from time to time to give such assistance as he can in settling claims against the Government, and during his absence T. P. Anderson, local service officer, is prepared to handle such questions as may arise, and urged the boys to call upon Mr. Anderson for assistance. O. C. Paulson is also prepared to give assistance to any exservice man desiring information or aid.

At the close of the meeting very appetizing refreshments were served by members of the local post.

Are you a critic of the church? Have you found fault with it for having so many divisions and so little unity? If so, you will be interested in a series of lectures which Rev. Chas. Gerlinger has announced in connection with the Wednesday evening services of the Presbyterian church. The purpose of these lectures will be to give the people information on the history of the church so they will be more sympathetic with her problems. If one is to criticize the church, he ought to do it intelligently. Here is an opportunity to be informed. Here is an opportunity to see the reason why there are Lutherans and Methodists and Presbyterians. If one understands the history he will be less adverse in his criticism.

These lectures will deal with the founding of the church, and with its spread to Europe and America, the rise and decline of Papal power, the Prostestant Reformation, and the struggles of the branches of the church for their lives, the rise of Lutherans, Baptists, Presbyterians, Congregationalists, Quakers, and Methodists. They will also deal with recent progressive movements of the church and progress made toward unity.

The first of the lectures will be given Wednesday evening, Oct. 24, at 7:30, being preceded by a twenty-minute devotional period.

Does Not Loose Sight.

Mrs. James Thompson of Rosewood, who was injured in an automobile accident last week, and who nearly suffered the loss of her sight, is rapidly recovering from the effect of the flying glass from the broken windshield. She has incurred no permanent injuries.

John Morgan and B. H. Dickey left Sunday morning, by car, for Minneapolis and St. Paul where they will purchase stock for the variety store which Mr. Morgan will open in the building formerly occupied by Leiberman Bros. clothing store. B. H. Dickey has accepted the position of manager of the store. Opening of the store will take place November 15.

Wes Barry in Thrilling Picture at The Princess

Wesley Barry, the boy actor whom everybody likes to watch on the screen because he is boyhood incarnate, the spirit that never dies, is to be seen Friday and Saturday at the Princess Theater in his latest picture, "Heroes of the Street", a Harry Rapf production distributed by Warner Brothers.

This is a screen adaptation of Lem Parker's stage play; the scenario was written by Edmund Goulding and [illegible] Considine. The story centers around young thirteen-year-old Micky Callahan, Irish up to his blue eyes, and blessed with a pair of fists which he finds useful in defending his reputation in the usual street fights of kids. Mickey's father is a goodhearted policeman who loves his family devotedly. A gang of clever blackmailers is busy in the city; they are the tools of some mysterious super-criminal, unknown even to the crooks themselves. Mickey's father is shot dead in the course of his duties; and all clues point to this shadowy sleuth, but the police are baffled. Left an orphan and the home provider, young Mickey is unhappy; the Irish in him wants to see the murderer brought to book, and he starts out on the search.

This involves him in some of the most extraordinary escapades, some laughable and ridiculous, others exciting and adventurous. Mickey, while sleuthing, helps to smooth the course of true love between an actress and a young man who has befriended him.

Attend U. Home Coming

A. R. Kolm and Roscoe Bakke motored to Grand Forks Saturday and spent that day and Sunday attending the Home Coming Festival for graduates. The city was elaborately decorated and the celebration was a gala event to many people. A feature of the Home Coming celebration was a football game between the Universities of South Dakota and North Dakota. The game ended in favor of the South Dakota team with a score of 13-12. Gordon LaBree of this city played center for the University of North Dakota during the greater part of the game.

ALLEGED AUTO THIEF IS SHOT AT HALLOCK

Young Manitoban Is At Warren Hospital With Bullet Wound. Faces Prison Term.

Shot in the leg as he attempted to board the south-bound flyer at Hallock in an effort to get away from a sheriff's posse after an alleged attempt to steal an automobile, a young man as George Rairie of 516 Windsor avenue, Winnipeg, Manitoba, was taken off the flyer at Warren Thursday night and removed to the Warren hospital for treatment of a serious bird-shot would in one leg.

When he recovers sufficiently he will be returned to Hallock to face a charge of stealing an automobile. Conviction on this charge carries a maximum penalty of ten years at Stillwater.

Rairie and another young man who escaped are alleged to have stolen a five passenger automobile belonging to Earl Turner in St. Vincent early Thursday and to have driven the car to within a short distance of Hallock where the car was abandoned in a pit and the two walked into town. Arriving in Hallock the two were said to have made the acquaintance of a young Hallock man who believed them to be laborers. They were said to have walked back to the pit only to walk into a sheriff's posse under command of Deputy Sheriff Ferguson, who were searching for the car and the thieves. They escaped in the brush, however, but Rairie was shot that night as he attemped to board the train. While at Warren Rairie is under supervision of Sheriff Hans C. Hanson.

The Hallock community is being combed for the man who got away.

You must see these new overcoats

Jacobs Oregon City Virgin Wool
OVERCOATS
judge them by any standard

1. STYLE There's style in Oregon City coats from the fashion centers of the world—as smart as you'll see on any avenue. "Kimona" sleeves and back, raglan shoulders with yoke, set-in sleeves, patch pockets with flap and button, disappearing belts, hook vents. The fabrics themselves have style. There are plaid backs, the new "through and through" plaids, and rich plain colors.
2. QUALITY Quality of Oregon City coats is the sort that only pure virgin wool can give. Pure virgin wool is new fleece just as it comes from the sheep's back, never used or worked before. Oregon City fabrics are warm and wear-proof. They hold their style. They have been winning prizes at World's Fairs since 1875.
3. PRICE You'll be surprised at the moderate prices of these quality coats. We buy direct from the Oregon City people, makers of both fabric and garment.

PRIZE AWARDS ANNOUNCED FOR BIG CROP SHOW

Plans For Crop and Poultry Exhibition Dec. 4, 5, 6 and 7 Nearing Completion.

PUREBRED BIRD DISPLAY WILL BE LARGEST EVER

Liberal Awards Will Be Given Exhibition Winners In All Classes of Crops.

Every day, in every way plans for the crop and poultry show are nearing completion. The various committees are now actively at work making the necessary plans for the big event which will take place in this city during the first week of December, the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th.

Indications are that the poultry exhibits this year will be the most extensive and best that have ever been placed on display under the auspices of the Pennington County Poultry association, according to statement by Olaf Neset, president of the association. Many inquiries concerning the show have been received from poultry fanciers in this section and more distant parts of the state, competition in that department being open to the world. It is announced that premium lists will be distributed in the near future, the classes of birds and prize awards being nearly identically the same as last year. All classes will be listed in the class of perfection.

A feature of the poultry division will be the public poultry sale scheduled to take place Dec. 7. Standard bred poultry, including all breeds of chickens, turkeys, ducks and geese, will be offered for sale at this auction, which is open to everyone. Entries will close Dec. 4. An auction fee of 10 per cent will be charged. On the 4th W. E. Stanfield of the Northwest Farmstead will talk on "The Raising of Poultry for Profit," his subject to include the fattening, feeding, killing for market and other phases of the industry. The 6th will be poultry educational day, when Mr. Stanfield, assisted by leading breeders making exhibits, will explain the good qualities of all standard breeds. Other days of the show will be devoted to special programs regarding alfalfa, clovers, corn and other farm products.

Many Prominent Speakers.

Among the speakers who have been arranged by the committee to be at the show to give educational lectures and assist in the various programs, are: W. E. Stanfield, poultry editor of the Northwest Farmstead, Minneapolis; Prof. C. G. Selvig, superintendent of the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston; Prof. T. M. McCall, crop expert of the same institution; Prof. R. S. Dunham, soil expert also of the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston; Chas. Hutcheson of the Northwest Farmstead; L. V. Wilson, dairy expert, University Dairy Farm, St. Paul; A. J. McGuire, general manager of the Minnesota Co-operative Creamery association; J. C. Haney of the International Harvester company. The committee is also corresponding with several other prominent men who may be secured for the occasion.

Competition in the crop division is open to farmers of Pennington county and the following townships in Marshall county: Viking, New Solum, Excell, Agder, Grand Plain, Moylan and Esplee. No entry fees are charged but applications for exhibit space should reach the general manager, T. M. Thronson, department superintendents or secretary not later than Nov. 28 with statement as to number and kind of exhibits.

Only one prize in each class will be awarded in a family, and all products must be actually grown on the exhibitors farm.

All first and second prize entries will be entered at the Crookston Winter Shows, which will add much interest to the contests.

Announcement is made this week of the prizes offered for winners in the crop division, which includes corn, alfalfa, clovers, potatoes, grains and

Twenty-Nine Pennington County Farmers Have Registered Names on Farms

Northern Minnesota farmers are beginning to register names they have chosen for their farms, the registering amounting to about the same thing as a copyright. The idea is widely used in counties which have long been settled and indications are that the commendable custom is being introduced into the northern section and more new territory as well. A definite name attached to each particular farm adds much to the place, and is proving very popular, especially where the owner specializes in certain lines of stock, poultry or grain.

Pennington county has farmers to the number of twenty-nine who have secured registered names for their farms, indicating that they are awake to the various practical advantages of the idea. Only one has been secured the past year. Those who have had the names of their farms registered with the register of deeds are:

Rasmus M. Johnson, Oak Grove; Gunder Asbjornson, Arneberg; Ingebert H. Olson, Fair View Stock Farm; P. A. Hallstrom, Fair Dale Farm; Tallak Gabrielson, Haukland; Peter Johnson, Oakland Grain Farm; Grunde Austad, Austad; Salve T. Myrum, Myrum; Targe O. Lang[illegible]; William G. Hunt, Sunbeam; Frank R. Martinson, River Bend; James O'Brien, River Park; Martin [illegible], Oakland Park; Daisy T. Mead, The Ogamah Ranch; Carl Mollin, South View Farm; George Singer, Ridge Farm; John E. Peterson, Meadow Brook; Thomas Sumpter, Alfalfa Farm; Swan Scholin, Rose Hill Farm; Swan Scholin, Golden Prairie; John Naplin, Elm Grove; Effie Hamry, Idle Wild; O. E. Wilson, Morning View; Charles F. Carlson, Burr Oak; Joseph F. Keil, Green Meadow; Herman Jepson, Brook Side Farm; Charles R. Penalune, Home Farm; Herman Fallman, Montrose; M. Erickson, River Lea.

CITY COUNCIL HOLDS BUSY SESSION TUES. FIX 1924 TAX LEVY

Second Reading Of Milk Ordinance Which Provides For Testing and Inspection of Cows.

The routine business appearing before the aldermen at the regular council meeting Tuesday night was quickly disposed of outside of the second reading of the rather lengthy milk ordinance and the consideration of the tax levy for next year.

The milk ordinance was given its second reading without any objection thereto and with only one change being made, that of having the expiration date of all licenses read May 1 each year. A license fee of only a dollar will probably be agreed on at the third and final reading next month. The ordinance provides that all cows shall be regularly tested and fixes the fee therefor at $2.50 for the first cow, $2 for the second, $1 for the third and 50c for each additional cow, except, however, that accredited herds as provided by state law inspection shall not be required to undergo another inspection. The fine for violators is fixed at not less than $10 nor more than $100, or by imprisonment for not more than 90 days.

The Pyramid Oil company was granted a building permit to remodel the Peoples Auto garage, recently purchased, and also for the erection of a storage building on the Soo property on North Atlantic avenue. This structure will be 12 by 18 feet in size. A second permit was granted to Chas. Helquist for a garage on Duluth avenue north at a cost of $100.

Changes in the personnel of the election boards was necessitated by three members thereof becoming candidates for election. L. R. Twete was substituted for Hans Rustad in the first ward; Martin Benson for Scott Laird in the second ward; and Oscar Smith for Carsten Christensen in the third.

The council appropriated $75 for the purchase of the two lots in Lovers Lane owned by Jan Chrpa, now a resident of Bohemia.

The council then adjourned following the allowance of the regular semi-monthly list of bills.

Will Move Stock Nov. 1

Albert S. Lieberman announces that he will continue his business operations at his usual places until Nov. 1, when the stock in the men's clothing store on La Bree avenue will be moved to the department store in the Citizens State bank building. The latter place is undergoing considerable change to allow ample space for both departments, men's and ladies' clothing, so that one does not interfere with the other. To properly accommodate this the store has been divided and other improvements made, prior to the moving of the stock.

The consolidation of the two stores into one will greatly reduce the over head expense of operation and thus enable Mr. Lieberman to give his customers the best of service at the least cost.

Get-Together Meeting.

The following communication was received from Rev. V. O. Aaker, pastor of the Norwegian Lutheran church of Goodridge:

"Reader, where are you going to spend Sunday, Nov. 4? You are invited to the fall festival at Goodridge. This festival or get-together meeting is not only for Goodridge but for the country people as well and we would like to see many from Thief River Falls. This is a Sunday when the women ought to be relieved from making dinner. Bring therefore your wife and your whole family to the chicken dinner, served by the Ladies' Aid of Goodridge. Divine Scandinavian services at 11 a. m. Dinner at 12 o'clock, and a splendid program in the afternoon, consisting of songs, speeches, solos, etc. The afternoon program will be conducted in the English language."

Westin Reports Finding Iron Ore On Farm Near Trail. Will Investigate

O. A. Westin, a resident of Thief River Falls for 15 years until three years ago when he moved to Forest Lake, arrived in the city Saturday for a few days stay visiting with friends and looking after business matters. Mr. Westin, who paid this office a friendly call during his visit here, stated that when on his farm three miles west of Trail, about 35 miles southeast of this city, last week he found specimens of iron ore. A ditch was being dug thru the farm and small layers or veins containing ore of about 70 or 75% pure was found three feet under the surface. Signs of ore have been in evidence there before and some prospecting was done but not extensively. Mr. Westin said that he will make further investigations as to the extent of the mineral and possibilities are that it may be found in a considerable amount. Mr. Westin carried samples of the ore showing a high percentage of mineral.

HUNDREDS HEAR BIBLE LECTURES AT CONFERENCE

Sessions of Thief River Falls Bible Conference Draw Large Crowds During Week.

WINNIPEG BUSINESS MAN EMPHAZISES CHRISTIANITY

Prominent Lectures Present Inspirational Interpretations Of The Bible.

Five hundred people attended the closing session of the Thief River Falls Bible Conference in the Auditorium Sunday evening. The Sunday sessions were addressed by Sidney Smith, prominent business man of Winnipeg, who was here for the conference last year also. The emphasis with which Mr. Smith spoke of the need of Christianity in the life of today made a deep impression upon the people who heard him. He was accompanied by Mr. Crawford, young lawyer of Winnipeg, who spoke Sunday evening about his conversion when he first came to Canada. He told also of the change in his life which had come when he became a Christian.

Dr. A. C. Gaebelein, of New York city, addressed the opening sessions of the conference, until Friday when he returned to Winnipeg where a similar conference was in session. Dr. Gaebelein spoke on the importance of the Bible in the world. He championed the claim of the Bible for inspiration as the Word of God. He showed the errors of the critics who reject all or parts of the Bible. He also gave careful interpretations of the Bible's message and showed how important those messages are for men. Dr. Gaebelein is a Bible lecturer and teacher of note. He is editor of the devotional magazine "Our Hope" and of a nine volume work called "The Annotated Bible". He is also author of a number of books on religious subjects.

On Saturday the sessions were addressed by Mr. Steven who is secretary for the China Inland Mission. He told of the wide development of that work from the time of its founding by Mr. Hudson Taylor. He said they did not solicit funds for the support of the work but depended upon answered prayer entirely. He said they employed one hundred and eighty missionaries, that the Mission had never been in debt and had never recalled a man from the field or rejected a qualified candidate for lack of funds. He spoke at length of the remarkable career of the great Christian Chinese general who is now commander of the army of China.

Four churches of Thief River Falls, united in this conference on the emphasis of the word of the Bible. They are the Methodist, Swedish Mission, Scandinavian Evangelical, and Presbyterian. The conference was supervised by Peter MacFarlane, superintendent of the Union Gospel Mission, St. Paul. It was financed entirely by the voluntary offerings of the people who attended the sessions, and many of them came from Warren, St. Hilaire, and other towns in this section.

C. F. Pihlstrom of Warren led the singing and Miss Nellie Nelson of St. Paul sang at each session, features which were much enjoyed by everyone who attended the various gatherings.

Buffalo Bones Unearthed In River Bed Near Bagley

People who thought they had lived in northern Minnesota long enough to know its history will decide they know less than they thought, when they are told that huge deposits of buffalo bones have recently been excavated from the Clearwater river bottoms four miles west of Bagley. A deposit 100 feet long and seven feet deep, covered by river deposit, tells a little of past history not written. Old hunters will tell you there have never been buffalo in this country, they never have seen signs of buffalo. Perhaps if they had inhabited this region ten thousand years ago they would have enjoyed the buffalo shooting which would have been plentiful. The bones recently discovered at Bagley are so old that they are almost fossilized. The deposit will attract the attention of biologists and further information is apt to develop new facts about the nature of this country when this buffalo herd plunged over the hills and into the soft bogs of the river bottom.

LEVY FOR 1924 TAX BY COUNCIL SHOWS DECREASE

Total Requirements For City Purposes Fixed at $2200 Less Than Last Year.

PARK, LIBRARY, CEMETERY AND LIGHTING FUNDS CUT

Current Fund Is Increased $2000 While Paving Fund Is $1000 Above 1923 Levy.

The city council in an endeavor to hold down taxes next year Tuesday night at the regular meeting levied an assessment of $55,000 for 1924, this amount being $2,200 less than last year and $500 less than two years ago.

In order to do this it became necessary to cut the amounts set aside this present year in some of the funds, such as the park fund, library fund, cemetery fund and street lighting fund, but increasing some of the others, such as the current fund and the paving fund.

The park fund a year ago had a credit balance of $741 and this year $3,503 and the allowance for next year is only $3,000 as compared to $5,000 a year ago. Just how much this will interfere with the plans of the park board in the construction of a swimming pool remains to be seen.

The library board will have its funds reduced $500 this next year, receiving only $3,700, there being a credit balance at this time of $1,089 as compared to $353 last year. The cemetery fund was likewise reduced $200, the allowance for next year being $800, the cemetery fund showing a credit balance of $5,248, at this time, or $1,000 more than a year ago.

The auditorium fund was reduced from $2,000 to $1,000 in the new levy; the interest fund from $2,500 to $2,000; while the street lighting fund was eliminated entirely.

The current fund was boosted from $30,000 to $32,000 and the paving fund from $5,000 to $6,000; while the hydrant fund was left at $2,000 and the sinking fund at $500.

The poor fund also was allowed to stand as it was last year at $4,000. The fund was in the red a year ago $2,697 while this year it had climbed to $3,620.

The band fund will be augmented again this year on the same basis as last year—a half mill tax — which added to what was laid aside for band purposes, will give a nice sum ensuring good music for next year if a band is organized.

'MAIN STREET' MOVED TO PRINCESS THEATRE

Originally Booked For Lyceum Will Be Shown At Princess Sunday and Monday.

The popular and widely read novel portraying life in a small Minnesota town, "Main Street" by Sinclair Lewis, will be shown on the screen at the Princess theatre next Sunday and Monday and should prove of special interest to theater goers of Thief River Falls. It is a decided success, a picture with a punch, the picture of the year without exaggeration. Whether it was the masterly acting of Florence Vidor and Monte Blue, and the all-star cast, or the exceptional direction of Harry Beaumont, or the sheer strength of Sinclair Lewis' story, is hard to say. But what can be said is that these elements all combine into the making of a picture that one will have to go far to equal.

So finely did Florence Vidor interpret the role of the unhappy Carol Kennicott that it is difficult to visualize any other actress in this role. Another player could not have given it the many nuances of feeling, the fine characterization, the thousand and one touches that make the role live vividly. Carol Kennicott is a decided creation.

The story, very briefly, is of Carol Kennicott, brought to Gopher Prairie by her husband, the worthy Doctor Kennicott. She rebels against what she considers the narrowness and lack of culture in the small town; she wants to revolutionize it in a short time. But the inhabitants are easy-going and phlegmatic; they don't like being shaken out of their old ruts. The climax is fascinatingly worked out.

Operated Still To Make Living During Hard Time Period, Says Moonshiner

Matt W. Drees of Red Lake Falls township, Red Lake county, will serve a term of 30 days in jail and will pay a fine of $150 for having moonshine in his possession for sale, according to the Gazette. He was arrested by Sheriff Chas. Fellman, who found a large copper still upstairs in the Drees residence going in full blast with Drees in charge. The apparatus and a quantity of mash was seized.

At the preliminary hearing before Justice P. F. Pouliot, Drees freely admitted his guilt, said that times were hard and that he had to make money somehow, so went into the wholesale liquor business. He was bound over to the district court by Justice Pouliot and was accordingly taken before Judge Watts at Crookston by the Red Lake county authorities. He was given a stay until Nov. 1 before starting to serve his sentence so as to complete his farm work.

TWENTY-SEVEN CANDIDATES IN OFFICIAL RACE

City Election Becomes Spirited As Nov. 6 Approaches. Many Filings Last Week.

SILK FILES FOR MAYOR IN OPPOSITION TO ARNESON

Rustad and Dablow Race For Alderman-at-Large. Four Municipal Judge Candidates.

A total of twenty-seven candidates are now in the field for a berth in the ten offices of the city government which will be filled at the regular election on Tuesday, Nov. 6.

A large number of candidates did not file with City Clerk A. H. Akre until last week, the last day for filing being Saturday, and the ballot, a sample of which appears in this issue of The Times, shows that every office is contested except that of city treasurer for which Ed. M. Evenson is the only candidate.

Indications are now that the approaching election will be a spirited one in spite of the little apparent interest shown in the forepart of the campaign. It is anticipated that a large vote will be cast this year judging by the present outlook. Attention is brought to the fact that voters from all four wards of the city will cast their ballots at the auditorium, the polling place to be open from 6 a. m. until 8 p. m.

The race for mayor of Thief River Falls will be between Norman J. Silk, Soo line engineer, and J. S. Arneson, publisher of The Tribune, Mr. Silk filing last week. There are six candidates in the field for alderman at large, of which two are to be chosen, the aspirants for that position being F. C. Dablow, Martin V. Evenson, Albert Halseth, Oscar C. Paulson, J. J. Weeks and Hans Rustad. None of these men serve on the present council. For alderman of First ward the following filed: T. A. Fossum, Carl Froseth and L. D. McAdams; Second ward, John Dahl, Helmer Ostrom and Chris Porter; Third ward, H. A. Brumund and Carsten Christensen; Fourth ward, O. L. Bakken, Knut Melby, Andrew Ness and O. A. Rambeck. Froseth, Dahl, Brumund and Ness are candidates for re-election. Altho the present incumbent of the office of municipal judge, N. W. Tarrant, was the only candidate for that office until last week, three more have entered the contest since then. They are G. Halvorson, George M. Wilson and R. K. Calloway. Scott Laird and G. Howard Smith have filed as candidates for the office of special municipal judge.

Considerable campaigning is being done for various candidates altho no definite issues have developed as far in the campaign. This is a rather singular fact for a city election.

Sixteen to seventeen hours of concentrated study each of the four days is the program of the event. 'PENNINGTON COUNTY, THE HOME OF ALFALFA' SLOGAN ADOPTED BY BANKERS AT BANQUET TUES.

HOME OF ALFALFA

(Melody, Solomon Levi)

We hail the home of Alfalfa
In Pennington County
It is the best of all the Crops
That ever there could be.
We live in the Alfalfa Zone
Of Minnesota State
And every farmer ought to be
A grower up-to-date.

CHORUS

Oh! Pennington County
Tra la la la la la la
Home of Alfalfa
Tra la la la la la la la la la la la
We hail the home of Alfalfa
In Pennington County
It is the best of all the crops
That ever there could be.

And there is Peter Engelstad
Of Pennington County
The Pioneer of Alfalfa
Of him we must take heed
He raises Guernsey Cattle
And feeds Alfalfa Hay
Which makes the cream checks grow and swell
And thereby saves the day.
(Cho.)

We have the Limestone in our soil
Which makes Alfalfa grow
From two to four to six tons
Per acre you must know
It is the food for Dairy cows
That makes good butter and cream
And lines the pockets of the man
With dollars and cents that gleam.
(Cho.)

And here comes Pennington Bankers
Who woke up to the fact
That every farmer in the rank
Was making lots of Jack
They got behind the movement
To boost Alfalfa Hay
And help with the improvements
To raise and pave the way.
(Cho.)

Much Interest In Campaign To Increase Alfalfa Acreage By Thousands of Acres.

THIS SECTION IS IDEAL FOR CROP, SAYS EXPERT

Bankers Pledge Support To Movement. Consider Financing Seed Distribution.

Alfalfa growing in Pennington county will be given a real impetus by the bankers of Pennington county, according to a program launched by the association of bankers who are joining hands with the growers of the community to increase the present acreage manyfold. A regular pep meeting was held at the Commercial club rooms Tuesday evening, attended by all the bankers of the county, and many of the members of the boards of directors including some of the growers in this vicinity. The gathering was in the form of a business meeting and banquet as a step in working up enthusiasm and interest in the movement. The optimistic talks, based on facts which have proven the possibilities of Pennington county, convinced every one present that a new era will come to this community if the alfalfa bug catches every farmer in this county to the extent that he begins growing alfalfa properly, in line with other branches of diversified farming.

Already Pennington has a considerable acreage put into alfalfa, and the demand for seed by farmers here has grown tremendously the past year. The movement to still further promote and increase the production of this crop will tend to place this county in the front ranks of alfalfa producing sections. It was pointed out by the speakers at Tuesday's meeting that the results so far obtained are of the best in the country and exceed those in many sections because of the natural adaptability of the soil to this crop.

Among those who addressed the meeting Tuesday were: Hans Anton and Peter Engelstad, pioneer alfalfa growers of this county; Thos. H. Smith, Mavie banker; J. S. Arneson of The Tribune; County Agent J. J. McCann, Chas. R. Hutcheson of the Northwest Farmstead and others interested in the project. Most of the speakers stressed upon the success of local alfalfa growers, who are making money on their farming operations by reason of their alfalfa, and the natural adaptability of this section for the growing of this crop. Many instances of large returns both in forage and seed were cited. Mr. Hutcheson, who has made a life-long study of the alfalfa plant and is spending some time looking over possibilities of increased production here, aroused much enthusiasm by pointing out that after visiting a large number of farms in this vicinity and making observations of conditions here, he was convinced that Pennington county is ideal for the raising of alfalfa. It can be grown at a maximum yield if properly done. He brought out the importance of securing good seed from the very start, Grim's variety grown in the northern section being decidedly superior in this territory. The advantages of inoculation of the soil was also discussed as well as the preparation of seed bed and other phases in connection with the successful growing of the crop.

The feature that was in a large degree responsible for the pep shown by every one present was the initial appearance and practice of an alfalfa song, composed by Miss Maude L. Johnson and L. Mickelson, who took part in the introduction of this "hit" which it is predicted will be hummed by every Pennington resident. "Bananas" will be put in obscurity and forgotten with the popularity of the alfalfa song. Miss Johnson presided at the piano and was assisted by Mr. Mickelson and Robt. A. Clyborne, who led the singing, the latter also giving a vocal solo.

The banquet had been arranged in a most unique manner, every detail being well prepared. The menu was suggestive of various popular local products and at each plate was placed a small bundle of alfalfa.

Following the general discussion of alfalfa growing the subject of steps to be taken by the bankers' association were discussed at length and a committee was appointed to join with representatives of the Commercial club in making a survey of the county and determine the amount of seed needed and the most feasible plan of distribution. A special meeting of the committee will be held this evening to further consider the matter of financing the enterprise.

The slogan, "Pennington County, the Home of Alfalfa," was adopted as was also a resolution, which will be found in a large display advertisement on another page of this issue of The Times.

LOCAL BREAD MAKER BRINGS DISTINCTION TO 'HER HOME TOWN'

Myrtle Helgeland of This City, State Champion, Accorded Distinction Thru Press.

Thief River Falls and Pennington county may feel justly proud when it is said that it is the home of the champion bread maker of the great state of Minnesota. That is the distinction attained thru the achievement of Miss Myrtle Helgeland of this city the young club worker who won won highest honors for bread making in contests at the state fair recently for which she was awarded a trip to Chicago where she will enter national competition and perhaps be accorded the singular distinction of being the champion baker of the United States. Two boys from Beltrami county recently won national honors at Syracuse, N. Y. in dairy club work, and there is as great a possibility that this young woman from Thief River Falls will bring a similar distinction, in her line of club work, to northern Minnesota.

In the Oct. 7 issue of the St. Paul Pioneer Press the following comment accompanied Miss Helgeland's picture: "An invitation to dinner at this young woman's house is an invitation to taste the best bread that is baked in Minnesota.

Declared champion bread baker in the state in a field of more than 700 contestants at the Minnesota State Fair this year, Miss Myrtle Helgeland of Thief River Falls already is laying plans to make her product worthy of a prize in the International baking contest in Chicago next year. The trip to Chicago will be a reward for her success at the fair.

Miss Helgeland is a graduate of the Thief River Falls high school. Her victory was gained in the Class A or advance bread-making contest. She was a prize winner in 1922 also, but in that contest was placed in Class B. For several years Miss Helgeland has shown a keen interest in baking and was a member of the bread club in her high school days. She has won several prizes, progressing with each victory until she at last captured first honors for the entire state.

Thief River Falls is looking forward to international distinction for its bread baking artist.

Miss Helgeland's picture also appeared in a recent issue of the Duluth Herald with the following story attached: "It's 'just as easy as pie' for Miss Myrtle Helgeland to cook, or at least to bake. She's the champion girl bread baker of the state, having won that distinction in competition with more than 700 girls from various sections of Minnesota at the recent state fair, where she graded at the top in Class A, advanced. Last year she was first in Class B, and she has a wonderful array of silver cups, badges and ribbons she has won by her work in various competitions. She won a trip to the International baking contest at Chicago by her victory this year."

With distinctions like this Thief River Falls will soon get as much publicity as Shelby, Mont., and other places of note.

Cases Of Hog Cholera Are Reported In This County

Hog cholera has made its appearance in Pennington county, according to Dr. L. R. Twete, veterinarian, who has been called to investigate herds which were reported to be dying of some malady. The disease first made its appearance in the southwestern part of the county and was not given much attention till the animals began to die.

According to Dr. Twete there is quite a lot of hog cholera in the vicinity of East Grand Forks and across the river therefrom in North Dakota. The dry weather which has prevailed this fall has done much to further the spread of the disease and farmers are cautioned about having medical attention immediately for any hog that shows signs of being sick.

Three Cars Figure In Two Auto Accidents This Week

Cars driven by C. C. Gulrud and Walter Quist collided two miles east of this city on the state road Sunday. Mr. Gulrud, accompanied by his wife, were coming toward this city, keeping close to the right. Walter Quist was coming onto the state road from the south, at a high rate of speed, and was unable to make the turn. As there was a thicket of brush along the road neither driver saw the other until too late to avoid a collision. Mrs. Gulrud was thrown from the car and suffered minor injuries to her back. Both cars were damaged to the extent of broken wheels and fenders and a spring was broken on Gulrud's car.

Second Car Overturns.

A car driven by John Elinson, Sunday, overturned two miles south of Holt. The car, which was a Ford, made one complete turn, alighting right side up in the ditch, in about two feet of water. The top and windshield were broken, otherwise no damage was done. The driver escaped unhurt.

"Pennington County, the Home of Alfalfa"

OUR ALFALFA PLEDGE

Believing that prosperity of a permanent nature upon the farms of Pennington county is the sole basis of expansion and success in town and country, and being deeply impressed with alfalfa growing as a solution of the problem before us;

We, the bankers of Pennington county, viewing with pride the extraordinary success which has attained the culture of alfalfa in this section, and being firmly convinced by the demonstrated success of our enterprising farmers in this direction, and being further convinced by competent authority that our section is especially adapted by nature to alfalfa, and with the evidence before us of large yields and substantial returns;

Therefore, be it resolved by the Bankers' Association of Pennington County, that we pledge our best efforts, our moral support and our financial assistance to every intelligent movement which has for its object better understanding and increased acreage of this highly important and profitable crop, believing, as we do, that such action on our part offers the widest field for service to the whole community;

Be it Further Resolved, that we heartily congratulate and commend the efforts of our friends on the farm for the inspiration and encouragement they have given their neighbors in giving alfalfa a prominent place in their future farming plans.

Boosting alfalfa means boosting Pennington county.

With alfalfa and sugar beets thriving as it does here, Pennington county can't but make good.

Drinking moonshine and driving a car amounts to about the same as greasing your shoes to balance on a slippery log.

Mr. Farmer, if you have a poor grade of cows it will pay you to cut better ones. You can get more returns on half as many.

Who will decline making more than $100 per acre on Pennington county land? That is what alfalfa did for some farmers here this year.

The farmer who sows wild oats has always been considered foolish. Now wheat puts him in the same class.—Bemidji Sentinel. Yes, we'll have lots of alfalfa!

There is hardly a question of whether the growing of alfalfa pays or not; farmers in Pennington county realized more than $100 per acre on land that was put into this valuable crop this year.

Who wants proof of the best possibilities of alfalfa growing in Northern Minnesota—or the entire state of Minnesota—if you please? Come to Pennington county and see what is being done here. Nowhere is there more suitable land or better conditions for this wonderful grass crop than right here in our own community.

Why worry about wheat when you can grow alfalfa for $7,000 from a 200-acre farm in Pennington county during one season? It was done by a farmer near Hazel this year.

Prizes Offered Pupils Of County In American Legion Essay Contest

The following letter has been sent to the teachers of Pennington county by O. R. Sande, county superintendent of schools, explaining the action taken by the local American Legion post in the matter of the Legion essay contest:

"At a recent meeting of Elmer J. Ecklund Post No. 117, American Legion at Thief River Falls, it was decided to extend the time for closing the American Legion essay contest from Oct. 12 to midnight of November 24. This action was taken in order to give every school in the county an opportunity to participate.

The plan for the contest in this county is to divide the schools into two groups as follows: elementary ungraded (rural) schools, and graded and high schools. Thus pupils in one-room rural schools will not have to compete with pupils in the graded and high schools. The best essay from each group will be awarded a cash prize of $5.00. There will also be a good second prize for each group of $3.00 and a third prize of $2.00. Of course essays submitted after Nov. 24th are not eligible to compete in the state and National contest. The subject designated for the essay is "Why America should Restrict Immigration for Five Years."

The rules are to remain exactly as published by the National Committee except that the time is changed.

This contest offers a splendid opportunity to bring to the attention of your pupils in a motivated manner a subject of great importance and every pupil of suitable age should be urged to enter. Teachers should inform themselves on the subject of the essay and then teach their pupils the essential points in the immigration question. Books and magazine articles on the subject should be suggested and every possible aid given in the search for material, but no help can be given in the actual writing of the essay.

Judges will be appointed for each group and announced in the local papers.

The officers and members of the Legion Post are very much concerned about making this event a big success and urge the co-operation of the teachers in the contest."

Bronson Farmers Are Well Pleased With Sugar Beets

Bronson, Minn. Oct. 25.—Farmers near this place, who, for the first time in their lives, raised sugar beets this year, are well pleased with the experiment. The yields are reported to vary from 8 to 20 tons per acre, according to A. V. Danielson, fieldman for the Northern Sugar corporation of Mason City, Iowa. Deducting expenses for labor, seed and use of special machinery required, the grower will net about $30 per acre for planting, cultivating, digging and topping, which in comparison to other crops, does not require very much time.

Sugar beets will add another profitable line to diversified farming and [illegible] reduce the potato acreage and eventually result in better prices for potatoes. Mr. Danielson stated that the past season was not favorable to sugar beets, but he said that in a favorable season, together with the experience [illegible] this year, an increase of from 3 to 5 tons in yield per acre can reasonably be expected.

PLAN TO END SPUD CAMPAIGN JAN. 1ST

Committee Wants to Cut Cost And Give More Time For Warehouse Program.

Plans for concluding the campaign to organize the [illegible] Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange by January 1, instead of March 1, as stated in the contract, were formulated by the executive council of the general state organization committee, at a meeting held in St. Paul last week.

This decision was reached after the executive officers had made a careful survey of the work thus far. "All indications point to a successful organization campaign," says J. A. Mohen of Braham, chairman of the state committee. "We now have 2,500 members and the acreage under contract has jumped to nearly 100,000; practically a quarter of the aggregate needed to qualify the campaign under the contract. Nearly half the present acreage has been signed during the last 30 days. At the present rate of progress, the quota will be obtained by the end of the year. If we are able to do this, the cost will be greatly reduced and we will have two months more in which to solve the warehouse problem. A survey of the state shows that better warehousing facilities are absolutely necessary in Minnesota to carry out an orderly marketing program."

Success of the campaign, from a financial standpoint, was assured last week when business men of Minneapolis and St. Paul reiterated confidence in the program and told the committee that a lack of funds would not be permitted to cause suspension of the organization work.

S. G. Rubinow, campaign manager, working in Kittson County early in the month, signed almost 4,000 acres in three days. E. W. Smith, working at Glyndon and vicinity, signed 2,500 acres in two days. Reports from all field organizers indicate that the present low market has made organization work at least 50 per cent easier.

Pennington county was the fourth in the state to sign up its quota.

Cassidy of the Minnesota State board of health, was in the city the latter part of the week to investigate irregularities regarding reports of deaths and births, what vital statistics mean [illegible] division of child hygiene, cooperating with the federal children's bureau. Miss Cassidy stated that few irregularities were found in this city or county but that in several places doctors, undertakers and various municipal officials are fined for negligence, complaints being made by the board of health. [illegible] requires that the birth of [illegible] in Minnesota must be reported to the local registrar of the district in which it occurs, within ten days. [illegible] may be needed to prove citizenship, right to vote, school age, age of consent, legal age for marriage, age under child labor laws, age for military service, right to hold public office, right to property inheritance, nationality in foreign countries, qualifications for jury service and for passports.

Death records may be needed to establish property rights, insurance claims, pension claims, legitimacy of children, settle inheritance claims and various other disputes. It is also illegal to bury in Minnesota without a burial or removal permit for which a complete death certificate is necessary. Failure to make the proper reports places the person subject to fine or jail sentence, the fine not to exceed $100 and the jail sentence not more than ninety days.

The state department is constantly on the lookout for such cases.

Youth Is Killed While Hunting Near Erskine

Henry Hanson, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Peterson, of Erskine, was almost instantaneously killed Sunday afternoon while hunting ducks on Oak Lake, near Erskine when he attempted to pull his gun from a boat. The gun was a single shot sixteen gauge one and while hauling it from the boat the hammer caught on the edge of the boat and then snapped back sending the charge through Hanson's right side. With a huge hole in his lung Hanson fell backwards and was dead almost immediately. His companion, William Herbert of Crookston, shocked when he saw Hanson fall, rushed to his side but even then Hanson was breathing his last.

Hanson was a brother-in-law of Hjalmer Frieberg of this city and had been visiting at the Frieberg home for the past month. Saturday night Frieberg, Hanson, Herbert and J. E. Thieness left Crookston prepared for a Sunday's hunt at Oak Lake.

This is the first accident of this nature reported in this section this season.

Oklee Farmers Show Much Enthusiasm In Sugar Beet Crop, Report Good Yields

"The farmers of this locality are now harvesting the first crop of sugar beets ever grown for commercial purposes in this neighborhood," says the Oklee Herald, and states further, "It is only about eight months ago since the sugar beet industry found its first advocates among the people here. Their teachings at that time were looked upon with considerable suspicion, but a few farmers decided to risk the gamble of entering into a contract for cultivation of a few acres of beets to give the idea a real test and accordingly agreements were signed up to raise approximately 120 acres of beets in this locality during the season. These agreements have been carried out faithfully without exception, and those who had the courage to give the matter a trial are now gathering and marketing splendid crops of beets. The yield is said to run from 10 to 15 tons to the acre according to the condition of the ground upon which the crop is grown. One farmer has a 26 acre field of beets that is estimated at an average of 15 tons to the acre. This yield at the prospective price of $8 a ton will no doubt make his beet field the most valuable part of his farm."

The Essence of Real Brotherhood

Speaking editorially, under the caption, "A Hopeful Incident," the Beacon of Wichita, Kansas, in its issue of September 18, says:

> "The banquet of the Industrial Relations Organization of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), reported in yesterday's Beacon, is a fine incident of the growing friendship in industrial relations.
> "The most encouraging thing that is happening today in the industrial life of this country is in the new programs of co-operation that are being established between themselves and their employes by great employers. The best industrial plants in the country today are finding their own points of contact with their own men.
> "In these new points of contact they are finding the base of that essence of real Brotherhood that should exist between the man who labors and the man who employs. This new tendency is the most hopeful thing in the industrial life of America today."

The banquet referred to concluded the Fifth Annual Industrial Conference of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) inaugurated under the guidance of the Board of Directors.

The Industrial Relations Department of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is the crystallization of the plans of the Management for giving its employes a voice in the affairs of the Company, that they might sense the sheer joy that comes with independence, and thereby become better citizens, better husbands, better fathers, and better workmen.

The employe representatives of the Joint General Committee are elected by ballot of the employes. This Committee makes recommendations to the Management on matters pertaining to working and living conditions, hours, wages, safety, housing, athletics and other subjects of immediate interest to the employe.

Out of the 1400 cases which have been submitted to the Management by the Joint General Committees, 93.3% have been approved and made effective.

This exemplifies the spirit of fairness inherent throughout the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) organization.

It is an eloquent manifestation of the harmony prevailing throughout this shirt-sleeved organization of 27,000 men and women.

Through harmony is gained the whole-hearted, earnest effort which results in high-speed efficiency. This efficiency has made the Company a leader in the petroleum industry and enables it to render such a superior service to the thirty million people of the Middle West.

Boosting alfalfa means boosting Pennington county.

With alfalfa and sugar beets thriving as it does here, Pennington county can't but make good.

Drinking moonshine and driving a car amounts to about the same as greasing your shoes to balance on a slippery log.

Mr. Farmer, if you have a poor grade of cows it will pay you to get better ones. You can get more returns on half as many.

Who will decline making more than $100 per acre on Pennington county land? That is what alfalfa did for some farmers here this year.

The farmer who sows wild oats has always been considered foolish. Now wheat puts him in the same class.—Bemidji Sentinel. Yes, we'll have lots of alfalfa!

There is hardly a question of whether the growing of alfalfa pays or not; farmers in Pennington county realized more than $100 per acre on land that was put into this valuable crop this year.

Who wants proof of the best possibilities of alfalfa growing in Northern Minnesota—or the entire state of Minnesota—if you please? Come to Pennington county and see what is being done here. Nowhere is there more suitable land or better conditions for this wonderful grass crop than right here in our own community.

Why worry about wheat when you can grow alfalfa for $7,000 from a 200-acre farm in Pennington county during one season? It was done by a farmer near Hazel this year.

Prizes Offered Pupils Of County In American Legion Essay Contest

The following letter has been sent to the teachers of Pennington county by O. R. Sande, county superintendent of schools, explaining the action taken by the local American Legion post in the matter of the Legion essay contest:

"At a recent meeting of Elmer J. Ecklund Post No. 117, American Legion at Thief River Falls, it was decided to extend the time for closing the American Legion essay contest from Oct. 12 to midnight of November 24. This action was taken in order to give every school in the county an opportunity to participate.

The plan for the contest in this county is to divide the schools into two groups as follows: elementary ungraded (rural) schools, and graded and high schools. Thus pupils in one-room rural schools will not have to compete with pupils in the graded and high schools. The best essay from each group will be awarded a cash prize of $5.00. There will also be a good second prize for each group of $3.00 and a third prize of $2.00. Of course essays submitted after Nov. 24th are not eligible to compete in the state and National contest. The subject designated for the essay is "Why America should Restrict Immigration for Five Years."

The rules are to remain exactly as published by the National Committee except that the time is changed.

This contest offers a splendid opportunity to bring to the attention of your pupils in a motivated manner a subject of great importance and every pupil of suitable age should be urged to enter. Teachers should inform themselves on the subject of the essay and then teach their pupils the essential points in the immigration question. Books and magazine articles on the subject should be suggested and every possible aid given in the search for material, but no help can be given in the actual writing of the essay.

Judges will be appointed for each group and announced in the local papers.

The officers and members of the Legion Post are very much concerned about making this event a big success and urge the co-operation of the teachers in the contest."

PLAN TO END SPUD CAMPAIGN JAN. 1ST

Committee Wants to Cut Cost And Give More Time For Warehouse Program.

Plans for completing the campaign to organize the new Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange by January 1, instead of March 1, as stated in the contract, were formulated by the executive council of the general state organization committee, at a meeting held in St. Paul last week.

This decision was reached after the executive officers had made a careful survey of the work thus far. "All indications point to a successful organization campaign," says J. A. Monson of Brainerd, chairman of the state committee. "We now have 2,500 members and the acreage under contract has jumped to nearly 10,000; practically a quarter of the aggregate needed to qualify the campaign under the contract. Nearly half the present acreage has been signed during the last 30 days. At the present rate of progress, the quota will be obtained by the end of the year. If we are able to do this, the cost will be greatly reduced and we will have two months more in which to solve the warehouse problem. A survey of the state shows that better warehousing facilities are absolutely necessary in Minnesota to carry out our orderly marketing program."

Success of the campaign, from a financial standpoint, was assured last week when business men of Minneapolis and St. Paul reiterated confidence in the program and told the committee that a lack of funds would not be permitted to cause suspension of the organization work.

S. G. Rubinow, campaign manager, working in Kittson County early in the month, signed almost 4,000 acres in three days. E. W. Smith, working at Glyndon and vicinity, signed 2,500 acres in two days. Reports from all field organizers indicate that the present low market has made organization work at least 50 per cent easier.

Pennington county was the fourth in the state to sign-up its quota.

Miss Gladys G. Casady of the Minnesota State board of health, was in the city the latter part of the week to investigate [illegible] reports of deaths and births, [illegible] vital statistics [illegible] with the federal children's bureau. Miss Casady stated that [illegible] matters were found in this city or county but that in several places doctors, undertakers and various municipal officials are liable for [illegible] complaint being made by the board of health. [illegible] impossible in two cases of this kind.

[illegible] requires that the birth of [illegible] be reported to the local registrar within ten days. A birth certificate may be needed to prove citizenship, right to vote, school age, age to consent, legal age for marriage, age under child labor laws, age for military service, right to hold public office, right to property inheritance, nationality in foreign countries, qualifications for jury service and for passports.

Death records may be needed to establish property rights, insurance claims, pension claims, legitimacy of children, settle inheritance claims and various other disputes. It is also illegal to bury in Minnesota without a burial or removal permit for which a complete death certificate is necessary. Failure to make the proper reports places the person subject to a fine or jail sentence, the fine not to exceed $100 and the jail sentence not more than ninety days.

The state department is constantly on the look-out for such cases.

Youth Is Killed While Hunting Near Erskine

Henry Hanson, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Peterson, of Erskine, was almost instantaneously killed Sunday afternoon while hunting ducks on Oak Lake, near Erskine when he attempted to pull his gun from a boat. The gun was a single shot sixteen guage one and while hauling it from the boat the hammer caught on the edge of the boat and then snapped back sending the charge through Hanson's right side. With a huge hole in his lung Hanson fell backwards and was dead almost immediately. His companion, William Herbert of Crookston, shocked when he saw Hanson fall, rushed to his side but even then Hanson was breathing his last.

Hanson was a brother-in-law of Hjalmer Frieberg of this city and had been visiting at the Frieberg home for the past month. Saturday night Frieberg, Hanson, Herbert and J. E. Thieness left Crookston prepared for a Sunday's hunt at Oak Lake.

This is the first accident of this nature reported in this section this season.

Frank Kurtz, a laborer working on the road near Maple Lake, is enjoying a fortune by the aid of the radio. Recently the WLAG radio station broadcasted a report that Pierce, Wis., was seeking a man named Frank Kutrz, whose father had just died and left him a fortune. The report was picked up by John Buness at Maple Lake, who knew of this man. Verification of description of man proved beyond doubt he was the man wanted.

Oklee Farmers Show Much Enthusiasm In Sugar Beet Crop. Report Good Yields

"The farmers of this locality are now harvesting the first crop of sugar beets ever grown for commercial purposes in this neighborhood," says the Oklee Herald, and states further, "It is only about eight months ago since the sugar beet industry found its first advocates among the people here. Their teachings at that time were looked upon with considerable suspicion, but a few farmers decided to try the gamble of entering into a contract for cultivation of a few acres of beets to give the idea a real test and accordingly agreements were signed up to raise approximately 100 acres of beets in this locality during the season. These agreements have been carried out faithfully without exception and those who had the courage to give the matter a trial are now gathering and marketing splendid crops of beets. The yield is said to run from 10 to 15 tons to the acre according to the condition of the ground upon which the crop is grown. One farmer has a 26 acre field of beets that is estimated at an average of 15 tons to the acre. This yield at the prospective price of $8 a ton will no doubt make his beet field the most valuable part of his farm."

The Essence of Real Brotherhood

Speaking editorially, under the caption, "A Hopeful Incident," the Beacon of Wichita, Kansas, in its issue of September 15, says:

"The banquet of the Industrial Relations Organization of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), reported in yesterday's Beacon, is a fine incident of the growing friendship in industrial relations.

"The most encouraging thing that is happening today in the industrial life of this country is in the new programs of co-operation that are being established between themselves and their employes by great employers. The best industrial plants in the country today are finding their own points of contact with their own men.

"In these new points of contact they are finding the base of that essence of real brotherhood that should exist between the man who labors and the man who employs. This new tendency is the most hopeful thing in the industrial life of America today."

The banquet referred to concluded the Fifth Annual Industrial Conference of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) inaugurated under the guidance of the Board of Directors.

The Industrial Relations Department of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is the crystallization of the plans of the Management for giving its employes a voice in the affairs of the Company, that they might sense the sheer joy that comes with independence, and thereby become better citizens, better husbands, better fathers, and better workmen.

The employe representatives of the Joint General Committee are elected by ballot of the employes. This Committee makes recommendations to the Management on matters pertaining to working and living conditions, hours, wages, safety, housing, athletics and other subjects of immediate interest to the employe.

Out of the 1400 cases which have been submitted to the Management by the Joint General Committees, 93.3% have been approved and made effective.

This exemplifies the spirit of fairness inherent throughout the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) organization.

It is an eloquent manifestation of the harmony prevailing throughout this shirt-sleeved organization of 27,000 men and women.

Through harmony is gained the whole-hearted, earnest effort which results in high-speed efficiency. This efficiency has made the Company a leader in the petroleum industry and enables it to render such a superior service to the thirty million people of the Middle West.

LOCAL ELEVEN TO PLAY AT CROOKSTON

Close Game Is Predicted Between Lincolnites and Crookston Next Saturday.

Lincoln High's football men will go to Crookston this Saturday, where they will play the last game on this season's schedule.

Thief River Falls has not won a game all season, but the chances of winning are about equal for both teams. The game will more than likely be very hard fought, because each team is anxious to win at least one victory during the season, and this is almost the last opportunity. The local team has good prospects of winning, because they have shown such great improvement with each succeeding game, but according to reports the Crookston team has also greatly improved since the first few games, so her prospects are equally good.

Crookston was defeated 19 to 0 by East Grand Forks and Thief River suffered a 20 to 7 defeat by the same team.

Whichever team is the victor, the game is certain to be a very exciting and hard fought one. A great many rooters are expected to accompany the team and undoubtedly it will be well worth their while.

Mickleson Organizes Classes For Debating

Last Thursday evening Mr. Mickelson, debate coach, called a meeting of all those interested in debate. The students responded with a good deal of enthusiasm, which promises exciting competition in making the team.

The subject for debate, "Resolved, that all European Immigration should be restricted for a period of five years," is a timely one. The whole nation is vitally interested in the question of immigration, and the people of Thief River Falls already show interest in the coming debate.

New material is being added every day to the stock of literature on hand but a great deal more is needed, in order to study the question thoroughly from every viewpoint. The class meets every Tuesday and Wednesday after school to receive instruction, and to discuss and argue the question.

Those trying out for the team are: Lylian Arnold, Esther Bennes, Melvin Engelstad, Mildred Griffin, Gladys Kolden, Hazel Krause, Olga Lokken, Joseph Lundin, Sarah Martinson, Margaret Melgaard, Hylda Peterson, May Ballingrud, Math Barzen, Bertha Holthusen, Marjorie Hoppa, Agnes Johnson, Esther Lunsetter, Grayce Mostue, Lucille Roark, Virgil Denhart, Donald McCrum.

What is wit?

Wit is the funny things you can think of after the paper has gone to press.

In the days of Henry Clay it was 54-40 or fight. Nowadays it is 75-80 or flunk.

Junior—"So your father is ill. I hope it is nothing contagious."

Senior—"So do I. The doctor says he is suffering from overwork."

NOTICE!

There are a few boys and girls in High School who would like an opportunity to work for their board and room. Some would also welcome a chance to earn a little money at odd jobs after school and on Saturdays. It would be a fine thing for these boys and girls if the people in the city who have work that might be done by some high school boy or girl would notify the school authorities of the fact. These students could then be given the chance that they are looking for. Call Supt. Simley, Principal Bye, or the Superintendent's Secretary and make your needs known.

Many Honor Students During First Period

The report cards for the first six weeks period of this year were distributed last Friday and the names of those on the honor roll were read in the assembly by Principal Bye. The Juniors have far more honor students than any other class and the Freshmen have the least. The Juniors have eleven on the honor roll, the Seniors, six, the Normal department six, the Sophomores five, and the Freshmen four.

To be eligible for the honor roll it is necessary to earn ten honor points. These are earned in the following manner: An "A" counts three points, a "B" two, and a "C" one. In addition it is necessary to have a grade of "B" or better in deportment. Those who earned the required number of honor points are:

Normal department—Viola Buringrud, Thelma Carlson, Thyra Carlson, Esther Larson, Clare Lund, and Myrtle Sollom.

Seniors—Thomas Belland, Mildred Griffin, Esther Lunsetter, Sarah Martinson and Margaret Melgaard.

Juniors—Lillian Arnold, Katherine Barzen, Evelyn Brumund, Maxine Johnson, Jessie Joyce, Arriel Kinghorn, Agnes Koglin, Mildred Remmen, Melvin Saugen, Emmet Shanahan and Anna Wedul.

Sophomores—Ruby Anseby, Gladys Kjos, Ward Mattheson, Lois Nicholson, Simon Nokken and Elsie Vorseth.

Freshmen—Goldie Gunderson, Marian Reynolds, Dorothy Shirley and Louise Vevea.

Class of '23 Refurnishes Rest Room For Teachers

The class of '23 very kindly furnished the teachers rest room at the opening of school this year, as its present to Lincoln High.

The furnishings up to this time had been very inadequate and the class thought that a present of this kind would be greatly appreciated. The donation consisted of two leather rocking chairs, one straight-back chair, a couch cover, a wicker table with the table cover, and a rug.

For many years it has been a tradition in Lincoln High that all graduating classes leave some memorial to the school. This is a laudable spirit for the classes to have and the many gifts of the past are cherished by all the following classes. The gift of last year's class was an especially useful one and they are to be congratulated for their excellent choice.

The good die young.

Millions now living will never die.

EAST GRAND FORKS DEFEATS LINCOLN

Thief River Eleven Scores First Touchdown of Season In Saturday's Game.

The Lincoln eleven was defeated on the local field last Saturday by East Grand Forks by a score of 20 to 7. The battle was hard fought throughout the game. A special feature was a brilliant aerial attack by Thief River Falls in the fourth period which paved the way for the first touchdown of the season.

First Quarter.

Thief River received the kick off and Gavin returned it to the 30 yard line. Two successive line plunges netted seven yards and the next play obtained the remaining three but Zeh unluckily fumbled and East Grand Forks recovered. This marked the beginning of a slow but steady march toward the locals goal line. Two passes were tried, but the boys easily broke them up. A line plunge for 15 yards gave them their first touchdown. The try for point, a place kick, was completed. The locals chose to receive and Gavin returned the ball to the twenty yard line. A line plunge lost one yard, and Parenteau punted. The East Grand Forks receiver was nailed in his tracks. They failed to make downs and punted. Parenteau made a fair catch. Capt. Barzen chose to put it in play by scrimmage. Two short end runs and a line smash netted 8 yards and the team was forced to punt. Quarter ended 7 to 0 in favor of East Grand Forks.

Second Quarter.

The ball was put in play on the local 30 yard line in East Grand Forks' possession. Two end runs netted them two first downs. A weak side play gave them their second touchdown. The try for point failed. Captain Barzen chose to receive and Gavin returned it 10 yards. One pass to Gavin was completed. The Lincoln eleven failed to make their downs and Parenteau punted. Several plays were tried by East Grand Forks, but were of no danger to the locals. The half ended with the ball in the visitors' possession. The score at the end of the half was 13 to 0 with the home team at the short end.

Third Quarter.

The third quarter began with Thief River again receiving. Gavin returned it about 15 yards. No gains were made through the line, but 5 yards were made on the next play, an end run. Zeh made it first down by shaving tackle. Parenteau made slight gains on an end run. Parenteau punted and Barzen stopped the runner. East Grand Forks began another march toward Lincoln's goal. End runs and line smashes worked effectively for a touchdown. The extra point was completed, making the score 20 to 0. The locals again received the ball, Parenteau returning it 15 yards. The quarter ended with the score 20 to 0 in favor of the opponents, with the ball in the local's possession.

Fourth Quarter.

This quarter opened with the boys determined to make a touchdown. Several line plunges and end runs netted slight gains and the locals punted, East Grand Forks returning the ball only a couple yards. An end run and a weak side play gave East Grand Forks first down. The opponents fumbled and the locals recovered. It was then that the team found East Grand Forks' weak point. They began a brilliant aerial attack that made the opponents dizzy. A short pass to Gavin was completed which gave the locals about 6 yards. The next one to Penney was incompleted, but the referee called a foul on one of the East Grand Forkers for interfering with the catcher so that gave the locals first down. A pass to Zeh was completed and then another to Gavin. A long pass to McCrum was incompleted. The next play was what is commonly called a shoe-string. Penney completed the pass and made about 25 yards. Penney completed another pass putting the ball on the 7 yard line. The next play was a pass to Gavin which was incompleted because of interfering with the catcher. The penalty put the ball on the 2 yard line. Barzen was called back from the line, but failed to make gains. Parenteau then made the touchdown through center. The drop kick by Parenteau was completed making the score 20 to 7. Barzen kicked off and East Grand Forks fumbled, the locals recovered. There were but a few seconds of play left and after trying a pass, Parenteau attempted a drop kick but it was not completed. The opponents fumbled the ball and Wengeler recovered. The game ended with the score 20 to 7 in favor of East Grand Forks.

Junior Candy Sale.

The Junior class held a candy sale in the lower hall after dismissal last Wednesday. They earned six dollars and fifty cents, which will go into their treasury for the Junior-Senior banquet fund. The Juniors plan to give two more candy sales and a class play before the banquet.

Many Respond To Call For Declamatory Work

Miss Miriam Simon issued a call last Wednesday to all those who were interested in declamation work. The response showed that there is a great deal of interest in that sort of work, for twenty-eight students signified that they wished to be considered as candidates for declamatory honors. These have all been assigned readings and are busy training for the preliminary try-outs.

Following is a list of those interested in the work: Melvin Englestad, Donald McCrum, Leigh Anderson, Ruby Anseby, Mary Alexander, Lylian Arnold, Esther Bennes, Ethel Bickley, Elizabeth DeCremer, Kathryn Fallness, Rita Fiterman, Theresa Fuller, Mildred Griffin, Bertha Holthusen, Marjorie Hoppa, Evelyn Jahr, Agnes Johnson, Maxine Johnson, Esther Lunsetter, Ruth Mellby, Grace Mostue, Birdie Pierson, Lucille Roark, Dorothy Swedenburg, Millicent Sweger, Evaline Thompson, Liv Vistaunet and Anna Wedul.

Last year second place was obtained by Liv Vistaunet at the contest held in this high school, and it hoped that as well or better will be done this year.

Bread Club Reception Given For New Members

The Bread Club held a reception in the high school last Friday evening for the new members in the club and the women members of the faculty.

To begin the evening the following short program was given:

Address of Welcome---Hazel Krause
Piano Solo-----------Maxine Johnson
Reading ------------Ersyle Anderson

Following this program, which was fully enjoyed by everyone, the guests were instructed to get their fortunes from the ghost in Mrs. Korstad's room. These were later read by the guests in turn and this afforded a great deal of amusement as the fortunes were very clever. Bobbing for apples was the next form of entertainment and this was also done in Mrs. Korstad's room which was very appropriately decorated in Hallowe'en colors. The remainder of the evening was spent in various games and amusements.

About ten o'clock a delicious lunch was served in the domestic science room. Each table, which was set for four, had a Jack-o-lantern for a centerpiece, and the room carried out the Hallowe'en scheme of decoration.

The guests left about eleven o'clock all feeling that the Bread club made a success of their first real party.

Leland Schuster, Student At U. of N. D., Will Appear In Big Play Production

Friends of Leland Schuster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schuster of this city, who is attending the University of North Dakota for the fourth year, will be pleased to hear that he will be a member of the cast of players who will present "Dover Road" by Milne at the Orpheum theatre in Grand Forks the first part of December. An article from the Grand Forks Herald gives the following account:

"Members of the Dakota Playmakers, dramatic society of the state university, who are to represent the society in their first play production of the season, were announced Friday by Professor E. D. Schonberger, director.

"Dover Road," one of Milne's plays, which is the production to be given will be presented December 6 at the Orpheum theatre, according to present plans.

Those who are to form the cast are Verona Hansen of Ada, Minn., Dorothy Massee of East Grand Forks, Minn., Joe Shulz of Grand Forks, William Freeman of Verona, Duane Squires of Grand Forks, Maurice Johnson of Minot, Marjorie Watt of Larimore, Joy Suter of Grafton, Richard Black of Grand Forks and Leland Schuster of Thief River Falls, Minn.

Leland, who is a graduate of the local high school, last year figured prominently in the Junior Prom, one of the leading social events of the season at the university.

Senior: "Have you any bird seed?"
Fresh: "Go on, smarty, you can't fool me. Birds don't grow from seeds."

A deficit is what you have when you have less than you have when you have nothing.

At the time of the deluge there were only two mosquitoes. If each pair of mosquitoes multiply at the rate those two did, in another four thousand years—Oh, Death, where is thy sting?

Grain Movement Slow.

Only a small amount of grain passes through this point, according to P. J. Keating, local grain inspector. The average number of carloads of grain at the present time is about 25 per day, while some time ago as many as 140 cars were shipped through this city on the Soo railroad. The reason for this is given as a decreased acreage devoted to small grain farming and the fact that many farmers are holding their crop in the anticipation of higher prices.

PEP MEETING FRI. AROUSES STUDENTS

High School Orchestra, Bath Robe Chorus, Ingebor Gjengedal, Are Features.

Last Friday from 3:30 to 4:00 o'clock the Assembly room was the scene of one of the snappiest pep meetings in the history of Lincoln High.

The meeting was opened with two selections by the High School Orchestra and was followed by a short talk by Coach Thune. The Bathrobe Chorus, composed of football boys attired in gaudy bathrobes, rendered a few comic songs which met with a storm of applause from the students. Ersyle Anderson gave a very humorous impersonation of a Scandinavian girl's first impressions of a football game. Mr. Mickelson then led the singing of the two pep songs, entitled "We Are From Thief River" and "Come on Lincoln," and the students in response to his enthusiastic leading fairly lifted Lincoln from its foundation.

As an appropriate ending for such a pep meeting, Melvin Engelstad led the students through five rousing yells that well exhibited the immense yelling power of Lincoln High's student body.

Knox Notes

The following children in the third grade were neither absent nor tardy: Lucille Anderson, Janet Connell, Glen Christie, Ruth Cronkhite, Marjorie Fuller, Elaine Erickson, Ella Hedland, Melvin Johnson, Rex Johnson, Frances Keilty, Morris Lonson, Burns Mathewson, Merton Roemhildt, Coyla Rossman.

The second fire drill was given Friday at the Knox and the entire building was cleared in one minute.

The pupils of the second and third grade room at the Knox building completed their Columbus booklets last Tuesday.

Sewing Exhibit

The first project undertaken by the sewing classes was the exhibit of the Sewing II class which was put on last week in the window of the Oen Mercantile Co. Under the able instruction of Miss Herlickson the sewing classes are doing fine work as was shown by the skirts which made up the exhibit.

Joke Exchange.

Junior—"What would you do if you were in my shoes?"
Senior—"Shine them."

Frosh—"I showed up the teacher before the whole class again today."
Soph—"Yeh? Wise us up."
Frosh—"She asked me for Lincoln's Gettysburg address and I had to tell her that he never lived there. Oh! you shoulda heard the class laugh then."

How do you feel today?
"Corkin'," said the bottle,
"Rotten" said the apple,
"Punk" said the firecracker,
"Fine" said the police judge,
"Fit" said the tailor,
"First rate" said the postman,
"Grate" said the coal,
"Tough" said the chicken,
"Grand" said the piano,
"All done up" said the shirt,
"Ripping" said the trousers,
"Keen" said the knife.

Well, we had to stop him.

And close up.

Lights out.

Me To.

Teacher—"There is still noise in the room."
Soph—"Who ever heard of still noise?"

Junior—"Just look at that man driving with one hand and holding an apple with the other."
Senior—"That's nothing. I drive every night with one hand, holding a peach with the other."

Our little cub reporter overheard this on the phone the other day:
"Are you there?"
"Who are you, please?"
"Watt."
"What's your name?"
"Watt's my name."
"Yeh, what's your name?"
"John Watt."
"John what?"
"Yes."
"I'll be around to see you this afternoon."
"All right, are you Jones?"
"No, I am Knott."
"Will you tell me your name then?"
"Will Knott."
"Why not?"
"My name is Knott."
"Not what?"

State School Inspectors Here Last Wednesday

Mr. M. L. Jacobson, state inspector of elementary schools, was here last Wednesday on a tour of inspection. He expressed himself as finding everything in fine shape in the Thief River schools.

Mr. H. E. Flynn, inspector of teacher training departments, was also here last Wednesday and spoke very highly of the work in that department.

Things Seldom Seen.

A dignified Freshman.
Margaret Melgaard speechless.
Bright recitations on Monday.
Harriet Morgan receiving "A" in deportment.
Mr. Mickelson without a blue card in his pocket.
Lylian Arnold not occupying a chair in the make-up room.
A girl without a vanity case.

Our reporter interviewed the Great Northern's pet conductor the other day. Here's the outcome:

Bright reporter—"How often does your railroad kill a man?"

"Just once." sourly replied the bright conductor.

Cub reporter retired in haste.

Oliver thinks that it is just awful the way the teachers pick on him.

If a cook was expected to make a certain kind of pie quite often and found that her first trial at it was a complete failure she would keep on trying until she could make it good, if she intended to hold her position. The same could be applied to the student that wants to stay and hold himself up above in the educational world.

However, the example of the good cook would not agree with the principle followed by a few students who are found to be ever lacking in their grades. This can be applied to a certain number, a very small per cent of students, that is, those that make no effort to gain a higher grade. Many of those who fail are capable and could, if they would only try, be honor students.

It means much to be on the honor roll. That student studies and learns his lesson, and knows all the points concerning it. He is then prepared to be questioned, and best of all, he can answer the questions that are put to him. Authorities discover his capability, and know that he is a person fitting himself to become an intelligent citizen. When a person gets that far he has gained the fundamentals of good citizenship. Once there, and it will not be difficult to keep up that pace. He is the individual that shall lead and set the marks for the other fellow.

It is within the reach of every high school student, and he should for his own good and for the good of the community take advantage of it.

Editor's Convention Held At Chisholm Fri. and Sat.

Last Friday and Saturday, a convention of all the editors of school papers in Minnesota was held in Chisholm. The editor of the "Progress" did not attend because of the distance and the poor train connections between Thief River Falls and Chisholm.

The following is an account of the convention as it was published in the Minneapolis Journal:

"Welcoming high school journalists of the state to Chisholm, Superintendent of Schools J. P. Vaughn of this city urged the delegates to carry into their journalistic work the same high ideals and purposes they find in their classrooms.

"Mr. Vaughn's address opened the two-day convention of the editors from all parts of Minnesota.

"Four essentials in making a good newspaper man or woman were described by Grove Wills, editor of the Eveleth Clarion, namely: 'Ability to write well, think straight, tact and zeal'

"R. W. Hitchcock, publisher of the Hibbing Tribune, said ability to get news was one of the biggest essentials. Telling the truth was the second necessity, he said.

"The delegates were taken on a tour to inspect the entire range and later were guests at a banquet given by the Chisholm board of education."

SEPTEMBER CREAM CHECKS ARE LESS THAN FOR AUGUST

Receipts Hold Up Well With Decrease In Total. $1000 Over Sept. Last Year.

More than $20,000 was paid to patrons of the Farmers Co-operative creamery in this city during the month of September, according to report submitted last week by Thos. H. Bjerke, secretary. Of the $20,331.74 a total of $12,763.41 was paid to monthly patrons while the remaining $7,568.33 represents the amount paid in cash.

The August payroll totalled about $27,000, the decrease in the past month being attributed to the season and the condition of the pastures. However, the report shows the total amount paid to patrons during September this year as being more than $1,000 above the previous year.

Pennington county and Thief River Falls are receiving much favorable publicity as a result of the splendid showing made by the local creamery, which represents one of the leading industries of the community.

"The Fast Mail" Coming To Princess Rival Tornado

"The Fast Mail", the William Fox photoplay, operates on the general lines of a Kansas tornado. Nothing is impossible in it. It sweeps everything before it, lays barren everything over which it passes, travels at the speed the name would imply, and after all is said and done, is of value to everybody. It is meller melodrama, with the great central scene a terrifying race, automobile against train, with the hero on board the fast mail, the villian in the machine, each of the two men bent upon reaching Vicksburg first and, once there, battling for dear life over the prostrated body of the gal.

It is said this photoplay is about the liveliest thing in films to have been presented in Thief River Falls for months, and its lightning-like camera "shots" of racing trains, dashing fire horses (yes, there's a William Fox fire in it, too), fist fights, shootings, foot-races and horseback riding are interesting to see because they show, at least, that the camera men are progressing.

NOTED NOVELIST TO GIVE LECTURE HERE

Johan Bojer, Norwegian Writer, Will Appear at Sons of Norway Hall November 1.

Johan Bojer, the noted Norwegian novelist and lecturer, will appear in Thief River Falls at the Sons of Norway hall next Thursday evening, November 1. The great author, who is a resident of Norway, is making a tour of the United States, giving lectures in the larger cities of the country, such as New York, Chicago, Twin Cities, Duluth, Grand Forks, Madison, Wis., and other places.

He comes to this city by reason of the large Sons of Norway lodge and extensive Scandinavian population in Thief River Falls and surrounding community. He appears under the auspices of the local order of the Sons of Norway arriving here from Fargo. It should prove an event of special interest to all Norwegians and Scandinavians in general thruout this section and it is expected that many from a considerable distance will come to hear Bojer, who has gained world fame by his writings, which include novels and dramas.

"The Great Hunger" which is considered Bojer's best work, may be found at the local library, and in addition also other of his works which have been translated into the English language. "The Last Viking" is among his popular works, which have been translated into many languages.

His lecture here will be given in the Norwegian language on the theme of "Norske Folke-Eventyr" or "Norwegian Fairy Tales." Press comments in the Minneapolis and Chicago papers describe it as a most interesting and fascinating subject treated in a most unique and effective manner.

The Sons of Norway lodge here at a meeting last Thursday made arrangements to give an informal reception and smoker in honor of Mr. Bojer at the lodge quarters following the lecture. Light refreshments will be served. It is also announced that some numbers will be given by the Brage chorus.

The lecture is open to the general public and every one who understands the language should make it a point to hear this author, who is known in all countries where there is literary interest.

CROP AND POULTRY SHOW BOOSTERS TO CROOKSTON FRIDAY

Delegation Secures Speakers and Judges. Crookston Times Boosts Show.

A delegation of Thief River Falls business men, boosters of the Crop and Poultry show, visited Crookston last Friday in the interest of this great event which will take place in this city Dec. 4, 5, 6 and 7. The delegation consisted of Theo. M. Thronson, general manager of the show; Olaf Neset, president of the Pennington County Poultry association; Supt. I. T. Simley, C. D. Gustafson and F. J. Stebbins, the latter of whom are members of the general committee of the show.

Arrangements were made for getting experts from the Northwest School of Agriculture to address the various sessions of the four-day exposition, among whom will be President C. G. Selvig; Prof. T. M. McCall, crop expert; and Prof. R. S. Dunham, soil expert. The two last named will also act as judges in a number of divisions of the show.

The Crookston Times comments on the visit by the Thief River Falls boosters and the show, as follows:

"Liberal prizes are being offered for various farm crops and poultry and a provision is made that the prize winning exhibits will be entered in the Winter Show at Crookston in February.

Although the poultry show has been a successful event at Thief River Falls for the past six years this will be the first event of the crop feature, which it is expected will add greatly to the attractiveness of the show.

The Thief River Falls people have gotten behind this project with a will and the Times bespeaks for them the finest kind of co-operation on the part of Crookston and of the entire valley in making the event a big success."

At Circuit Meeting.

Rev. T. E. Sweger, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, left Tuesday for Middle River to attend a meeting of the Thief River Falls circuit of the church, which comprises a number of congregations in this northwestern section of the state. Several pastors and others interested took part in the session which opened Tuesday evening and closed today. Rev. Sweger is expected to return today.

Trail and Lengby Residents Injured In Auto Mishaps Over Week End

Two serious accidents in this section occurred over the week end when Miss Minnie Putske of Trail was run down by Ralph Lycan of Bemidji, and B. H. Danks of Lengby was thrown from his car when a Great Northern freight train struck his automobile at the crossing at Dugdale. Miss Putske, who is 52 years of age, is at a Crookston hospital hovering between life and death. Her left leg was broken, her feet and right hand crushed, three ribs broken and she was hurt internally, her life depending upon the extent of the latter injuries. Miss Putske was walking on the side of the highway when struck by Lycan's car on his return from Crookston.

Danks, a Lengby road contractor, owes his life to fate. While driving along trunk highway No. 8 towards Dugdale with the side curtains on his Ford touring car up, Danks failed to see the freight train coming along the track until it was too late to stop. Thinking he could beat the train Danks speeded up his car but was unable to cross the track in time. The engine, piloted by Joe Malone, struck the rear of the car and tossed it into the air, throwing Danks out. Danks suffered only a few bruises but his car was completely demolished.

Northern Minnesota Boys and Girls Active In Club Work. Many Prize Winners

Northern Minnesota scores again in the dairy world. Competing against the nation's best demonstration teams in boys' and girl's club work, Theodore Fenske and Marshall Nugent, two farmer boys living a few miles south of Bemidji, both about 17 years old, are champion dairy demonstrators of the United States, according to information received in Bemidji last week from H. A. Pflughoeft, in charge of club work activities in Beltrami county, who accompanied the boys on their trip to the national dairy show at Syracuse, N. Y., where the demonstration took place. The Bemidji boys won the trip to Syracuse by winning first prize in a similar contest at the Minnesota state fair. They have been in club work for several years.

Although an entirely new subject was required of the boys at Syracuse, other than that given at the Minnesota state fair, the boys and their instructor prepared the new demonstration on very short notice and copped first honors. The new demonstration required for competition at Syracuse was "Feeds and Feeding." This demonstration was given by the boys on three separate occasions at Syracuse, but only once in competition.

Much interest is being taken by agriculturists throughout Minnesota and elsewhere in club work among boys and girls of the country, and the movement is rapidly becoming something of the greatest importance in the development of farming among the youth of today.

Pennington county is not taking a back seat in this activity for its boys and girls. There are a number of club units in the county, all of whom enjoy a large enrollment and have shown real results. Several members of the various club departments who won distinction were awarded with trips to the state fair, where they participated in state contests.

At the Minnesota state fair his year Miss Myrtle Helgeland of the local bread club won highest honors in bread making, a distinction which Pennington county and Thief River Falls may justly be proud of. As a reward for this accomplishment Miss Helgeland will get a free trip to Chicago where she will enter into competition with bread makers from the entire United States. Owing to the fact that she is taking a course in teachers' training at the local high school, she will not make the trip this fall but expects to take advantage of the splendid opportunity next year, after the completion of her course.

Gordon Hunt, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hunt, who reside near Thief River Falls, and a member of the Pennington County Boys' and Girls' Dairy Calf club, in addition to winning highest honors for his purebred Holstein calf at the county fair, also was awarded fourth prize at the Minnesota state fair, a distinction which is of more than passing interest considering the keen competition encountered. The young lad was also awarded a trip to Chicago, a prize given by the Minneapolis Journal. Young Hunt expects to leave for Chicago the latter part of November. He will attend the second annual convention of club workers of the United States which takes place December 1 to 8.

Thief River Falls and Pennington county have received much favorable publicity as a result of the success of their representatives, who are doing their bit in putting this community on the map.

The accomplishments of boys and girls in club work during the past year should be an incentive to many others who are not now actively engaged in this instructive and interesting work. An event which also added considerably to the interest in the movement was the pig club sale held last week, at which the members disposed of the animals which they had taken care of during the summer, at a good price, half of which was retained by the club worker.

SEVENTH RED CROSS ROLL CALL TO OPEN

Mrs. J. N. Nesse Appointed Director of Membership Drive For Great Organization.

Rev. E. H. Kreidt, chairman of the Pennington County chapter of the Red Cross, announces the appointment of Mrs. J. N. Nesse as director of the Seventh Red Cross Roll Call. The membership drive will take place throughout the United States from Nov. 11, Armistic Day, till Nov. 25, Thanksgiving Day. Mrs. Nesse is already busy arranging for a thorough canvass of the county and if possible, will begin the campaign before the 11th of November, in order to avoid the inclement weather that is to be expected in the near future. Rev. Kreidt urges all people to give Mrs. Nesse their wholehearted co-operation in the large and important task.

The activities of the Pennington chapter during the past year are the best argument in favor of such co-operation. Almost everyone will still remember the terrible disaster that befell the Aubol family at Erie, early this spring. The Pennington Red Cross became an angel of mercy, a Good Samaritan, to the stricken family. They had lost all their property in the fearful blaze; they barely escaped with their lives; one child did meet its death in the flames. Mrs. Aubol was severely cut and burned; Miss Swenson in her heroic efforts to save the children, almost sacrificed her life. Under such distressing conditions the Red Cross was able to render immediate relief in the nature of medical assistance, the help of a trained nurse, clothing, bedding, food and the like. The relief afforded in this instance reached the noble sum of almost $400. The Pennington chapter donated $276.12; Rocksbury branch $71.14; Highlanding branch emptied their treasury (definite figures were not available). One family, at least, will never cease to be grateful to the Pennington County Red Cross.

Though the chapter was unable to carry out its plans regarding a Social Worker for the county, it was able to help the Community Girls in their experiment of last summer; $150 were donated towards defraying the expenses of the Social Worker, who was engaged for a period of three months.

Pennington county filled its quota for Japanese Relief without an extra drive for funds, a fact for which many were very thankful at the time.

The Red Cross Emergency hospital and rest room conducted during the county fair answered a real need and offered to mothers and children an highly appreciated comfort.

Minnesota Ranks Eighth

Minnesota Legionaires are getting all set to renew their 1923 memberships for 1924. All dues are due on January 1st of each year. By getting all present members squared away by that date, there will be more time available to go out after new members and increase the Gopher Legion membership standing in the nation. This year Minnesota ranked eighth among the departments, being led by New York with 60,000 members, Illinois with 50,000, followed by Pennsylvania, Iowa, Ohio, Massachusetts and California. Behind Minnesota comes Wisconsin and Indiana. Minnesota's average paidup membership to date is 30,000 per year. It is hoped to increase this figure to 40,000 or more in 1924.

ALFALFA SEED DISTRIBUTION IN PENNINGTON

Carload of Seed Will Be Purchased To Be Distributed Among Farmers.

QUESTIONAIRES SENT TO 1080 PENNINGTON FARMERS

Bankers Ass'n. In Alfalfa Campaign To Determine Possible Acreage For Year.

Definite steps are now being taken by the Pennington County bankers' association in the campaign launched by that organization in an effort to increase the alfalfa acreage of this county to many times its present status. Arrangements are at present under way to purchase about 60,000 pounds of alfalfa seed, of the Grimm variety, for distribution among the farmers of Pennington county who desire to become growers or who wish to increase their present acreage, this action being taken following a meeting of committees representing the bankers' association and the Commercial club of this city.

The Pennington county bankers have pledged their financial and moral support to the project and aim to make this county the alfalfa center of the state. They will give aid in cases where it is necessary in an effort to get farmers started in growing this profitable and certain crop. Past experiences in this community have proven that alfalfa thrives excellently in Pennington county soil and that conditions are ideal for future success. Farmers who raised alfalfa this year received splendid returns, in spite of the fact that this season was not particularly favorable to the crop.

Not only does alfalfa give the grower profitable returns when the crop is sold, but it is especially emphasized in connection with the extensive dairy activities of this section. Its feeding qualities far exceeds that of any other grass, and experts assert that no dairy farm should be without an alfalfa field. The hardiness of the plant makes it particularly adapted to this section.

In order to determine the amount of seed necessary to supply the needs of Pennington county farmers, a questionaire to be sent to every prospective grower, was prepared by the committee. A mailing list was also prepared and the letters sent out yesterday. There are 1080 farmers in the county. The information desired includes: whether the person receiving the questionaire is at present a grower or not and if so, his acreage; if he intends or wishes to seed alfalfa in 1924 and to what extent; if he has arranged for seed; the condition of the land; the number of cows on farm; number of acres of sweet clover, if any; and other questions of a similar nature. By securing this data further action can be more easily determined. It is urged that those who receive these inquiries fill them out and return the desired information to the committee as early as possible in order to make possible the proper arrangements in due time. The committee is at present conferring with several seed firms for the purchase of an entire carload of alfalfa seed.

AUTHOR DISCLOSES SECRET FOR HAPPY MARRIAGES IN FILM

Domestic Felicity Depends on United Struggle, Says Author of "Brass."

What is the secret of happiness in marriage? Some say a comfortable home, others congenial relationship between husband and wife. Charles G. Norris, author of "Brass", the novel adapted for the screen, thinks neither of the above accounts wholly for happy marriages.

"The secret lies," he believes, "in the struggle for it. No marriage was ever made happy without a distinct effort on the part of both husband and wife to make it so. Married happiness, in short, is not an accident, not a gift of the gods—it is a structure which two build."

That is why the married couple in "Brass" go to wreck and ruin, plunging into tragedies and unhappiness. Philip Baldwin and his wife, Marjorie, cease striving for mutual happiness after a while, the wife finding it in cabarets with boon companions, the husband with his friends. Before they know what's what, they are divorced.

Monte Blue has the featured part as Philip, while Marie Prevost is Marjorie. Others in the cast include Harry Myers, Vera Lewis, Irene Rich, Frank Keenan, Miss DuPont, Margaret Seddon, Helen Ferguson, Edward Jobson, Harvey Clark, Cyril Chadwick, Pat O'Malley, Gertrude Bennett and Ethel Grey Terry.

Ernest Fossum, Jr.

Ernest Fossum, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fossum, residing on LaBree avenue north, died at the home Friday, Oct. 26. Little Ernest was born Sept. 30, last. The funeral was held from the house Saturday, with Rev. T. E. Sweger, the officiating clergyman. Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery.

Show Good Returns.

The creamery at Roseau reports a total of nearly $12,000 paid to patrons during the month of September. The Greenbush creamery paid a total of more than $8,000 during the same period. Cream checks mean real money in the farmers' pockets and provide a steady income during the entire twelve months of the year.

A complete account of the coming fracas is given on the High School Progress page, as is also the write-up on the Crookston-Thief River Falls game, which was won by the former by a score of 20 to 0.

ANNUAL RED CROSS DRIVE WILL OPEN ON ARMISTICE DAY

Thorough Canvass of County Under Supervision of Director Mrs. J. N. Nesse.

Mrs. J. N. Nesse, who was recently appointed director of the seventh roll call for the Pennington county chapter of the Red Cross, has already begun preliminary work, looking forward to the perfecting of an organization which will be able to enroll an adequate membership in the county. The regular roll call opens on Armistice Day and continues until Thanksgiving, and a generous response from the people of city, village and county in this community, is looked forward to.

Complete plans for carrying on the campaign have not yet been announced, although it is the plan to secure workers to have charge of the East Side, the West Side and the business section of the city, in order to make a thorough canvass of the entire city. Arrangements will also be made to secure a membership in the villages and rural communities of the county in an effort to secure a full enrollment. The Red Cross drive here has met with much success in former years and it is anticipated that this will be no exception.

It is a worthy movement and should receive the undivided support of every citizen.

Among the services performed by the organization in the state is home service work among the former service men. In this service the workers have labored to establish worthy claims and secure to disabled men, compensation, hospitalization or vocational training.

Another important work of the organization is public health nursing. This service has proved invaluable in many counties.

Alfalfa Expert Returns to Cities After Week's Survey of Pennington County

Chas. R. Hutcheson, alfalfa expert connected with the Northwest Farmstead, farmer organ published in Minneapolis, returned to that city Saturday morning after spending a week in Pennington and vicinity looking after alfalfa conditions and possibilities for increasing the present acreage considerably. He has made a life-long study of alfalfa growing and in his work is doing much towards the promotion of the crop, especially in this northern section of the state.

During his stay in Thief River Falls he addressed a meeting of the Commercial club and also a gathering of the Pennington County Bankers association, at which occasions he explained very fully the nature of the plant, taking care of the crop and the splendid possibilities of alfalfa in Pennington county. He asserted that conditions here are ideal for the growing of the crop and that the campaign for increased acreage, sponsored by the bankers of the county, will mean the introduction of a new era of prosperity. On Friday evening Mr. Hutcheson accompanied J. J. McCann and J. S. Arneson to Goodridge where he addressed the farmers of that community along similar lines. He expects to return to this section shortly to make further survey of conditions here.

Bemidji Host To Farmers.

More than 600 farmers of the Bemidji territory were guests of the Bemidji Civic and Commerce association last Saturday. Dinner was served at noon and during the afternoon a program was staged at a local theatre, where Theodore Fenske and Marshall Nugent, national championship dairy demonstration team who recently won first place at the national dairy show in Syracuse, N. Y., gave an exhibition. It was the tenth annual entertainment of the farmers by the Bemidji business men.

PENNINGTON CO. POTATO GROWERS ENTER EXCHANGE

About 1,500 Acres Are Signed Up In Whirlwind Campaign To Organize Growers.

FINAL ACREAGE OF 2,000 IS EXPECTED BY LEADERS

Warehouse In Each Marketing Center Now Assured. Pennington 4th to Sign.

All records for commodity co-operative marketing organization work were broken by Pennington county, when leaders who canvassed the territory signed up approximately 1,500 acres on the five-year contract plan being used in the formation of the new Minnesota Potato Growers Exchange. The 1923 potato acreage in Pennington county was 964 acres, only 50 per cent of that or 482 acres being necessary to make an effective organization in the county possible. With the securing of 1,500 acres the campaign in Pennington was put across by more than 300 per cent which is 150 per cent of the total acreage of the previous year.

Leaders who took part in the campaign conducted under the auspices of the Thief River Falls Commercial club with F. J. Stebbins as chairman of the committee in charge, report that about 99 per cent of the growers interviewed signed up, and that by the time the goal is reached practically every potato raised in Pennington county for commercial use will be pledged to the co-operative marketing association. Complete returns from Goodridge and St. Hilaire and from some of the individual leaders who took part in the drive, have not been received at the local headquarters as yet. When all the returns are in it is anticipated that the 2,000 acre goal will be reached.

Already a warehouse at each of the marketing points in the county is assured. A total acreage of 250 acres surrounding a marketing center makes it possible to secure a warehouse built by the state organization.

According to present figures the acreage in the Thief River Falls territory is 600; St. Hilaire, 300; Hazel, 300; Goodridge, 250; and Mavie 250, with indications of additional contracts to be signed up before the campaign closes.

Pennington is the fourth county to sign up its quota, Beltrami, Red Lake and Winona having signed up the legal minimum acreage previously. Many of the other potato growing counties have also entered the ranks following intensive campaigns. In many places business men took an active part similar to the action taken by Thief River Falls merchants.

Never in the history of the state has there been a movement that has been so thoroughly endorsed. One of the brightest spots in the whole project is the fact that business men generally are working with the farmers in this movement to secure a fair price.

Reports from the state headquarters are that the campaign has reached a point where all reasonable doubt as to its success has been removed.

New Bemidji School.

Erection of the new Catholic parochial school which will cost at least $60,000 when completed, was started last week, according to Bemidji papers. The new building will cover a ground space of 85 by 115 feet.

Use Full-Sized Envelopes For Christmas Greetings

The postoffice authorities call attention to the fact that the use of cards and envelopes smaller than those generally used for mailing purposes seriously retards and disarranges the work in the post offices at the time when the postal facilities are taxed to the utmost. Such small sized cards and envelopes frequently cannot be run thru the cancelling machines thus necessitating cancelling the stamps by hand and other extra handling in their journey thru the mail. Frequently there is not sufficient room for proper address, this being particularly the case when it is necessary to add forwarding directions. Therefore, in sending greetings to friends patrons of the postal service are asked not to cause additional grief to the men and women who handle the mails, by disregarding these facts.

Jacob Haugestal.

Jacob Haugestal, 64, single, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. John Svedin, Friday, Oct. 26, cause of death being rheumatism and complications. Mr. Haugestal was born in Dakota county, Minn., April 24, 1859. He was a resident of the vicinity of Skime, Roseau county, for twenty years, up to two years ago when he came to this city and made his home with his sister. Funeral services were held from the Larson undertaking parlors here and at Roseau. Interment was made in the Casperson cemetary, Roseau county.

To mourn his passing he leaves two brothers, Anton Haugestal, Alberta, Canada, and Martin Haugestal, and three sisters, Mrs. John Svedin of this city, Mrs. Hannah Gould of Skime, and Mrs. O. Mattern of MacFarlan, Wis.

Rothsay Bank Closes.

Mr. Thompson has been connected with the Farmers' Co-operative meat market for the past year and Mr. Borgen as clerk for the Gamble-Robinson Co.

GOODRIDGE FARMERS ENDORSE PROGRAM OF MORE ALFALFA

Spirited Community Meeting Held at Goodridge Friday. Many Farmers Attend.

More than fifty per cent of the farmers present at the community meeting held at Goodridge last Friday evening signified their intentions to grow alfalfa this coming year. It was one of the best meetings of its kind ever held in Goodridge and was attended by about 125 persons, the majority of whom were farmers. Increased attendance and interest in these community gatherings is reported.

The chief topic of discussion was alfalfa, which is now taking up the interest of every Pennington county farmer. J. S. Arneson of Thief River Falls and Chas. R. Hutcheson of Minneapolis, alfalfa expert, spoke interestingly on the subject of increasing the acreage in Pennington county farms and aroused much enthusiasm among those present. Their citations of the successful experiences of growers who have been convinced of the splendid returns that alfalfa will bring, also led to convince those at the meeting that it is a phase of farming which should receive their keenest attention.

A thorough explanation of the growing and care of alfalfa was made by Mr. Hutcheson who has made a special study of alfalfa.

SUGAR BEET HARVEST IS NEARLY FINISHED

Field Manager Compliments Pennington Growers on Success in Raising Beets.

Earl C. Moore, field manager for the Northern Sugar Corporation, arrived in Thief River Falls Monday to spend the week looking after sugar beet interests in this community. The sugar beet harvest is practically completed in this territory, it is reported, there being only the crop from about 80 acres left to haul to this city. Mr. Moore states that the farmers thruout the entire valley are nearly thru with harvesting and hauling operations.

Growers generally are very well pleased with results this year, the majority of disappointments being in cases where the fields were infested with weeds and the crop was not properly cultivated, according to Mr. Moore. In all sections the growers are applying for a greater beet acreage for the coming year and indications are that next year's crop will be greatly increased.

Mr. Moore stated that the beet growers of Pennington county may be considered as exceptionally successful in their efforts considering that the crop is new in this community, and that the company is particularly well pleased with the returns and the quality of the beets.

The purpose of the conference is to get the dealers together and discuss the tire dealers' problems in the handling of this much demanded product. On his return, Mr. Fiterman will spend a few days in Minneapolis, attending to business matters there and meet with the sales management of the Minneapolis branches of the Chevrolet dealers and Republic Tire and Diamond Tire companies. He expects to return Saturday.

CELEBRATION OF ARMISTICE DAY BEING ARRANGED

Appropriate Program To Be Given at City Auditorium Monday, Nov. 12.

REV. WEAKLAND TO DELIVER ADDRESS OF DAY

Local Legion Post Will Stage Carnival and Dance During Afternoon and Evening.

Armistice Day will be appropriately observed in Thief River Falls on Monday, November 12, instead of on the 11th, which this year falls on Sunday. The closing of the great conflict will be commemorated and honor paid to those who took part in the great war by a fitting program at the auditorium, which is scheduled to begin at 1:30 p. m. A committee is now at work preparing the program which will consist of an address by Rev. B. M. Weakland, assistant rector of St. Bernard's church, and various musical numbers fitting to the occasion. Rev. Weakland is an ex-service man and is therefore especially well fitted to deliver an appropriate armistice Day oration.

Following the program, beginning at 4 p. m., the local American Legion post will take charge of affairs and will open to the public the auditorium where they will stage a big carnival. Prizes of all kinds of useful merchandise will be given away. At 7:15 a snake parade thru the city will take place, which will be followed by a dance at the auditorium. A twenty-piece band recently organized by the Legion will render music for the event and an extra large orchestra will furnish music at the dance. The general public is invited to partake in the affair and those in charge of arrangements promise that a good time will be provided everybody who join in the celebration.

The business men of the city have agreed to close their places of business during the entire afternoon in order to be able to partake in the program at the auditorium and patrons should bear this in mind so as to make the necessary purchases in time.

A detailed program will be published in next week's issue of The Times.

Few Want City Jobs.

There is evidently little interest in city politics in Red Lake Falls, as only two offices will be contested in the approaching city election, according to the Gazette. Wm. Nellund and E. A. Lambert have filed for treasurer; Henry Weber and W. A. Schreiter for assessor; Robert Poirier, Theo. Steinert, Rudolph Helm, Geo. E. Hennings and Dan Champeau for alderman, the four last named seeking re-election; and Gilbert Marchillon, who seeks re-election as mayor. W. A. Fisher and E. G. Buse filed as candidates for justice.

Poultry Show at Plummer.

The fourth annual Red Lake County Poultry Show will be held at Plummer December 14 to 17, according to announcement made in the Red Lake Falls Gazette last week. This show will take place shortly after the Pennington county exposition here. The Plummer show promises to be of the best that has been staged in the county, and is expected to create considerable interest thruout this section.

Business Places of City Close Monday Afternoon, Nov. 12

Business places of Thief River Falls will be closed during the afternoon of Monday, November 12, which will be observed as Armistice Day instead of November 11, which falls on Sunday this year, according to agreement reached by the merchants of the city. It is also to be noted at this time that the stores will remain closed all day of November 29, Thanksgiving Day. Patrons of Thief River Falls business places should bear this in mind so as to make their necessary purchases in due time.

Narrowly Escapes Serious Injury.

Peter Thune, residing near Hazel, narrowly escaped serious injury Wednesday afternoon of last week when a barrel of lime exploded.

Mr. Thune was mixing the lime with water for plaster. He had placed the water in the barrel first and poured the lime in the water. Taking a stick to stir the two together he found that the stick was not strong enough and went to a shed to get an iron rod. While in the shed the barrel of lime and water exploded, throwing the boiling mixture in all directions. Had Mr. Thune been near the barrel when it exploded he would have suffered severe burns from the boiling lime. Mr. Thune was home alone at the time.

Thinks Pennington Best.

Mayor John Bratrud returned Monday morning from a ten-days' trip to Cresco and other points in Iowa. The mayor asserts emphatically that nowhere on his journey did he see any community that looked more appealing than Pennington county or where prospects are better for rapid progress by way of the diversified farming program. Forward-looking farmers and business men of this section are now showing a spirit which is to be found in few communities.

Strandquist Bank May Re-open

Examination of the Farmers and Merchants Bank at Strandquist is about completed now and indications are that the institution will open again within a short time. The loss of the bank is estimated at about $40,000 but a large part of this can be taken up by an assessment on the stock. The deposits at the time the bank was closed by the state department totalled $100,000.

Fifteen Million Marks in Postage on German Letter Sent to Thief River Falls

The sum of fifteen million—15,000,000—marks, represented by three postage stamps on a letter sent from Germany to a Thief River Falls resident, seems a fabulous and unbelieveable amount, but it is a fact. That is what it cost to send a message by mail from Germany to this country under the present low exchange. If ordinary exchange conditions existed it would amount to approximately three million dollars in American money! Stamps are now being issued in such huge denominations that it is not necessary to entirely cover the letter, as was the case for a while. This incident clearly shows the extent of the money situation in the home of the mark, where a man can be a multimillionaire with a few American eagles.

COMMUNITY CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED BY HOLT RESIDENTS

Many Farmers Are Guests of Holt Business Men at Gathering Saturday Eve.

About two hundred persons, most of whom were farmers, were present at the smoker and community gathering sponsored by the Holt Commercial club in that village last Saturday evening. The event took place at the Holt schoolhouse, and was one of the most enthusiastic gatherings of its kind ever held. Farmers in the Holt vicinity were invited guests.

Plans were discussed to form a community club composed of the business men and farmers combined into one organization, the purpose of which will be to promote things of interest to the welfare of the community jointly. An organization will be perfected later.

Much enthusiasm was aroused in the audience by the optimistic talk given by J. S. Arneson of this city, who spoke on the opportunities in this section and particularly stressed the importance of alfalfa and similar crops in an effort to make farming here a profitable business, by getting away from grain farming.

County Agent J. J. McCann also discussed various phases of the growing of alfalfa and clovers and created much interest in better farming methods.

Visiting Pastors Help Special Mission Services in Scand. Evan. Church Wed.

The special mission meeting held at the Scandinavian Evangelical church Wednesday evening of last week was well attended, the church being filled to capacity. Rev. Chr. Myrdal of Milwaukee, Wis., spoke on "God is the Light of the World." He emphasized the darkness of the world where God has not yet been accepted. Carl Gunderson, a Chicago business man, spoke on the importance of home mission work, as did also Rev. A. Wold of Houston, Minn., Rev. B. A. Ericksen of Madison, Wis., and J. Hansen of Milwaukee, Wis. The songs by the male quartet, composed of the visiting church workers, were greatly enjoyed by everyone. At the close of the meeting those present were given opportunity to share their means in the mission work by contributing to the home mission fund.

On Thursday the group motored to Holt where a similar session was held in the afternoon. They appeared in Newfolden in the evening, accompanied by Rev. J. Jacobsen, pastor of the local Evangelical church.

Will Complete Road.

The road east from Karlstad and then south to the Marshall county line where it connects with the state road is now being surveyed, contracts for the grading and graveling to be let next spring. This important state road is being graded this year thru Marshall county as far as the Argyle-Newfolden road which is graded and gravelled east to the Babcock road south of Middle River. When the stretch near Karlstad is completed it will be the main road to Thief River Falls and other points in this vicinity. It is estimated that the cost of this project will be about $13,000.

Mrs. Goar's Claim Suit is Brought into State Court

The case of Mrs. Gunda Goar of Stephen, well known to many residents of this city, versus the village of Stephen and the Minnesota Electric Distributing company, involving a personal injury claim arising from severe burns sustained by the plaintiff more than a year ago thru contact with an electric wire carrying a high electric voltage into her home, was submitted to the Minnesota Supreme Court at St. Paul Tuesday of last week, according to Attorney H. O. Chommie who represents Mrs. Goar.

The case had been appealed by the defendants, Mrs. Goar having obtained a verdict of $12,500 following trial of the case before the Marshall county district court last spring, altho the verdict was later reduced to $8,500 by Judge Watts. No decision from the supreme court is expected for a few weeks at least, according to Mr. Chommie. The final outcome of the suit will be awaited with much interest by many local friends of the plaintiff.

CITY ELECTION CAMPAIGN WORK IS WARMING UP

Candidates In Field For Official Jobs Will Know Fate Next Tuesday, Nov. 6.

HALVORSON WITHDRAWS AS ASPIRANT FOR JUDGE

Considerable Campaigning For Various Candidates As Election Draws Near.

With the city election only five days distant considerable interest in the campaign has been aroused. A short time ago it appeared as tho only a few candidates would be placed on the ballot, which, however, developed to the extent that there are now several contestants for each of the various offices of the city government, the office of city treasurer being the only one which enjoys the distinc*tion of only one aspirant.*

A change in the lineup of candidates was made this week when G. Halvorson withdrew as a candidate for municipal judge. Having filed as a candidate at the request of friends he later concluded that his other interests would require so much of his time that he would be unable to devote the necessary time to the office if elected.

Following is a complete list of the candidates whose names will appear on the ballot next Tuesday:

Mayor—J. S. Arneson and N. J. Silk.

Alderman at large—F. C. Dablow, M. V. Evenson, J. J. Weeks, Hans Rustad, Oscar C. Paulson and Albert Halseth.

Alderman, First Ward—T. A. Fossum, Carl Froseth and L. D. McAdams.

Alderman, Second ward—John Dahl, Helmer Ostrom and Chris Porter.

Alderman, Third ward — H. A. Brumund and Carsten Christensen.

Alderman, Fourth ward—O. L. Bakken, Andrew Ness, Knut Melby and O. A. Rambeck.

Municipal Judge—N. W. Tarrant, Geo. M. Wilson and R. K. Callaway.

Special Municipal Judge — Scott Laird and G. Howard Smith.

Treasurer—Ed. M. Evenson.

Considerable campaigning in the interests of various candidates has been done the last few days, and placards, cards and campaign literature is being distributed among the voters of the city. Some of the candidates have received the "endorsement" of various organizations, making the contest more complicated and intense. Silk, Dablow, Tarrant, Melby, Ostrom, Evenson, Christensen and Fossum are being promoted as "The People's Ticket by an organization termed The Voter's League of which O. P. Halldin is president. A strong campaign is also being conducted for J. S. Arneson, aspirant for the mayoralty berth.

It is expected that an exceptionally heavy vote will be cast at this election due to the keen interest that is now being taken in the various candidates, altho there are no definite issues in question. All the wards will vote at the city auditorium where the polls will be open from 6 a. m. until 8 p. m.

MUSIC LOVERS ARE GIVEN TREAT WHEN 'FAUST' IS PLAYED

Company of Artists Appear in Grand Opera at Auditorium Monday Evening.

Thief River Falls was favored with the only Grand Opera presentation made in this city in recent years, Monday evening, when the Redpath Lyceum Bureau, through G. Halvorson, presented "Faust" enacted by a cast of players who were capable of giving their audience a real entertainment of a high character.

Despite the fact that the promoter, G. Halvorson, had only one day in which to advertise the attraction, about six hundred seats were taken. All who were present showed a great deal of enthusiasm and appreciation which proves that Thief River Falls citizens are open to high class entertainment. The company was composed of only artists. Frederick Taggart, baritone, who took the role of Mephistopheles, fitted the part well, both with his clear and well controlled voice and in his ability to assume an air of indifference and compel a decision. Ferdinand Zegel, acted the part of Faust, both in youth and age with the same accurate portrayal of the character represented. Ethel Harrison, Marguerite, a village maid, displayed an unusually fine soprano voice taking the high and low notes with the same ease and accuracy. Estelle Engler took the dual role of Martha, a neighbor, and Siebel, a boy friend. Both parts were enacted with an accuracy of portrayal that showed more than careful preparation. Pietro Soldano took the part of the soldier, Marguerite's brother showing splendid artistic ability. Margory Morrison accompanied the entire play and added much to the successful execution of the play. An evidence of the appreciation of the audience was the number of encores and the reluctance to leave at the fall of the curtain at the end of the performance.

THE CITY ELECTION.

Thief River Falls is on the eve of another city election. Next Tuesday, November 6, citizens will have opportunity to choose from a group of candidates those whom they wish to have charge of municipal affairs during the next period of service. It is of vital importance that the voters consider carefully the qualifications of the aspirants to the city pal berths, what each one stands for and the program each one intends to pursue.

The people as a whole are not so much concerned with personalities, their aim being mainly the election of a mayor and council having the requisite ability, confidence, courage and foresight that will give Thief River Falls the kind of administration that will maintain its place as the most enterprising and progressive community in this section. At the present period of development it is of much concern to have public servants who are competent to handle the affairs of the city in the most efficient way. A number of questions will come before the mayor and council which will require definite action and the future of the city will depend in a large degree upon the spirit of those who hold the reins of the city government. They must be men who at all times work for the best interests of the city and who are willing to give fair service to everyone concerned.

At the present time a matter given much consideration by the taxpayer of the city is public expenditure. It is evident from the general tenor of expressions that whoever is elected will find it necessary to hold down the outlay of the public funds. Taxes cannot be eliminated but it must be the endeavor of the next council to protect the public purse and use economical judgment in the conduct of the city's business.

It is not the effort of The Times to promote the election of certain individuals for the official positions in question, but merely to point out some of the things which the voter should consider in the selection of men in whom will be entrusted the affairs of Thief River Falls for the next two years or more.

THE RED CROSS DRIVE.

Pennington County [illegible] "done things". It will endeavor to "do things" in the future. However, being part of a national organization, it must abide by the rules of that organization, and therefore, cannot do all that some would like to see done. But in all cases of emergency relief the Red Cross stands ready to "serve" if only its officers be made acquainted with the need.

So that the Pennington Red Cross may continue to serve, when and where service is needed, let every man and woman and child answer the call of mercy; let them meet the men and women who will call on them in the near future with a cheerful smile and an open hand.

Don't forget: Seventh Roll Call [illegible]

The Filtration Plant.

In the political announcement of the so-called "People's Ticket," I notice the filtration plant of the city is referred to as a "monument of inefficiency," a statement so untrue that I cannot allow the same to go unchallenged.

No one, I believe, will deny the great need for a filtration plant in Thief River Falls, and I think it is the judgment of all that the present adequate supply of pure drinking water in the hydrants of the city supplies a need greater than any other which has come before the present council.

If the reference has to do with the slight crack in the wall I call attention to the fact that the city is fully protected in that matter. Not a cent has been paid to the planning engineer and a sufficient sum of money has been withheld from the contractor to fully cover the damage complained of.

In view of the fact that this is the principal charge made against the council it is my opinion that the members of that body may feel well endorsed for their work of the past two years, and we join with the "Voters' League" in asking the voters to carefully inspect the filtration plant, and to also carefully consider other acts of the council. I am sure they will agree that the money of the tax payers has been carefully expended.

Those Who Work Hard for Their Money

SUPPOSE that you earned your living by doing housework and had saved up a few hundred dollars; then a slick salesman of a wild cat promotion came along and persuaded you to put your little nest egg in his worthless proposition. What would you think about "investments"?

This is one of the problems discussed in our new booklet "The Woman in the Case".

You will be interested in this plain, little fact story by a married woman, who learned how to help herself and to safeguard the savings of others. Common sense is better than scheming.

How are hard working, inexperienced people to be assisted in distinguishing good investments from "fakes"?

One of the simplest rules is to invest only in organizations close to home, which have an actual record of success over a long period of years.

Success and prosperity are cheering things. They are much closer to the grasp of the average man or woman than many suppose. When hard working people in all occupations can put one of the largest business organizations to work for them the door of financial independence is truly open to all.

POLITICAL ADVERTISING—Prepared and published by O. F. Halldin, president of the Voters' League, in behalf of the People's Ticket and to be paid for at regular advertising rates.

To The Voters

Our city is in dire need of a council that will cut out all waste of money and all unnecessary improvements. The tax rate has increased under the present council from 31.6 mills in 1920 to 38.3 mills in 1922, with chances of still higher in 1923. This must be stopped before all home-owners are driven from the city.

The filtration plant is a striking monument to the inefficiency and poor judgment of the present city administration. Every voter should examine this building before election day.

The candidates whose names appear on the other side of this card are common workers, home-owners and taxpayers. They feel the burden of high taxes as no other class and will practice economy and work for lower taxes. If you are interested in the welfare of this city, vote for them, otherwise our votes will be scattered, and the old members will slip in on a plurality vote.

Mrs. J. Biederman entertained a group of children at her home Friday evening in the form of a Hallowe'en party for her son Robert. The rooms were attractively decorated in Hallowe'en appointments and the whole affair was distinctively suggestive of Hallowe'en. The time was pleasantly spent at games. At 10 o'clock refreshments were served by Mrs. Biederman, assisted by the Misses Eleanor Werstlein, Lily Gran, Mildred Engen, and Alice Tenold. Seventeen children were present.

Children's Party.

Miss Laura Brown entertained a large group of children at her home on Conley avenue Friday. The rooms were tastily decorated in Hallowe'en style. Games were the diversion of the evening and at ten o'clock refreshments were served.

Entertain Teachers.

Mrs. J. H. Frissel and Mrs. A. J. Oden entertained a group of local instructors at the home of Mrs. Frissel Saturday afternoon. The rooms were beautifully decorated in Hallowe'en effects. The time was pleasantly spent at needle work and in a social way, and at 5:30 o'clock a lunch was served by the hostesses. Fourteen teachers were present.

Entertains Instructors.

Mrs. H. W. Froehlich entertained at six-thirty o'clock dinner Friday evening for a group of instructors of the city schools, the evening being spent at bridge.

Film Version of Old Song At The Princess This Week

"Where is my Wandering Boy Tonight" will be shown at the Princess theatre tomorrow and Saturday. The film version of the old song, known to everyone, stars Cullen Landis and Patsy Ruth Miller.

"Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight" is a page from life.

The story of a fickle-hearted boy and his neglected mother.

A beautiful story that will make you smile away your troubles.

A story of human heart throbs—of high ambitions—of deserted hopes—of a mother's longing for her boy—of true love.

A story that shows up the falseness of the glittering tinsel of Broadway—a story that will entwine itself around your heart—a story with the real heart punch.

The story of a mother's heartache and a boy's ambition.

The story that makes sons proud to have mothers—and mothers proud of their sons.

So far this year the "Progress" staff has not received the support from the student body that it would like to have. The average student does not seem to realize that the paper belongs to the school, not the staff, and that each one is entitled to contribute his share to it. If a student has an idea or opinion he would like to express publicly or to the school, he should either write it up himself or explain it to one of the editors who will see that it gets in print. If one hears of any news that would be of interest to the students, he would be doing the school a favor by reporting it. If you ever see an especially funny joke, please make a note of it and tell it to the feature editor who will put it in the Joke Exchange. Any typewriting student who has a vacant period or some spare time could do his bit by typing "Progress" material.

It is not easy for the sixteen members of the staff to get all the news in the school and to write enough to fill up this page so all that is contributed from the student body is of value and can be used.

Prof. I. M. Cochran Will Speak Here on Nov. 9th

The people of this city will have the pleasure of hearing Prof. I. M. Cochran, of Carleton College, the ninth of November.

Mr. Cochran is coming here under the auspices of the high school for the benefit of the athletic association. Those who heard him last year spoke very highly of his entertainment, and the public may rest assured that it will be fully as good this year.

Mr. Cochran is a man of rare ability and is highly spoken of by all authorities. His selection this year, "The Man of the Hour," will equal if not surpass "The Fortune Hunter," which he gave last year.

The small admission fee of 20c will be charged to all school children, and 35c to adults.

Miss Meade, Home Economics instructor at the Crookston A. C. visited the High School Monday and returned the same afternoon.

Miss Ethel Conklin, of the class of '21, is attending State Normal at Moorhead.

Mr. Mickelson spent Friday evening and Saturday of last week visiting in Crookston.

Sether makes 6 yards on an end run, but Crookston recovers a fumble. Crookston makes 2 yards on an end run, but is penalized for off side, and then loses on an end run. Crookston loses on next two plays and attemps to drop-kick which fails. Local's ball on 20 yard line. Thief River does not gain on end run and Parenteau punts. Receiver stopped in his tracks, quarter ends with score 7 to 0 in Crookston's favor.

Second Quarter

Crookston tries pass which is incomplete and loses on an end run, then punts. Locals lose ball on first play and Crookston does the same, giving the ball back to Thief River. Sether makes 15 yards on end run, but is injured and fumbles. Crookston recovers. An end run gives Crookston first down and with three more plays they go over for their second touchdown. The drop kick for point was completed making the score 14 to 0 in Crookston's favor. The locals receive and Gavin returns to 40 yard line, Zeh gains 15 yards, and Sether makes it another first down. A pass to Gavin was completed. Parenteau gains 20 yards through center. Thief River tries line plunges, but makes only slight gains. She then punts and is penalized 15 yards. Crookston makes no gain on end run. Half ends with locals at short end of 14 to 0 score.

Third Quarter

Crookston attempts a pass, but it is incompleted. Thief River gets ball. A pass to Penney was completed, but the next two passes were incomplete so the locals were forced to punt. Crookston was penalized five yards for offside on the next play and after one incomplete pass they punted. The locals completed a pass to Gavin who was injured. Parenteau punted. The quarter ended with the ball in Crookston's possession and the score still 14 to 0 in Crookston's favor.

P. T. MEETING TO BE HELD MONDAY EVE.

Several Faculty Members to Appear on Program of the Second P. T. Meeting.

The second meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association during this school year will be held in the Lincoln High School Auditorium on Monday evening, Nov. 5, at 8 o'clock. The first meeting of the association was in the nature of a reception to the teachers of the Thief River Falls schools, the parents furnishing the program. The program for the meeting next Monday evening will be furnished by the teachers. Several members of the faculty will speak on different phases of school work and what is expected of the parents by the teachers. Among those who will speak are: Supt. Simley; Miss Clara Baumann, girls' physical director; Mr. Leonard Thune, athletic coach; Mrs. Clara Herm, school nurse; and Principal Bye. There will probably be other speakers, as yet not announced. Several musical numbers will be rendered by the different musical organizations under the direction of Miss Maude L. Johnson.

LINCOLNITES MEET CROOKSTON A. C. SAT.

Coach Thune's Men Working Hard to Make Last Game of Season A Victory.

Another football game has been scheduled. The Lincolnites will meet the Crookston A. C. on the local field Saturday, Nov. 3. This will not be another defeat for Thief River because the irritation caused by last Saturday's game has enraged the Thief Riverites so that a team with the name Crookston will not be able to withstand the battery that will be given them.

The A. C. has a strong team. They have lost only one game out of three, and that game to Warren High School which has one of the strongest of the district. The A. C. tied Red Lake Falls and Ada. The game with Red Lake Falls was three days after the opening of the A. C.'s winter session which probably accounts for them not defeating Red Lake.

Coach Thune's warriors during the past week, have been undergoing some of the stiffest practices of the season. The bitter defeat at Crookston keeps the players in a fighting humor, and spurs them on to greater efforts.

The Lincolnites sincerely ask the local people to continue their loyal support of a losing team to help win the last game of the season.

Tickets can be purchased at Lambert's Drug Store.

The Second Team

If any group in our high school deserves praise, it is the second team. They have been out every night, working and scrimmaging, always on their mettle, putting forth their strongest efforts, making the most of spirit in the high school.

Every evening finds a certain group of men who do not play on the first team, out there working hard to give the first team stiff opposition. In order to achieve the requirements necessary for a good team, there must be a group of red-blooded fellows out on the field as scrimmagers. The men who come out constantly, but do not get on the first eleven, constitute the second team.

Lincoln High realizes the excellent efforts put forth by this team and the benefits they have accorded the school. Lincoln realizes that these men have the true material of real athletes, and make up the best part of the school. They have fought for all of us every night after school, from two to three hours, they have hardened the first team, and helped make them a clean-cut group of players, and are themselves the most ardent type of supporters for a team of so high a standard.

We thank them, and we congratulate them.

Tickets for the football game next Saturday afternoon, between the Crookston A. C. and the Thief River Falls High School have been placed on sale at Lambert's Drug Store. The price is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students. Get your tickets early and come out and help the Lincoln eleven close the season with a victory.

Several Local Teachers Attend M. E. A. Meeting

The annual convention of the Minnesota Education Association will take place in St. Paul Thursday and Friday of this week. Several of the High School faculty members will attend.

Mrs. Blanche Korstad, Miss Maude L. Johnson, and Mr. Mickelson left on the flier Tuesday night and Miss Doreen Finnegan, Miss Eleanor Keyes, Miss Miriam Simon, Miss Julia Hedlickson, Miss Alice Stapleton, and Mr. Gust left Wednesday evening. The absence of these teachers will not cause any change in the school schedule because substitutes have been secured to fill their places.

Junior Play Chosen

A Junior committee has chosen the play which the Junior Class will present sometime early in December. After much thought, "Daddy-Long-Legs" was finally selected and will undoubtedly prove a success. The cast has not yet been decided on but will be chosen this week so that rehearsals may start very soon.

Debate Work Begun

The debating class has met regularly the last two weeks, and although the real work has not yet been started, material is being collected and read, and study of the fundamental principles of debate is being taken up. This year the school has material for an excellent team, and hopes are being entertained for the championship of this district.

Knox Notes

Dora Johnson of Trail and Torgus Haraldson of the Willowdale School entered the 5th Grade this week, making the total enrollment forty.

The pupils of the 5th Grade observed Roosevelt Day on Thursday by having interesting socialized history recitations. Every pupil took an active part.

Alice Larsen, Robert Booren, Forest Anderson, and Clifford Newland dramatized "The Making of the First American Flag" by Betsy Ross. They were dressed in costumes representing those worn in Revolutionary days.

Mable Hagen and Alma Trovland are leaders in the Studebaker Tests in grade four. Both girls are on drill seven.

Grade four has had a great disappointment, for within the past three weeks it has had twelve cases of tardiness. All these pupils live within four blocks of the school. Excuses seem to be "Slow Clocks." It seems too bad to have such lack of punctuality shown towards school. This ends to reflect on the other work.

The second and third grade room has started the study of Indian life through Indian stories and pictures.

In the primary rooms are seen witches, brownies, jack-o-lanterns, cats and owls—Hallowe'en is soon here.

The normal training girls have completed their work with the third grade.

The children in the third grade are very proud of the Columbus posters which they made free hand.

A group of students attended the football game at Crookston last Saturday among whom was Esther Benner, Maxine Johnson, Erayle Anderson, Charles Booren, Maurice Healknecht, Katherine Barzen, Rose Flynn, Orrin Storholm, Thomas Melgaard, Arndt Anderson and Thomas Scanlan.

Miss Olga Svensgaard, who was graduated in '21, has accepted a position with the Child Health Demonstration of Fargo and acts as secretary to the physician of that place, working with the doctor and the nurse in the schools. She is very much pleased with her work.

A contest for the best dramatization of "It Takes Two to Make a Quarrel" was given between Linnea Backlund and Katherine Rhoades on one side and Alyce Louson and Dorothy Tyter on the other side. The former won by a large vote of the pupils.

CATARRH of nose or throat is made more endurable, sometimes greatly benefited by applying Vicks up nostrils. Also melt some and inhale the vapors.

Election Nov. 6

(Ordered inserted and to be paid for at regular rates by Geo. M. Wilson, Thief River Falls, Minn.)

Some Reasons Why We Believe J. S. Arneson Should be Elected Mayor of Thief River Falls.

A voluntary committee of voters of the city submit the following observations as to the candidacy of Mr. Arneson for Mayor:

FIRST: One of the matters in which every taxpayer is vitally interested at the present juncture, is that of economy in the expenditure of the city's money.

In this connection, we know where Mr. Arneson stands. He is a taxpayer; every dollar he possesses is invested in the city. He believes that a strict check should be maintained on the expenditures of the city's funds; that the burden on the taxpayer should be lessened, rather than increased by undertaking new improvements at this time; that strict economy in the conduct of the affairs of the city is essential; that its various departments be conducted on a business-like and economical plan.

He is on record in this regard, and most earnestly pledges himself to do what may be done by him, if elected Mayor, to bring about an economical and efficient administration.

SECOND: Another vital matter, no less important, is that of law enforcement.

The vast majority of the citizens of the city are for the enforcement of the law. No self respecting citizen can have any sympathy for the moonshiner or bootlegger. In this connection, we not only want officials who are in favor of law enforcement, but who know how to bring it about. Mr. Arneson is on record in this regard. During the past two years he has consistently and steadily interested himself, personally and through the columns of his paper, in the enforcement and observance of the law. If elected Mayor, he will know exactly how to proceed with his law enforcement policy.

His principles on the subject, and his experience and qualifications, are such that we believe he is a man who, as Mayor of the city, would bring about results in this vital matter of enforcing the law.

THIRD: A third persuasive reason for Mr. Arneson's election we believe is found when the duties and functions of the Mayor are considered.

One of the Mayor's chief functions is to act as spokesman for the city. When we elect a spokesman, we most decidedly want a man who will under all conditions, and at all times, speak well of the city, and surrounding community. We need hardly call attention to Mr. Arneson's record in this regard. Through the columns of his newspaper, in his personal activity, as member of various committees and organizations, he has been one of the most outstanding boosters for Thief River Falls and the country surrounding it, that the city has ever had. He has spent cheerfully of his time and energy in every undertaking that has been of benefit to the community. He has interested himself particularly in movements whose objective has been the betterment of farming conditions in this vicinity. He is now, in conjunction with farmers and business men of the city, working strenuously to further the alfalfa and sweet clover campaign.

He believes that what benefits the farmer, benefits the city; that the city's function, and reason for existence, is it's ability to serve the entire community. Only so far as it renders such service is it entitled to grow and prosper.

To have a booster in the position of Mayor is therefore, a most vital concern to the city. The community is just emerging from a period of depression. Many people are despondent. Optimism is at a premium. Yet it is the optimists, to whom we must look for better times. It is just in times like these that the booster can do the most good. Farming conditions must be improved; business conditions in the city must be improved; the booster and the booster spirit alone can bring about this improvement.

Better and more business in the city means reduced taxes, because the tax spread will be greater. We are therefore, vitally concerned in putting into office men who are interested in the city's and community's welfare. Mr. Arneson is such a man.

Furthermore, we believe he is a man who can, as Mayor, do more effective boosting for the community than perhaps any other man in the city. As editor of his paper, he speaks to a large circle of listeners. With a wide acquaintance in the cities, and throughout the state, he is in a position to give the city most desirable publicity.

We believe his election would, in no small measure, help to liven up business, help to bring in settlers, help to improve agricultural conditions, help to produce more jobs and work for those who depend upon their labor for a living, help in all these things, because he is, has been and always will be, as Mayor or as a private citizen, a consistent booster, and an effective worker for the welfare of the community.

These observations we offer in the hopes that they may be of assistance to the voter, in coming to a decision on the important question: "For whom shall I vote?" We hope that that decision will be, to vote for Jens S. Arneson for Mayor.

Respectfully submitted,
CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE,
By F. F. HAYNES, Chairman.

A Constructive Force

FROM the day when its first refinery was opened, it has been the earnest endeavor of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to be a constructive force in the industrial life of the nation.

With all modesty we say—frankly, sincerely, and with profound conviction—that this organization has been such a force.

When this Company was organized, only a few products were taken from crude oil. Today, hundreds of products—useful, convenient, imperatively needed by the public at large—are taken from this single base.

This industrial husbandry, redounding to the material benefit of mankind, is eloquent in demonstrating the kind of work which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been doing year after year.

This Company always has been a leader. The advanced work it has done in research, discovery, technical application, development and manufacturing, has added much to the wealth of the world.

Hundreds of industries have improved their manufacturing processes and largely increased their productiveness because of the advanced work this Company has done—and such improvement has enabled the manufacturer to sell his products at a lower price than would have been possible otherwise.

Because of the Company's advanced thinking, planning and preparation the price of petroleum products generally has been kept within reasonable bounds in the face of a demand which is unprecedented in history.

Every factor in this great organization is carefully attuned to the constructive ideals of conservation, equity, fairness and justice, which in turn have operated in a comprehensive way to the distinct and material advantage of the thirty million people living in the Middle Western States.

SOO LINE HEAD DIES SUDDENLY IN MINNEAPOLIS

G. R. Huntington, President of Soo Since May, 1922, Passes After Brief Illness.

HIGHLY RESPECTED CHIEF CLIMB FROM HUMBLE JOB

Officials of Local Division Attend Funeral Services. Trains Stop In Tribute.

George H. Huntington, aged 55, president of the Soo line of which Thief River Falls is a division point, an outstanding figure among operating officials and executives of American railroads, and son of a railroad pioneer who piloted the first train into La Crosse, Wis., in the days of wood-burning engines, died Sunday at his home, in Minneapolis.

Death overtook Mr. Huntington, a man who rose from the most insignificant position railroads have to offer to that of president of one of the leading lines at a moment when members of his family and business associates were rejoicing over what was believed to have been his rapid recovery from a two weeks' illness.

Mr. Huntington established a record in the 35 years he was associated with the Soo Line that is believed to be unduplicated in the United States.

When Mr. Huntington affiliated with the Soo Line, its mileage was only 400 miles. Today the railroad, through purchases of the Wisconsin Central and various branch lines and through new construction, has a mileage of 4,300 miles.

"Knew Every Man, Every Tie"

Friends of Mr. Huntington said of him that he "knew every tie and every man on the system." His associates recalled that never made a trip over the road but he greeted his employees by their first names wherever he went.

"He was the most democratic president of a railroad in the United States," his friends said. "That quality in his character enabled him to reach the presidency of the railroad."

Mr. Huntington was born at New Lisbon, Wis., in 1868, and his first railroad job was that of a messenger with the Milwaukee line. He became an operator a few years later. In 1888, he took his first position with the Soo Line as a dispatcher. He rose to chief dispatcher and 1899 became division superintendent. A year later he was promoted to general superintendent, which post he held for nine years. He then became general manager of the Soo Line and the Wisconsin Central railroad.

Mr. Huntington is survived by his wife and three children, Jane at home; Mary at Wells college, and George at Williams college; four sisters, Mrs. J. W. Chamberlin, St. Paul; Mrs. H. B. McMaster, Jamestown, N. Y.; Mrs. T. V. Gedney, and Mrs. C. W. Sawyer, both of Minneapolis, and two brothers, Fred of Fargo and Harry of Rochester, N. Y.

Officers of the Soo line and other railroads thruout the country as well as executives of various firms who had been associated with Mr. Huntington in his period of service, bespeak of him the highest praise. It is said of him that he was a man of attractive character and personality, and a very able and conscientious official. These features of his life are brought out by officials and employees of the local division who came in contact with the late chief during the time he acted as an executive of the Soo railroad.

It was said of Mr. Huntington that he won the presidency of the great transportation agency thru his own efforts, rising from the bottom in railroading to the very top without the aid of outside influences. He had a great business capacity and worked with sincerity. Prominent men in many walks of life agree that Northwest railroads have lost an able and sincere worker and the community the services of a splendid man by the passing of Mr. Huntington.

Attend Funeral Services

Funeral services in Minneapolis Tuesday were attended by representatives of the local division of the Soo Line. W. A. Bernard, superintendent of this division; J. C. Toms, trainmaster; and J. W. Hendry, master mechanic of Thief River Falls, left Monday evening to pay last tribute to their chief. All service on the entire Soo Line system was suspended for a period of five minutes, from 2:00 to 2:05 p. m., in silent tribute on Tuesday, the day of the funeral, which took place from the Westminster Presbyterian church in Minneapolis.

No action has as yet been taken in respect to Mr Huntington's successor.

Regular Meeting of Woman's Club Postponed Till Tuesday

The regular meeting of the Woman's club will be held Tuesday, Nov. 13, instead of Monday, in observance of Armistice Day. Plans for the social hour, which are in the charge of Mrs. John Bratrud, are not completed. Parliamentary drill will be given by Mrs. Andrew Bottelson. The subject of Library day will be taken up by the library board.

Records Show Fewer Weddings.

According to records at the local court house, the number of weddings has dropped off considerably the past three years. October of last year 13 licenses were issued and October this year only 9 applications were received. To the last of October last year 78 licenses were issued against 73 this year. The past three years the number of licenses have been considerable below the 100 mark while during the years 1914 to 1920 the number averaged about 120.

Proclamation

Armistice Day, November 11th, a legal holiday by act of our Legislature, falls on Sunday this year.

Our President has declared that Armistice Day be fittingly observed on Monday, November 12th, thruout the Union.

It is most fitting that we devote one day to honor those who served and sacrificed for our Country and Humanity, and to renew our pledge to uphold the principals for which they fought.

Therefore, I John Bratrud, Mayor of Thief River Falls, do hereby designate Monday, November 12th, a day for the sacred observance of the fifth anniversary of the Armistice and do hereby order that all business in the city suspend at eleven minutes past eleven A. M., and remain closed thruout the balance of the day. I respectfully urge the people of Thief River Falls and community to attend the public exercises to be held at the city Auditorium at 1:30 P. M., and join in paying devotion and respect to those who served our Country's Cause.

JOHN BRATRUD,
Mayor.

OBSERVANCE OF ARMISTICE DAY IN CITY MONDAY

All Business Houses in City to Close at 11:11 O'clock on Monday Forenoon.

PROGRAM AT AUDITORIUM TO COMMENCE AT 1:30 P. M.

Football Game and Legion Activities Will Follow Exercises. Big Carnival Dance.

Everything is now in readiness for the proper observance of Armistice Day in Thief River Falls next Monday, Nov. 12, that day being designated for celebration instead of the 11th, which comes on Sunday this year. All business houses in the city are to close at 11:11 in the forenoon and will remain closed thru the entire day. The festivities arranged for the occasion will be observances honoring those who took part in the late war and also a jollification to celebrate the signing of the armistice.

Exercises in honor of those who gave their lives in the service of their country will take place at the auditorium beginning at 1:30 p. m. Mayor Bratrud will act as chairman, the program being as follows:

Music	Band
"Star Spangled Banner"	Audience
Invocation	Rev. Chas. Gerlinger
Two-minute tribute.
Requiem	Quartet
Selection	Quartet
Address	Rev. B. M. Weakland
Selection	Quartet
Benediction	Rev. Chas. Gerlinger
"America"	Audience

Miss Maude L. Johnson is in charge of the musical numbers.

Following the observances at the auditorium a post-season football game between the local high school boys and the Warren team will be played at the fair grounds at 2:45. Coach Thune has put the local representatives thru much strenuous practice the past several weeks and a hard fought contest is assured, the Warrenites having lost only to the East Grand Forks eleven two weeks ago, when they also lost their district championship. The visitors will come here with one of the strongest teams that ever represented Warren but the local coach states that his proteges are ready to meet them with confidence, past defeats spurring the boys on to a possible victory this season. The old rivalry between the two towns should also add interest to the game.

The afternoon and evening will be given over to frollicking in charge of the American Legion post assisted by the Woman's Auxiliary. A parade is being planned and all ex-service men are requested to appear in uniform. At the auditorium various forms of entertainment will be on hand for those who come to Thief River Falls to celebrate the day. A real live time is assured by the Legion boys in charge of activities. Band music will be furnished by an organization of Legionaires who have been practicing hard the past few weeks in preparation for the event.

A feature of the evening will be the big carnival and dance, for which elaborate preparations are being made, including a most attractive decoration of the auditorium and a splendid orchestra.

It is anticipated that a large number of out-of-town people in addition to Thief River Falls citizens will join the Legion in the celebration of the event which took place five years ago. The success of the celebration will, in a large degree, depend upon the attendance.

Many Pay Real Estate Taxes on The Last Day

Last week was a busy time in the office of County Treasurer John Gullingsrud, Thursday being the last day for the payment of the last half of the real estate tax without the additional ten per cent penalty attached. Tax payers in large numbers called at the office the last day and a considerable amount was received thru the mails. The complete report of the amount collected has not been made yet, but the total taken in for the last period is expected to be about the same as in former years.

HOG BREEDERS ARE INVITED TO ATTEND SPECIAL LUNCHEON

Commercial Club Invites Farmers To Discuss Hog Raising At Noon Luncheon.

Hogs and hog raising will be the chief topic of discussion at the regular noon luncheon of the Thief River Falls Commercial club Thursday, Nov. 16. At the meeting last week those present decided to make it an event in the interest of this industry which has not yet been given much consideration in this community.

C. H. Fuller, prominent Poland China breeder in the vicinity of Mavie, has offered to donate to the club a pig sufficiently large to feed all of those who attend the luncheon next week, and has consented to address the club on hog raising, a line in which he has proven an expert. Other hog breeders of the county will also be there to discuss the matter, everyone interested in the raising of hogs having been specially invited by the club to attend that day. A large turnout is anticipated as there is growing interest in this phase of farm production. The club is anxious that there be a good attendance, in its efforts to create increased co-operation between the business man and the farmer by promoting the interests of the producers in every way possible.

Youth Drowns While Hunting

Henry F. Gunderson, 24, son of Nels Gunderson living three miles southeast of Dugdale, was drowned in Maple Lake Thursday afternoon while hunting, with three companions. The Variety Store in the building formerly occupied by the Lieberman Brothers' clothing store recently purchased by John Morgan, will be opened Saturday this week, Nov. 10. A number of special offers will feature the opening of the new firm, which will be under the management of R. H. Dickey, until recently manager of the dry goods department of the J. C. Penney store in this city.

The building has been entirely renovated and improved, the inside having been painted up and arranged so as to make a most attractive appearance. The counters and fixtures have been arranged so as to provide for the greatest convenience possible.

A complete line of stock has been secured, including all kinds of notions, toilet articles, dry goods, hosiery, knit goods, chinaware, glass ware, stationery, aluminum, small hardware and other items which go into making a first class variety store.

He has taken an active part in the civic life of the city and will undoubtedly meet with much success in his new enterprise. Under the able management of Mr. Dickey the store is certain to be one of the most up-to-date establishments of this section and a credit to the city.

An announcement of the opening Saturday may be found on another page of this issue of The Times.

MORE ACRES OF ALFALFA FOR '24 IN PENNINGTON

This Is Indicated by Returns of Questionaires Sent to County's Farmers Last Week.

UNANIMOUS DEMAND FOR GREATER ACREAGE IN 1924

Necessary Amount of Seed of Certified Grimm Variety Will Be Procured by Committee.

That Pennington county farmers are interested in alfalfa is no more a mere supposition. It is an established fact, judging by the immediate returns of the questionaires sent out last week by the alfalfa committee, composed of representatives of the Pennington County Bankers association and the Commercial club of this city. Up to last evening, but a few days after the letters were mailed, more than 125 farmers had made replies to Secretary J. J. McCann. Practically every one is going to grow alfalfa next year and those who already have some are going to increase their acreage. It is expected that approximately 95 per cent of all the farmers who receive a questionaire will enter the ranks of alfalfa growers in this intensive campaign to make Pennington county the "home of alfalfa."

According to the reports received so far those who have returned the questionaire have intentions of growing on the average of 10 or more acres this coming year. However, there are some that call for larger acreages, one farmer stating that he wishes to secure seed for 90 acres. Peter Engelstad, who is termed the Alfalfa King of this section, and who now has 100 acres of alfalfa, will add another 25 acres to his next year's acreage. About one-third of those who have replied have a small portion of alfalfa already and only two so far have not called for an increase, indicating that those who have tried growing the crop are satisfied that it brings satisfactory results.

Members of the alfalfa committee met last Monday evening to discuss matters relative to the securing and distribution of the seed among the farmers of the county. As was stated in last week's issue of The Times, it is the intention to secure about a carload of seed for local consumption. It is expected that about one-half of the desired quantity may be procured in this and nearby counties, the idea being to get as much local seed as possible. Few Pennington growers have seed for sale this year, according to reports, on account of the fact that most of them left the second crop for seed and that did not turn out as well as under favorable conditions.

It is the aim of those promoting the campaign to get only certified seed so as to make it possible to certify all seed raised in this county. A Certified Grimm Alfalfa Seed association will most likely be organized in the interest of those who wish to market this part of the crop to the best advantage. The committee will also aid the growers in every way possible by giving information as to the growing of the crop or any other phase of its culture.

Chas. Hutcheson of the Northwest Farmstead, alfalfa expert, arrived here Monday and will spend some time in the interest of an increased acreage and the successful growing of alfalfa in this section. Last evening an alfalfa booster meeting was held at Red Lake Falls, attended by a number of members of the Thief River Falls Commercial club, who were guests of the club of that city. Mr. Hutcheson addressed the gathering regarding alfalfa growing. One object of the delegation to Red Lake Falls was to boost the Crop and Poultry show which will be held in this city next month. Much interest was reported at the meeting.

A meeting to promote the alfalfa project in Marshall county will be held in Middle River on Friday evening followed by a gathering in Roseau, Roseau county, on Saturday evening. Both of these meetings will be addressed by Mr. Hutcheson.

Work on Bridge Progressing

The concrete for the second footing on the new steel and concrete bridge across the Red Lake river was poured last week by the Minneapolis Bridge company Trunk Highway 32 over the river via the new route from Red Lake Falls to St. Hilaire. The other concrete work is going forward at a rapid rate and should be completed before freeze up this fall. The bridge will be opened next year.

Dozens Of Cameras Needed For Filming "Safety Last"

Almost every available cameraman in Los Angeles was brought to the assistance of Walter Lundin, head photographer of the Harold Lloyd staff, during the filming of the comedian's most recent production "Safety Last."

In the course of this production, Lloyd climbs twelve stories of a Los Angeles building, and it was to shoot his work from every angle that the extra camereamen were placed on the job.

Thousands of persons gathered to watch Lloyd perform what are guaranteed to be the most thrilling "stunts" ever seen on a motion picture screen.

The thrills of "High and Dizzy" and "Never Weaken" are dwarfed by the star's wonderful performance in "Safety Last." Lloyd never has appeared to better advantage. Acting, rather than stunts, put this picture over, and unquestionably will make it rate highest in the list of comedies released during 1923.

Middle River Man Given Two Months' Jail Term For Making of Moonshine

Theodore Shankey of Middle River began serving a two months' sentence in the Marshall county jail at Warren this week following a hearing before Judge Andrew Grindeland at Warren last Friday, when he pleaded guilty to manufacturing moonshine. He was sentenced to pay a $200 fine or serve an additional four months in jail. Shankey was arrested in a spectacular raid near his farm in some vacant buildings about two weeks ago by Deputy Sheriff John Bordewick in the act of cleaning up a still. His place was raided about a month ago but authorities found no liquor at that time. Deputies were appointed, however, to watch his place and reported that he was brewing in a place near his farm.

SALVATION ARMY'S DRIVE FOR FUNDS TO BEGIN MONDAY

County's Quota Is $2,000 and Solicitation Is Placed in Charge of Committee.

The annual Salvation Army Home Service drive in Pennington county is scheduled for the week of November 12 to 17 inclusive, according to announcement made this week. A minimum budget of $2,000 is needed to carry on the work of the corps in this county, with headquarters in Thief River Falls, for the coming year. Last year's quota was $2,700.

The campaign has been endorsed by the Commercial club of this city, the matter being brought before the members at the regular noon luncheon last Thursday. A committee from that organization has been appointed to sponsor the drive, namely County Attorney Theo. Quale, county campaign chairman; Albert Lonson, treasurer; G. W. Connell, W. W. Prichard, Jr., and Emil Zeh, who will have charge of canvassing the business section of the city.

The residental section of Thief River Falls will be canvassed by women, a chairman having been appointed for each ward to select solicitors to cover their respective wards. The ward chairmen are as follows: Mrs. Geo. Biddick, first ward; Mrs. O. G. Storholm, second ward; Mrs. J. M. Bishop, third ward; Mrs. F. E. Hunt, fourth ward.

W. R. Broad of Minneapolis, a state worker for the Salvation Army, is in Thief River Falls aiding in the organization work for the campaign.

Captain V. Larson, who is in charge of the local corps which serves a considerable territory adjacent to the Thief River Falls community, gives a report of a few of the many things accomplished during the year ending September 30: Outdoor meetings held, 350; attendance, 4,355; indoor meetings held, 176; attendance, 893; Sunday school meetings, 52; attendance, 490; poor families called upon, 259; poor families given relief, 57; garments given away, 353; pairs of shoes given away, 37; persons given relief, 367. A Thief River Falls girl was recently sent to the Salvation Army Rescue Home in St. Paul. Additional activities in the helping of the needy make their work of great value to the community.

It is the sick, the poor, the distressed, all those who are actual or potential charges upon the taxpayer that the Salvation Army is interested in. Two out of every three derelicts and even a greater proportion of fallen women and persons in distress who are handled by the Salvation Army make good and become worthwhile citizens. The Salvation Army is a public servant and its arms are outstretched and its institutions open to all peoples. A contribution to the Salvation Army Home Service Fund will help both the giver and the receiver.

Mrs. Keller Dies

Mrs. C. Keller, who had resided near Hazel the past ten years, died at Dalbart, Texas, Tuesday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Keller left St. Hilaire three weeks ago for Texas in the hopes that the southern climate would be better for Mrs. Keller, who was suffering from tuberculosis. Mr. and Mrs. Keller and family had been residents of this community for ten years, coming here from Pipestone to make their home on the farm southeast of Hazel. Mrs. Keller was held in high esteem by all who knew her, and she leaves a large circle of friends in this locality who will be grieved to learn of her passing.

From information received it is understood interment was made at Dalbart and that surviving members of the family may come north again soon.

Used Magazines of All Kinds May Be Secured At The Local Library

An effort is being made by the library board of Thief River Falls to distribute reading material thruout the city and surrounding community. To this end the library collects old magazines which in turn are at the disposal of any one who wishes to make use of them. A large amount of the best reading material is available, and it is urged that individuals, families, schools or organizations desiring to use them, call at the library where they may be procured in bundles. In many homes few if any magazines are found and it is in such instances that this can be made a most useful and valuable help, as well as entertaining to those who avail themselves of the opportunity.

Anyone who has old amgazines has a chance to help someone else by taking them, wrapped in bundles, to the Carnegie Library. Those who wish to get these magazines for use again are urged to call on the librarian. Country schools are especially urged to make use of this opportunity to get reading material without any cost whatsoever.

MANY PROMINENT MEN TO ADDRESS SHOW SESSIONS

Exhibitors Should Prepare Entries and Give Information to Committees in Charge.

FARM TOPICS WILL BE DISCUSSED EACH DAY

Men of Prominence in Various Positions Will Speak at Special Sessions.

Farmers of Pennington county and those who reside in southern tiers of townships in Marshall county are urged to make preparations for exhibits at the Annual Crop and Poultry show which will be staged in Thief River Falls December 4, 5, 6 and 7. This will be the seventh annual poultry show held in Pennington county, altho it is the first time that a crop division has been a part of the event. It is the intention to secure as large a display of products grown in this community as possible, and to that end numerous liberal awards will be given for the winners in the various departments. If every farmer in the county brings in a display of something, it will be easy to determine what can be raised here just by visiting the show.

The shows are to be held under the joint auspices of the Pennington County Poultry association, the Thief River Falls Commercial club and the Pennington County Farm Bureau, and all of these organizations are now actively engaged in making the necessary preparations for the big exhibitions. Committees in charge of the various departments report indications of a most successful event, as far as displays and entertainment features are concerned.

The show will be divided into four distinct days, special features being arranged for each. There will be a Poultry Day, Sugar Beet and Potato Day, Corn and Dairy Day and Alfalfa Day. Experts in these various subjects have been secured to speak at the sessions given over to these certain divisions.

Among the speakers secured for the event are Geo. C. Jewett, general manager of the American Wheat Growers association; J. H. Hay, deputy agricultural commissioner, and Dr. Prosser, president of the Dunwoody Institute of Minneapolis.

OTHER COUNTIES IN ALFALFA DRIVE

Roseau County Becomes Interested in Campaign to Increase Alfalfa Acreage.

The alfalfa bug is spreading. This fact is indicated by an article in the Greenbush Tribune last week.

"There has been a suggestion that alfalfa growing should be gone into more heavily in Roseau county and an effort will be made to induce every farmer to seed at least one acre of alfalfa. Several farmers have had good success in raising alfalfa, such as Harold Johnson, Andrew O. Anderson, Albert O. Anderson, M. B. Hershey and others. With sweet clover to inoculate the ground, there is no reason why every farmer can not grow alfalfa with profit. Alfalfa seed sells at present for 50 cents a pound, while the price of sweet clover seed is good, and more should be raised, it is good business to have different kinds of grass seeds for sale and not overdo one kind. The bankers of Pennington county are financing a scheme to get alfalfa seed for Pennington county farmers, and if the farmers of this county so desired we are sure plenty of seed would be available. It is a good thing to discuss anyway.

"Try an acre of alfalfa. More if you can do so."

A decided Increase.

Pulling teats is becoming as popular in the Greenbush community as foxtrots are in New York, says the Roseau Times-Region. The amount paid to creamery patrons during September this year is nearly double that of the same period last year.

MANY NEW MEN ARE CHOSEN IN CITY ELECTION

Arneson Becomes Mayor By Defeating N. J. Silk With Plurality of 211 Votes.

ENTIRE NEW COUNCIL EXCEPTING BRUMUND

Judge Tarrant Has Largest Majority. Paulson and Evenson Elected Alderman-at-Large.

A new mayor and all but one new alderman will take hold of the municipal reins of Thief River Falls the first of the year as the result of the city election held last Tuesday. J. S. Arneson, publisher of the Tribune, defeated Norman J. Silk, railroad engineer, for the mayoralty seat, by a plurality of 211 votes, the totals cast for each being 792 for Arneson and 581 for Silk. Mr. Arneson polled the most votes in each of the four wards. The only member of the present council who will continue his services for another period is H. A. Brumund, president of the council and alderman from the Third ward. He was elected by a vote of 142 as against 112 by his opponent Carsten Christensen.

The new men who will comprise the 1924-1925 council body are: Oscar C. Paulson and Martin V. Evenson, aldermen at large; T. A. Fossum, alderman first ward; Chris Porter, alderman second ward; and O. A. Rambeck, alderman fourth ward. There were six candidates in the field for alderman at large, of which Paulson was high man in first and fourth wards, and second to Evenson in second and third. Paulson polled a total vote of 596; Evenson, 565; F. C. Dablow, 466; J. J. Weeks, 321; Albert Halseth, 116; Hans Rustad, 109.

In the first ward T. A. Fossum led easily, defeating the present incumbent, Carl Froseth. Fossum received 207 votes; Froseth, 129 and L. D. McAdams, 55. Chris Porter, in the second ward, was given a vote of 178, the same number of votes as was cast for both his opponents in the race, John Dahl, the present incumbent, receiving 94 votes and Helmor Ostrom 82.

A close contest was experienced in the fourth ward where O. A. Rambeck won over the present council member, Andrew Ness, by a majority of only three votes. A total of 139 votes were recorded for Rambeck and 136 for Ness, while the other two in the race received only 97 votes together; O. L. Bakken 38 and Knut Melby 59.

Of all the candidates in the municipal race Judge N. W. Tarrant was accorded the highest vote, winning by a vote of 899 against a total of 460 for his two opponents. R. K. Callaway received 234 votes and Geo. M. Wilson a total of 226. Scott Laird led G. Howard Smith for special municipal judge in all the wards, getting a vote of 656 against his opponent's 450. The only unopposed candidate, Treasurer Ed. Evenson, was given practically a solid vote.

This election closed a spirited campaign, some of the candidates having been endorsed by certain factions.

The total vote of 1,399 was cast in the city this year in more than 500 below the record vote cast in the national election, and about 370 less than in the city election two years ago.

Golf Club To Open Series Of Social Events Tomorrow

At a recent meeting of the officers and directors of the Thief River Falls Golf club, arrangements were made to hold a series of combination dance and card parties at the Sons of Norway hall, the first to be held on Friday evening, Nov. 9.

Committees of ladies will be in charge of refreshments. The parties will be held the second Friday of each month.

It was decided that a charge of $5 for each member of the Golf club will be made for these entertainments, of which there will be not less than four and possibly five during the winter season.

The expense connected with these events will be in the neighborhood of $20; any amount over this will be used toward the building of a screened-in building on the Golf course with ladies' and men's retiring room of sufficient size so that dances can be held.

It was also decided that any who are not members of the Golf club, desiring to attend these parties, may do so on the payment of $5 for the season, with a definite understanding that they are to become members of the club the coming year.

The club has already secured many new members under this arrangement, and it is the desire of the club to increase their membership as materially as possible. The membership now totals 46 and many are expected to join by the opening of the next season.

A number of the older golf players, who are competent to give lessons, have promised to be of all assistance they can to new members in learning how to use the different clubs.

Local Talent Will Present "Til Saeters" At Gully Sat.

The cast of local people who presented the Norwegian comedy "Til Saeters" in Thief River Falls and Crookston this summer will appear at Gully Saturday evening, Nov. 10, under the auspices of the Gully Band. The play is under the direction of J. Borry, of Thief River Falls, and is played by the following cast: Mrs. Clara Backe of Middle River, Miss Carolyn Melby, Dr. P. L. Vistaunet, Roy Frytz, B. Dan Bjorkman, Ed. Iverson, E. P. Burstad and Dreng Bjornaraa. Mr. Borry also taking an important role. The play consists of a number of song numbers, the accompaniment for which is furnished by Mrs. O. F. Mellby. The trip will be made by auto.

To Whom It May Concern:

During the time the road west of town was being gravelled mostly farm boys were hauling, so I thought I would make the road as short as possible and I started a road across L. K. Hitterdahl's farm thru a stubble field. I am paying $150 a year cash rent for this farm which has been fully paid up to date. When they saw that we had started the road, Mr. I. E. Howick came down and put on a sign: "Keep Off, Drive Around Road." I pulled up the sign and kept on driving there. Mr. Hitterdahl has since been trying to stop us from going there.

There had been considerable trouble between us before. We had Mrs. Howick arrested last summer on a charge of assault.

By this I wish the public to know I do not owe either Howicks or Hitterdahls anything, and that I am not anxious to be in trouble with them, but that they persist in causing me trouble.

GREAT NORTHERN URGES SAFETY

Be Careful at Grade Crossings

Almost daily there is reported a very large loss of life through preventable accidents, and many people who are not killed outright are maimed and crippled in such accidents.

Carelessness in crossing railroad tracks was responsible for more of these accidents than any other one cause. They are public as well as individual misfortunes. Your turn may come next if you too are not careful. Recklessness on your part will menace those on the train as well as yourself.

There is always a train coming; it may be nearer than you think. A track ahead always means great danger.

About eighty per cent of all automobile drivers do not stop or look in either direction before crossing a railroad track; in about twenty per cent of automobile crossing accidents the automobile is run into the side of a train. No such accidents could happen if automobile and other drivers were careful at every grade crossing.

The train cannot turn out for the automobile, and must cross the highways at its usual speed in order to maintain the service that the people need and demand.

Railroad employees and railroad companies are showing praiseworthy zeal and making rapid progress in the adoption of safety precautions and the liberal use of safety appliances in shops and switching yards as well as on the line. What is being done along this line will be more fully developed in another talk.

SUGAR BEETS

More than 75 carloads of sugar beets have been shipped from Thief River Falls and about 160 carloads from Pennington county to the refinery at Mason City, Iowa, an average of about six each day since shipping operations began. A total of 315 carloads have been shipped from the entire Thief River Falls Territory. The beets are of the finest quality and are bringing the top price.

When early in the spring three years ago it was suggested that a number of farmers put in a small plot as an experiment, there were those who scoffed at the idea, referring to it as another fad which would amount to nothing in the end and in the meantime take attention away from really important matters. As often happens the scoffers have been proven wrong.

There are farmers who do not hesitate to say that they are making more actual money on their beet crop than on anything else produced on the farm this year. The only crop which has exceeded beets in returns is, in some instances, alfalfa. Beets to the estimated value of approximately $160 were taken from one acre near Thief River Falls and this will leave a very tidy balance when the expenses are paid. In very few instances has the crop proved a disappointment and every man who tried the crop this year has already contracted or is ready to contract for a larger acreage next year. According to present indications this year's acreage of 600 acres will be doubled in 1924. Applications for 1200 acres by Pennington county farmers have already been received says County Agent J. J. McCann. Those who experienced poor yields in most cases had fields infested with weeds or not properly taken care of.

It is not known at this time what acreage can be taken care of next year by the sugar company but it is practically certain that as much as can be arranged for will be signed up.

Trained laborers can be had who will take care of the crop at a total cost of $22 per acre and seed will be furnished at $2.25 per acre. This insures a low production cost as compared with other crops, with the further advantage that it is not collected until the beets are harvested. No spraying or treating for insects is necessary and the beets stand either drought or wet weather better than any other crop that can be planted.

There is a great future for sugar beets in this section and those who go about its cultivation intelligently and with the intention of following it up will be amply repaid. The sugar beet has come to Pennington county to stay.

WILL OBSERVE ARMISTICE DAY.

Minnesota's 500 Legion posts and 400 Legion Auxiliary units, now laying plans for the appropriate observance of Armistice Day as a day of thanksgiving and rejoicing, urge all the people of Minnesota to enter the spirit of this great occasion and help make it one of America's most important historical landmarks. In co-operation with a proclamation to be issued by the governor, Armistice Day will be celebrated on Monday, November 12, this year.

POTATO CAMPAIGN.

The Renville County Journal says: "... organized wheat growers are not getting satisfactory prices in proportion to production costs, so too, is the potato growers of Minnesota meeting with similar fate. This year's production of potatoes is meeting with a repitition of last year's ruinously low prices. The gloom that prevails in the producing sections of Minnesota is great for many of the potato farmers will not receive enough money from the sale of their entire crop to pay expenses of farm operation, taxes and the buying of the necessities of life for their families. The indications are that on many of the potato farms it will not pay to dig the potatoes and haul them to market. The consequence is likely to result in leaving many acres of this crop under and to rot in the fields."

That is just the condition that this new movement to sign up the potato acreage in the state cooperative marketing organization aims to remedy.

The growers of Pennington county got into line without delay, this county being the fourth in the state to sign-up the necessary quota. Not only was the quota secured but the committee which has charge of the campaign reports that the contracts signed up so far total 150 per cent of last year's acreage and it is expected that 200 per cent will be reached before the drive is completed.

Much credit and commendation is due to business men of Thief River Falls and St. Hilaire, Goodridge, Hazel and Mavie as well, who took such an active part in getting the movement launched in this county. They helped put Pennington across in an effort to aid the growers of this community in getting a better price assured for their potatoes.

Land in southern Minnesota is beginning to move and an increase in value is also noticeable. This is a hopeful sign for a resumption of activities in Northern Minnesota where the soil is equally as productive and two or three hundred per cent cheaper. Herald-Review, Grand Rapids.

Court Reporter Braggans Becomes Marshall County Attorney After Naeseth

W. O. Braggans, court reporter for Judge Andrew Grindeland for the past 20 years, is now county attorney of Marshall county, succeeding John R. Naeseth, who died Thursday, Oct. 27, following a brief illness. He took his oath of office after the county commissioners had elected him following a two-day deadlock in which several other Marshall county attorneys were leading. Mr. Braggans finally received four out of the five commissioners' votes. Others in the race were A. Eckstrom of Warren, A. E. Brekke of Argyle, E. M. Evans of Spruce Grove and H. O. Berve of Germantown.

Editor Times:

The past few years have seen a mania sweep over the country to have market prices controlled and fixed by law. To secure this end, we see the tragic paradox down in Congress, where questions are supposed to be settled and laws formulated on the basis of the frank open discussions, for the welfare of the people,— of having these questions settled and laws made by the crude, medieval method of congressional blocs.

This means laws made by a test of numbers rather than a test of brains, arguments and merits of the case.

Not to be outdone by other interests, the American farmer has listened to the call of the demagogue, and when, through purely economic conditions, the bottom dropped out of the farm products prices, the farmer demanded that market prices be fixed by law. He demanded two dollar wheat, one dollar corn, twelve dollar hogs, ten dollar cattle and so on down the list forgetting that in the long run, year in and year out, the one law the controls price and which cannot be changed by artificial stimulant, is the fundamental law of supply and demand.

If it be true, as our secretary of agriculture figures it, that the farmer's dollar is only worth some two-thirds of its pre-war value, how then can the farmer continue to produce crops and sell them at a profit, in the face of the low prices and high costs. In other words, the farmer's solution is precisely the same as a merchant's solution of his selling costs, or the factory production.

Not very long ago the newspapers were full of the startling news about the opening of the tomb of King Tut, an ancient Pharaoh of Egypt, who ruled over the Egyptians about the time of Moses. Among the many carvings on this tomb is one representing agriculture.

The illustration is of a man sowing grain broadcast and another harvesting the grain with the ancient hand-sickle, as was the custom in those days, nearly four thousand years ago. Two thousand years ago, a Nazarene teacher on the shores of Galilee, instructed his people by parable, told the story, familiar to you, which starts with the words: "Behold, a Sower Went Forth to Sow," using the illustration best known to his people, namely, a farmer scattering seed broadcast, as was the custom in agriculture two thousand years ago. From the primitive application of human power, in the form of slaves, to the slow and tedious application of ox-power; from ox power to the quicker power of horse-power; from horse-power to the unlimited application of mechinal power, in the form of tractors, motors, etc., these are the stages by which mankind has sought to ease his his burden. It is the old, old struggle—as old as man himself; It is the struggle of brain against brawn, of machinery against flesh and blood, of mind over matter.

Farming has always been a gamble, the biggest gamble in the world is the average farmer. Why? Because the farmer is obliged, from the nature of his work, to stake his all—his time, money and experience—in one bunch, to win or to lose, in a fight with nature. Old Dame Nature is a hard mistress. She lays down certain definite iron-clad rules against which mankind is practically helpless. Then, not content, she reserves the right to manipulate those rules to suit her own wishes. Nature lays down the limits. Not content with establishing those limits, nature reserves the right to retard growth and maturity of the crops, with cold weather, too much or too little rain, dry spells, excessive heat, rust and frosts. There is no appeal from Nature's decisions in these matters. That decision is irrevocable, and that is why farming has always been a gamble, with the cards stacked and the dice loaded against the tiller of the soil. In a vain endeavor to induce prices of farm staples to go higher such organizations as the United Grain Growers, Inc., and American Wheat Growers Association started with an improved "bubble" and are ready to blow up. No association on earth can "make" wheat prices go up, unless they control the output of every wheat district in the world, but such a thing is impossible. A solicitor of members for the last named association made a trip out of Thief River Falls not long ago to try and get members to join but failed to obtain a single member. Canada and Argentina have enough wheat to feed the United States, England, France, Germany plus themselves, so it is easy to see that trying to fix the price will be a folly.

If any person in Thief River Falls or any town in the northwest doubts my statement, all the said person has to do is to ask any average farmer if he will pay the $10.00 membership to the American Wheat Growers Association. I am very sure that not even one farmer out of ten will fork over the 10 "bucks." Her Majesty Nature is one mistress that none of us common humans will argue with. Her dictation in supply and demand take it or leave it. Otherwise the only way to set the price is to holdup the Chicago Board of Trade and the powerful Liverpool market. To holdup them will be like holding up the Congress and making the senators set the price, its as impossible as possible.

Yours very truly,
ORTON OLSON.

LOW EARNINGS OF THE WESTERN RAILROADS

The Interstate Commerce Commission made the following statements in its Report of October 11th, 1923, in the case which was brought to secure lower freight rates on grain, grain products and hay. The words enclosed thus() are inserted by us:

> "The (fair) rate of return as fixed by us is shown as 5.75 per cent, and the 1922 return of carriers in the Western Group averages less than 4 per cent. For the first four months of 1923, the average was about 4.1 per cent (on a yearly basis). (Later figures show that for the first eight months ending August 31st, 1923, the earnings of the Western Railroads were at the rate of 4¼ per cent per year.)"
> "Carriers in the Western Group have been and are now earning considerably less than the prescribed return, and apparently less than the fair return to which they are entitled under their constitutional rights entirely independent of Section 15 a (Transportation Act, 1920)."
> "Seemingly, from the record, it is improbable that a reduction in the present rates on the commodities in issue would so increase the movement of these commodities as to enable the carriers to make up to any appreciable extent the loss in revenue should a general reduction in these rates be ordered."
> "Of prime importance to the agricultural industry and to the country in general, is an adequate and efficient transportation service. The extent to which a marked rate reduction would disable the carriers generally or particular carriers in the performance of this service is of great consequence."

The above statements by the Interstate Commerce Commission show that the present earnings of the grain carrying railroads of the West are low, and that these roads are not prospering at the expense of the farmer.

Here are the New Remington Game Loads

THE next time you go out hunting, stop at your dealer's and ask him for a box of Remington Game Loads for the particular kind of game you are after.

The name of the game is right on the box.

You'll note that the weight of the powder is not marked on the box.

It isn't shown because Remington Game Loads are not loaded to specified weight.

The box of shells you get is loaded to give a uniform velocity, pattern and penetration.

Remington tests showed that powder varies batch by batch—even the same kind and weight. A given weight of the same kind of powder doesn't always give the same results. So in Game Loads Remington adjusts the amount of powder to give exactly the right shooting quality for the specific game. Powder varies—Remington Game Loads do not.

Take just one box of Remington Game Loads out and use them. Notice how they shoot in your gun.

And remember this: If you go back to the store next week or next month—or go to any store in a different town—and get another box of the same kind of Remington Game Load, the shells will perform exactly the same.

The football season for this year is about over. Possibly it has not been as successful as we all wanted it to be but it can scarcely be called a failure. It is true that we have lost every game of the season and that only two touchdowns have been made but there is more to football than the mere score. The fifteen or twenty boys who compose the first and second teams started out the season practically ignorant of the rudiments of the game and with little or no previous experience. They have now learned how to play real football and have gained a great deal of knowledge from practical experience. Many of these same boys who were new and green this year will be here next year and with this season's training back of them will be able to show their real worth.

One thing they have learned is of the utmost value is how to be good losers. Instead of laying down on the job and playing worse after each defeat, they have grown better and better until now they have developed a real team that we might well be proud of.

No one should belittle the team because of its defeats but should congratulate it for the spirit it has displayed throughout the entire season.

Simley Chosen as Delegate

At the convention of the Minnesota Education Association held in St. Paul last week, Supt. I. T. Simley was elected as a delegate from the Northwest District to the annual convention of the National Education Association. This convention will be held in St. Paul some time during July, 1924.

Miss Johnson Honored

Miss Maude L. Johnson, music supervisor in the Thief River Falls schools, was elected president of the Music Section of the Minnesota Educational association at its convention held in St. Paul on Nov. 1 and 2. This is a distinct honor and the "Progress" wishes to congratulate Miss Johnson on her election to this office.

PARENT-TEACHERS HOLD SUCCESSFUL MEETING ON MONDAY

Large Number of Parents Attend Second Meeting of P.-T. Association at Central.

Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock the second Parent-Teachers' meeting was held in the Central School.

The first part of the evening was taken up by the parents visiting the classes of the seventh and eighth grades. The pupils came to school in the evening and carried on the regular class work for three twenty-minute periods. The work was very interesting and instructive, and the pupils showed much enthusiasm in their recitations. The Central School system demonstrated the results of good organization and splendid teaching.

At 9:00, after the dismissal of the pupils, the regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers association was held in the school auditorium. The room was filled and a great many people were forced to stand during the program furnished by the teachers. Miss Maude L. Johnson had charge of the music and the program consisted of:

Piano solo, Lucille Hermanson.
Violin solo, Henry Arneson.
"What High School Teachers Expect of Parents," Principal Bye.
Vocal duet, Isabel Richter and Liv Vistaunet, accompanied by Miss Doris Richter.
"Value of Athletics," Coach Leonard Thune.

A light lunch was served immediately after the conclusion of the program.

The next meeting of the Parent-Teachers association will take place the first Monday in December at the Lincoln high school. At that time, the election of officers for the organization will be held.

Annual M. E. A. Convention Held in St. Paul Nov. 1-2

The Minnesota Educational Association convention which was held last week at St. Paul was very well attended, all previous attendance records being broken. Over ten thousand registered. There were general sessions held in the main auditorium while the meetings of the various departments were held in the different club houses.

Mr. Vaughn, Supt. of Schools at Chisholm, was elected chairman of the association, while Miss Maude Johnson, our music instructor, was elected president of the music department.

Some of the most prominent speakers on the program were Dr. Frank, editor of the "Century Magazine," who spoke at one of the general sessions to a capacity house; E. H. Lindley, Chancellor, University of Kansas; Sarah Carney, Teachers College, Columbia University; and Charles Swain Thomas of Harvard University.

On Thursday a special entertainment was given by the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra and Friday noon a special organ recital was given by Hugo Goodwin, municipal organist of St. Paul. Those who attended were very fortunate to have the opportunity to be present at these high class entertainments.

CROOKSTON AGGIES DEFEAT LOCALS 9-6

Lincolnites Make Second Touchdown of This Season But Are Defeated by a Drop-Kick.

Last Saturday the Lincoln High School football team was defeated by the Crookston Agricultural School by a score of 9 to 6. The game was slow for the first three quarters, until in the fourth when the Lincolnites opened up a forward passing game and made their touchdown. The locals outplayed the A.C.'s during the greater part of the game.

First Quarter

A. C. kicked off and Sether returned 8 yards. A pass to Penney was incompleted. 3 yards lost on a line buck. No gain on the next play, so Zeh punted. A. C. penalized for roughness. They made no gains on two line plunges. A. C. completed a pass, but was forced to punt. The ball was put in play on the local's 25 yard line. Thief River then began a series of end runs that brought them to within 10 yards of the goal. A pass was intercepted by the A. C. which cost the locals a touchdown. A. C. was penalized 15 yards for roughness. The Agriculturalists gained slightly on line plunges. First quarter ended with no scoring.

Second Quarter

C. got the ball, but again failed to make downs and the Lincolnites got the ball. Thief River made first down, but was forced to punt. The ball was returned 20 yards. Aggies failed to make their 10 yards and tried a drop kick from the 25 yard line. The kick was successful, making the score 9 to 0. A. C. kicked off and Sether returned 20 yards. Pass was incompleted, and then a pass to Langevin was completed. Another pass was incomplete. Lincolnites gained 7 yards by shaving tackle. Red Lake Falls Comments On Local Football Game

Thief River Falls High School has always entertained a friendly feeling towards the Red Lake Falls high school and has prided itself on the neighborly relationship that has existed between the two schools. It is a great surprise, therefore, to find the following article in "Lafayette Life," the high school paper at Red Lake Falls:

"Saturday afternoon East Grand Forks played football at Thief River Falls. Those from Red Lake Falls that attended the game were George and Leo Marchildon, Lloyd Blair, Clifford Higinbotham, Theophile Baril, Pel Parchinsky, Telly Keifenheim, Arthur Baril, Emil Christopherson, Nap Charbonneault and Leo Champeau. They all report a dandy game but the most fun of all was the way they got Thief River's goat. They, our boys, rooted for East Grand Forks and they say, drowned out Thief River Falls rooters. The score was 20 to 7 in favor of East Grand Forks.

But the only reason Thief River made 7 was because East Grand Forks was penalized two feet from the goal and it took Thief River four downs to make the touch-down then.

Thief River was evidently not very much stuck on our boys while they rooted for East Grand Forks as they tried to chase them off of the field. But they stuck and we'll say that part of the reason that East Grand Forks won was because our boys cheered for them."

PROF. I. M. COCHRAN WILL SPEAK FRIDAY

Noted Carleton Professor Will Give "The Man of the Hour" At School Friday Eve.

On Friday evening, Nov. 9, the people of Thief River Falls will have an opportunity to hear Prof. I. M. Cochran give an interesting interpretation of "The Man of the Hour," a play by George Broadhurst.

Prof. Cochran, as head of the public speaking department at Carleton college, ranks high among lecturers and entertainers. He is especially adapt at interpreting characters of every sort; their voices, expressions, and even their personalities.

"The Man of the Hour" has awakened universal interest by its unusual plot and development. It is a story which deals with political corruption, graft and bribery, and is highly dramatic and humorous.

Following are excerpts from different papers, which give a slight idea of Prof. Cochran's ability and popularity.

Northfield Independent says: "Few perhaps, of the Northfield public were aware of the full powers of Prof. I. M. Cochran as a public reader, before they heard him in "The Man of the Hour" Thursday evening last week at the Congregational Church. Seldom has a public reader in this city held the attention of his hearers in so undivided a fashion as did Mr. Cochran on this occasion. At all stages he had complete mastery of the various parts that he assumed, and swayed his audience to every phase of emotion that the drama called forth.

"Mr. Cochran's method of reading is refreshing in its complete truthfulness to life and its absence of exaggeration in portraying the various emotions. Varying moods and passions were brought out strongly, not in a manner that indicated effort on the part of the reader, but rather by reserve force that compelled attention on the part of the listener."

And the Auburn, Indiana Courier: "The largest crowd ever seen at the church at Moores was gathered there on the occasion of the annual commencement exercises of the Wilimgton schools and hundreds were turned away, unable to gain admission. Prof. I. M. Cochran delivered an able and eloquent address to the class and was given close attention by the vast audience. His subject was "Your True Ideal," and the address was one of great beauty and power, witty, and yet replete with good thoughts. It was one of the best ever heard in this country."

This reading will commence promptly at 8:00 p. m., as Prof. Cochran has to leave early on the train. The admission is a nominal one, 35c and 20c. As stated before, the proceeds of this entertainment will be given to the athletic fund.

WARREN ELEVEN TO PLAY HERE NOV. 12

Extra Game Has Been Scheduled For Armistice Day and Will Close Season.

The regular line-up of Coach Thune's eleven will again be in action on November 12 at the fair-grounds, when the Lincolnites meet the Warren team.

It was planned to have a game with the Alumni on Monday for the wind-up of the football season, but due to the fine showing made by the local team last Saturday it was decided to have another game and arrangements were made to play Warren on the date stated above.

Undoubtedly, this will be the most exciting game Thief River has played this year. Warren has made a creditable showing in every game they have played this fall, and they are coming to Thief River Falls with the intention of winning another victory. Lincoln has been unfortunate in having such a light team, but never in the history of Lincoln High School, have the boys lived up to the rules as well as this season. As a result, Thief River Falls has one of the cleanest teams in the state; they have achieved through the hard fighting, swiftness and accuracy in playing, and they are still set on winning at least one game.

Spirited Pep Meeting Held Friday Afternoon

Last Friday's assembly was the last pep meeting of the football season, and the response of the students to the speeches and yells showed that this, as well as the previous pep meetings, had fully accomplished its purpose.

Superintendent Simley gave a very interesting speech in which he mentioned the true sportsmanship displayed by the football boys in spite of their repeated defeats. Six snappy speeches by members of the football team, Capt. Math Barzen, Donald McCrum, Arthur Penney, Allan Sorenson, Michael Parenteau, and John Sether, followed and all received hearty applause. Katherine Barzen and Melvin Engelstad, cheer leaders, then led the student body through the last rousing pep-meeting yells of the football season.

Member Biological Society

Lester Guss, science instructor at the local high school, is among the charter members of an honorary biological society by the name of Phylon at the University of Minnesota, recently organized. Mr. Guss is a graduate of the North Dakota institution.

The organization was formed for the purpose of stimulating popular interest in the biological sciences, of promoting research in botany, zoology and allied sciences, and of fostering and promoting fraternal spirit among its members.
